Marietta, Pa.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 1862.

Messrs. MATHER & ABBOTT, No. 335 Broadway, New York, are duly authorized to set for us in soliciting advertisements, &c.

Rev. Mr. Clauges of this place, who has a school in Columbia, intends giving an exhibition at the Odd Fellows' Hall, in that borough, on Washington's birth-day—22d instant. The exercises will consist of declamations, singing, reading, examinations in mental arithmetic, geography, &c. An original patriotic address will be delivered by Master Charles Sourbeer. The Welsh Union Choir will also assist. Tickets have been placed at five cents—the proceeds, over and above expenses, to be applied by Mr. C. to the furnishing of a good dinner at 12 o'clock on the 22d, to all the pupils of his school, numbering over one hundred. The Columbia Spy speaking of the affair says: "The teacher, as is well known, is a man with a great heart, and nothing affords him so much genuine happiness as the promotion of proper, innocent employment on the part of his pupils. The proposition is—a large issue of tickets at five cents each, which will be generally purchased, thus affording a sufficient sum—not an extravagant one by any means—for supplying the youngsters with a good dinner on the anniversary. Each holder of a ticket will not only enjoy the consciousness of having contributed to the pleasure of the children, but the additional satisfaction of attending the exhibition in the evening, which promises to be a most interesting one. In order that Mr. Clauges may make the necessary preparations for the feast, it is desirable that all intending to purchase tickets should do so at once. The children have them for sale, and will doubtless dispose of enough to fill the Hall."

We have received from Lieutenant Sterrett M. Curran, of Co. E., First Regiment of Nebraska Volunteers, a copy of the first number of "The Nebraska Volunteer." The editor in his salutatory says: "The causes that prompted the issuing of The Volunteer were, first: The office containing the material for printing, having been deserted by its former editor, and owner, and was left to prosper or perish by the ebbing and flowing of the tide of war, was fast pursuing its way into forgetfulness and ruin, the editor having volunteered as a private in the Union Army at the handsome salary of $13 per month, believing that more money could be made by so doing than editing a paper in Georgetown, Missouri.

The "First" is stationed at Georgetown, Fetta county, Missouri, and the paper is a very neat little specimen of typography, and edited by "Provy,"—truly may it be said "what's in a name."

The immortal "J. N." paid our town a flying visit on Thursday last and lectured to a very full house in the Town Hall on Thursday evening. "J. N." hails from the West, and is the greatest orator, statesman and satirist of the age (?) The Harrisburg Telegraph says he is not only "an orator infinitely surpassing Cicero and Demosthenes but is a philosopher whose truth at once penetrates the darkest problems." "J. N." expects to visit us soon again.

Messrs West and Roth call the attention of consumers to a superior article of coal oil, possessing merit beyond anything heretofore offered in this borough, being free from that gummy substance and bad odor which characterize that commonly sold here; produces no smoke and is free from all explosive properties. Price 12 cents per quart; 45 cents per gallon; 40 cents by the barrel. Also receiving a large and beautiful assortment of Coal Oil Lamps in which they defy competition.

The little cannon was brought out on the receipt of the news of the capture of Fort Henry, by Heckrothe, and some other patriotic citizens, and fired off in front of the White Swan.—Whenever the little "boomer" is heard, war intelligence is known to be favorable.

No. 3 Cotton Mill, at Lancaster, has again gone into operation, and we hear, from good authority, that No. 2 will start on Monday next. This is surely a God-send to many poor families of that city.

Geo. Sanderson was inaugurated Mayor of Lancaster on Tuesday last. He was elected by a majority of 84.

The Susquehanna is clear of ice and quite high.

CLIPPINGS FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

Additional efforts will be made for the release of Col. Corcoran, who is now at Columbia, South Carolina. It is supposed that the newly-appointed Commissioners will urge the matter.

The Norfolk Day Book calls upon the ladies to contribute their old woollen petticoats and dresses to the Government, the price of flannel used for fixed ammunition being so high as to subject the Government to a serious tax. So ladies, please to drop your duds!

The Washington Republican of Monday morning last, declares positively that Gen. Lane was to have a separate and independent command.

The Governor has pardoned Robert J. Douglas, a wealthy colored man of Philadelphia, who was convicted some time ago, after two trials, for perjury, and sentenced to three years' imprisonment. He had served out about half his term.

