Marietta, Pa.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 1862.

Messrs. MATHER & ABBOTT, No. 335 Broadway, New-York, are duly authorized to act for us in soliciting advertisements, &c.

MELANCHOLY CATASTROPHES.—We learn by late English papers, that a serious calamity occurred at Hartley in England where by the breaking of a pumping beam and the chocking up of the shaft of a coal pit, five men were killed on the spot, and two hundred and fifteen others actually buried alive! This sad affair occurred on Thursday, and tho' the utmost diligence was used, the resting place of the unfortunate miners was not reached until the Wednesday following, and when found, they all "slept the sleep of death."

The Queen, notwithstanding that she was then suffering keenly from the loss of her own Albert, evinced the deepest sympathy for the bereaved families, who were thus suddenly plunged in affliction, and while efforts were being made to clear a passage to the pit, she made several enquiries by telegraph, manifesting the utmost anxiety to know whether there was any likelihood of their being able to rescue the sufferers alive. This we presume is one of many incidents in the life of the Queen of England which show her to be a true woman and which have helped to endear her to her subjects.

SHOWN THE DOOR.—Mr. Henri Wikoff otherwise known as Chevalier Wikoff, has been, it is currently stated in Washington, shown the door of the White House. It seems this party, through the good nature of some of the ladies attached to our Republican court, has had access to the White House, and obtained information there not of any great importance, but which regularly appeared in the columns of the New York Herald. Wikoff's officiousness, and the assumption of intimacy with certain well-known leaders in the highest political circles, was such that it attracted considerable attention, and his antecedents were inquired into. His peculiar relations to Fanny Kissler, and his escape with the heiress, Miss Gamble, as well as his subsequent career, was finally brought to the attention of Mr. Lincoln, who, as is reported and believed, promptly ordered the expulsion of the Chevalier from the White House. His occupation at Washington, therefore, is gone, except as a news gatherer for the Herald, in which business he is a serious annoyance to the representatives of the press, who, as a general thing are gentlemen.

William Pennington, of Newark, N. J., died in that city, aged 65 years. He was a prominent member of the bar, and at one time occupied the position of Chancellor of that State. In 1837 he was chosen Governor, which office he held for seven terms of one year each. He was appointed Governor of Minnesota by President Taylor, and confirmed by the Senate, but he declined the appointment. Subsequently he was appointed by President Fillmore one of the Judges to settle claims under the Mexican treaty. In 1858 he was elected to Congress from the 11th New Jersey District by the People's party, his political antecedents being Whig. During the protracted struggle for the Speakership in the XXXVth Congress, his name was substituted for that of Mr. Sherman, in a Republican caucus, and on the 1st of February, 1860, he was chosen to that position.

The Tuscola (Ill.) Shield, of the 6th inst., mentions "a singular and distressing accident" which occurred on Monday. A gentleman named Evans, coming from the post office was knocked down by a flying goose, and was first supposed to have been killed. Up to Wednesday he remained insensible.—The goose, however, was instantly killed.

John Andrew, a foreman in one of the departments of the Carron Iron Works, near Falkirk, England, died lately, leaving behind him about $50,000 the results of his savings. He was 78 years of age. He had such a wonderful reverence for the first sixpence he ever earned that he kept it for sixty years.

The Rev. Adolph Gerevey, chaplain of the Thirty-seventh Ohio regiment, at Camp Clifton, Ganley Bridge, deliberately shot himself in the tent of an officer one morning last week. He was a native of Baden, Germany, forty-eight years old, and had a wife and five children residing in Ohio.

It is probable that an important command in Texas will be entrusted to Gen. Fremont, and that, for reasons of obvious fitness, the troops assigned to him will be exclusively Germans.

DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS WITH HAITI.—It is reported that when the Republic of Hayti is recognized by the United States, President Geffrard will send hither a white man to represent his Government at Washington. This may be a concession to those American prejudices against black men which are so much talked of; and it may, on the other hand be a bit from the Haytian Government, that it would like in the same way to have its prejudices respected. If Geffrard sends us a white Minister, surely we can do no less than send a black man as Commissioner to Hayti.—New York Evening Post.

TWO LOST FRENCHMEN.—A telegram dated Salt Lake City, Feb. 5, says:—Two Frenchmen, named Silver and Sevine, started sometime since from the Rocky Ridge to go to the Wind River Mountains. They were overtaken by a storm and lost their way. After wandering about for twenty-two days, they came across the telegraph poles and remained by them until picked up by a passing stage. They were in an utterly exhausted condition, having eaten their dog and a portion of one of their horses and a beaver hat, to sustain life.

