CAPTURE OF JAMES B. CLAY.-A desnatch from Cincinnati states that James B. Clay has been arrested for treason, and John C. Creckinridge has had a narrow escape from a similar fate. It is a sad thing that a son of so eloquent and unswerving a friend of the Union as the great statesman of Ashland should have been guilty of affiliating with the wicked traitors who are seeking to destroy it; but he has been among the most active supporters of the Secession cause, and he has endeavored in every possible way to render it "aid and comfort."

James B. Clay was born in Washington city, in 1817, and combined to an unusual extent the practical ability of a as a politician. In early life he spent two years in a counting house in Boston, from which city he emigrated to St., Louis. When twenty-one years of age he returned to Kentucky, and after state—his villainies uncovered, his treabeing engaged for two years in manufacturing, he studied law, and after his admission to the bar continued to practice the legal profession, as the partner of his father, until 1849, when he was appointed charge d'affairs to Lisbon .-He returned home in 1850, and in 1851 removed to Missouri. In 1853 he became the proprietor of Ashland, where he has since resided. In 1856 he warmly advocated the election of James Buchanan, and in 1857 he was nominated as the Democratic candidate for Congress, in his district, and elected. He had accumulated a large property, invested chiefly in plantations and negroes, and of late years has become a more and more decided partisan of extreme proslavery views. By his arrest, one of the most active and dangerous enemies of justified on the principle of retaliation the Government will be prevented from doing any furthey mischief .- Forney's

The 3-10 three years Treasury notes expire on the nineteenth day of day of August, 1864. The coupons are made payable every six months, therefore the fifth one is due February 19, knives at their home, in Manhattanville, 1864. The last amount of interest is due and will be paid with the note at the first mentioned date. The coupons specify the interest of each at 3.65 per $100, or two cents per day, but no allowance is made for February 29, 1864, that year being leap year. The holder of a one hundred dollar note, loses two cents her baby to church a few Sabbaths since, by this omission, which is to him a mere dressed in red, white, and blue, and had bagatelle, but on the one hundred and tifty millions of dollars borrowed, it makes a saving of thirty thousand dol- richest printers in the Union, approprilars to the government—enough to pay ates a hundred dollars per month to the principal of three hundred of these notes. Gen. Fremont declines to make any further small or isolated movements against the rebels in Missouri, and is now engaged in arranging plans for a grand attack, in which he intends to stake the cause of law and order in Missouri, as well as his own reputation as a man and a soldier. He is now daily in consuttation with his Generals of diplan for a future great battle.

SUDDEN DEATH .- Hon, Isaac W. Stuart, of Hartford, died suddenly on Wednesday night, of congestion of the brain. Mr. Stuart was a man of rare ability, scholarship and eloquence. He was author of a History of Hartford, and a Life of Jonathan Trumbull. Previous to 1844 he was an active politician of the. Whig school, and was repeatedly elected to both branches of the State Legislature.

A new illustration of the fiendish character of the traitors, now in arms against the Government, is furnished by the fact that at Falls Church, the other day, when they retreated, they poisoned the meat with strychnine, in order to entrap the Federal troops who drove them out. Fortunately, our soldiers were too wise to be victimized by this wicked scheme.

John Ross, principal chief of the Cherokee nation, is reported to have called eight thousand Cherokees around him and declared for the Union, and also to have fought and beaten the secossion half breeds.

Secretary Cameron has sent a dispatch to the Governor of Iowa, forbidding the drafting of any troops in that State. The Secretary relies on the voluntary patriotism of the masses to uphold the Government.

Many persons were surprised at the statement of Secretary Seward, that the London Times had not probably a circulation of over fifty copies in this country. Upon inquiry of dealers in European papers, we find that the number is not much under-stated, as it refers to the London Times proper

Some nine hundred barrels of flour visions, who unanimously approve his per diem are used up for the army around Washington. Of fresh bread alone there are one hundred and fifty thousand loaves consumed. Foreigners express astonishment at the abundant and varied rations served our troops .-They are undoubtedly the best fed as well as the best paid army in the world

> The President has assured anxious inquirers that drafting shall not be resorted to at the west, until all the east ern States shall have furnished their full quota to make up the half million of troops called for. Philadelphia has now, according to the records of the War Department, 211 companies in the field, or 21,000 men.

> The Buffalo Courier is authorized by ex-President Fillmore to state that the statement made by the St. Louis correspondent to the New York Tribune, in regard to his approval of Gen. Fremont's proclamation for the emancipation of slaves, is not correct; that he does not approve of Gen. Fremont's proclamation, and that he cordially endorses the position of President Lincoln.