The Chicago Journal is informed by a gentleman connected with Gen. Lane's staff that there are already 14,000 troops at Fort Leavenworth, and more troops have been tendered to the General than he knows what to do with. His expedition is to have 32,000 men in it.

At Columbia, N. J., in Warren county, a mischievous young man loaded a tobacco pipe with gunpowder, by which a man named I. J. Raymond, was seriously injured. After lighting the pipe, he placed the bowl in his mouth, when it exploded, burning his mouth and throat in a terrible manner.

The only member of the Wisconsin Legislature who is a native of the State, is Frederick S. Ellis, who was born at Green Bay, 32 years ago. He is "the oldest inhabitant," in fact, of Wisconsin, having been the first white child born there.

One of our gunboats in approaching Fort Henry, pulled up two torpedoes in the chute of the Island below the fort. They were made of boiler iron and pointed in the shape of a cone, with a fuse and a match at the lower end, with a bag of powder weighing 80 pounds.

Bright's Expulsion was received at Indianapolis, the capital of his State with great joy. He may stamp the State as much as he pleases, he will never convince the people of his loyalty, with the damning evidence existing against him.

Advices from the southwest bring the news of a split among the Cherokees, in which the Indian chief, McIntosh, with the rebel portion, attacked the friendly Indians, but was repulsed with great loss. McIntosh, was slain.

Accounts from Kentucky says that the Virginia and South Carolina regiments, under Humphrey Marshall, have gone back to Virginia, and Marshall and the rest of his forces went to Pound Gap, where he disbanded. The whereabouts of Marshall is unknown.

The rebel general, Sterling Price, was lately in Richmond, urging upon the rebel government his confirmation as a Major-General, and demanding funds and clothing for his ragged half-starved men.

The recognition of Hayti and Liberia, as nations of the earth, which we have hitherto refused to do at the command of the negro-aristocrats of the South, assisted by their satellites of the North although so recognised by every other considerable Government—will be moved in Congress this week and will doubtless be agreed to.

A gentleman lately from Nashville, says that Parson Brownlow's health is very poor. His son stated that he doubted if his father would live to reach the Federal lines; and if his health would permit, he did not believe the rebel guard would let him go.

During the month of December, 1861, four thousand five hundred emigrants reached Liverpool on their return to their homes. They were principally natives of Ireland.

The will of the late Col. Colt, of Connecticut, has been made public. He leaves to his wife a gross legacy of $30,000; a life estate in the mansion house with surrounding grounds and outbuildings; a life estate in 1,000 shares of Colt Manufacturing Company stock, and a large proportion of the residuum of the estate.

The sporting men in New York are excited by the advent of young Deery, a great billiard player, and a $500 match between him and Kavanah is preparing.

Strenuous efforts are being made in the Ohio Legislature to defeat the re-election of United States Senator Wade.

At Lawrenceville, Illinois, last week, a lot of goods, consisting of several boxes of fine blue army cloth, a quantity of quicksilver, army buttons, opium, &c., belonging to a gentleman named Clark, of Louisville, Kentucky, were seized and confiscated, on the ground that they were to be sent to the South.

California has officially telegraphed to the United States Treasury Department that the State government has assumed the payment of the California apportionment of the National tax.

FOR "THE MARIETTIAN."]

A Chance to do good.

Every one who has been much among the very sick, knows how often recovery depends on a mere trifle—a cup of well prepared gruel or a bowl of nourishing broth. There are hundreds of our poor soldiers lying in Camp and General Hospitals, at this moment, in such feeble condition, that their recovery depends far more on some little delicacy than on medicine—on the means of the nurse than on the skill of the doctor. Here, then, is (and will be) an opportunity to do good—perhaps to save life! Our Ladies Patriotic Circle is waiting to receive and forward delicacies that may be furnished, and also soliciting means to purchase comforts sadly needed by our sick soldiers. They especially call attention to the following recipe for preparing "Concentrated Chicken," in hopes that those who have the poultry will prepare and send in some. Save, dry, and send in the feathers, also—how ever despised by those who have good goose feather pillows, they will be highly prized by patients who have only their knapsacks for pillows.