FEMALE POSTMASTERS.—There are four hundred and eleven female postmasters in the United States. Several of these have been retained in office for quite a long term of years, one having been appointed in 1828, another in 1831, and others, respectively, in 1838, 1841, 1849, 1850, and 1853. In Maryland there are twenty females acting as postmasters, forty-eight in Virginia, seventeen in North Carolina, and ninety-eight in Pennsylvania.

A woman, who died in Cincinnati lately, was placed by her friends, in the absence of her husband, who is a soldier, in the vault of the Cumminsville burying-ground. Hearing of his wife's illness her husband returned on Wednesday, last, but was shocked to hear of her death. Anxious to behold his wife's features once more, he had the coffin opened in the presence of several friends, when what was his horror and astonishment to find that she had changed position, and was lying flat upon her face, having, in her struggles and extreme despair, tore the flesh entirely off one of her shoulders. The lid of the coffin was replaced and then lowered in the ground, there to lie forever.

Gen. Hitchcock is a grandson of old Ethan Allen, and was born in Vermont. He was educated at West Point, and was Assistant Adjutant General to Gen. Scott in Mexico, where he reached the rank of Brigadier General by brevet. Soon afterward Jeff. Davis, then Secretary of War, quarreled with him, and he was obliged to resign. Since his resignation he has resided in retirement at St. Louis. He is considered among the very ablest officers in the service, is a Green Mountain boy in all noble senses of the word. His appointment was desired by Gen. Halleck.

Parson Brownlow's case may be briefly stated. He desired to go North but before he was ready he was taken sick. He was arrested to protect him from violence. He is still sick at his own house, being too unwell to be removed. When he recovers he will probably be suffered to depart "to the other side of Jordan," together with his family. He can do no harm there to our cause, while his presence among us might do injury.—Memphis Avalanche.

The London Times says that the release of Mason and Slidell and their two Secretaries cost the British Government (in its preparations for hostilities, we presume,) £1,000,000 a piece, or in all about $25,000,000. No wonder that the people of England are somewhat dissatisfied with their bargain and disposed to believe that they have paid too dearly for their whistle.

Jacob Baker, son of Jeremiah Baker, of South Yarmouth, Mass., is condemned to be shot, for desertion from the navy. His parents have received a letter informing them that they can see him before the day fixed upon for his death, and that his body will be delivered to them if desired.

John Scott, attached to the Thirty-eighth New York Regiment, was lately suffocated to death in his tent by taking a pan of coals into it and closing up all the crevices. His companion, John McNeil, came near sharing the same fate.

The Howard Association, of Philadelphia, notwithstanding the war, and the hard times, continues its humane efforts for the relief of the afflicted, with its usual zeal, throughout all the loyal States. We believe it is a highly useful and honorable Institution.

The number of men now employed at the Springfield (Mass.) armory is fourteen hundred, and the product of their labor during the past month was 10,500 muskets. Since the 30th of last June—seven months—over 44,000 guns have been made.

Mr. Willington, senior editor of the Charleston Courier, whose death has been announced, was a native of Massachusetts, and learned the trade of printer in Boston.

CLIPPINGS FROM OUR EXCHANGES.
A Dr. Ives, one of the bragging, lying editors of the pestiferous New York Herald so far intruded upon Secretary Stanton at Washington, as to cause his arrest as a spy and sent to Lafayette.—Another "nuisance" is thus abated.

The secessionists of Palmyra, Mo., have been levied upon for $14,000, to repair the railroad bridges they or their compatriots completely destroyed. They naturally don't like it or see the sense of it—General Halleck's levies, however, are stopping railroad destruction.

The Rebel ship Calhoun, while trying to run the blockade at New Orleans, was overhauled by a Union ship, when the Rebels set fire to their vessel and abandoned her. She was soon boarded by the Yankees, and the fire extinguished, and a good haul of saltpetre and other valuable articles saved.

The traitor who was detected some months ago filling shells with sand in the Washington Navy Yard, and was allowed to escape and go South, was killed at Port Royal. He was a physician, and was found in one of the desert Rebel hospitals with the top of his head cut off by a cannon ball.

A young man who was detected in Chili, near Rochester, on Sunday last, in a criminal intimacy with his neighbor's wife, the mother of three children, was taken to an out-house, stripped, and tarred and feathered.

It is said that Governor Sprague, of Rhode Island, is soon to marry Mrs. Villette, the lovely and accomplished daughter of Secretary Smith.

Geo. R. Hoffman, of Effingham county, Illinois, last fall raised two bushels of Coffee, much resembling the Rio. He got the seed in Australia, and the third year of the plant it yielded a fair crop.

A fire broke out in Mr. Henrie's Union Hall Hotel, Danville, Tuesday morning, by which the building and furniture were much injured before the engines extinguished the flames.

An old lady in Williamsport has a hen's egg (colored), which was presented to her forty-eight years ago. The shell is full of figures, made by scraping off the coloring. This is "an old egg."

