Saturday, November 30, 1861.

We had the satisfaction to taste the contents of an old fashioned, cobweb covered black bottle marked "Dark Brandy for medicinal purposes," from our friend and advertiser, A. D. Reese, Mount Joy, which we are free to confess was quite seductive, and but for our deep-seated, long-continued habits of temperance, would have fallen a victim to its flustering influence. In a word, it is very fine. Read Mr. R.'s cards.

The Libel suit instituted by John M. Stehman and Joseph Hood, ex-members of the House of Representatives, against the editors of the Evening Express, for charging them with being corruptly influenced to support the bill for the relief of the Sanbury and Erie Railroad Company, have withdrawn the suit, and, of course, foregone any investigation of the charge. The Lancaster Union, which paper pressed urged the reelection of those men to the Legislature, says in regard to this withdrawal: "We supported the re-election of those men in good faith, confiding in their integrity and believing their character to be irreproachable. We had not agreed with them in opinion as to the propriety of supporting the measure in question, but felt that it was one on which, under the circumstances, it was very possible for men to honestly form opposite judgments. Therefore, when Messrs. Hood and Stehman resented the imputation cast on their integrity by the Express, we were gratified, and our confidence in the men was strengthened. As a matter of policy merely, it was very ill advised in them to take that step, unless they felt conscious of rectitude and were determined to push the matter to verdict and judgment. To begin and then discontinue the prosecution, is justly to warrant the conclusion that they were conscious that their conduct would not bear scrutiny; and we feel that we owe it to ourselves to express our regret, under this state of things, that we were induced to support their re-election."

On Saturday of last week, George Ottinger was seen to leave the river bank at Safe Harbor, on a hunt after wild duck. He was seen to load his gun with a heavy charge, and in the evening the report of a gun was heard on the river, and on Sunday morning the boat in which the unfortunate man had gone out was found below the dam upside down. Ottinger, it is said, was an intemperate man, and it is supposed that his gun exploded and killed him, or threw him from the boat. Deceased leaves a wife and child to mourn his loss.

Read Mr. Sheaffer's advertisement headed "Trade Sales." Mr. S. was the only Lancaster dealer at the late trade sales, and consequently, enabled to sell at a much lower figure than any of his competitors; indeed, 'tis said books can be obtained at his establishment as low as any of the Philadelphia Retail Book stores. His stock is very large and varied.

The late residence of Samuel Johnson on the corner of Centre Square, was sold at the "Donegal House" on Wednesday evening to the widow, for $2,200. The Pennsylvania Railroad company, purchased the Johnson property at the lower station, where a very handsome brick warehouse is to be erected, for a freight depot.

The following gentlemen compose the new board of directors of the Columbia Bank: Dr. Barton Evans, Wm. McCloskey, David Wilson, Samuel Trustcott, Benjamin F. Hiestand, Aaron Gable, George Bogle, Jos. H. Black, Randolph Williams, Dr. Henry John, Michael H. Moore, E. K. Smith, Henry Copenheffer.

The following gentlemen are the new officers of the Mount Joy Bank: John G. Hoerner, Henry Hiestand, Henry Shaffner, Jacob Uchich, Christian Grube, Samuel Patterson, Benjamin Grosh, Wm. McDaniel, James Lynch, David Zook, Abraham Shelly, Joseph Getwiler, Christian S. Erb.

Mr. John E. Morris has purchased, dated and fitted up the house adjoining the corner of Front and Horn streets, which puts quite an altered appearance to that region. A few more such improvements in that locality would make it a very desirable square.

Messrs. West & Roth have just received a new lot of Coal Oil Lamps, which they are now selling at panic prices. Also excellent Coal Oil at 13 cents a quart or 50 cents a gallon.

Kelly, of the "Donegal House," has considerably improved the sidewalk on the Gay street side of the hotel, and is otherwise internally improving the "Donegal."

A very interesting letter from Fortress Monroe will be found in this week's paper. We shall be glad to hear from HARRY OFFER.

