SATURDAY, MARCH 15, 1862.

177 MEANS, MATHER & ABBOTT, No. 235 Broadway, New York, are duly authorized to act for us in soliciting advertisements, &c.

The consternation created in Tennessee and the South generally by the victory at Fort Donelson, and the unimpeded march of the National troops upon Clarksville and Nashville, is said to be indescribable. The rebel army of Johnston, which marched rather to the south of Nashville, was little better than a mob, committing all sorts of outrages along the way. The leading secessionists of Nashville, scattered in every direction as our glorious army approached. The rebels first proceeded to Murfreesborough, some 25 miles off; but it is believed that they are concentrating at Chattanooga village, 175 miles off. Gen. Buell has marched with a portion of his army in that direction; but whether he means to actively pursue until he overtakes and destroys the enemy, was not known. Nashville was becoming quiet, and some business was being resumed, since the good order restored by the Union commander and the protection offered. The citizens already experience a great difference between rebel and national men.

The Montrose Republican of the 12th Feb. says: "Henry Spearback of Harford, was frozen to death on Sunday night, February 2d. He was found, on Monday morning, lying at his shop door. He was intoxicated, and slept in his shop that night, and had apparently fallen out of the door, and being unable to rise had frozen to death where he fell. He leaves a wife and two children."

While a hack man was conveying a colored woman from Capitol Hill Washington to her mother's residence she died in the carriage from small-pox, from which she was suffering. The mother refused to receive the body until she was compelled to do so by the authorities.

Among the first of the Nashvillians to fly from the capital of Tennessee, as the Union forces approached, was John Bell. We trust that he may be caught somewhere between Nashville and New Orleans, and then if a good Bell hanger can be found, let him have a job.

Mr. Cummings, who appears so conspicuously in the Van Wyck report is now in Washington, and a defence of himself will be made in the House in a few days. Mr. C. claims that he has been greatly misrepresented, and asks an impartial hearing from Congress and the country.

A few days since in Dauphin county a musk-rat attacked a young man named Ulrich, and made several attempts to reach his throat. After a hard battle in which both belligerents became exhausted; the young man succeeded in killing the rat.

Yancey, one of the traitor commissioners to Europe, arrived at Havana on the 23d ult., and after disguising himself, left in a schooner, ostensibly for New Orleans, on the 1st inst. Hopes are entertained of his capture.

A German restaurateur in Allegheny city, is under indictment for serving up to his customers a roasted cat, under the pretence of its being a rabbit. The penalty is five dollars fine.

The Territorial election resulted in a unanimous vote for the State Constitution. Brigham Young was elected Governor and Heber C. Kimball Lieutenant Governor.

The Pennsylvania troops express themselves much gratified with the preparation which Governor Curtin has made for the wounded, in the event of a battle taking place.

Dr. Hayes says the languages of the Esquimaux is based in grammatical principles, but they have no alphabet or hieroglyphics, and cannot count beyond ten.

Fogs have been frequent, and very thick in London this winter. The gas has been kept lighted in street lamps and houses all day on several occasions.

A man named Henry C. Allen, who has a government contract in Philadelphia, has been arrested for defrauding poor girls who worked for him.

Official information has been received that the Portuguese government is devoting its attention to the cultivation of cotton in its African possession.

"I love to steal while away," as Floyd said when he sneaked out of Fort Donelson, between two days.

One of the New York regiments contains thirty schoolmasters. It ought to be able to "lick" the southern boys.

SHOCKING.—At Newark, N. J., some weeks ago, Mrs. Margaret Chisholm wounded herself by running a nail into her knee. Her husband and daughter, with whom she had a quarrel, neglected her while she lay in bed, to such an extent that she died on Thursday. The parties are from Scotland. Deceased was expecting £900 (about $4,500) from the old country—her share of her father's estate, who had lately died. She accused her husband of receiving it which led to some hard words between them and before she died Mrs. C. told her daughter that her husband had choked her.

