SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 14, 1861.

OUR DELEGATE ELECTION: The delegate election on Saturday last, resulted as was foretold by all who were aware that for several weeks previous, voters were being secured by certain pot house politicians through the persuasive power of lager beer. Every device that could be thought of was used to prejudice the minds of the unthinking portion of the community against Mr. Grosh. His intelligence and honesty could not be successfully assailed, as those traits of character would have only become more brilliant by contrast. Hence his political principles were contorted into great distortions, whilst there is not an honest Union-loving man in the community who does not fully endorse his views on the great questions of the day. The defeat of his delegates was caused by the polling of illegal votes—those of boys and non-residents. An omnibus was run by the opponent with a demijohn of liquor in it, and the chance of getting as much strychnine whiskey as they could guggle down on the way to the polls, aided materially in securing a large vote. It is a shameful fact that our primary elections can be carried by such demoralizing influences; young men are thus started on the highway to vice and crime, and by the early abuse of that greatest of Freemen's privileges—the elective franchise—soon learn to disrespect all law, and from the position of the independent voter, soon sink to the degradation of the besotted menial. If, however, the determined rally of the great body of our best citizens in opposition to this demonstration of rowdy and blackguardism failed to be attended with the success it merited, the Convention at Lancaster gave it a marked rebuke, by summarily rejecting the aspirant for legislative honors, not even the boasted "five hundred dollars to spend for a seat in the legislature" availed, although it may have done much to secure the delegates. A characteristic of qualification, we refer to the assault made upon our oldest citizens, Capt. Samuel Miller, who was attacked at night on his way home from the polls, and thrust into the side walk and shamefully abused by this same candidate. Had the old Captain been armed, there probably would have been one candidate less before the Convention on Wednesday last. Harry McCulley was passing at the time and protected the Captain from further abuse.

A letter in the Lancaster Express, from our former townsman, Captain Rathvon, we extract the following: "Cotton is King," there is some probability that it may, in future, extend its kingdom, at least as far north as Pennsylvania, where it may be free from the everlasting negro contingency. Allow me to make an extract from a letter which I to-day received from Dr. J. C. Reinhardt, of Sorocaba, Province of St. Paul, in Brazil, S. A., than whom I desire no better authority in its Botany and Vegetable productions generally.—The Doctor says, under date of July 7th, 1861, "I send to-day to your brother-in-law, Joseph Windolph, of Marietta, two kinds of cotton, that I am certain can be cultivated in the State of Pennsylvania, and I think will be of great advantage. One is Nankip or yellow cotton, and the other is white. The frosts, until the 20th of October, I think will not hurt it."

Dr. Reinhardt is a Mariettian—he was the first to teach us the use of the "Comly Spelling Book"—but has been a resident of Brazil for the past ten or twelve years. No man in all probability, knows the flora, and climate of Pennsylvania, better than he.

John Jacob Keller formerly of Warwick township, this county, and at one time collector of tolls at Lancaster, but who several years since removed to Virginia, was pressed into the rebel service in that State, and was present at the battle of Bull's Run. A short time ago he managed to escape and arrived in Lancaster on Friday of last week. He gives a terrible account of Bull Run affair, and says, that the rebels must have lost six thousand men, what he heard in the rebel camp, persuaded that had the Federal maintained their position, Beauregard's army would have retreated, as standing their reinforcements, was so severe that retreat was to necessity. Mr. Keller leaves a property in Virginia, which the rebels will confiscate to use.

Hoops and William M. have been appointed by the Examining Board of the Army.

HINTS TO PARENTS.—Mr. Editor: We ask the privilege of communicating to parents a few thoughts in view of the opening of the Public Schools of this Borough, which takes place on Monday next, the 16th inst.

It is to be regretted that parents cannot see the great advantage of having their children present on the very first day of the school. Much is dependent upon the organization of the school, upon that day.—We have no faith in the old adage, "a good beginning makes a bad end," but would rather believe in the truth of the assertion, a good beginning makes a good end. Every one who has had any experience in teaching well knows, that the organization of the school must be incomplete, so long as he or she receives new "recruits," if the Teacher has formed his classes properly for the first week, the second by ten or twenty new comers—they will be entirely disarranged, almost compelling him to start anew. Thus he must either delay the progress of some, or pass the other by imperfectly taught in the elements passed over, hence parents should know and feel too, that every hour any scholar delays attending during the school session, is not only so much time lost and worse than lost to him, but that he actually inflicts a wound upon the school, this is seldom looked at by parents, they seem to think that the first day not much will be done, while it is a notorious fact that there is no other day, in which the Teacher will do as much work, during his term of teaching.

