

The Mariettaian.

None shall with impunity soil these sacred symbols of our Country's life, liberty and power.

F. L. Baker, Editor.

Marietta, Pa.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 25, 1862.

Messrs. MATHER & ABBOTT, No. 335 Broadway, New-York, are duly authorized to act for us in soliciting advertisements, &c.

NATIONAL ARMY AT COLUMBIA.—Col. Myers of the House, on the 17th instant, offered the following:

WHEREAS, Our National Government has in view, the establishing of a national armory in one of the free northern States in place of the Harper's Ferry works (which were destroyed in the present war for the preservation of the Union) at some suitable location, easy of access and where the necessary materials to manufacture arms may readily be obtained;

And whereas, Columbia, Lancaster county, combines all the requisites to make it a suitable point for the location of national work shops for the manufacture of arms, having in its immediate vicinity ten blast furnaces, with inexhaustible beds of the best hematite iron ores; one first class rolling mill; an immense and reliable water power; and being located at the central and diverging point of the great railroad and canal thoroughfares, and surrounded by a rich and fertile farming country, secured advantages unsurpassed by any other location in the country as a site for the erection of their important national work shops and repositories for the safe keeping of arms; therefore,

Resolved, That our members in Congress are hereby respectfully requested to use all honorable means to secure for Pennsylvania the location of the contemplated national armory—at the same time setting forth the natural advantages Columbia possesses for the location of these important national works.

Resolved, That the Governor of Pennsylvania is hereby requested to forward a copy of the above resolutions to each of our members of Congress.

In Danbury, Conn., last September, a man named Doran was murdered mysteriously, and the offer of a liberal reward failed to detect the murderer. Lately the reward was increased to $200, and Patrick Ryan (one of the suspected parties) writes a letter to one of the surviving brothers of the murdered man, saying: "If you don't want to lose your money, you draw it back," and offering to give himself up and stand trial. On the day named, 6th inst., he surrendered himself to the officers.

Serious charges are brought against an officer holding a high position in our army—their nature being nothing else than inducing a brother officer in California, to resign his position there and join the army of Beauregard, which he did. The traitorous conduct of this Federal officer is proven by the written evidence of his own hand.

The Richmond Dispatch says that a large part of the Confederate troops were enlisted for six months, which term is about to expire, and that it is a "trick to which McClellan looks for their destruction," to let their time run out and their places be filled with raw recruits before he moves. Thereupon a frantic appeal is made to the "heroes of Bethel, Bull Run," and the like to re-enlist.

It is alleged that ex-Minister Faulker, who was recently released from Fort Warren, in exchange for Congressman Ely, is in his old residence at Martinsburg, Virginia, directing the forces of the rebel Gen. Johnson in their marauding expeditions on the Upper Potomac.

As the Navy Department has no vessel to detail for carrying to London, as in 1851, the contributions which Americans may desire to exhibit at the World's Fair, the President recommends that authority be given to charter a suitable vessel for that purpose.

The law prohibiting the killing of pheasants partridges and rabbits on and after the first of January in each year, was amended in 1859 and extended to the first of February.

Herman Yerkes, for several years and also during the present session, Sergeant-at-Arms of the State Senate, died in Philadelphia on Sunday last.

George A. C. Seiler, for some time commandant at Camp Curtin, Harrisburg, died in that city, on Sunday last.

John Tyler is no more—having died at Richmond on Friday last.—Henry A. Wise should "follow suit."

The death of Zollicoffer and Baile Peyton is fully confirmed.

THAT RESIGNATION. The withdrawal of the Hon. Simon Cameron from the high position of Secretary of War in the American Cabinet, doubtless surprised many persons, even those in official places at Washington, claiming to be well-posted in the secrets of the President; but it will perhaps surprise many still more to learn that Mr. Cameron himself was the most surprised of all! We have it from unquestionable authority that it was not a voluntary resignation. The President's intimation of his desire in the premises was accompanied with the offer of the appointment to St. Petersburg. This was thoughtful on the part of the President, and a graceful letting down. Mr. Cameron did not hesitate a moment. He knew the President's intimation was an absolute command; and the alternative of a resignation for an Envoyship, was highly preferable to a removal, which had no doubt been determined on as an eventuality. At St. Petersburg there is nothing to do; and armed with a smart Secretary of Legation, to draw up to order the necessary correspondence and dispatches, the post is one of elegant leisure, where a man's pleasures and meditations will not often be disturbed.

We have long been an opponent of Mr. Cameron—not on any personal account, for we scarcely knew him—but from a deliberately-formed conviction that he was nothing more than a shrewd, intriguing politician, wholly incompetent for the position to which he aspired, and one who would hesitate in the employment of no means which would place him in them. His entire political history has been one of concealment and mystery—something that seemed to shirk the light of day. It appeared to us remarkable that so many men, whose ability, integrity, eloquence and administrative qualities were patent, should be completely ignored for Mr. Cameron. It was something, indeed, we could never comprehend, and failing to do so, we could not become one of his applauders. Hence our antagonism.