A NEW DODGE.—The army correspondent of the Christian Watchman and Reflector relates the following: "At a chaplain's meeting, before a devotional season, a man rose, and with a solemn air, asked permission to say a few words on a subject of personal interest to all present. Permission was granted, and he told how near death he had been, how he was saved by a medicine, how anxious he was to save the army from colds, coughs, consumption, &c. He concluded by asking the chaplains to introduce a patent medicine among their regiments. It was the latest dodge, freely advertising a cough syrup in a prayer meeting.

DIVISION OF THE ARMY.—As has heretofore been stated, the army of the Potomac is to be divided into five corps of armies, according to the plan of Major General McClellan, urged prior to the retirement of General Scott. These Army Corps are to be commanded by Major General McDowell, Brigadier General Sumner, General Heintzelman, General Keyes, and Major General Banks. Banks' division is to be composed of his own command and that of Brigadier General Shields, the latter of whom takes the place of General Lander.

NO COMPROMISE.—In the rebel Congress, a few days ago, a resolution was unanimously passed to entertain no peace propositions excluding any portion of the soil of any of the Confederate States, and declaring that the war be continued until the enemy be expelled entirely from the Confederacy. Peace men, and compromisers, will please take notice.

RAISING THE POTOMAC BLOCKADE.—We have the gratification to state that Gen. Hooker officially reports that all the enemy's batteries in front of his lines are entirely abandoned and their guns spiked. Some of the guns of which we have taken possession appear to be valuable pieces. This virtually opens the Potomac, and raises the so-called blockade of the Potomac.

TYLER AND MAURY.—A letter from the traitor Maury admits that it was to the efforts of John Tyler that the rebels were mainly indebted for the organization of their gunboat fleet. If any doubt was entertained of the ex-President's treason, this testimony of his fellow conspirator removes it. Luckily Tyler is dead, and Maury would have saved his own reputation had he comfortably committed harikari a year or two ago.

BIVOUAC.—This word is commonly but incorrectly regarded as of French origin. Its form is French, but it comes from the German, bewachen, to watch, or to be on guard. The true meaning of it is often lost sight of, for whereas it correctly applies only to those who pass the night under arms, or in attitude of defense, it is frequently used of any encamping and passing the night in the open air.

THE PICKENS AND SUMPTER MEDALS.—Four medals have been struck, by order of the New York Chamber of Commerce, to present to the officers and soldiers of Fort Sumpter and Pickens—two for each fort. The portrait of Sumpter is upon one set, and that of Anderson on the other.

MILTON'S WATCH.—Sir Charles Fellows has bequeathed the watch of Milton to the British Museum; to be deposited in the museum, upon the condition that the watch may be placed under glass, or in some other way always kept exposed public view.

A Connecticut correspondent writes that the culture of flax is beginning to be considerably agitated since cotton has gone up 40 and 45 cents per pound. He says "New England can produce 400 lbs. of good, clear, swinged flax per acre, on moist rich land."

Robt. M. Palmer, of Schenckville, Pa., is to be recalled on account of continued ill health. Robert C. Kirk has been appointed to succeed him.

New York city contains forty-six Presbyterian churches, the number being about equally divided between the Old and New School.

The Legislature of Delaware has adjourned. A resolution, denouncing any move for the abolition of slavery in the State, was adopted.

J. C. Breckinridge is pronounced to be a confirmed drunkard, and John Bell on the verge of lunacy.

We are never satisfied that a lady understands a kiss unless we have it from her own mouth.

THE WAR TAX BILL.—The following is an abstract of the Tax bill, as reported in the House. It provides for the appointment by the President of a Commissioner of Internal Revenue, with a salary of five thousand dollars. His office is to be in the Treasury Department, with a suitable number of clerks. The country is to be divided, as the President may direct, into convenient collection districts, with an Assessor and Collector to be appointed by the President for each district, who shall have power to appoint such deputies as may be necessary. The bill provides for a duty

On legacies and distribution shares of the personal property of deceased persons, according to the degree of relationship, from one to 6 per cent. And stamp duties on all kinds of legal and commercial papers, all patent medicines, telegraphic messages and all expressions.

