

None shall with impunity soil these sacred symbols of our Country's life, liberty and power.

F. L. Baker, Editor.

Marietta, Ga.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1862.

Messrs. MATHER & ABBOTT, No. 535 Broadway, New-York, are duly authorized to act for us in soliciting advertisements, &c.

The noble Andrew Johnson, who has stood up fearfully through all this crisis for the Union, is in daily attendance in the Senate, and though fortunately not so prominent in debate as others, he is nevertheless earnestly working for the suppression of the rebellion. It is now nearly nine months since he has heard from his family in Tennessee, though learning from the public print that large amounts of his estate have been confiscated by his State. Of course this property will be restored to him all in good time, as no transfer under the rebel authority will be worth a pinch of snuff.

Resolutions were introduced in the Senate, on Saturday, requesting Senators Pearce and Kennedy to resign, on the ground that their sentiments are in the direct conflict with settled views of the people of the State, and that it is right and proper that the State should, at this critical juncture, be represented by Senators whose hearts beat responsive to the throbs of devotion to the integrity of the Union felt by the great popular heart of the State.

Hon John J. Crittenden is deeply affected by the news from Kentucky, and has not been in the house since the report of the battle of Somerset was received. Although he has two sons in the Union army, the presence of one in the rebel army, his eldest, overwhelms him with grief. The report that Gen. Crittenden deserted his command at Somerset is not believed by any who know him. Rebel though he be, he is accounted gallant and manly.

A young man, named Levi Irvine, of Bloomsburg, in this State, being enamored of two young ladies, married them both on Saturday evening a week. The girls of course were ignorant that they married the same man at almost the same time, and were greatly distressed when the fact was discovered. Two days afterwards, the bridegroom was in the county jail for taking more wives than the law allows.

Thurlow Weed, in one of his recent letters to his Albany Journal, stated that Queen Victoria was the friend of the United States. In his last letter he says, on reliable authority, that the last use the Prince Consort made of his pen was, at the Queen's request, to soften the despatches sent to Lord Lyons.

The small pox prevails to such an extent in the lower part of the county in which Wilmington, Delaware, is situated that the Mayor of the city has felt it his duty to issue a proclamation forbidding any infected persons to be brought within one mile of the city limits under a heavy penalty.

We hear from New-Orleans that the French residents in that city are anxious to escape; that they have held a meeting to take measures to effect this; and that they put themselves in communication with the Union troops at Ship Island.

Four million pounds of grain are contained in the warehouses at Alexandria. From that depot eighty tons of hay are daily issued; the entire army of the Potomac, one hundred and twenty-five tons of hay are supplied.

The Governor of New York recommends that the military drill and tactics be introduced in all the State collegiate and academic institutions; that the State's proportion of the U. S. war tax be assumed at once.

Cook, A sutler of a regiment in Gen. Ponce's division, detected last week in France's Treasury Notes and taking account from soldiers, was expelled from the camp, by order.

In the immediate House of Representatives, a bill was introduced for the information of friends of families of deceased soldiers, we would state that any information in relation to burials can be obtained by addressing the government undertaker, J. E. Plant, Washington, D. C.

A strange commission was that which inquired into the fitness of the moment. Cameron and Thomas! One now arranged for the waste of millions, the other charged with treason!

The St. Louis Republican states that Gen. Seigal was permitted to withdraw his resignation, and that he is now in active service under Gen. Curtis.

MAY BE TRUE: The Albany Atlas thinks the mission of Gen. Cameron to Russia is to form an alliance, offensive and defensive, between that empire and the United States, in view of a war with England or France, which it thinks cannot be long delayed, as those governments are likely to recognize the Southern Confederacy at an early day. It says that the only door of escape from the destruction of our nationality is an alliance with Russia. In case of an outbreak between either of those powers and the United States, Russia could render effective assistance to us and intimidate those powers by warlike preparations near their borders.

The London Times says that the British government would have done as much to rescue two negroes as it did to release Mason and Slidel, after they had been taken from an English mail steamer. The same journal also protest against any extravagant welcome being extended to the released traitor envoys on their appearance in England. All this is a backing down on the part of the Thunderer, as the letter of Secretary Seward produced a great change of opinion among the English masses, so that the Times to be up with its patrons, was bound to change also, or loose its accustomed share of patronage.

Col. James Kearney, Topographical Engineer, U. S. A., recently placed on the retired list, died a few days ago, aged seventy-eight years. He was buried in unostentatious style, as it is understood, by his own particular request, to have no notice given of his death, in order to avoid any military display at the funeral. He was one of the most distinguished engineers in the army.

Some dissatisfaction appears to be making its way into the southern press on account of the unpromising condition of rebel affairs. The Augusta, Ga., Constitutionalist and the N. O. True Delta are out in full cry against the management of Jeff. Davis & Co., whom they charge with peculation, mistake policy, selfishness, and want of vigor.

The Legislature of South Carolina has passed an act authorizing the Governor to effect a loan of one million of dollars to rebuild that portion of Charleston laid in ruins by the late fire, the money so borrowed to be lent to such applicants as desire to rebuild, who are restrained from erecting other than fire proof buildings.

The Postmaster General suggests that postage be collected for telegraphic dispatches sent over the wires, at the rate of five cents a dispatch. He calculates that by this means a large revenue will accrue to the government, and his suggestion deserves the consideration of Congress.

It is now said that General Sherman simply obeyed orders in not advancing immediately into the interior after landing at Port Royal. It was the purpose of the Government to make a permanent and impregnable base of operations about Beaufort.