When Mr. Cameron entered the Cabinet of President Lincoln, we condemned it promptly and pointedly. We regarded it as an appointment "not fit to be made." We knew that he possessed no qualifications for the post; that he could not write his report, or conduct intelligently a correspondence. But we knew also that it would be a godsend for "his friends" who forced him there. They would be rewarded, and they have been. It would also further his designs upon the Presidency itself. The rebellion presented innumerable opportunities to aid him in this, and they were not neglected. Issuing commissions to every man-asking for them to organize regiments all over the country, without as much as saying to the Governors of the States, "By your leave, sir," was a bold stroke to this end; but it failed. The next was his disagreement with the policy of the President, in his report, (written by a Judge of Schuylkill county) on the conduct of the war, by which he was to extemporize a party, and probably by the pressure which was to be brought to bear, drag over the President himself to his scheme. He failed again, more signally than before, for instead of extinguishing the President, he extinguished himself. We gave him one year, when he entered the Cabinet, to get to the end of the tether; but he has accommodated us in ten months. So much the better. We are grateful that he will hereafter be harmless for mischief, and therefore take leave of him for the present with thanks.

We clip the above from the German-town Telegraph, one of the highest toned neutral papers published in the Keystone State. We think, however, charity would admonish us not to strike the fallen, and for the time to come we will allow Simon to wig-way in his Russian Sable Furs, unmolested.

Henry Horn, formerly a prominent politician in Pennsylvania, died at Flourtown, Montgomery county, Pa., on the 12th instant, at the age of 76.—He was chairman of the Hickory club in Philadelphia during the campaign ending in the election of General Jackson, and member of Congress from the Second Congressional district during his Presidency. Jackson's high confidence in Mr. Horn was well known at that time, and remarking that "Horn could not lie," he appointed him as one of the Committee of investigation upon the affairs of the United States Bank.—His opinion was given adversely to that institution. During the Presidency of Polk he was collector for the Port of Philadelphia.

Gen. Jim Lane has had his right to his seat in the Senate confirmed by a vote of 24 to 16, thus substantiating his claims beyond all question. This will satisfy him, and he will now resign the seat and accept of the Brigadier-Generalship to which the President has appointed him. On Saturday last, he, together with his staff, left Washington for the purpose of assuming the command of his division.

Prince Napoleon is said to be preparing a discourse for the French Senate, which will express warm sympathy for the United States in their present struggle.

THE EMPIRE, THE BUCKEYE AND THE KEYSTONE STATE.—While we adore the name and the reputation of the old Keystone State, and are jealously proud of all that is done in her name, we are not unmindful of the exertions of our sister commonwealths, in responding with armed men to aid the National Administration in maintaining its authority. The three great commonwealths of the Union, the Empire the Buckeye and the Keystone State, have each officially reported the number of troops they have in the field, which we transcribe, adding to each state its population, according to the last census:

	Soldiers.	Population.
New York.	89,064	3,880,730
Ohio.	77,844	2,339,599
Pennsylvania.	109,615	2,906,370

These figures are from official sources. The number of troops as stated in the messages of the Governors of each of the states respectively, and the population from the last report of the census bureau. Thus, it will be seen, that Pennsylvania, with a million population less than New York, has furnished twenty thousand more troops, and with a little over half a million more population than Ohio, has furnished an excess of thirty-one thousand one hundred and seventy-one more men than that state.

New York deserves credit for what she has done, when we consider how prone the people of the Empire State are to boast and exaggerate. Ohio has done nobly, and can doubtless do better if a call is made and an opportunity offered. But Pennsylvania has not only exceeded both of these two states in numbers and comparison, but she has exceeded herself in loyalty and devotion to the Union. With a commendable lack of display peculiar to our people, these troops were recruited, organized and in the field, while the requisitions on other states were scarcely half made up or organized.

ARMY PAY.—The reduction in pay per month which the commissioned officers of the Army will be subjected to if the Senate bill passes both houses will be as follows:—

	Present pay.	Proposed pay.
Major-General.	$469.00	$300
Brigadier-General.	323.50	240
Colonel.	218.00	200
Lieutenant-Colonel.	184.00	180
Major.	185.00	150
Captain.	118.50	110
First Lieutenant.	108.50	100

WHAT OUR GOVERNOR OFFERS.—The Pennsylvanians in Washington are greatly pleased with the proposition of Governor Curtin to the War Department, that the eight regiments of infantry and one of cavalry, now in the State, should embark at Philadelphia for some destination South where they may have immediate and active service. That after placing in the field over one hundred thousand men, more than any State in the Union, and arming and equipping them in a most creditable manner, the brave old Keystone should offer to do still more, indeed to furnish—now that she has filled her quota and all other States exhausted, at least for the present—an entire expedition, is a fact which most reflect the highest honor upon her loyal and patriotic people.