The bill contains 105 sections, and is one of the longest of any kind ever before prepared, months of preparations having been bestowed upon it.

HEALTH OF JOHN BELL.—A Cairo correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says:

General Halleck has advised Mr. T. L. Yeatsman, of St. Louis, to take possession of the Cumberland Iron works, recently destroyed by the crew of the gunboat St. Louis. Mr. Lewis, one of the proprietors of the works referred to, who was taken prisoner on board the St. Louis, states that John Bell, who was one of the partners in the destroyed concern, is in very bad health, and will not live many weeks. He is at times perfectly insane. John C. Breckinridge, Mr. Lewis says, has become a habitual drunkard. He is now in Tennessee.

Among the prizes captured by the Federal soldiers at Fort Donelson was a rifle said to be worth $1000. Its breech is inlaid with the finest gold. It belonged to a hotel keeper in Memphis, and was won by him at a horse race.

The Illinois Central Railroad is going into the corn trade on a magnificent scale. The amount owing to the corporation, for lands sold to settlers, is about $17,000,000; and in payment upon these notes it is taking corn from the farmers at eighteen cents per bushel—nearly twice the ruling price.

Private Joseph Kubbe, of the Second Maryland Regiment, was hung at Fort McHenry, on Friday for the murder of Lieutenant Whitsen, at Camp Carroll, on the 10th September.

Hon Robert Toombs, in his letter declining an election to the position of Senator, says he has determined that he can now better serve his State and country in the army than in the Senate.

Last week the fourth colony of colored people for the year, left New York City for Haiti. They numbered 51, and took with them all the latest improved agricultural implements.

The three cannon foundries, at Pittsburg, West Point and Phoenixville, have already cast twelve hundred and eighty-two pieces of artillery for the government.

In Pickens and Anderson districts South Carolina, there are 250 distilleries which use each week 12,500 bushels of corn or 500,000 bushels per year!

It is shown in the case of Henry A. Wise, as it has been in thousands of other cases, that generally the noisiest blusterer is the readiest runner.

Children always turn toward the light. Oh, that grown-up people in this world would be come like little children.

The State Appropriation Bill, as it passed the House of Representatives at Harrisburg, contains the following appropriations: Governor's salary, $4,000. Secretary's " 1,500. Deputy Secretary's salary, 1,600. Auditor General's " 1,900. Attorney " 1,600. State Treasurer's " 1,900. Common School Superintendent's salary, 1,500. State Librarian's " 800. In addition to the above items, appropriations are made for the publication of the Legislative Record; for the five companies of Harrisburg; for extra pay of Clerks of the two Houses; for services rendered by John A. Snull; for subordinate employes of the Legislature; for balance of guaranteed interest on account of the Danville and Pottsville railroad ($11,356); for rations for three months' volunteers ($744,20), and for the payment of the Investigating Committee of the two Houses.

The changes which may be made in bill by the Senate can only be conjectured. The Dix Mont Hospital for the insane is a department of the Western Pennsylvania Hospital. A motion to appropriate $25,000, to the new institution was lost, and $15,000 was fixed upon. The bill was passed by the House in a single day, an event almost without a parallel in the legislative history of Pennsylvania.

THE MASSACHUSETTS THIRTEENTH.—The Boston Evening Gazette has a good word for this corps. It says: "The Massachusetts Thirteenth are feared by the rebels, as will be seen by the following conversation which took place by the rebels on one side of the Potomac river and Company G (Thirteenth) on the other: "What regiment is guarding that place?" "The Massachusetts Thirteenth?" "Where is it?" "Where is the Massachusetts Thirteenth? We have traveled up and down the river for fifty miles and everywhere we find the Massachusetts Thirteenth, and every man appears to carry a small cannon on his back."