A touching story is told of a private soldier at Port Royal who, having heard that his wife, sister and two children had all died of diphtheria at home, became crazy.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company publishes that its net savings last year are over Three Millions of Dollars.

Angelo Chiarini, rope walker, while walking with a wheel-barrow up a tight rope, stretched from the ground to the top of Hayes' Park Pavilion, San Francisco, fell to the ground, a distance of sixty feet, and was killed.

Mrs. Sarah Larrabee, of Rockville, Mass., has now four sons, seventeen grandsons and one great grandson in the army. The old lady of 85 years walked to Salem on Tuesday last, to see the last of them depart for the battlefield, and then walked back again, about six miles.

The Richmond Examiner says the Southern people can raise any article of Northern industry. Some wag coolly asks, "Why don't they raise the blockade?"

Joshua Wells—said to be the oldest preacher of the Methodist Episcopal Church—died in Baltimore, 25th ult., in his 98th year.

It is now supposed that the "black flag" said to have been seen by our troops at Fort Donelson, was only the coat tail of General John Buchanan Floyd, as he precipitately sought safety in flight. The truth of this must be taken for Grant-ed.

The Dubuque (Iowa) Herald states that the captain, G. R. G. Jones, captured at Fort Henry, belonged to that city, and is a son of the little dark-complexioned and black-hearted Gen. G. W. Jones, late U. S. Minister to Central America, who is now in Fort Warren.

We are glad to hear that the misunderstanding between Governor Andrews, of Massachusetts, and General Butler, has been completely removed and that everything now between them moves harmoniously. Butler's expedition is rapidly gathering and departing.

A little coal oil poured upon the card, before carding cattle, will effectually destroy all lice.

The bill of which Senator Wilson gave notice, will provide for the establishment of a national foundry on the Hudson river, not far south of West Point, and of a manufactory of iron suitable for cannon, in Pennsylvania, probably at Bloomfield.

Senator Chandler, to whom the nation is rapidly running up a great debt of gratitude for his fiery zeal and restless labor in behalf of the war, will introduce a resolution into the Senate for the expulsion of Mr. Rowell, of Kentucky.

OLD FOLKS.—The Portsmouth (N. H.) Journal publishes a list of the old people in that city. The names of ninety men are given, whose ages range from seventy-two to ninety-five years; also, the names of fifty-three women upwards of eighty years old. Seven of these ladies are upwards of ninety. The editor says that in addition to the list of women published, he has "the names and ages of seventy-two and eighty, now residents in Portsmouth."

Instead of shattering Mexico, as was expected, the European Alliance seems to have had the effect of consolidating the opposing elements in that Republic, and welding them together. Mexico gave us trouble enough with all our land communication and easy transportation, and the Allied Powers attempt the work of conquest with more disadvantages and fewer chances of success.

The will of the famous Russian Prince Orloff has been published. He gives the greater portion of his estates to his son, with a reserve to his wife, including 1,000,000 silver roubles in the 6 per cent. State loan. He makes liberal legacies to all the servants, gives unconditional freedom to all his peasants, and consoles himself with the reflection that all his property was honestly come by.

The recognition of Hayti and Liberia, as nations of the earth, which we have hitherto refused to do at the command of the negro-aristocrats of the South, assisted by their satellites of the North, although so recognised by every other considerable Government—will be moved in Congress this week and will doubtless be agreed to.

It is said that there are now at Perryville, Md., over twelve hundred four and six-mule teams ready for service, exclusive of upwards of four hundred and fifty which have been transferred to quartermasters at Washington and Annapolis.

N. O. W.

Are Dr. Hurd's Preparations Good?

The best evidence that they are, is that their firmest friends and best patrons are those who have used them longest. Dr. William B. Hurd is an eminent Dentist of Brooklyn, Treasurer of the New York State Dentists' Association, and these preparations have been used in his private practice for years, and no leading citizen of Brooklyn or Williamsburg, questions their excellence, while eminent Dentists of New York recommend them as the best known to the profession. Without the aid of advertising, dealers have sold them by the gross.

The Editor of the Brooklyn Daily Times says:—"We are happy to know that our friend Dr. Hurd, is succeeding beyond all expectations with his Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder. The great secret of his success lies with the fact that his articles are precisely what they are represented to be, as we can testify from their long use."

The well known Dr. T. Barnum writes:—"I found your Tooth Powder so good, that my family have used it all up. We find it the best Powder for the Teeth that we ever used. I shall feel obliged if you will send me another supply at the Museum at your convenience, with bill."

But their cost is so small that every one may test the matter for himself.

Beware of the ordinary Tooth Powders. Dr. Hurd's Tooth Powder contains no acid, nor alkali, nor charcoal, and polishes without wearing the enamel. Use no other.
