AN ORDINANCE RELATING TO THE HIGH CONSTABLE AND POLICE OFFICERS.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the Select and Common Councils of the City of Allentown, and it is hereby ordained by the authority of the same, that in addition to the duties particularly imposed on the High Constable of the City, by the several ordinances, it shall be his duty to execute all process, and warrants to him directed and delivered, to give notice of violations of the ordinance preventing swine cattle and other beasts from running at large, and of all nuisances, obstructions, and impediments in the streets, alleys and gutters, that they may be removed, and the person or persons who caused them prosecuted: he shall also give notice to the Mayor of the City of all violations against the ordinances, the names of the offenders, and the witnesses, in order that the offenders may be prosecuted, to enforce obedience to the ordinances, to preserve order on Sundays and generally, to do all things which the councils by ordinance may require.

Sec. 2. That the Select and Common Councils shall annually and as often as they may think proper, designate by joint resolution the number of persons who are to serve as Police-officers for the City, [to be appointed by the Mayor,] and fix the compensation so be paid them for their servlces. The duties of the said Police officers shall be the same as those of the High Constable, except otherwise provided by ordinance.

Sec. 3. The High Constable shall be captain of Police, and as such shall have control of them while on duty, he shall be entitled to the same fees for the serving warrants and process as are allowed by law to any other constable, and for the performance of his general duties, he shall have and receive such sum as the councils may direct to be paid him.

Sec. 4. In addition to the duties of the Police officers as prescribed in the foregoing sections of this ordinance, they shall be on duty constantly, and report themselves at least once in every twenty-four hours, at the office of the Mayor. They shall patrol the streets of the City from 8 o'clock P. M. to 4 o'clock A. M. between the first days of May and of September, and from 6 o'clock P. M. to 5 o'clock A. M. between the first days of September and of May. They shall report to the Mayor or some Alderman of the City, all keepers of gaming houses, all houses of ill fame, all persons engaged in selling lottery tickets, all persons engaged in selling intoxicating drinks, to minors, or persons of intemperate habits, or on Sunday, or without license, to report to the Mayor all violations of the ordinances, and shall have power to arrest all persons violating any of the ordinances that are now confered on the High-Constable.

Sec. 5. They or some of them as the High Constable shall direct, shall attend public meetings in the City, light the street lamps, keep the council rooms in order, and generally do all such things as may from time to time be required by resolution of Councils of City ordinances, shall not engage in any other buisness or employment, without the consent of the Mayor who shall have power, to appoint additional Police officers, whenever he deems it necessary, for any length of time not exceeding twenty-four hours, whose compensation for every twelve hours shall be $2,00.

Sec. 6. That the High Constable and Police officers shall make oath or affirmation, that they will perform their duties with fidelity, and in addition to the duties, now imposed upon them by the ordinances, they shall be subject to and under the orders, and control of the Mayor, whose directions shall be sufficient authority to act accordingly.

Sec. 7. That if any Police officer shall neglect to perform his duties as required by the ordinances or the reasonable directions of the Mayor, such neglect shall be a sufficient cause for removal from office, and the Mayor is hereby authorized to remove the same.

Sec. 8. That it shall be the duty of the High Constable and Police officers, to apprehend all persons who are found drunk and disorderly on the public streets or guilty of disorderly behavior, blasphemy, using indecent and vulgar language, insulting and annoying persons passing along the streets, collecting at the street corners, and refusing to disperse, when ordered to do so, for fast driving or riding, or placing obstructions on crossings, or side-walks prohibited by ordinances and refusing to remove the same when requested.

Sec. 9. When any person shall be arrested by the High Constable or any of the Police officers, for any offence against the ordinances, it shall be the duty of the officer making the arrests, to take the offender before the Mayor, where he shall have a hearing.—Provided that if such arrest be made after the office hours of the Mayor, the offender shall be detained in the Station house until the next morning for a hearing.

Sec. 10. If the High Constable shall neglect any of the duties required of him, in this or any other ordinance, he shall forfeit and pay a fine of three dollars for each offence, to be recovered as fines and penalties are recoverable.