David Hill died at his residence, at Onondaga Castle, on the 5th instant, at the age of 73 years. The deceased was a leading and prominent chief of the Onondaga tribe of Indians, and was among the first of that people to embrace Christianity. His age, shrewdness commanding presence, and native eloquence gave him much influence with that portion of his tribe which have renounced paganism as Capt. Hill. He was among the friendly Indians who fought for the stars and stripes in the war of 1812, and was so distinguished for courage and daring deeds that he received commendations from both Gens. Jacob Brown and Winfield Scott, during the bloody campaigns in which the battles of the "Catawact," Chippewa, and Lundy's Lane, were fought.

The "Bell County Rebels," from Belton Bell county, Texas, started for their rendezvous, Hempstead, sometime ago, when one of their lieutenants, James F. Landin, a lawyer, deserted and returned to Belton. Several ladies of the place, (says the Crescent), incensed to see him strutting about the street in his uniform, got together a few days ago seized him in public, and stripped off his stripes, which they sent to his company, who rewarded them with a vote of thanks.

The Atlanta Commonwealth says that John Bell would not remain in Nashville to be insulted or imprisoned by the insolent invaders of his State, but is safe, along with the rear of the retreating army. The Soldier's True Friend!

ALWAYS READY.

HOLLOWAY'S Ointment.—Long marches, sore and stiff joints, blistered and inflamed feet, all these the Soldiers must endure. MOTIERS, REMEMBER THIS, when your sons are grasping their muskets to meet danger, think what relief a single pint of this A. L. HOLLOWAY & CO. SALT PILLS will give you, one you love when far away from home and friends. It hardens and makes tough the feet so that they can endure great fatigue. It soothes and relieves the inflamed and stiffened joints, leaving them supple, strong and vigorous, while the rest of the body is suffering.

Sabre Cuts and Gunshot Wounds. It stands unequalled, removing and preventing every vestige of inflammation and gently drawing the edges together, it quickly and completely heals the most frightful wounds.

Wives and Sisters of our Volunteers. You cannot put into the Knapsacks of your husbands and Brothers, a more valuable or more necessary gift than a supply of this Extraordinary Military Salve.

The lonely soldier walking his rounds at night, exposed to drenching rains and chilled night air, is often seized with most violent PAINS, Cough and suffocating Hoarseness, if first symptoms of quick consumption, but if supplied with Holloway's Salt Pills and Holloway's Gintment, all danger is averted, a few Pills taken night and morning, and the Ointment briskly rubbed twice a day over the throat and chest will remove the severest pains and stop the most distressing or dangerous cough. Therefore we say to the whole Army.

Soldiers Attention!

See to your own health, do not trust to the Army supplies, although most valuable.—These Pills and Ointment have been thoroughly tested, they are the only remedies used in the European Camps and Hospitals, and for forty years Doctor Holloway has supplied all the Armies in Europe, and during the Crimean Campaign he established a depot at Balaklava, for the exclusive sale of these Great Remedies, many a time his special Agent there drew over a ton in weight of the Ointment in a single day. These terrible and fatal enemies of the SOLDIERS IN CAMP, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Scurvy, Sores and Scrofulous Eruptions, all disappear like a charm before these Pills & Ointment, and now while the cry rings "To Arms! To Arms!"

Do not let these brave men perish by disease, place in their hands these Precious Remedies, that will enable them to resist the dangerous exposures, the Fevers, the Chills, and the wounds which they cannot avoid, and what is more, cannot frequently be secured in the moment of need, whereas if our brave men have only to put their hands into their Knapsacks and find there a sure remedy for all the casualties of the battle field, how many thousands of lives would thus be saved who would otherwise perish before relief could be obtained.

IMPORTANT CAUTION!—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernible as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions, and on each pot and box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

Sold at the Manufacture of Professor HOLLOWAY, 50 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents, and $1 each.