The statement is sent to Lancaster by Dr. T. S. Bell, of the Louisville (Ky.) Hospital, who says that a can sent there from Huntingdon, Pa., furnished a soup to each of "a large number of Pennsylvania soldiers" then sick there. Here is the

Extract from the Circular. From a lady who visited 92 Regiments of the Potomac army, on behalf of the "Ladies Aid" of Philadelphia, distributing with her own hands, clothing and eatables, we learn that "Concentrated Chicken" has contributed to the recovery of many typhoid patients who were apparently beyond medical aid, and that quantities of it should be put up at once, and forwarded to the hospitals. For the benefit of those who wish to make it, we give her

Directions. Prepare the chicken as for stewing: put it into cold water, just enough to keep it from burning, and boil until the flesh can be stripped from the bones: to the flesh and same water add salt and a little pepper, but no butter, and let it simmer slowly for a long time, or until reduced as much as possible. Seal it up in hot cans.

Mutton and beef can be prepared in the same way. If the chickens are picked dry, the feathers can be used for pillow, as the same lady found the men lying upon their knapsacks; and they were so grateful when their heads were lifted and pillows substituted.

If our farmers and others who have fowls, (and hearts to give them,) will furnish the fowls and feathers, there are those in our Ladies Patriotic Circle who will cheerfully prepare the food and pillows, and forward the same. Let not this opportunity pass unheeded, or be too long delayed—the articles are needed now. A. B. G.

A GOOD EXAMPLE.—An aged German farmer of this vicinity, has been in the good habit, for many years, of quietly dropping a load of wood, here and there, at the houses of the poor of our borough—often unknown to any one. But his supply of wood has nearly run out, and it was supposed that that fuel distribution was ended. But sometime ago we learned, on good authority, that he had opened an account with one of our coal-dealers, and had supplied poor families with over forty dollars worth of coal before half the winter was spent—and all this, probably in addition to gifts of provisions, &c. His rule is to give only to aged or infirm persons, or to widows with helpless families, &c. To the idle, intemperate and other vicious poor, he is "deaf as an adder."

Would that others, also able to be benevolent, would copy his example in giving liberally—and that the benevolent would be as judicious in their giving. It would console their dark days, or the hour of death, far more than the reflection that they had saved these small sums to bestow them on heirs, who will probably only squander them foolishly, or quarrel over them! A. B. G.

A woman calling herself Sallie Albright, alias Sallie Potter, was arrested and brought before Esquire Auxer on Thursday afternoon on the charge of having entered the dwelling of Mr. C. A. Schaffner, on Market street, and taking therefrom a brocha shawl belonging to Mrs. John G. Hoerner, who was on a flying visit to Mr. S's family. When taken this woman had secreted in a basket the following articles which are yet at the "Squire's" office for identification: three pairs ladies kid boots; 1 pair gaiters—all new; small dress pattern; tumbler, new tin cup. All of these articles, have, no doubt been stolen. She was committed.

The Nashville Union, of Saturday says that proceedings under the rebel confiscation act have been taken against the properties of Judge Carton and Senator Andrew Johnson. The property of Judge Carton is valued at $75,000, and that of Andrew Johnson at $30,000.

Madame Jerome Bonaparte is still residing in Baltimore. It is said that she enjoys good health, and, though verging upon four score years, has a hand as pretty, cheeks as plump, and skin as fair as a young girl of seventeen.

A law, making the notes of our treasury a legal tender is a matter of necessity as well as a matter of justice. When England was in her death-grapple with Napoleon, she suspended the payment of specie both from the Exchequer of the nation and the Bank of England. For twenty-five years this suspension continued—and it was not, we believe, until 1823, or eight years after the Arbitrator of kingly fates had been sent a suppliant to St. Helena, that the payment of specie was resumed. During this time the paper money of England was made a legal tender—the faith of the nation was the currency of the nation. The power of England was strengthened, and the years of paper currency were years of prosperity. In America we can imitate the example.

A correspondent of the New York Times explains the recent rumors of a change in the position of General McClellan by saying that it is understood that when a movement of the army of the Potomac is made Secretary Stanton will temporarily assume entire control over all the other departments of the army.

The rebel, General Jackson, has lately been making demonstrations along the line of the Upper Potomac, which were supposed to be indicative of a desire for battle; but on Thursday last, when General Lander, with about an equal number of troops, marched against him at Romney, the rebels precipitately retreated.

There are rumors that a difficulty has taken place between Gen. Hunter, commanding the department of Kansas, and ex-Senator Lane. It would be well, if these two cannot agree, to let Lane loose upon Arkansas with his gallant fellows. He would achieve his own destiny.

J. Murry Rush, an eminent and distinguished member of the Philadelphia bar, died in that city on Friday last. He was a son of the famed Richard Rush, and was highly esteemed by those who knew him, as an honorable and public spirited man.

