

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNESBORO.

Thursday, December 1, 1870.

PREVALENT.—Bad colds and coughs.

Hagerstown and Lancaster Almanacs can be had at Reid's.

PRIVATE SALE.—See advt. of Matthew Metcalf.

The chap with the "big feet," at last accounts, was in search of "winter quarters."

Prize Smoking Tobacco at Reid's, each 10 cent package containing a sum of money.

Work for the present has been suspended upon the new Reformed Church in this place.

Rumors of an extension of the "tape-worm," or Gettysburg Railroad, are now in circulation.

"MILT," of the Mercersburg Journal is perhaps the luckiest printer in the county. His last issue boasts a fat turkey as a present.

The grain fields in this section are charmingly dressed in green, presenting an appearance more than ordinarily promising.

Dr. Brainbolts is inserting teeth so cheap that no one used impair their health by doing without.

B. F. Lushbaugh, formerly of Hagerstown, died suddenly at Omaha, Neb., on Tuesday a week, of apoplexy or heart disease.

An eclipse of the moon is announced to come off just after the holidays, January 6th. Get your smoked "tin" ready.

Our newly married friends look as happy as clams. They ought to—otherwise matrimony is a failure.

SECOND SUPPLIES.—Messrs. Ambersson, Benedict & Co., and Messrs. Price & Heflich have received second supplies of now fall and winter goods.

Done.—Our farmers have completed the labors of husking and cribbing corn. The crop generally yielded better than what was anticipated.

STOP IT.—Boys should not be permitted to play ball upon the streets. Would it not be well for the High Constable to interpose for at least an abatement of this nuisance?

We notice that Gordon of the "Waynesboro' Brewery" has added to the front of his handsome buildings a row of young horse-chestnut trees.

The M. E. Sewing Society will meet at the residence of Rev. H. Stonehouse this (Thursday) evening, at which time an election for officers of the Society will be held.

Persons having badly decayed teeth can have their appearance greatly improved by calling on Dr. Brainbolts and having new ones inserted.

OYSTERS.—We are under obligations to our neighbor Reid for a Thanksgiving treat of Oysters, the finest yet brought to town. Another supply, direct from Baltimore, just received.

COMING.—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that Dickson & Zucher's Novelty Silver Gift Show will exhibit in this place on Monday evening next. It is said to be a complete affair.

THANKSGIVING.—Thanksgiving Day was observed as usual in our town by a general suspension of business. At the Union meeting held in the M. E. Church in the morning a discourse appropriate to the occasion was delivered by Rev. H. H. W. Hibshman of the Reformed Church.

The Buckeye and Wilson Improved are the only first class low priced Sewing Machines in market. They are the simplest and most easily managed, durable as steel and iron can make them, and warranted for three years. A. E. Waynant, agent.

SOLD.—Mr. Israel Hess has sold his house and lot of ground at the East end of Main street for the sum of $1600. Purchaser, Mr. Geo. Hawker.

The cottage building on Church street, owned by Rev. J. F. Oller, was also sold at private sale a few days since, for the sum of $3,000. Purchaser, Mr. David M. Good, of Leistersburg, Md.

THE WEATHER.—Since the recent fall of snow the weather has been of a remarkably mild temperature. So much so that doors and windows are kept open and insects are daily seen floating in the atmosphere. Some who profess to be "booked up" upon the almanac and weather signs generally, give it as their opinion that the present is the season of "Indian Summer."

HOWE SEWING MACHINE.—Of all Sewing Machines the Howe proves one of the best. Will do the heaviest and lightest work better than any other machine. In purchasing persons should not look to the cheapness of the article, for such machines are generally the dearest in the end. This is the experience of numbers who have invested in cheap machines. Orders for the Howe are taken by Jacob Rininger, agent.

On Saturday evening last a German named John Frederick Henry Westhof, of Baltimore, placed himself along side the track of the Cumberland Valley Railroad, about 3 miles from Chambersburg, and was struck by the passing train and instantly killed.

HARRISBURG TELEGRAPH.—As the Legislators of our State will shortly convene we would again remind those who would be "booked up" upon the doings of that body, of the importance of subscribing for the Harrisburg Daily Telegraph. The Telegraph is one of our most ably conducted State journals, and not only keeps its readers posted upon Legislative proceedings, State and National, but upon all topics of general interest. The daily is furnished to subscribers at $6 per annum; six months for $3, and only $1.50 during the session of the Legislature. Address Geo. BERONER, Esq., Harrisburg, Pa.

