On our first page will be found a very able article "Political and Social Infidelity," from the pen of an Ex-Mariettian. Road.

On the forenoon of Sunday last a German named Rudolph Wisler, while crossing the river, and in attempting to catch a piece of floating timber, fell into the river and was drowned. The boat we understand floated down the river, and was caught at Columbia. We are not aware that the unfortunate man has any relations in this part of the country to mourn his fate.

On Friday afternoon of last week, a frightful storm and rain visited this section, doing great damage to fruit trees, fences, &c. The Susquehanna swelled almost bank full, and almost an amount of floating timber, trees, wood &c. completely covered the surface of the infuriated river. Three or four rafts lying over from last spring, and for a long time "high and dry" on shore, were swept away and scattered between this place and Columbia.

Itinerant vendor of notions, familiarly known as Betsey Thomson, aged about sixty-nine years, was fatally injured on the railroad at Bird-in-hand, on Tuesday of last week. While attempting to cross the track in front of an approaching train, she was struck by the locomotive and dreadfully crushed. She was removed to Rowe's hotel, where she died in about an hour. Betsey was a resident of Strasburg.

The first instalment of clothing for Col. Hambricht's Regiment has been received. It consists of caps, blouses, shoes and under clothing. The balance consisting of overcoats, dress coats, pants, &c., will arrive shortly. The Regiment is nearly full, and we understand, will be thoroughly equipped before leaving Lancaster.

The steam flour mill of Mr. Sam'l Gering, near Reamsdown, this county, was destroyed by fire on Wednesday morning of last week, between one and two o'clock. The mill contained two hundred bushels of wheat and twenty-eight barrels of flour, which was also destroyed.

A fine horse and a stand of colors were presented to Capt. J. K. Waltman, in command of Greider's Mounted Rangers, attached to the Lochiel Cavalry Regiment, by B. M. Groider. The presentation took place at Capt. Sherburne's Hotel, in the borough of Mount Joy.

Prof. John Wise is raising a cavalry company, Capt. Jacob D. Goupt, an "old typo," and M. D. Wickersham of the Millersville Normal School, are getting up infantry companies to be attached to Col. Hambricht's regiment.

Our neighbor of the Mount Joy Herald has taken courage, these war times, and enlisted in the Union army under Capt. Hyman. May he never have cause to regret that embrace.

The Lancaster Inquirer came out on Monday as a morning daily paper. Quite a war appears to be waging between it and the Evening Express.

ROBBERY AT WHEATLAND: On Saturday night or Sunday morning the carriage house of Ex-President Buchanan at Wheatland was broken open and a very valuable set of double harness carried off. The thieves effected an entrance by prying open the door and found the harness in a small closet or box kept for the purpose. These harness were purchased at Washington by Mr. Buchanan shortly after his inauguration as President, at a cost of five hundred and thirty dollars. They are heavily mounted with silver, and as the rogues will hardly attempt to dispose of them, through fear of detection, it is likely they will cut off the mountings, melt them down and sell it as old silver. The silver alone in this shape, would probably yield them several hundred dollars. After securing the harness the rogues visited the ice house and carried off all the marketing that day purchased by Mr. Buchanan's housekeeper. The rascals were apparently well acquainted with the premises. Lancaster Express.

The Election comes off on Tuesday next, and it is to be hoped that every freeman will go fearlessly to the polls and exercise that dearest of a freeman's rights—the elective franchise.

The African M. E. Church will lay the corner stone for their new church on Sunday (to-morrow) afternoon. The church is to replace the one burnt down some time since.

FOR "THE MARIETTIAN." Ladies Meeting. The Patriot Wives and Daughters of Marietta and vicinity, who are willing to canvass for and collect hospital stores, blankets and yara, or to knit socks, for our Patriot Volunteers in the service of our country, are respectfully requested to meet at the Town Hall, next Monday afternoon, (October 7th.) at 3 o'clock, to arrange and divide the labor. By request of several ladies. A. B. G. N. B.—Those who cannot attend in person, will please send in their names with a statement of what they are willing to give or to do for this good cause.