The supply of turpentine having been cut off by the blockade of the southern coast, we see it stated that efforts will be made in some of the pine growing regions of the northern States to commence its manufacture in the Spring.

The "American Stock Journal," published in New York, by D. C. Linsley, Esq., at $1 a year, has just entered its fourth year. This is truly a valuable monthly, and should be in the hands of every farmer.

Another effort is being made to recover the remains of Col. James Cameron, who was slain at Manassas. It is thought the attempt will be successful.

The importation of meerschaums is said to reach $200,000 annually in the United States.

Scurvy and Scrofulous, will soon cover the bodies of those brave men who are fighting their country's battles. Night air, bad food, and drenching rains will make sad havoc with the strongest, therefore let every man supply himself with Holloway's Ointment.—It is a certain cure for every kind of skin disease. Only 25 cts. per Pot.

Soldiers see to your own health, do not trust to the Army supplies; Cholera, Fever and Bowel complaint will follow your slightest indiscretion. HOLLOWAY'S PILLS & OINTMENT should be in every man's knapsack.—The British and French troops use no other medicine. Only 25 cents per Box or Pot.

We have heard of some astonishing cures being effected by Prof. De Grath's Electric Oil. It seems to act on the diseased parts with remarkable effects and in a short space of time health regains its sway.

For sale by all Druggists and Dealers in the United States and Canada. Price 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1 per bottle. See advertisement.

WHITE SWAN HOTEL, FRONT STREET, MARIETTA. The undersigned having again leased this old and popular hotel, takes the method of informing his old friends and the public generally, that nothing shall be spared to keep up the reputation of the house, and make it worthy of the support of the traveling public. Geo. W. HECKROTHE, Proprietor. Marietta, February 15, 1862. 29-6m Shamokin, White Ash, 3.10. Lykens Valley, broken, 3.25. White Ash, nut, 2.40. THOS. ZELL, Agent. Marietta, February 15, 1862.

The Soldier's True Friend! ALWAYS READY.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.—Long marches, sore and stiff joints, blistered and inflamed feet, all these the Soldiers must endure. Remember, REMEMBER THIS, when your sores are grasping their markets to meet danger, think what relief a single pot of this A. L. L. HEALING & COOLING Salve will give to the one you love when far away from home and friends. It hardens and makes tough the feet so that they can endure great fatigue. It soothes and relieves the inflamed and stiffened joints, leaving them supple, strong and vigorous, while for Sabre Cuts and Gunshot Wounds, It stands unequalled, removing and preventing every vestige of inflammation and gently drawing the edges together, it quickly and completely heals the most frightful wounds.

Wives and Sisters of our Volunteers. You cannot put into the Knapsacks of your Husbands and Brothers, a more valuable or more necessary gift than a supply of this Extraordinary Military Salve.

The lonely sentry walking his rounds at night, exposed to drenching rains and chilled night air, is often seized with most violent Cough and suffocating Hoarseness, first symptoms of quick consumption, but if supplied with Holloway's Pills and Holloway's Ointment, all danger is averted, a few Pills taken night and morning, and the Ointment briskly rubbed twice a day over the Chest and throat will remove the severest pains and stop the most distressing or Dangerous cough. Therefore we say to the whole Army.

Soldiers Attention!! See to your own health, do not trust to the Army supplies, although most valuable.—These Pills and Ointment have been thoroughly tested, they are the only remedies used in the European Camps and Barracks, for over thirty years Doctor Holloway has supplied all the Armies in Europe, and during the Crimean Campaign he established a depot at Balaklava, for the exclusive sale of these Great Remedies. Many a time his special Agent there has sold over a ton in weight of the Ointment in a single day. These terrible and fatal enemies of the SOLDIERS IN CAMP, Dierhals, Dysentery, Scurvy, Sores and Scrofulous Eruptions, all disappear like a charm before these Pills & Ointment, and now while the war rages throughout the land,

To Arms! To Arms!! Do not let these brave men perish by disease, place in their hands these Precious Remedies, that will enable them to resist the dangerous exposures, the Fevers, the Chills, and the wounds which they cannot avoid, and what is more, cannot frequently get succour in the moment of need, whereas if our brave men place in their hands into their Knapsacks and find there a sure remedy for all the casualties of the battle field. How many thousands of lives would thus be saved who would otherwise perish before relief could be obtained.

IMPORTANT CAUTION!!—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernible as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot and box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1 each.

There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes. N.B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.
