We would call the attention of our readers to the card of "The American Hotel," Philadelphia. We had occasion to stop at this house a few weeks since, while in that city, and pronounce it one of the finest in Quakerdom. It is immediately opposite old "Independence Hall," and is in every way a very pleasant-and also very cheap, having put the fare down to$1.50 per day-hotel. Try its obliging managers and good fare.

On Tuesday morning, Miss Grace Hubley, sister of Mrs. William Jenkins residing in North Duke street, Laucaster, was fatally burned by her clothes taking fire, whilst standing before an open grate, and before assistance could be had, she was enveloped in flames .--Newton Lightner, Esq., who happened | CURE for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitas, to be passing at the time, heard the alarm, and rushing in, threw his overcoat | ding the prescription is to benefit the afflicted, over Miss H. and succeeded in saving her from instant death. The flames were finally subdued by the application of water from a small hose at hand .-Drs. Atlee, Muhlenburg and Ehler were immediately in attendance, but could be of no avail-she died about 5 o'clock in the evening.

The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Press says that Mr. Buchanan does not conceal the fact that he is preparing to launch a thunderbolt upon the country, either before or after his death, in the shape of a history of his own time, and a vindication of his Administration. In this great work he is assisted by ex-Attorney Gen. Black, who spends most of his time in Washington, and his late private Secretary, Adam J. Glossbrenner. Both of these personages have paid a visit to Wheatland: but Mr. Glossbrenner is the most active collector and compiler of the materials for the forthcoming brochure.

THIS Machine is constructed on an entirely new principal of mechanism, possessing many rare and valuable improvements, having been examined by the most profound experts, and pronounced to be Simplicity and Perfection Confidence. tion Combined. The following are the principal objections urged against Sewing Machines:—

1.- Excessive fatigue to the operator. 2.—Liability to get out of order.
3.—Expense, trouble and loss of time in re-

4.-Incapacity to sew every discription of 5.—Disagreeable noise while in operation. The Empire Sewing Machine is exempt from all these objections. It has a straight needle perpendicular action, makes the lock or shuttle stitch, which will neither rip nor ravel, and is alike on both sides; performs perfect sewing on every description of material, from Leather to the finest Nansook Muslin, with cotton, linen silk thread, from the coarsest to the finest. silk thread, from the coarsest to the finest Having neither CAM nor COG WHEEL.

The Columbus Sun remarks: On Saturday, an old gentleman named Wm. C. Osborne, well known in our city, who, from rheumatic affections, has not been able to walk or use his hands sufficient to feed himself, for more then ten years, was brought to Prof. De Grath on the street, where in the presence of a large assemblage of people, he applied De Grath's Electric Oil to one arm and shoulder. He was immediately enabled to raise his hand to his
