Great Improvement in Sewing Machines. Empire Sewing Machine. Patented February 14th, 1860. Salesroom, 510 Broadway, New York.

THIS Machine is constructed on an entirely new principle of mechanism, possessing many rare and valuable improvements, having been examined by the most profound experts, and pronounced to be Simplicity and Perfection Combined. The following are the principal objections urged against Sewing Machines: 1. Excessive fatigue to the operator. 2. Liability to get out of order. 3. Expense, trouble and loss of time in repairing. 4. Incapacity to sew every description of material. 5. Disagreeable noise while in operation. The Empire Sewing Machine is exempt from all these objections. It has a straight, needle perpendicular action, makes a lock of stitch in a strike, which will neither rip nor stretch, and is alike on both sides; performs perfect sewing on every description of material, from Leather to the finest Namook Muslin, with cotton, linen and thread, from the coarsest to the finest number.

Having neither CAM nor COG WHEEL, and the least possible friction, it runs as smooth as glass, and is EMPLOYED IN ALL THE LATEST MACHINES. It requires less power to operate than any other Machine in the market. A girl of twelve years of age can work it steadily, without fatigue or injury to health. Its strength and wonderful simplicity of construction, render it almost impossible to get out of order, and is guaranteed by the company to give entire satisfaction. We respectfully invite all those who may desire to supply themselves with a superior article, to call and examine this unrivalled Machine. But in a more special manner do we solicit the patronage of Merchant Tailors, Dress Makers, Coat Makers, Vest Makers, Caster Fitters, Hatter Makers, Shoe Makers, Shirt and Boom Makers, and Hoop Skirt Manufacturers. Religious and Charitable Institutions will be liberal in their patronage. Price of MACHINES Complete: No. 1, or Family Machine, $45 00. No. 2, Small sized Manufacturing, $60 00. No. 3, Large sized Manufacturing, $75 00. Cabinets in every Variety.

We want Agents for all towns in the United States where a large population is not already published, to whom a liberal discount will be given, but we make no consignments. T. J. McARTHUR, & Co., 510 Broadway, New York.

ROBERT BURNS. Among the celebrations of the 103d anniversary of Scotia's Bard's birthday, we have been favored with the proceedings of that, by the Burns' Club of Cincinnati, O. Two original songs seem to me, worthy of publication here, and I therefore respectfully solicit place for them in "The Mariettian."

ROBIN'S SONGS. Again with gladsome hearts we meet, our Robin's songs to sing, His memory yet kinder greet, while "time is on the wing"

Though far away frae Scotia's shore, each heart joy returns To bless the hour that he was born, "the man, the poet Burns."

Though Scotia is his native land, all hearts thrill with his lays; O! where's the man that has not heard, of Doon's sweet banks and braes?

The gowan in the greenwood glen, the linnet on the thorn, And primrose in its cosy dew, by him anew were born;

And silver burnie wimpling clear, sings to his muse so free.

THE FLAG OF THE CONSTELLATION. BY T. BUCHANAN READ. Air—"Sparkling and bright."

The stars of morn On our banner borne With the Iris of heaven are blended;

Then hail the true Red, White and Blue, The flag of the Constellation, It sails as it sailed

Peace! Peace to the world Is our motto unfurled, Though we shun not the field that is glory;

The Good Wife.—The power of the wife for good or evil is irresistible:—Home must be the seat of happiness, or it must be forever unknown.

SUNDAY BATTLES.—Gen. McDowell made an attack on the enemy at Bull Run, on Sunday morning, which resulted in a panic and rout of the most deplorable character.

AN EVIL CHARM.—The Rochester Union relates the case of a child, two years of age, daughter of Mr. Davis, in that city, charmed by a snake.

VERMONT PRODUCTIONS.—Saxe, the poet, says that Vermont is famous for four staples: "men, women, maple sugar and horses."

A Koronian, on being asked at breakfast how he came by "that black eye," said he "slept on his fist."

Women never truly command until they have given their promise to obey.

Epitaph in an Irish graveyard: "Here lies the body of John Mound, Lost at sea and never found."

RECRUITING BANDS.—To "face the music" during the present war, requires some financial boldness. It appears from a return made by the Paymaster General of the United States Army that the annual cost of each regimental band is $7,002; that there are seven hundred regiments of volunteers in service; and that, consequently, the collective cost of their music is $5,321,400 a year.

A GRAVE DIGGING TRAGEDY.—On Wednesday a prisoner, who was brought into the city, says the Washington Chronicle, from the camp of the First regiment Pennsylvania Reserves, created considerable excitement among the pedestrians on the side walk from the fact that he was seated high upon a wagon, surrounded by a guard, and wore suspended from his neck a miniature grave head-board on which was printed the words: "Old Mortality digs soldiers' graves, and, by selling whiskey, helps to fill them."

CONSOLIDATION OF CAVALRY.—General Stoungeman, chief of cavalry, has recommended the consolidation of the seventy-seven regiments of volunteer cavalry now on the rolls, into fifty regiments.

AN OBEYENT SON.—A boy was tempted by some of his companions to pluck some ripe cherries from a tree his father had forbidden him to touch.

THE RECENT ORDER OF GUN HALLECK reflects the spirit of the times, and will be applauded by the country.

"Henrietta," said a landlord to his new girl, "when there's bad news from Washington, or any bad news, particularly private afflictions, always let the boarders know it before dinner."

A doctor went to bleed a dandy, who languidly exclaimed, "Oh, doctor, you're a good butcher!"

"A brother lawyer—once told Saxe that a beard was unprofessional."

"Economy is no disgrace; it is better living on a little than outliving a great deal."

There is no lock in the world that requires such careful picking as wed-lock.

THE BRODERICK WILL.—A late San Francisco telegram mentions the fact that Judge Hogan has issued an injunction restraining the sale of the Broderick estate, until the question of forgery of the will is investigated.

INDIAN ANECDOTE.—Years ago, when the copper-faced natives had mingled with the whites—just long enough to confuse their ideas of property, when Judge Johnson held his court on the bank of the Mohawk, Big John, a prince of the royal family of Kinnikinnick, was arraigned, tried and convicted of the larceny of New England fire-water.

A STRANGE DREAM.—Old Squire W. is an honest, jovial soul, with a few religious scruples, and a hearty laugh of a good joke at any time.

How long will you live? You will live forever. And your life here will depend on your life here.

"Oh, mamma, I asked Miss Brown what she said to the doctor."

A lady making inquiries of a boy about his father, an intemperate man, who had been sick for some time, asked whether he had regained his appetite.

Some years ago, a letter, directed to "Zimbidibidibid," was received at the London post office.

The young lady who gives herself away loses her self-possession.
