

VILLAGE RECORD.

WAYNESBORO.

Thursday, December 15, 1870.

President's Message.—Below will be found our promised synopsis of the President's Message, which we clip from the Baltimore American.

After returning thanks for the blessings of peace and prosperity which have prevailed throughout the year, the President says that whilst harmony has been restored, in some of the late rebellious States, in exceptional cases, the verdict of the people has been reversed by violence and intimidation.

With the restoration of Georgia to representation in Congress, which may be expected very soon, the work of reconstruction will be complete, and the President thinks, with an acquiescence of the whole people in the obligation to pay promptly the national debt, and to recognize the amendments to the constitution, there is no reason why we should not advance in national prosperity and happiness as no other nation has done after a devastating war.

The course of Minister Washburne at Paris in affording protection to foreigners, and his recognition of the Republic of France, are acknowledged as having been done under the direction of the President, and Mr. Washburne is highly recommended for the able manner in which he obeyed his instructions.

The new Government of France having applied to our Government to use its good offices in the interest of peace, the President answered that the established policy and the true interests of the United States forbade all interference in European questions jointly with European powers. Should the time, however, come when the action of the United States can hasten the return of peace by a single hour, that action will be heartily taken.

But little is said in the Message about Cuba, except that reparation for damage to the persons or property of American citizens has been made by Spain.

The annexation or purchase of San Domingo is again pressed on the attention of Congress, and the opinion expressed that it will fall into European hands so soon as it is ascertained that the purchase has been abandoned by the United States. San Domingo now has a population of 120,000 souls, and the President says it is capable of supporting 10,000,000 of people in luxury.

The Harrisburg Telegraph says the impression is gaining ground daily that Mr. Boyer and the members of his family, who were burned by the late calamity near Markleville were stupefied, by chloroform and robbed before the fire, and that the building was fired to render the discovery of the crime an almost impossibility. Mr. Boyer was known to have had considerable money at the time. The most startling part of the dark affair is the current rumor that suspicion points to the surviving member of the family as the guilty one.

Go See.—We had occasion last week to say to the ladies that they had a chance to purchase furs at lower prices than they would probably ever have again. We again repeat the assertion and say go see the stock at Updegraff's Hat, Glove & Fur Factory, Hagerstown, Md., where the most skeptical will be convinced. Gentlemen should also go see their stock of Wolf Robes, Buffalo Robes, Fancy Spreads, Sleigh, Buggy and Horse Blankets, Winter Caps, Fur Collars, Gloves, Shirts, Collars, Drawers, Stockings, &c., &c. Their Fur and Glove Factory is trimming outcome nice work in the Fur line, and Gloves that for neatness, comfort and durability cannot be excelled. Go see.

P. T. Barnum, after four years of diligent searching after curiosities, is about to establish a colossal museum, menagerie and circus, with which he proposes traveling through the country.

The bars of the York county Almshouse was totally consumed by fire on Sunday morning a week together with nineteen head of cattle, three mules, one horse, and all the produce of the 600 acre farm. The loss is about $30,000.

Rev. Christopher L. Pindar, a priest of the Church of Rome, was recently admitted to the ministry of the Protestant Episcopal Church at Cleveland, Ohio.

On Saturday last in Philadelphia, sentence of death was pronounced by Judge Ludlow on John Hanlon, convicted of the murder of the child Mary Mohrman.

HEADACHE, NEURALGIA AND NERVOUS DISORDERS.—The wonderful effects of Dr. J. Briggs' Alleviator, for the speedy cure of the above very prevalent and painful affections, is known to many thousands who have used it with the most unqualified success. In every case of the complaints above enumerated it has never failed to give immediate relief. Its effect is magical beyond precedent. One trial will convince the most skeptical.—Sold by all druggists, each bottle making two quarts when diluted for use. Sold by F. Forthman.

CORNS, BUNIONS, BAD NAILS, CALLOSITIES, &c.—It is an astonishing fact that nine out of every ten persons we meet are sorely troubled with their feet. Very few are exempt. Dr. J. Briggs' popular remedies—Curative and Alleviator—are reliable and certain in their effects. The curative for sore and tender corns, bunions, bad nails, &c., is a soothing balm for wounded feet, and rapidly cures the worst cases. Alleviator, for the cure of common corns and bunions, and the prevention of all corns, is a puzzle to scientific minds. Sold by F. Forthman.