CAMERON AND CONTRACTS.—In answer to a call for information made upon Secretary Cameron by the Senate, he incidentally remarked, "I take this occasion to repeat the statement that I have never made a contract since I took charge of the War Department, for any purpose whatever, having always interpreted the laws of Congress to intend that the heads of bureaus, all of them able and experienced officers of the regular army, shall make all contracts for supplies for the branches of the service severally under their charge." To the above we simply say Amen!

THE MARCH OF EDUCATION.—Our soldiers in South Carolina and at Hatteras have opened schools to teach the young and adult negroes to read. They are said to make apt scholars; are anxious to learn, and are industrious. Yet it has been urged for years, that the slave cannot be improved by being placed in a state of freedom. It is a fallacy, which the experience of the war so far, is rapidly dissipating.

MRS. JACKSON.—The twenty-seven thousand dollars that were raised in Dixie for the benefit of Mrs. Jackson, widow of the murderer of Col. Ellsworth, it appears, was nearly all made up of promises to pay, and Mrs. Jackson, who is now in Richmond, experiences great difficulty in collecting the accounts.

GOOD GRIT.—Four ladies in Fisher-ville, New Hampshire, one married and three unmarried adopted the Bloomer costume some two years since, and still wear it to the exclusion of other styles.

A GOOD BILL.—Senator Hale, Republican of New Hampshire, has introduced a bill to punish frauds on the Treasury. It provides that any person obtaining money fraudulently shall be punished by a fine to the amount of money so obtained, and imprisoned for not more than ten years. If any officer of the Government do it, he shall be discharged and punished, and ever after be ineligible to any office. This is just what is wanted, and if passed, as we hope it will be, and strictly carried into effect, without fear, favor or affection, against all public functionaries of high and low degree, it cannot fail to bring about a great reform.

Mayor Dougal, of Windsor, Canada, publishes a card in the Detroit Advertiser, denying that there are fortifications of any kind in process of erection at Windsor, or that there is any intention of throwing up any. A street forty feet wide, laid out and graded around a small public park, has been mistaken for embankments.

A bill has been introduced into the City Council of Nashville to convert all citizens between the ages of seventeen and forty-five into policemen for the purpose of watching the city by night, all of whom shall take an oath to support the Southern Confederacy.—Passed first reading, and referred to the Police Committee.

The small-pox is beginning to prevail to an alarming extent in various parts of Washington. It is not confined to any particular class of people. Nearly every person is getting vaccinated.—It is thought the disease was introduced into the city by the soldiers from the hospital at Kalorama.

The released prisoners say that their new clothing and boots recently sent by the government to Richmond, were looked upon with longing eyes by the rebels, and especially their boots.—Many were offered as high as $25 for them.

A fly in one's butter is decidedly the least pleasant of all kinds of butter flies.

What an amount of suffering and disease among the Volunteers would be prevented by the free use of HOLLOWAY'S PILLS & OINTMENT. For wounds, sores and scurvy the Ointment is a certain cure, and for bowel complaints, fevers, small pox, &c., the Pills are the best medicine in the world. Only 25 cents per Box or Pot.

HEALTH FOR THE SOLDIERS.—For one who dies from the effect of the bullet, ten perish from damp and exposure to night air. Small doses of HOLLOWAY'S PILLS taken every other night, will correct all disorders of the Liver and Stomach, purify the blood, and insure sound health to every man. Only 25 cents per Box.

To CONSUMPTIVES: The advertiser having been restored to health in a very few weeks by a very simple remedy after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow sufferers the means of cure. To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used, (free of charge), with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find a SURE CURE for Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, &c. The only object of the advertiser in sending the prescription is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which he conceives to be invaluable, and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost them nothing, and may prove a blessing. Persons wishing the prescription will please address

CRITTENDEN'S PHILADELPHIA COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.

N. E. corner of 7th & Chestnut Sts., PHILADELPHIA.

This Institution, which was established in 1844, and is now consequently in the eighteenth year of its existence, numbers among its graduates, hundreds of the most successful Merchants and Business Men in our Country.

The Object of the Institution is solely to afford young men facilities for thorough preparations for business.

The Branches taught are, Book-keeping, as applicable to the various departments of trade; Penmanship, both plain and ornamental; Commercial Law, Mathematics, Navigation, Civil Engineering, Drawing, Geography, and Modern Languages.

The System of instruction is peculiar; no classes or set lessons are made use of, but each student is taught individually, so that he may commence at any time, and attend at whatever hours are most convenient.

Catalogues are issued annually after the 15th of April, containing names of the students for the year, and full particulars of terms, &c., and may be obtained at any time by addressing the Principal.

In extensive accommodations, wide-spread reputation, and the lengthy experience of the Principal, this Institution offers facilities superior to any other in the country, for young men wishing to prepare for business, and to obtain a DIPLOMA, which will prove a recommendation for them to any Mercantile House.

Crittenden's Series of Institutions is widely kept, now more widely circulated, than any other work on the subject, are for sale at the College.
