Our Carrier desires us to say he will present his New Year's Address, and will be happy to be kindly met by the town patrons of THE MARIETTIAN.

SIXTY ONE AND SIXTY Two .- As this is the last time that we shall address our readers during the present year, we most heartily wish them all the compliments of the season. The sad events of the year that is just drawing to a close. will furnish a melancholy chapter in the history of our country. Nations like Individuals have their trials, and this is certainly our day of trial. We think, however that with the year Sixty one the day of our deepest gloom will pass away, and that Sixty two will speedily present Bowel Complaints. They never fail. Only to us, our Southern States, in a vastly 25 cents per Pot or Box. improved and purified condition. Sixty one will no doubt be indelibly engraven on the minds of many, who have experienced losses and crosses, and painful bereavements, of which the public know so purify the blood and strengthen the stomach but little. But the loss of such men as Baker, Lyon, Ellsworth and others on the field, doing battle for our common country, are losses indeed, which every patriotic citizen has felt keenly, and mourned accordingly.

We shall always with pleasure, how which witnessed the inauguration of the first Republican President of these United States, and this event we regard as a special interposition of a gracious Providence for the preservation of the Union. For, in the hands of such Dem- ding the prescription is to benefit the afflicted, the Susquehanna, in all probability, would be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will be the theatre of military operations, similiar to those that are now being enacted on the Potomac. Let us therefore be thankful for the mischief that has been averted in sixty-one, through the instrumentality of our party, and let us cherish good hopes for the blessings that await us in sixty-too.

SHOULD BE LOOKED AFTER: The Lancaster Express says: we have, on several occasions, heard it intimated that very few of the delicacies sent from here for our sick soldiers near Washington ever reached those for whom they were intended by the generous doners, being "appropriated" by certain officials and attendants about the hospitals who thereby fare "sumptuously every day." We were loath to give either credence or publicity to these reports, but the statements are now made in such a direct manner and from apparently responsible parties, that justice to all concerned demands that public attention should be called to these alleged outrages with a view to their speedy-cor-such delicacies as jellies, etc., sent there for invalid soldiers, were plentifully used on the tables of the physicians, and what they did not consume was disposed by the colored servants. Now, this is a serious matter, and should be seen to at once. Gov. Curtin, who has all along manifested a laudable interest in the welfare of our troops, should demand that these evils be remedied; and any officer holding a commission from him who is mean enough to gobble down that which is intended for a sick soldier, should be at once stripped of his official character and publicly disgraced. We would also suggest that a committee of our own citizens go on to camp and inquire into this matter.

PRENTICE AND CAMERON: The Louisville Journal of the 17th instant, says a gentleman remitting subscriptions to that Journal, from the State of Wiscon-

"Cameron is politically dead here." To which Prentice adds: "Thank you, friend, for this cheering intelligence. If Cameron has commenced dying at the extremities of the nation, it will not be long natil death strikes him at the Capital. Heaven speed the shaft and

This does not seem as though Prentice regretted the scathing article which sometime since appeared in the Journal and for which the Cameron todies say he apologized. No! no! no apology from the fearless Kentuckian to such a political poltroon as the Winnebago chief.

Henry Ward Beecher's Thanksgiving Sermon "War and Emancipation" has been published in a neat parphlet form, by Peterson & Brothers, Physidelphia, at 15 cents a copy or 8 for $1. In this sermon Mr. Beecher puts forth more than his ordinary power and takes strong conservative ground. which is something quite new for him. It should be in the hands of every intelligent voter. Sent by mail free of postage at the above rates.

Druckemiller, the "Rapho Poet," paid our office a flying visit a few days since; he looks quite patriarchal with his long grey beard and monstaches.-He says the hard times cannot stagnate his rhyme-grinding organ—that his poems go like not cakes on a cool

The Sanitary Committee of Philalelphia, for the relief of sick and wounded soldiers, have issued an address to the women of this State, asking for assistance. The Government has rented four large buildings in Philadelphia for Hospitals, which have already received the necessary furniture; and in a few days several hundred of the sick and wounded soldiers along the Potomac. will be forwarded to these places. The various Associations throughout that city have been so generally, patriotically and industriously collecting comforts for the soldiers at Washington, can now send a portion of their articles of contribution to Philadelphia, directed to Charles J. Stille, Esq., and contributions in money may be sent to the Treasurer, Caleb Cope, Esq., Sanitary Commission, at 1235 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

The Great National Banner of Intellect for American Hearts and Homes!

NEW YORK MERCURY.

A New Year with and old Friend. N New Year's day of 1862, that world-renowned and unrivaled gem of American journalism, the peerless New York Mercury, will enter upon the twenty-fourth year of the most brilliant career ever achieved by a paper. most brilliant career ever achieved by a paper. During the past year it has been the teacher, story-feller, mentor, and oracle of two hundred thousand American homes, from ocean to ocean—and from Quebeck, in Canada, to Pensocola, on the Gulf of Mexico. Young and old, rich and poor, have revealed in its enchanting stores of wisdom, romance, art poetry, and genial humor; and its praise is "Familiar in their mouths as household words." The noble patriot-soldier in his tenty-too, has willed away the tedium of camp life in the absorbing review of its

Forty Brilliant Columns, finding in them a fascinating mental discipline known only to those who rally to the Banner-sheet of the Grand Army of American Intellect and Genius! In commencing a Yew Year, the proprietors of the New York Mercury can only say, that it shall be their aim to make their great family journal of American literature, for 1862, more brilliant and enchanting than ever, in its con-centration of all the world's grandest and most centration of all the world's grantest and most beautiful specialities in healthful Romance, gruceful Poetry; elegant and quaint Gossip, refining Knowledge, sparkling Humor, and entertaining Mews-unrily like love, it "—rules the court, the camp, the bower," as it already rules the happy domestic fireside.

The editorial tone and National departments

The editorial tone and National departments of The New York Mercury will continue true to that lofty spirit of patriotism which has made it a necessity of the people since the War began, and kept it in enthusiastic demand when other sheets were dying all around it for want of popular support.

Already the largest Literary Journal in the world, and famous as the focus of a thousand brilliant literary reputations, its programme for 1862 will be magnificent beyond all pre-cedent. The most celebrated pens of this country and Europe have been secured in its service, at an outlay equal to the expense of more than one national government in the Old World! and its novelettes, or continued stores, for 1862, will be the most splendid triumphs of elegant Fiction ever published.— To these, too, the magic pencil of the greatest of American Artists, Mr. Felix O. C. Darley, will lend the aid of pictorial art.

Our story, initiary of the New Year, is a splendid national Romance, commencing in the New York Mercury of Saturday, January 4th, 1862, and entitled