CORNS, BUNIONS, &c.—Use Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer. Sold by F. Forthman. Ellen Black was a beautiful young resident of Bucks county, Pennsylvania, up to last Monday, when she kindled her fire with kerosene.

PASTOR.—At a recent meeting of the Presbyterian Congregation of this place an election was held for pastor which resulted in the choice by a unanimous vote of the Rev. W. N. GEDDES, of Williamsport, Pa.

DENTISTRY.—The other day our attention was called to a set of teeth prepared by our neighbor, Dr. J. M. Peddicord, for a lady in this place. We confess having rarely, if ever, seen a finer specimen in the Dental line. The Dr. evidently excels in his profession.

LECTURE.—Hon. Chas. Lee Armour will deliver a lecture in Lissole Hall, Quincy, on Saturday evening the 24th inst., for the benefit of the Band of that place. Subject:—"Over the Plains and among the Gold Fields of Colorado."

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.—We feel ourself under special obligations to those patrons who have been so prompt quite recently in paying up arrearsages. If subscribers and advertisers generally would be as considerate, we at least would have no cause to complain of "hard times."

SOLD OUT.—Mr. John Mullan last week sold the personal property belonging to the Waynesboro Hotel to Mr. M. J. Minters, of the Quincy Hotel. The latter takes possession of the house to day. Mr. Mullan removes to London, this county, where he will continue the hotel business.

DECEASED.—Mr. David Miller, Sen., of the Clermont House, on the Mountain, died on Thursday last. Mr. M. was a well-known and much respected citizen. His remains, followed by a large procession of friends and acquaintances, were brought to this place on Sunday and interred in the Reformed burying ground. He was in the 74th year of his age.

THE LECTURE.—The Lecture at the M. E. Church on Saturday evening, by Rev. J. D. Brown, a returned Missionary, upon the Manners, Customs and Habits of the people of India, was, we are pleased to announce, well attended. The Rev. gentleman occupied the pulpit of the M. E. Church on Sunday morning, and in the afternoon delivered a lecture to the different Sabbath schools of our town. His lectures were highly interesting as well as instructive.

BIG HOGS.—Our neighbor, Wash. McGinley is a "bully" blacksmith, and is also hard to beat in raising big porkers. He killed two hogs on Wednesday, one weighing 508 and the other 426 pounds, being a total of 934 pounds.

A GENEROUS OFFER.—Twenty five hundred dollars have been offered by Mr. Davidson Kennedy, of Philadelphia, towards erecting a new church edifice on the site of the Presbyterian Old White Church, in the vicinity of Welsh Run. Mr. Kennedy is the only surviving son of the late Rev. Robert Kennedy who was, for many years, Pastor of the Congregation that worshipped there. Wednesday next will be the shortest day.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.—On Thursday of last week we received a Telegraph Dispatch from Gettysburg that Railroad men were coming. So about 3 o'clock of the same day a hawk arrived at the Bowden House, containing O. S. Malby and E. H. Townsend of New Haven, Conn.; Geo. W. McClellan of Gettysburg, and Jos. S. Gitt, Civil Engineer, of New Oxford, Adams county. These gentlemen come over the Tape-Worm and the lines surveyed by Mr. Gitt some years ago, much pleased with the condition of the work done—agreeably disappointed to see so much graded and in so good state of preservation.

These gentlemen, in connection with J. W. Townsend, who purchased the Gettysburg Railroad, expect in a week or two to take possession of the road and then organize a company, when Mr. Gitt will immediately commence the work of making a location from the Susquehanna river to the Potomac—the line to run from New Oxford to York and the river, crossing it at Chiques, one mile above Columbia and connect with the Reading Railroad. From Gettysburg to Waynesboro, using a portion of the Tape Worm, perhaps as far as Monterey. From this place the line is to be extended to Hancock to connect with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. The party remained until Friday and had an interview with some of our principal business men. They expressed surprise to find our town, without a Railroad, in possession of such extensive manufacturing establishments and other business places. They purpose, rather than in this direction in a short time.

We have the best assurances that these gentlemen purpose, as above stated, an early extension of the road, and that they have the means necessary for the work. It is reasonable however to infer that they will expect the people of our town and country to lend a helping hand. This we feel confident they will do willingly and liberally.

We, the undersigned, having used the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine, for a number of years can recommend it as a first-class machine and one that is durable.
