

The Mariettian.

None shall with impunity soil these sacred symbols of our Country's Liberty and Power.

F. L. Baker, Editor.

Marietta, Pa.

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1861.

13 Mead & Smith & Anson, No. 335 Broadway, New York, are authorized to act for us in soliciting advertisements.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE: We have read the message with much satisfaction. It is short, plain, and to the point, and gives the Legislature bodies to understand distinctly that the exigencies of the times demand the most thorough measures, at the hands of our Representatives. The President is evidently a reformer of the true stamp, and we shall be very much mistaken if his administration is not eminently beneficial to the entire country. Amongst other useful measures called for in the message, the codification of the Statute Laws is one that is certainly much needed. To accomplish this work Congress would require to appoint a commission of eminent lawyers who might by the next meeting of Congress be fully prepared to report the successful completion of the task.

The grave question of the day is "How are the contrabands to be disposed of?" When we read the message we certainly wished that the President had been a little more luminous on the subject, but on reflection we think that he wisely left the solution of the question to the collective wisdom of the country. His evident favor of liberating and colonizing the poor Africans who are held in slavery by the Southern traitors; and we have no doubt but that he would gladly sanction any judicious scheme that would give liberty to all the enslaved; and adequate compensation to all their loyal masters. We earnestly trust that in this matter Statesmen will quit themselves like men, and cooperate with the President in his honest endeavor to do justice to all classes.

GEN. CAMERON'S DICTATION: On Thursday before the meeting of Congress, General Cameron completed his report and sent it to the printer without submitting it to the inspection of any one. On Sunday last it was completed, and propped up into the hands of Gov. Seward. He became very much alarmed and on Monday morning a Cabinet council was called. General Cameron was asked to change or moderate his report. He refused, and up to eleven o'clock, P. M., Tuesday, it was thought to be inevitable that either General Cameron or Governor Seward must leave the Cabinet, and an entire recast be made. The President finally settled it by going to General Cameron and insisting upon his confining his report to a statement of the past, and not dictate to Congress what they should do.

Secretaries Welles and Chase both sided with Gen. Cameron; but Welles would not make any fight on it, and "would leave it all to the President." Chase, also, would not stand up to fight, and Cameron consequently, at the last moment, modified it.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

GOODY FOR 1862. The new volume—the 33rd year—will commence with the January number; a copy of which is now on our table. The coming volume will contain 1200 pages of reading matter, 24 pages of music 12 colored steel fashion plates, containing at least 70 figures, 15 sets of engravings, 1200 wood engravings, &c. This magazine needs nothing at our hands—it has become a household necessity. The timber-birds of us has a very handsome steel title page for '62; a beautiful steel title page; "Our Father who art in Heaven," a magnificent nine figure fashion plate, &c. &c. Terms, cash in advance.

ONE COPY ONE YEAR, $3. Two copies one year, $5. Three copies one year, $6. Four copies one year, $7. Five copies one year, and an extra copy to the person sending the club, $10. Eight copies one year, and an extra copy to the person sending the club, $15. Twelve copies one year, and an extra copy to the person sending the club, $20. Address, F. L. Baker, Editor, Marietta, Pa.

NO MORE YOUNG MEN: The State, that the President intends to issue a proclamation calling upon the States for two hundred thousand volunteers to be without foundation. The Federal million volunteers called for by the President have been recruited; and they will be received except in the regular service. The regular service is now open, and the State has been shown a slipper from at Port Hazard, South Carolina, for twenty cents. It is a very cheap and good one, and is printed upon the back of a portion of a blank draft.

CLIPPINGS FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

Dr. Robert J. Breckinridge, uncle of the noble Senator, is about to publish a new series of articles to prove that it is the imperative duty of the nation to suppress rebellion and maintain the Constitution at any cost of life and treasure.

Adams' Express took from Boston about fifty tons of "thanksgiving fixings" for the Massachusetts volunteers in the vicinity of Washington. The principal part of this large quantity of eatables was sent by the families of the soldiers.