The Nashville Union says that proceedings under the confiscation act have been taken against the property of Judge Catron, worth about seventy-five thousand dollars, and against Andy Johnson for about thirty thousand dollars.

Gov. Buckingham, of Connecticut, in pursuance of his determination to fill up the militia by draft, has made a requisition upon the town of New Haven for 57 men, to be selected by lot from those returned as subject to militia duty.

A prominent lawyer of Camden recently received through the post office a remittance of six hundred dollars from a resident of Savannah. The money was the interest which was given by the latter to be sent to the client of the former.

Gov. Andrew has vetoed the bill extending the aid of the State of Massachusetts to the families of the soldiers who were irregularly enlisted in the Butler regiments.

The concert saloons of New York have sent twenty of the prettiest waiter girls to Albany to charm the legislators into favoring the continuance of the "Broadway ulcers."

It is said that $10,000 have been sent to Albany to prejudice New York legislators against the bill closing the Broadway concert saloons.

It is stated that the bill abolishing the franking privilege does not abolish the privilege of exchange between newspapers.

Secretary Smith, of the Interior Department, will, it is said, be appointed a judge of the U. S. Supreme Court.

The vote on the confirmation of the nomination of Mr. Stanton, as Secretary of War, was 38 to 2.

Five thousand acres, it is said, will be planted in Cotton in southern Illinois during the next season.

A Survivor of the "Wyoming Massacre" is still living. His name is David Stafford, and his age 93.

CLIPPINGS FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

So far, about one thousand prisoners on each side have been exchanged, nearly five hundred of whom were connected with the army of the Potomac. The system of exchanges inaugurated by our Government is fully reciprocated by the rebel authorities.

The Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs will soon report a bill for the recognition of Hayti and Liberia. The bill makes provision for the appointment of a Charge d'Affaires to both of these countries, to be empowered to act as Commissioners of Emigration.

Com. Tatnall, one of the most distinguished U. S. navy officers who espoused the rebel cause at the commencement of the war, has recently resigned his position in the rebel navy, and retired from the service in disgust.

Thousands of persons who were drafted in Tennessee are offering large prices for substitutes. The supply of substitutes, however, is not equal to the demand, and the market price is going up daily.

D. Lacroix, a Professor of French and other European languages, committed suicide on Thursday afternoon of last week, in New York, by shooting himself through the head with a pistol. The coroner's inquest elicited the fact that he was suffering from embarrassed circumstances, which was the supposed cause of the act.

An Indian Damsel and a Frenchman were lately married at Oldtown, Me.—The wedding was attended by all the first families on the island, to whom birch bark wigwiggins were sent, and the nuptials were celebrated with an ecstacy worthy of the occasion, closing with a grand dance after the aboriginal fashion.

A Mr. Johnson is erecting a large paper mill, at Burnside farm, near Alva, England, for the manufacture of paper from wood ground to dust. The invention is a French one, and has been patented, though it was known in this country for half a dozen years.

A Physician who practices medicine and some other things in New-York, was cowed by a short time since by a gentleman whose wife the doctor attempted to kiss, against her will, on a professional visit to the house.

William Appleton, of Boston, has given $10,000 to the Massachusetts General Hospital, the sum to be added to the fund he commenced many years since, to enable patients who would otherwise be compelled to leave imperfectly cured to remain until a thorough re-establishment of health is effected.

Gen. Buckner says his troops are an armed mob, and that he must have time to work them up before he risks a fight. Let him risk the fight, and Gen. McCook will work them up for him.

It is understood that Gen. Lane will, with the approbation of the Government, make the experiment of employing slaves of rebels, in his military operations in the West.

Napoleon punished every dishonest army contractor with death. He regarded every man who sought to coin money by malpractice upon the government, in a time of war, as worse than a public foe. Contractors may make a note of this.

Rev. Robert Johnson, who died recently in New Castle, Lawrence county, Pa., was a lineal descendant of Oliver Cromwell, by Bridget, his eldest daughter, who was first the wife of General Fleetwood, and afterwards of General Ireton.

It appears from a general order of the rebel Gen. Lee, dated Nov. 27th, found in the camp on the North Edisto, that the rebels are short of ammunition, and that the guards are not allowed to waste their powder.

A Cincinnati paper states that the government is indebted to three or four clothing firms of that city, to the amount of more than two and a half millions of dollars.

Numerous applications are made to the Commissioner of Patents for cotton seed. It is his intention to procure a quantity of such seed as he believes will succeed in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, for distribution in small quantities.

Mr. Isaac Tunnell, over 93 years of age, and for 54 years cashier of the Farmers' Bank of the State of Delaware, at Georgetown, has resigned his position as cashier. Mr. T. was the oldest cashier in the country.

A writ of habeas corpus has been issued against the Catholic convent, known as the House of the Good Shepherd, in Chicago, to release a young girl named Mary Kelly, and her illegitimate child, who, it is alleged, are now held there by the Lady Superior without authority of law.

ILLINOIS COFFEE.—Mr. Geo. R. Hoffman, of Illingham county, Ill., last year raised two bushels of coffee, nearly identical with the Rio coffee. His seed was sent to him three years ago from Australia. It was unproductive the first year, bearing a little the second year, and is most productive the third season. At his estimate thirty bushels can be grown per acre. The plant has every appearance of hardiness and adaptability to Illinois soil. Many farmers in Mr. Hoffman's vicinity will plant it the coming season.
