SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1861.

The Winter Railroad Time Table zoes into operation on Monday next-Nov. 4-with some small changes at this place. The morning train east, will leave at 7.20; the afternoon train at 2.16; the night train at 6.41. The Mail train west, at 12.11; the evening train at 7.00.

We call attention to the Card in another column of Chas. C. Tucker, Esq., Pension and Bounty Land Agent, at Washington city. Those entitled to Pensions, Bounty Land or Bounty Money, can have their Claims prepared and forwarded to Mr. Tucker upon calling at this office.

We are glad to see some improvement going on these hard times. Mr. John B. Morris and Samuel Collins having purchased a couple of houses on the corner of Front and Horn streets, are about fitting them up very nicely; in fact Mr. Collins is entirely rebuilding his, which, when completed, will put an entirely new fece upon that heretofore

delapidated looking corner.

COLONEL HENRY HAMBRIGHT .- This gallant officer, a native and citizen of this county, has already been received into the confidence of Major General Sherman, inKentucky, and will no doubt prove himself worthy of the expectations of his numerous friends.

GOVERNMENT HORSES: The army correspondent of The Boston Journal furnishes the following interesting horse item: Forty-two thousand six hundred mules and horses have been purchased by government for the army, at a cost of about $5,500,000. The contracts are about closed. For months the streets have been filled with horses; go where you would, you would find boys and men leading, riding and driving them, each man or boy having from six to ten in charge. The government corrals are near the Observatory. There at any time you may see from three to seven thousand. There the horse dealers congregate, stout, burly, tobacco-chewing men, with their eye-teeth cut. There, too, are the imperious inspectors, whose word is of great consequence to contractors. An accepted horse receives the mark of ownership, U.S., on his left shoulder, and is respected according to his rank. If he is of aristocratic mould; if he, like individuals of the higher order of mammamalia, can carry a high head, and move with a consequential air, he is caparisoned with gilt trappings, and receives nice attentions, as a general thing an easy time of it; but if he is only of common blood, or has a hide like an old hair trunk, or if he would answer as a standing advertisement of a grain dealer-"Oats wanted; inquire within," he is turned over to the mercies. of the teamsters of the baggage trains, some of whom know as little of teaming as of balloon navigation. Government is losing enormous sums in the wear and tear and unnecessary abuse of horse flesh, in the cutting, slashing, pounding, inefficient care and neglect of teamsters, and the furious galloping of soldiers and officers over the pavements, up hill and down, as if a horse had muscles of iron and nerves of steel.

Donatious from the following ladies, have been received since our last publication. Mrs. E. Cassel, Mrs. Marv Mehaffey, Mrs. Wolf, Mrs. John Musser, Miss Hannah Bradley, Mrs. Hoerner, Mrs. Shaffner, Mrs. Dr. Mehaffey, Mrs. Ettla, Mrs. Dr. Maury, Mrs. Daniel Engle, Mrs. Judy, Miss Huston, Mrs. J. M. Erisman, Mrs. Mary Spangler, Mrs. Henry Sultzbach, Mrs. Crout, Mrs. Ann Stehman, Mrs. Hower, General Beauregard has made his long-expected official report to the Secretary of War, of the battle of the 21st of July at Bull Run. It is said to be very voluminous, covering about a hundred pages of foolscap. Jeff. Davis witholds its publication for the present, from prudential reasons.

Upon the recommendation from Lieutenant Colonel Hoffman, of the 8th infantry, who is Commissary General of prisoners, the Secretary of War has contracted for the erection of buildings sufficient to accommodate one thousand prisoners, on Johnson's Island, in Lake Erie, near Saudusky.

General Negley's brigade of Pennsylvanians have reached Kentucky, the Louisville Democrat says of it: "This brigade is composed of some of the finest-looking men we have seen anywhere, all large, healthy, able-bodied men, in excellent health and fine spirits."

Mr. Rary is in Geneva, Switzerland, where he expected to give some exhibitions of horse taming. He has also offered to visit Lausanne, if a horse can be found there sufficiently savage for his purpose.

From the South, via Kentucky, we learn that Breckinridge, Preston and Humphrey Marshall have arrived at Richmond, Va., and were handsomely received.

inution of nervous and muscular chergy from chronic complaints, one trial of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no than anything they has been repeatedly taken by artisteur values ways, but I have never yet had one which presents so true to nature, all the features and expressions of countenance as this.

From Hon. E. Joy Morris, late Minister to Italy.

The exquisite finish, beauty and softness of your portraits, conjoined with their durability of color and faithfulness as likenesses, cannot fail to commend them to the attention and parameters of the street of the street of apparent marasmus/sanc guineous exhaustions, critical changes, and that complication of nervous and dyspeptiaversion to air and exercise for which the physician has no name.

reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary, for, unlike the old oxides, it is vigorously tonic, without being exciting and overheating; and gently, regularly aperient, even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness without ever being a gastric purgative, or inflicting a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably effectual and permanent a remedy for Piles, upon which it also appears to exert a distinct and specific settion by dispersion to be described. action, by dispersing the local tendency

In Dispepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of these Chalybeate Pillshas often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the attendent Costiveness.

In unchecked Diarrhea, even when ad-In unchecked Diarrhæa, even when advanced to Dysentary, continued, emaciating, and apparently malignant, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, ebblitating cough, and remitten, hectic, which generally indicate Incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the slarm of friends and physicians, in several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrofulous Tuberculosis, this medicated iron has hed far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations o iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflamma-

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflamma-fory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings-and stiffness of the joints and muscles. In Internatient Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic restorative, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and use fulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise, immediately follow its use.