LETTER FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

FORTRESS MONROE, Nov. 25, 1861. Col. Baker: A short letter from this place might interest your readers, many of them having friends in the 45th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, now encamped here. You are no doubt aware that Capt. Haines, of Maytown, and Capt. Rambo, of Columbia, have companies in Col. Welsh's 45th Regt. and that a number of Mariettians are in the two companies. We left Harrisburg on the 21st of October, and arrived at Washington City the day following; remained in the neighborhood of Washington and Bladensburg until last Wednesday, when orders were received from Gen. McClellan, for the Regt. to go immediately to Fortress Monroe and wait there for further orders. We came by railroad to Baltimore and thence by steamboat to this place, arriving here on Friday the 22d. Our Marietta boys are all well, and in good spirits, expecting soon to have a share in stirring scenes, as it is understood that our Regiment will have a leading part in the great expedition soon to sail under command of Gen. Butler to one of the Southern Cities, perhaps New Orleans itself. Fifteen Regiments are now here, others are arriving daily, and in a short time a powerful army will be here ready for any work the General may order us to do. We hope to be able to carry the Stars and Stripes all over Secession. Company B. Capt. Haines, need a few more recruits, and I hope some of Marietta's gallant sons who are anxious to serve their Country will join us and fill up this company. The company is one of the best in the Regiment, and the Regiment is one of the best in the service. For information to our friends desiring to write to us, please request them to address thus: A—B—, Company B, 45th Regiment, Col. Welsh's Penna. Vol. Fortress Monroe, Va. Please send me the Mariettian occasionally. Yours, HARRY.

A HEAVY CONTRACT.—Mr. Henry E. Lehman, of Lancaster, well known in this city, has received from the War Department, at Washington, a contract for rifling and repairing a large lot of arms. This contract is a heavy one, involving an expense to the Government of nearly $800,000. In order to execute the job speedily, Mr. Lehman has commenced enlarging his works, and will employ an immense force of workmen, so as to rifle, repair, and put in complete order about 1,000 muskets each day. It is understood that muskets so repaired, and supplied by percussion locks, are equal, in every respect, to the new ones made at Springfield.—Forney's Press.

Great Improvements in SEWING MACHINES.

Empire Shuttle Machine. Patented February 14th, 1850. Salesroom, 510 Broadway, New York.

THIS Machine is constructed on an entirely new principle of mechanism, possessing many rare and valuable improvements, having been examined by the most profound experts, and pronounced to be Simplicity and Perfection Combined. The following are the principal objections urged against Sewing Machines:— 1.—Excessive fatigue to the operator. 2.—Inability to get out of order. 3.—Expense, trouble and loss of time in repairing. 4.—Incapacity to sew every description of material. 5.—Disagreeable noise while in operation. The Empire Sewing Machine is exempt from all these objections. It has a straight needle perpendicular action, makes the lock or stitch perfect, which will neither rip nor ravel, and is alike on both sides; performs perfect sewing on every description of material, from Leather to the finest Nansook Muslin, with cotton, linen silk thread, from the coarsest to the finest number. Having neither CAM nor COG WHEEL, and the least possible friction, it runs as smooth as glass, and is EMPHATICALLY A NOISELESS MACHINE! It requires fifty per cent. less power to drive it than any other Machine in the market. It will do any work that can be done steadily, without fatigue or injury to health. Its strength and wonderful simplicity of construction, render it almost impossible to get out of order, and is guaranteed by the company to give entire satisfaction. We respectfully invite all those who may desire to supply themselves with a superior article, to call and examine this unrivaled Machine. FOR upward of three years past, I have been engaged in a business, which has yielded me at the rate of $3,000 per annum, but being desirous of going to Europe in the course of a few months for the purpose of introducing the business, I am willing to teach it to any one who will send me $1. The business is no humbug, but of a highly useful and general character, adapted both to cities and villages, and one that any person of ordinary capacity, young or old, male or female, can acquire with a few hours' practice, and which they can secure a very handsome income. Several young ladies who have received instructions from me, both in New York State and Pennsylvania, are earning upwards of $20 per week by it, and there is no reason why any one else cannot do the same. Invalids, even, can do well by it, as it is no peddling affair, but a business that is perfectly respectable. Gentlemen and ladies of leisure who would like to learn the business for their own amusement and pleasure, will find the practice of it a pleasant pastime, and one that they will take great interest in. On receipt of $1, I will send printed instructions by which any person can readily acquire the art, and these instructions will also contain every particular relative to the carrying it on so that it will be highly profitable. The purchaser of the "printed instructions" will also be authorized to receive as high as $200, for teaching it personally to a single individual. I would state further that $2.50 or $3.00 will buy every thing that is necessary to commence the business with, and the articles can be got almost anywhere, in city or country, or, if preferred, I can furnish them.