Anthony Burns, the escaped slave, whose case has excited so much interest, has lately been settled as pastor of the colored Baptist church at St. Catharines, Canada West.

The sex of Mlle Zoyora, attached to Stickney's circus, has been determined by rather an unexpected event, being no less than her elopement and marriage with Manager Stickney's daughter Sallie (Mlle Heloise).

The Richmond Dispatch informs its readers that wheat makes much better coffee than rye, which has reached the extravagant price of three dollars per bushel in consequence of its general use for making coffee.

A rumor is current in the army that the orders upon which Col. Baker acted at Ball's Bluff were forged by some rebel, for the purpose of drawing him into a trap.

The discovery has just been made in the land office that John Slidel owns fifty thousand dollars worth of public lands in Minnesota. It will of course be confiscated.

A movement is said to be on foot in Illinois, to raise a Scotch brigade, and tender the command to General Havelock, late of the British army, and who has lately arrived in this country.

A communication in the Detroit Free Press, which is understood to have been written by General Cass, not only justifies the arrest of Mason and Slidel, but shows that it was in strict accordance with the position of the Government upon the right of search question, as maintained in the correspondence with the British Government in 1858.

Knoxville, Tenn., is under martial law on account of the Union insurrection which took place there lately. Parson Brownlow is reported to have left there with thirteen guns to act with the Unionists. Signal rockets were fired all over the mountains, and efforts were made to burn all the bridges.

Kossuth has written another address to the Hungarians. He prophesies the Emperor of Austria's abdication.

Hinton Rowan Helper, the author of "The Impending Crisis," is appointed to Brazil by the President, where his researches into the slavery question will continue to add to the great storehouse of facts which he has already collected.

GEN. FREMONT: A Washington correspondent, in speaking of Gen. Fremont's expected arrival in Washington, says: "It is understood that a statement has been prepared of his whole movements, from the day that he first asked to go West. It is a terrible exposure of several men high in position and completely refutes the many charges put in circulation as to the real cause of his removal. An effort will be made to prevent any further agitation of the subject at present, on the ground that it would be inimical to the interests of the country. It may be that he will keep quiet for the present, but sooner or later the matter will be fully and freely ventilated. We learn from a reliable source that the President remarked to a gentleman, the other day, 'That some of his Cabinet, urged him to take the step, and now wished to escape the responsibility of it.'

Commodore Paulding and the rebel Commodore Tatnall were intimate friends. While the Government was allowing officers to resign, the two had a long interview, in which Paulding exhausted every argument to induce Tatnall to serve his country. It was all vain. At the close of the conference, Tatnall put the question, "What will you do if we meet?" The answer was prompt and energetic, "I will shoot you." Tatnall nodded his ears, and repeated the question in a deprecating tone. He repeated the same answer with additional vim, and became thoughtful. The Government will probably relieve Commodore Paulding from his post as Commander of the Brooklyn Yard, and assign him to active service.

Lieut. Tatnall, who commanded the marine guard of the San Jacinto, which captured Mason and Slidel, turns out to be a rebel. He is a son of the old rebel Commodore Tatnall, and has been conveyed to Fort Warren for safe keeping. Had Capt. Wilkes sent him on board the Trent, to arrest the rebel ambassadors, the work would not likely have been so well done as Lieut. Fairfax did it.

Several clerks in the Land Office have been notified that charges of disloyalty have been preferred against them by the Posters Investigating Committee.

FOREIGN PERSONAL.