PERSONAL.—Mr. David Patterson, of Waynesboro, Franklin county, has bought the old Strong steam mill at Pittston of Thomas Waddell, Esq., for $2,000; and will move back to Luzerne again. Mr. Patterson left Soranton about two years ago, after a long residence here, during which he stood high as a business man and a citizen. We are happy to welcome him back.—Republican.

Mr. Patterson has purchased the property as above stated, but his family will remain on his homestead in this vicinity, his sons continuing the milling business as usual. He expects to visit his home here at least once or twice a month, and will thus have supervision of business at both points.

DECEASED.—Mr. Isaac Snively, son of Benjamin Snively, Esq., died at the residence of his father, near this place, on Tuesday, 22d inst., in the 29th year of his age.—Mr. Snively had been in ill health for several years past, and about a year ago he visited Europe for the purpose of regaining it, which he did to some extent, but a few months since he again began to decline, and secured the services of the best medical skill in the country, but all of no avail. He was connected with the management of the Adams Express Company in Pittsburg, and was looked up to by all under his charge with reverence and respect. A courteous, genial, honorable and intelligent gentleman, none knew but to love him, none spoke put in his praise.—Valley Echo.

GO SEE.—We had occasion last week to say to the ladies that they had a chance to purchase furs at lower prices than they would probably ever have again. We again repeat the assertion and say go see the stock at Updegraff's Hat, Glove & Fur Factory, Hagerstown, Md., where the most skeptical will be convinced. Gentlemen should also see their stock of Wolf Robes, Buffalo Robes, Fancy Spreeds, Sleigh, Buggy and Horse Blankets, Winter Caps, Fur Collars, Gloves, Shirts, Collars, Drawers, Stockings, &c. &c. Their Fur and Glove factory is trimming out some nice work in the fur line, and Gloves that for neatness, comfort and durability cannot be excelled. Go See.

TOO SHARP.—A requisition was procured for Daniel Nisewander who has recently been residing in Dayton, Rockingham county, Virginia. He was charged with stealing two horses in July last, from Mr. Samuel Shurtle, of Montgomery township. Nisewander was, some years ago, a resident of Antrim township. He is a prosaicher and full of professions of piety. At this time he holds a commission as Magistrate of the Dayton district. He has been confined in jail in Harrisburg for some weeks, but the requisition was never obtained until last week. Officer Houser went to Harrisburg with it, but found that Nisewander had been discharged on Monday the 21st inst., on a writ of habeas corpus, and had immediately 'made himself scarce' in the neighborhood. It is hard to tell where he will drop down next to practice his knavery, but justice will overtake him some day.—V. Spirit.

FURNITURE, &c.—We direct special attention to the advertisements of Mr. I. H. Whitmore, the model furniture and carpet dealer of Greencastle, to be found in this issue. In the furniture line his stock surpasses any other in the county. Persons in this region wanting either furniture or carpeting will do well to visit his extensive establishment, see his styles and learn his prices.

Business of all kinds in our town is very dull at present and money exceedingly scarce, very little apparently being in circulation. This state of affairs usually prevails a few weeks previous to the Holidays, after which things brighten up and money becomes more plentiful.

ACQUITTED.—Dr. John W. Bechtel, on trial at Harrisburg, for the murder of Lilly Mason, was acquitted by the jury, but re-arrested and committed to prison on the charge of having committed an abortion. On Monday morning he was liberated on $1000 bail.

The saying that 'The Dutch have taken Holland,' gives way now to the new one that the 'Italians have taken Rome.'

A plentiful supply of water has been reached in the Artesian Well at the Sash Factory, Hagerstown, Md., at a depth of 260 feet.

Rev. Daniel Gaus, D. D., of Norris-town, Pa., has accepted a call from the Third Reformed Church of Baltimore city.

By order of the Pope, all churches will be closed during King Victor Emanuel's presence in the City of Rome.

The Northern Transportation Company, of New York has suspended payment, with liabilities at over $400,000.

Congress will assemble at Washington next week.

COMING.—Jacob Koehendarfer of Bedford county, will be at the Bowden House, in this place, on Thursday the 1st day of December next, with a lot of fine horses. Mr. K. is a fair dealer and is well known as such in this region. Farmers or others in want of horses should not fail to be about.

Young men desiring a practical business training will find DUFF'S MERCANTILE COLLEGE the oldest, the most reliable, and permanent institution of the kind in the United States. Circulars can be had by addressing the principals—P. Duff & Sons, Pittsburgh, Penn'a.

