

VILLAGE RECORD. WAYNESBORO. Thursday, December 29, 1870.

NOTICE.—Patrons in arrears for subscription, bill printing and advertising, are earnestly requested to settle their accounts on or before the FIRST DAY OF JANUARY, at which time we have a payment to make that cannot be deferred.

Winter is at last upon us. The oyster trade is prosperous. One dozen eggs will buy a hen just now.

A happy New Year to all good-paying patrons of the Record. Next week will be a first-rate time to settle up.

POTATOES.—Some delinquent who is short of "stamps" will find sale at this office for a few bushels of choice potatoes.

COLD FALL.—The boy who tried which was the hardest, his head or the ice, on Monday. So much for skating.

The Wheeler & Wilson can be bought on any plan the purchasers desire from the agent, Thos. H. B. Elliott, at the Diamond Gallery.

Mr. John Mullan, former landlord of the Waynesboro' Hotel is, we are pleased to learn, recovering from a protracted and dangerous illness from brain fever.

NOTICE.—For the best goods and the best money you should not fail to call at C. N. Weaver's Store, No. E. corner of the Diamond, Waynesboro', Pa.

There are over 500,000 of the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machines in use; Thos. H. B. Elliott, agent for the same at Brackbill's Gallery.

PREACHING AT QUINCY.—Rev. J. B. Keller, of Minersville, Pa., will preach in the Lutheran Church, in Quincy, on Sunday next, January 1st, with a view of becoming Pastor of that congregation.

The Western Maryland Railroad has been completed as far as Mechanicsville, in Frederick county, the iron horse having made his first appearance within its corporate limits on Tuesday evening of last week.

CARRIER'S ADDRESS.—The usual Annual Address will be presented to town subscribers of the Record on Monday next by the Carrier. We bespeak for him a liberal reception.

In connection with the Wheeler & Wilson is a circular Stone or Grindstone to sharp on scissors, pocketknives or blunted needles.—Please call and examine before purchasing elsewhere. Agent, Thos. H. B. Elliott.

Notwithstanding the saying that "a good beginning makes a bad ending," we are willing to risk filling up receipts for money due this office on Monday next, or any other day during the week.

Charley Dickel, the "Baltimore Butcher," the last few weeks, has played havoc among the town "porkers" Padding, sausage, spare-ribs, etc., have ceased to be rarities with Oberley.

RAFFLING MATCH.—We are requested to announce that a raffling match for a Pet Deer belonging to Mr. A. D. Gordon, will come off in this place, on Monday next, January 1st, at 1 o'clock, P. M. For further information apply at the Brewery.

The Wheeler & Wilson has attached to it a Glass Braider, Corder, Tucker and plain Glass Foot. It also has a Steel Hammer, Feller and Gatherer all combined. T. H. B. Elliott, agent.

COURT is a verb, active, indicative mood, present tense, and agrees with all the girls in Quincy. So says a nice young man from that village. He might have included the fair Misses of Waynesboro' and those of all towns, little or big.

OYSTER SUPPER.—On Monday evening last the Lodge or Tribe of Red Men, at this place, partook of an Oyster Supper at the Bowden House. The Waynesboro' Band was present and discoursed appropriate music on the occasion. About sixty sham "red skins" were in attendance.

The Wheeler & Wilson is almost noiseless. It runs so light that little effort is required to use it. It will make Fringe on Silk with ease and rapidity. Thos. H. B. Elliott, agent, at Brackbill's Gallery, where persons can have their pictures taken with neatness and dispatch.

Monday last was observed generally as a holiday in our town. Only a few individuals could be seen during the day and evening over-filled with "benzine." We understand a couple of slight altercations between overcharged "illigents" occurred in the evening, but no damage was done beyond a little scratching, bumping of noses, etc.

The Shippeeburg News says that J. Watson Craig and I. A. Willis have purchased a tract of 700 acres of land, fifteen miles from Winchester, W. Va., where they intend to engage in stock raising.

MARRIAGES AND DEATHS.—We would respectfully solicit our subscribers to send us accounts of all marriages and deaths that happen in their vicinity. These items of news are always read with the most interest. They are important events. Marriage marks a new era in one's life. Death, on the contrary, marks the end of life, and takes from us familiar faces of those we love and esteem. A record of these important events that daily happen around us, therefore, highly interesting, and should be kept up complete. This can only be done by the friends of the parties concerned furnishing the news to the printer.

If our subscribers would send us all the news they may gather, it would add to their benefit, as well as ours. Not only marriages and deaths, but accidents, removals, sales of houses or lands, large crops, new buildings, accounts of improved stock, the proceedings of religious meetings, literary or temperance societies. In fine, everything of public interest in your respective neighborhoods.

