

The Mariettian.

None shall with impunity soil these sacred symbols of our Country's life, liberty and power.

F. L. Baker, Editor.

Marietta, Ga.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1861.

Messrs. MATHER & ABBOTT, No. 235 Broadway, New-York, are duly authorized to act for us in soliciting advertisements, &c.

THE PARTING SCENE: The parting between Lieutenant-General Scott and Major-General McClellan is described by a Washington correspondent as having been very affecting.

Gen. Jackson, in command of our army at New Orleans, in 1824, did not hesitate to call out the free people of color in defence of the country.

The young chieftain's only reply was: "I thank you, General, and will not forget your counsel. May you be restored to health and live to see your prophecy fulfilled.

Shaking hands again, General McClellan conducted General Scott to the car, where they parted without a word being exchanged.

POSITION OF THE CLAY FAMILY: The disunion of families caused by the war in the Border States is illustrated by the present attitude of the Clay family.

General Lane, of Kansas, is not a doctor of laws, but if he had been, he could not have defined with more exactness than he did, in a late stump speech at Leavenworth, what a duty is of military officers under existing laws.

THE FREMONT PURCHASE OF ARMS: The charge of Adjutant-Gen. Thomas about Gen. Fremont's purchase of arms in Europe is disposed of by a writer to the New York Tribune, who states, from positive knowledge, that the purchase was 2,000 rifles, 500 revolvers, 8 rifled cannon with shot and shell, and 2,000,000 percussion caps.

The arms which Gen. Fremont did buy, amounted to but $50,000 or $60,000; and an Adjutant-General ought to know better than to give currency in his official report to a story that somebody wrote, that on this purchase his share of the profits was $30,000.

The New York Times says: The President has sent out the order to the Western Military Department transferring the command from Gen. Fremont to Gen. Hunter.

We have from Albany an extraordinary rumor that Gen. Scott, Archibald Hughes, and Thurlow Weed will start for Europa in the next steamer, to counteract the intrigues of the Southern emissaries, and prevent the recognition of the Southern Confederacy by England or France.

THE "HELLS" OF RICHMOND.—The city of Richmond, the Examiner says, is full of the vilest licentiousness. Among all the loathsome vices imported into it by the harpies who prey upon the army, that of gambling has become so prominent and as brazen as to defy public decency as well as law, intruding its allurements on the most frequented parts of the most public streets.

Memphis papers of a recent date announce the death of the old hero of San Jacinto, Sam Houston, who is reported to have died on the 8th inst. His cotemporaries are nearly all gone from the scene—Jackson, Wabster, Callhoun, Clay, Marcy, Clayton, Benton, etc. Scott has just retired. Buchanan, Cass, and Dallas have already done so.

General Jackson, in command of our army at New Orleans, in 1824, did not hesitate to call out the free people of color in defence of the country. His proclamation to that effect was couched in the most courteous language, appealing to their patriotism in the same strains as he would to the white population.

Colonel Raymond Lee, who was captured by the Confederates in the engagement at Edwards' Ferry, was formerly a particular friend of Jefferson Davis.

General Charles F. Havelock, late of the British army, and brother of the Gen. Havelock whose name is associated with the East India rebellion, arrived last week in the Arago. It is rumored that he intends offering his services to our government in the present crisis.

Preparations for the session of Congress have commenced. The chambers of the Senate and House of Representatives are fitted up, and everything will be in readiness before the first of December.

A letter from Mazatlan reports that ex-Postmaster Fowler, of New York city, is superintending a cotton mill at Tepic, Mexico, at a salary of twenty-five hundred dollars.

The Detroit Board of Trade have passed a series of resolutions solemnly and earnestly protesting against the attempt to supersede McClellan with Halleck. The Board was scared before it was hurt.

The New Orleans Delta exults over the fact that six hundred shares of the Bank of Louisiana, owned by Wm. B. Astor, have been confiscated. In good times the stock was worth $150 a share, which makes Mr. Astor's loss $90,000.

Isaac V. Fowler, the defaulting postmaster of New York, is employed in Barron, Forbes & Co's cotton mill, at Tepic, Mexico, at the salary of $2,500 per annum.

A misunderstanding is said to exist between Governor Curtin and Colonel Zeigle, of York, Pa., which, it is supposed, will probably lead to the disbanding of his regiment.

A couple were married in Jay, Me., the other day, by a clergyman, who sixteen days previous preached the funeral sermon of the bride-groom.

Horatio King, the late Postmaster General, has written a letter strongly rebuking secession, and sustaining the Government.

NEWS IN A NUT-SHELL.—Certain Stony-hearted Creditors who hold old claims against the estate of the late Hon. Edward D. Baker, who fell while bravely fighting for his country, are about to push their claims and if possible compel the widow to liquidation. These men all claim to be patriots, and yet they seek to rob the widow of a gallant hero. It is well they were not in the room with the corpse before it was buried, or the pennies would have been missed from its eyes.

A woman in Chicago has just recovered the heavy verdict of ten thousand dollars against a physician of that city who promised to cure her defective eyesight, but destroyed her eye instead. The defense was that she desired to have her eye put out, in order to insert an artificial one, but the jury did not admit the plea.

The ship "Thomas Watson," from Liverpool for Charleston, South Carolina, was on the 16th endeavoring to run the blockade of the latter port, when she was chased by the Flag. Her crew ran ashore and deserted her.

Eli Whitney, of New Haven, son of the inventor of the cotton gin, has been appointed by the President as one of the commissioners to the World's Fair in London, in 1862.

To CONSUMPTIVES: The advertiser having been restored to health in a very few weeks by a very simple remedy after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure.

A depot for prisoners is to be built on Johnson's Island in Sandusky Bay, Lake Erie. It is to comprise 17 buildings, capable of holding 1,000 men.

Durbanon, New Hampshire, has within its limits no lawyer, no physician, no store, no tavern, and not a solitary town pauper.

A correct portrait of John Howard Payne, the author of "Home, Sweet Home," has lately been discovered in New York.

NEW PAINTING FOR THE CAPITOL.—Leutz, the artist, has arrived in Washington, and commenced the work on a great painting to fill the vacant panel in the rotunda of the Capitol, for which he is to receive twenty thousand dollars. The design is to represent a party of emigrants coming out of a wild, mountainous pass, to a point where the prospect of valley and plain expands into great distance.

This is the only material manufactured in the United States which combines the very desirable properties of Elasticity and Durability, which are universally acknowledged to be possessed by GUTTA PERCHA and INDIA RUBBER. No heat is required in making application.

The expense of applying it is trifling, as an ordinary Roof, can be covered and finished the same day. LIGUID GUTTA PERCHA CEMENT. For Coating Metals of all kinds when exposed to the Action of the Weather, and for Preserving and Repairing Metal Roofs of all kinds. It will not CRACK in cold or RUN in warm weather, and will NOT WASH OFF. Leaky tin and other metal Roofs can be readily repaired with Gutta Percha Cement, and prevented from further corrosion and leaching, thereby ensuring a perfectly water tight roof for many years.