What would you think of a community that had passed a law allowing no one to wash or scrub, until every other one was willing and ready to condescend, and that if some few had in pleasant weather, done a part of their work, that they because their lazy neighbors were not ready must unash and unscrub, that which their industry secured? Yet this is but too apt a type of many of our schools, disturbed and distressed by a fresh arrival every few weeks. The sooner parents see this evil in its true light the better for their children and the schools. Again, would it not be well, for parents, nay! is it not their duty to frequently visit the school-room, and notice whether the pale, sallow countenance, headache, languor, fretfulness and bad temper on the part of the child, is not the result to breathing the vitiated air of the ill ventilated school-room?

Is it not the duty of parents to often visit the school, (as often at least as they do the kennel of their favorite dog), and see whether the Teacher is performing his duties faithfully, and if not, acquaint him of the fact. If parents manifest a proper interest and exercise sufficient co-operation in the way of frequently visiting the school, we bespeak for the pupils rapid progress the ensuing term. Let us then have full schools on next Monday, with the assurance of regular attendance throughout the whole term.

Mr. Editor:—When I stated a simple fact to show how the patriotism of "an almost lone woman" was made subservient to her penuriousness, I little expected to rouse the indignation of the Secretary of the Relief Committee, nor did I for a moment dream that he would lend himself to any one, as a tool to retail such gossip, as that to which he treated your readers in your last week's paper. It is certainly not the fittest position for a cultivated gentleman to occupy. He is not the first great man however that has been fooled by a woman, for, if report be correct, the same worthy (Solomon) in his old age, whose authority he quotes for administering the open rebuke, was also ensnared by the sex, and paid dearly for it. Mr. Grosh no doubt thoughtlessly undertook the defence of the "almost lone woman" (will no one have pity upon her) and found, as he says, when his hand was in, that nothing less than a column and a half of rubbish—or gossip, if he likes it better—would please his patron, and hence the sensation sentences, "Shall I write it?" &c., &c. But Mr. Secretary, murder will out. According to your own showing, the Committee are suffering from "cold neglect," as "no kind notices, no expressions of praise and gratitude have been bestowed on them by our public." This humiliating confession is a fitting accompaniment to the wailings of the "almost lone woman" whose patriotism (I repeat it) helped her so effectually to collect the rent, from the wife of a soldier who was serving his Country in the field, and whose wife and family the citizens of Marietta promised to succour in his absence. I shall not, Mr. Editor, trouble you with any further particulars, for in doing so I might unwillingly hurt the feelings of some parties that I would willingly spare. "A RETURNED VOLUNTEER."

N. B. We could not close our columns against a reply from "A Returned Volunteer," but indeed this shall be the last of it. These controversies, often playfully begun, end in vile personalities, which should not be.—Edi or Marietta n.

Mr. Grosh was absent from home at the time, and the burglars seemed to have made their way through the cellar door. They were apparently well acquainted with the premises.

The largest and finest Tomatoes that we have seen this season, was a basket full sent us by our neighbor, Mrs. John Coyle, a few days since.

My likeness has been repeatedly taken by artists in various ways, but I have never yet had one which presents so true to nature, all the features and expressions of countenance as this.

Having occasion for a portrait, I procured one from Mr. Robert Newell, of the city of Philadelphia, a miniature in Oil Colors, under the new process discovered by him, and take great pleasure in expressing the satisfaction given me, not only by the accuracy of the likeness, but its artistic finish in all respects, and recommend to the patronage of those disposed to encourage the beautiful art.

MILLER'S HAIR DYE
Effective, Safe and Economical.
For restoring Gray Hair to its original color, and preventing its return.
For restoring Baldness, and curing it, when unequalled in its vitality or recuperation.

THE GREAT CELEBRITY of this DYE, and all the qualities over another preparation at this time. It cleanses the head and scalp from the ruff and other cutaneous diseases. Causes the hair to grow luxuriantly, and gives it a rich, soft, glossy and flexible appearance, and also where the hair is loosening and thinning, gives strength and vigor to the roots, and restores the growth to those parts which have become bald, causing it to yield a fresh covering of hair.

There are hundreds of ladies and gentlemen in New York who have had their hair restored by the use of this Invigorator, when all other preparations had failed. L. M. has in his possession letters innumerable testifying to the above facts, from persons of the highest respectability. It will effectually prevent the hair from turning gray until the latest period of life; and in cases where the hair has already changed its color, the use of the Invigorator will with certainty restore to its original hue, giving it a dark, glossy appearance. As a perfume toilet and a Hair Restorative, is particularly recommended, having an agreeable fragrance; and the great facilities it affords in dressing the hair, which, when moist with the Invigorator can be dressed in any required form so as to preserve its place, whether plain or curled, hence the great demand for it by the ladies as a standard toilet article which none ought to be without, as the price places it within the reach of all, being