Mrs. Pye, the widow of an ex-Laureate, whose name is hardly known to the readers of the present generation, died in London a few days ago at the age of 91. Pye, who was "fixed a rhyme for life," by reading Pope's "Homer" when a child, succeeded Tom Warton in 1790, not in the enjoyment of the tierce of Canary, but of £27 a year, substituted for the old and pleasant garden. Pye held the laureate crown, or was supposed to hold so magnificent a symbol, during three-and-twenty years, when much more fun was made of him than he deserved, and "Pindar, Pye et Purves Pybus" was a phrase with which our sires were familiar. Pye had an honest admiration for Thomson, who would have been glad to have been laureate, and whose "Rulo Britannia" shows how worthy he would have been of such an office. When Pye died in 1813, the vocation had increased of dignity conferred on it by the appointment of Southey, who did not disdain, as Gray proudly did, because the office had been enjoyed by mediocre men.—Mrs. Pye lived to see three successors of her old master and husband—Southey, Wordsworth and Tennyson. Gray was not the only poet who refused the crown. It was alike refused by Hayley, Moor and Scott. Campbell applied for it for the sake of the pension, when Southey died, but Peel gave it to Wordsworth. Leigh Hunt would willingly have worn it when Wordsworth passed away, and his verses written in acknowledgment of the pension conferred upon him by the Queen prove that there was the stuff of a true courtly poet in him, but the office was assigned to Mr. Tennyson.

To CONSUMPTIVES: The advertiser has been restored to health in a very few weeks by a very simple remedy after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure. To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used, (free of charge,) with the directions for preparing and using the same, which will find a sure cure for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, &c. The only object of the advertiser in sending the prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing. Persons wishing the prescription will please address—REV. EDWARD A. WILSON, 3m] Williamsburg, Kings co., N. Y.

We have heard of some astonishing cures being made by Prof. De Grath's Electric Oil. It seems to act on the diseased parts with remarkable effects and in a short space of time health regains its sway. It can be had of the Agents here, see advertisement in another column.

Important to House Owners Important to Builders. Important to Rail Road Companies. Important to Farmers.

To all whom this may concern, and it concerns every body.

JOHNS & CROSLY'S IMPROVED GUTTA PERCHA CEMENT ROOFING.

The Cheapest and most durable Roofing in use. IT IS FIRE AND WATER PROOF. It can be applied to new and old Roofs of all kinds, steep or flat, and to Shingle Roofs without removing the Shingles. The Cost is only about One-Third that of Tin, and it is TWICE as durable.

This article has been thoroughly tested in New York City and all parts of the United States, by Builders, Architects and others, and has proved to be the CHEAPEST and MOST DURABLE ROOFING in use; it is in every respect a Fire, Water, Weather and Time Proof covering, made of all kinds.

This is the only material manufactured in the United States which combines the very desirable properties of Elasticity and Durability, which are universally acknowledged to be necessary to a good Roofing.

It is recommended by GUTTA PERCHA and INDIA RUBBER. No heat is required in making application. The expense of applying it is trifling, as an ordinary Roof, can be covered and finished the same day.

It can be applied by any one, and when finished forms a perfectly Fire Proof surface, with an elastic body, which cannot be injured by Heat, Cold or Storms. Shrinking of Roof Boards, nor any external action whatever.

LIQUID GUTTA PERCHA CEMENT. For Coating Metals of all kinds when exposed to the Action of the Weather, and for Preserving and Repairing Metal Roofs of all kinds.

This is the only Composition known which will successfully resist extreme changes of all climates, for any length of time, when applied to Metals to which it adheres firmly, forming a body equal to three coats of ordinary paint, and will last three times as long; and from its elasticity is not injured by the contraction and expansion of tin and other metal roofs, consequent upon sudden changes of the weather.

It will not CRACK in cold or RUN in warm weather, and will NOT WASH OFF. Leaky tin and other metal Roofs can be readily repaired with this Gutta Percha Cement, and prevented from further corrosion and leakage, thereby ensuring a perfectly water tight roof for many years.

This Cement is peculiarly adapted for the preservation of Iron Railings, Stoves, Kanges, Saws, Agricultural Implements, &c., also for general manufacturing use.

Gutta Percha Cement. For preserving and repairing TIN and other METAL ROOFS of every description, from its great elasticity, is not injured by the contraction and expansion of Metals, and will not CRACK in cold or RUN in warm weather.

These materials are adapted to all climates, and we are prepared to supply orders from any part of the country, at short notice, for GUTTA PERCHA ROOFING in rolls, ready prepared for use, and Gutta Percha Cement in barrels, with full printed directions for application. [Oct '61-ly
