A chiel feat was advertised to take place on Manday near Baltimore-a horse to frot twenty miles within two hours, carrying 1,000 pounds weight, the stakes to be $500. The Maryland Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals stopped the performance, and compelled the owner of the horse to give bond that it should not take

The Serate of this State has passed the bill allowing women over twenty-one years of age to be voted for as school directors. This is a step towards woman's rights, and is intrinsically a great reform. The complaints about ignorance on the part of school directors-will-not be so numerous when this bill goes into force.

The result of the elections in France has not, of course, been ascertained from all the Departmente, but from what is known at sumptied of the war is not to be expected - ter. Will make amends hereafter. The Berlin Guzette thinks that there is scarcely a doubt that the armistice will be prolonged. In Paris two hundred candidates were balloted for, and the votes were so coattered that it is thought a new election will have to be held. Provisions are continually arriving at Puris. The German army will make a triumphant entry into Paris on the 19th instant. The Emperor will proceed to the Tuilleries. A Bordenux dispatch states that if the terms of peace determined upon by Bismarck, and confidently commuthe Assembly, hostilities will be renewed gerstown, the same day. immediately upon the expiration of the armistice. A vigorous procedure will be adopted with Paris in the matter of securing pledges for a war indemnity.. All the troops before Paris have been fully reinforced to the utmost war strength,