THE WAR.—Saturday and Sunday were probably the days of the most severe fighting in France since the battles of Sedan and around Metz. All along the front of the opposing armies, north of the Loire and south of Paris, extending from Montargis on the east of Dreux on the west, a distance of one hundred miles, there was a contest between the armies of Prince Frederick Chas. and Gen. De Palladines. The first despatches from Tours state that in the general engagement the French were victorious at every point, and that the Germans were routed and retreating. A subsequent despatch from London says that on Sunday the Tenth Prussian and Twentieth French Corps fought a battle a few miles north of Orleans, in which the French were defeated and driven from their entrenchments. In the battle a French General was taken prisoner by the enemy. In the north of France a battle occurred near Amiens, eighty miles north of Paris, which the first despatches from Tours concede to have been a German victory.—Lester despatches from London contradict this; and report that the French completely defeated the Germans, inflicting severe losses. In the southeast of France Garibaldi's army was attacked on Saturday on the eastern side of the Vosges Mountains a short distance from Dijon, and badly whipped. One despatch reports that an attempt had been made to assassinate King William, and following this is another that 'there is no truth in the report that an attempt has been made on the life of King William.' A dangerous conspiracy has been discovered, the affair is kept quiet, no particulars have transpired, etc. etc. Later despatches announce the occupation of Amiens by the Germans, but no particulars of the battles around the city are given. A movement is being made upon Tours from different points.

Some of the late rebels of the South are raising the objection against the negroes there that they are ignorant and but few of them own property. Under the circumstances this objection is peculiarly mean.—It is well known that the slave-holders appropriated to themselves the proceeds of the labor of the negroes, and that they passed laws making it a criminal offence to teach a negro to read. This objection is about as fair as if to 'knock a man down, and then kick him for falling.'

A Washington despatch says that the work of consolidating the internal revenue districts throughout the country has thus far resulted in dispensing with over four hundred Assistant Assessors, and it is thought that at least two hundred more will be dismissed by the close of the year.

The Lutheran Synod of Northern Indiana has elected, as a life director of its missionary society, King William of Prussia.

COUGHS, BRONCHITIS, &c.—Use Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer. Sold by F. Forthman.

Many of our readers will remember an individual named Charles Brown who resided till the time of his death, in the 5th district, somewhere near Federalburg. This man was a very wicked old gentleman, from what we can gather of his past history, and prejudice against the colored race rankled deep within his breast. On one occasion, sometime last spring, he was heard to declare the wish that 'he might be dead and in hell when the d-d niggers voted.'—Time wore on, the XVth Amendment was officially promulgated as a part of the land, and the colored man was given the right of the ballot. Election day drew near, and on that very morning, just before the dawn of day, the spirit fled from Charles Brown's humble tenement of clay, to receive that portion which, in his heart of hearts, he had asked to be meted out to him.

We leave the moral of this only too true story to be deduced by our readers.—Denton (Md.) Union.

THE SINGER'S SEWING MACHINE PATENT.—One of the Singer sewing machine patents expires next Friday, and the refusal to extend it is officially announced to-day.—The Commissioner of Patents states, however, that the refusal does not throw the right to make the Singer sewing machines open to the public, as there are a number of other patents having several years yet to run, which protect the Singer Manufacturing Company in the exclusive right to manufacture their machines. Several of the existing patents do not expire until 1877, and one of them, the Commissioner states, covers substantially the same points as the one that expires next Friday.—From the New York Times of Nov. 3.

HEADACHE, NEURALGIA AND NERVOUS DISORDERS.—The wonderful effects of Dr. J. Briggs' Alleviator, for the speedy cure of the above very prevalent and painful afflictions, is known to many thousands who have used it with the most unqualified success. One trial will convince the most skeptical.—Sold by all druggists, each bottle making two quarts when diluted for use. Sold by F. Forthman.

CORNS, BUNIONS, BAD NAILS, CALLOSITIES, &c.—It is an astonishing fact that nine out of every ten persons we meet are sorely troubled with their feet: Very few are exempt. Dr. J. Briggs' popular remedies—Curative and Alleviator—are reliable and certain in their effects. The curative for sore and tender corns, bunions, bad nails, &c., is a soothing balm for wounded feet, and rapidly cures the worst cases. Alleviator, for the cure of common corns and bunions and the prevention of all corns is a puzzle to scientific minds. Sold by F. Forthman.