Young men who are anxious to marry will doubtless turn their attention to "a granddaughter of Robert Edwards, in Chester, New York," who is just coming into possession of a little property of $82,000,000. The real estate is on Manhattan Island, New York, and is rented. In fact it has been leased for ninety-nine years—since 1771. The girl who now inherits it says that she will not rent it unless she gets five million dollars a year rent. She says that she will count the money over and see that it is all right, and then go visiting among her schoolmates. But the fact is that she cannot count the more annual rental while she lives, if she is willing to count at the rate of $10 a minute, night and day, without eating or sleeping. So what's the use of having so much money after all?—The richest man has only plain comfort. "Why, I only got my board and clothes!" complained a laborer to Stephen Girard. "Well," was the response, "that is all I get!"

RUN OFF.—On Tuesday morning last the horse of Dr. J. B. Amerson, which was hooked to a Jersey wagon belonging to W. A. Reid, took fright on Main street, near the Diamond, and ran off. After running a short distance the wagon was left behind minus a wheel, and otherwise, no doubt, considerably damaged. A short time afterwards the Dr. hitched the runaway to his buggy and was driving along East Main street, when he took fright a second time and by a sudden turn precipitated the Dr. out of the buggy and between the wheels. In this perilous position he was dragged for some distance until he was checked and secured. Fortunately no one was injured.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—On Saturday evening last Addison Streets (colored) in the employ of Wm. A. Funk, Liveryman, met with a serious if not fatal accident. He had taken a colored man to Punkstown, and when he reached Main street on his return, about 7 o'clock in the evening, a fire-tracker frightened the horse and, he ran off the buggy coming in contact with Wolfersberger's Buss, pitching him out upon his head and badly wounding up the buggy. At last accounts Streets was lying in a critical situation, from, it is supposed, concussion of the brain. Dr. J. M. Ripple was promptly called upon, and has since been doing everything possible to afford him relief.

PERSONAL.—On Wednesday of last week SMITH, ROBINSON, Esq., editor of the "Fulton (McConnellsburg) Democrat," on his return from a visit to Adams county friends, dropped in and spent about half an hour with us. Mr. R. we are pleased to note is a young man of temperate habits—something that can't be said of some of our neighboring contemporaries across the line—a genial and talkative (not gassy) gentleman. Behind a span of Mules attached to a handsome vehicle, he traveled in style for a Mountain editor.

THE WEATHER.—Since our last issue we have experienced a decidedly "cold snap." Saturday night last is said to have been several degrees colder than any night last winter. Dealers in ice are filling their houses with a very superior article, from eight to ten inches thick. The weather has moderated considerably, and a heavy fall of snow is predicted by the weather-wise before the close of the week.

P. S.—Since the above was put in type a brisk snow storm set in, and at the time of writing, Wednesday noon, the ground is covered to the depth of an inch or more.

POPULAR WORKS.—Mr. Samuel Beaver, of Quincy, has secured the agency for the sale of two valuable works in the Townships of Washington, Quincy and Guilford, viz: "The Light in the East," embracing the Life of Christ, the Lives of the Apostles and Evangelists; The Lives of the Patriots and Evangelists, &c., 540 pages, over 30 engravings. Also "Life in Utah," by J. H. Beadle, a thorough expose of the mysteries and crimes of Mormonism. This is a volume of thrilling interest, for which the canvasser should find ready sale.

It is stated that in the town of Bloomington, Ind., there are sixty-seven young women ready to be married, and only three marriageable young men, being an average of twenty-two sweethearts and one-third of a sweetheart to each bachelor.

Sunday, Jan. 1.—Sermons.—Subject: Inspiration of the Holy Scriptures; their sufficiency and sole authority for religious faith and practice.

Tuesday, Jan. 3.—Prayer: For nations, for kings and all others in authority, for soldiers and sailors; for all who have suffered in recent wars; for the blessings of peace; and that God would graciously bring good out of the recent calamities.

Wednesday, Jan. 4.—Prayer: For the children of Christian parents; for a blessing on home influence and on all teachers; for early dedication to God; and for more laborers in Christ's service.

Thursday, Jan. 5.—Prayer: For the profession of the Holy Spirit on all who baptize and call themselves Christians; for the increase of charity and of affectionate communion and co-operation among all in every one who love the Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity.

Saturday, Jan. 7.—Prayer: For Christian missions, for the conversion of the Jews, for the better observance of the Lord's day; for a blessing on Christian Literature; and for the glorious appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Sunday, Jan. 8.—Sermons.—Subject: Faith, Hope and Love—essential witnesses for the truth.

To Maryland alone belongs the unenviable distinction of casting two votes in the Senate of the United States in favor of receiving a resolution offered by Senator McCree, of Kentucky, providing for the restoration to the family of the late rebel General Lee, the property forfeited by his treason, and for the removal of seventeen thousand Union soldiers who lie interred at Arlington. There were but four votes recorded in favor of this proposed out-rage, two of which were cast by Geo. Vickers and Wm. T. Hamilton.

The Income Tax is not likely to be abolished during the present session of Congress. The Senate is known to be opposed to its repeal, and the House has refused to instruct the Committee of Ways and Means even to inquire into the expediency of abolishing it by a vote of 71 to 64.