For our sick Soldiers. Some ladies of our borough desire to make up a box or boxes of much needed articles for our sick soldiers in the Washington and other hospitals. Jellies, apple and other fruit butter, canned and dried fruits, pickles and other like refreshments and dainties, so grateful and salutary for invalids, are respectfully and urgently solicited. Also, blankets, woolen socks, yarn for the same, or even money to purchase yarn and pay freight on the boxes, will be very acceptable, as all these are needed by our brave sick and wounded soldiers. And many ladies who cannot afford to buy yarn will gladly knit socks if yarn is furnished.

This appeal is made, not only to our townspeople, but to our farmers also, most of whom have some of these articles in abundance, and any of whom can spare some even of their choicest stores for the comfort and restoration of these poor fellows who are bearing our burdens, fighting our battles, suffering in our behalf, and languishing on hospital couches of sickness and pain for our sakes. Shall we not prove, by such easy sacrifices—such kind tokens from their fellow-citizens at home in the enjoyment of quiet and plenty—that we remember them, care for them, and are grateful to them. Yes, shall we not show by these simple, yet useful and needed gifts, that we are grateful to God, their and our common Father in heaven, that by their devotion to our common country, the fearful desolation of battle and of war have been kept back from our peaceful fields and happy homes?

Let all who thus feel, contribute liberally as God has blessed them, and as He gives them opportunity. Any articles labelled with its name and the name of the giver, may be left at Dillenbach's, Spangler & Patterson, or Cassell's store, or at the residence of S. F. Eagle, Esq., or of A. B. Grosin. Past Day Evening.

More Light. Mr. Editor: I don't know who wrote that letter for your paper, praising Mr. Wheeler's Sermon on the Fast-Day; there is no doubt, however, but that it was some selfrighteous Pharisee, who thinks, that his own sins, and those of his northern friends of the same color as himself had little or nothing to do in bringing about the Rebellion, and who was mightily pleased to have the whole blame laid on Slavery, an institution that don't exist amongst us. Does it not seem to you, Sir, that Mr. Wheeler's eloquence was wasted on the occasion? I think if it was of the kind that "X" would have us to believe, it ought to have been preached at Richmond, Virginia, or to some congregation that needed it. I don't know of any slave owners in Mr. Wheeler's congregation; if "X" does, I hope he will name them. It is plain to me that if Slavery is done away with in the South, some folks in the North must help to take care of the cattle. Perhaps "X" will tell us what he would do with them, if he can't, could he not bring Mr. Wheeler to the rescue, so that between them, your readers might get a little more light on this dark subject. A. B. G.

The editor of the Monmouth (N. J.) Democrat has been on a visit to President Buchanan. He writes back to his paper as follows: I visited Wheatland, the residence of ex-President Buchanan. I had never seen him, and gladly embraced the opportunity. As we approached the house, we saw the Stars and Stripes floating from a fine flag-staff in front. He received us in the library. He had just recovered from a fit of sickness, the first he said he ever had. He looked well, but complained that his former strength of body was gone. He entertained us for an hour in conversation, which principally turned upon the rebellion. He related many personal anecdotes of the leading military men now before the country, North and South. He was emphatically of the opinion that there is no way to get out of our difficulties but to fight it out. I came away well satisfied that James Buchanan stands firmly for the Union, and that whether mistaken or not, he has always acted from the highest motives of patriotism.

An ordinance has been passed by our Borough Council, requiring a new sidewalk on the north side of Market street from Col. Clark's eastward to Cherry Alley. Read the ordinance in this week's paper.

The recent rise in the Susquehanna has been a god-send to our fishermen, who are nightly reaping a harvest in the shape of fine eels.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—The Last Resource.—Dysentery.—There is but one unfailing remedy for this class of inflammatory disorders, after all other remedies have failed.—Holloway's Pills, which are directly on the cause of the complaint. Laudanum, Morphine and Calomel are indiscriminately prescribed according to the discretion of the attendant physician; these may give a temporary alleviation, but they eventually irritate the bowels without removing the source.—On the contrary, Holloway's Pills soothe the bowels by evacuating the acid matter which inflames them, cleans the stomach of all exciting humors and restore its normal tone and vigor.