At the election in the First Senatorial District of Philadelphia, on Tuesday a week, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. W. W. Watt, Col. Deibert, Democrat, was elected over Ryndall, Republican, by 1,343. This makes the Senate Democratic by one, defeats Hon. Harry White as Speaker, and also defeats the apportionment bill.

Eight articles of impeachment have been preferred against Governor Holden, of North Carolina. The trial will commence as soon as the chief justice shall arrive at the State Capital.

Alexander Dumas, dramatist, Novelist, historian, journalist, and miscellaneous writer, died on the 14th inst., in his sixty-eighth year.

Experience warrants us in recommending Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer as a sure remedy for gray hair.

Clover Seed wanted. ELDEN, STOVER & WOLF.

WILKES BOOTH.—Edwin Booth has never been in Washington since the death of his brother, after the assassination of President Lincoln. Before he left Montreal, on his last trip to Washington, Wilkes Booth deposited $3,000 in gold in the Bank of Montreal. It is there now. His mother has a legal right to draw the money, but she refuses to do so, and her living sons refuse to allow her to touch it. There it remains, and there it will remain until the time provided by the law for its retention has expired.—Then it will go to the British Government and become part of the fortune of the crown. The officers of the Bank are anxious to get rid of the deposit, and have several times written to the relatives of the depositor.—The latter have been uniformly firm in refusing it but they have never given any reasons for so doing.

HEADACHE, NEURALGIA AND NERVOUS DISEASES I.—The wonderful effects of Dr. J. Briggs' Alligator, for the speedy cure of the above very prevalent and painful affections, is known to many thousands who have used it with the most unqualified success. In every case of the complaints above enumerated it has never failed to give immediate relief. Its effect is magical beyond precedent. One trial will convince the most skeptical. Sold by all druggists, each bottle making two quarts when diluted for use. Sold by F. Furthman.

Sewing machine oils is now made from walnuts and butternuts.

Richmond, Va.—Loss of Life. RICHMOND, December 26.—At quarter past two o'clock this morning, just as the porter commenced waking the passengers for the Southern train, the Spotswood Hotel was discovered to be on fire on the lower floor. An effort was immediately made to wake the guests, and the scene became one of great confusion, men rushing about trying to save their baggage, and the women, nearly naked and barefooted, fleeing into the snow-covered streets. The steam engines were promptly on hand, but the water being frozen, it was some time before water could be thrown on the building. In twenty minutes the flames spread to such an extent that escape by the staircase was cut off. The guests then commenced leaping from the windows and descending by ropes made from blankets and sheets. P. P. Clark, of Philadelphia, the steward of the hotel, leaped from the third story, receiving mortal injuries. The most distressing scene of the disaster was the appearance of Mrs. Emily Cornelius, of Baltimore, the housekeeper, at a window in the fifth story, with one or two other ladies, screaming for help.

The fire companies ladders were put up, but failed by two stories to reach the windows, and while the firemen were making efforts to lengthen the ladders the crying women disappeared in the thick smoke and were lost, the room brightening up a moment later with the flames. Up to noon to-day the only persons burned whose names are Erasmus Ross, clerk of the Libby Prison during the war; Mrs. Emily Cornelius, housekeeper, who lives a family in Baltimore, Samuel Hines, clerk with Melhizer & Co. The register of the hotel was destroyed, and it is impossible to say what strangers are lost, though it is supposed several have perished, as there are about a dozen unclaimed trunks of parties from New York and other Northern cities.

It is a notable fact that the fire, after destroying the block, left one store on the corner, the same building that stopped the emigration at the evacuation of Richmond.—The weather was so intensely cold that the telegraph wires in front of the building were covered with ice while the fire was raging. The fire steamers were encased in ice an inch thick. Among the remarkable escapes was that of A. C. Snider, the State printer who was in the fourth story, and escaped by dropping from window cornice to window cornice, until he reached the ground safe, though badly bruised. The correspondent of the New York Herald narrowly escaped. The guests lost all their clothing, and the ladies had to walk barefoot over the snow, to reach shelter. The total loss by the fire is $300,000.—insured mostly in Northern companies.

An incident of the fire was the appearance of a man at one of the upper windows, paralyzed by fear, who sat tearing paper into small pieces and throwing them out of the window until he fell back with the flames. The hotel register was found to night, and there are only six strangers not accounted for. It is probable some of the citizens have taken some of them to their houses.

CORNS, BUNIONS, BAD NAILS, CALLOSITIES, &c.—It is an astonishing fact that nine out of every ten persons we meet are sorely troubled with their feet. Very few are exempt. Dr. J. Briggs' popular remedies—Curative and Alligator—are reliable and certain in their effects. The curative for sore and tender corns, bunions, bad nails, &c. is a soothing balm for wounded feet, and rapidly cures the worst cases. Alligator, for the cure of common corns and bunions and the prevention of all corns, is a puzzle to scientific minds. Sold by F. Furthman.

COUGHS, BRONCHITIS, &c.—Use Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer. Sold by F. Furthman.
