LIEUT. ABEXANDER N. SHIPLRY .--- We are pleased to notice among the promotions by the President, "for gallantry and good conduct during the engagements of November 22d and 23d, beween Fort Pickens and Rebel batteries," the name of our gallast townsman, Lieut. Alexander N. Shipley. The President has conferred upon him a brevet Captaincy for his gallant conduct during the fierce engagements between Col. Brown's forces, and the rebel batteries. At the time we published the full particulars, in which the commanding officer made special notice of our brave and accomplished townsman, and the efficient services he readered in that terrible encounter. We are gratified to see that the President has rewarded a meritorious officer, and hope to record the Lieutenant's further progress up the ladder of fame .- Harrisburg Telegraph. Lieut. A new and beautiful acqueduct has also been built at Chikies -half-mile below town-which is just in course of completion. The boat yards in our vicinity are very active and boatmen are bringing their teams from the country, where they were wintered, and everything looks businesslike along the canal.

The Lancaster Union in speaking of the importance of the coming Friday election, very truthfully says; The elections for township officers, throughout this Commonwealth, take place on Friday the 21st inst. It is to be hoped that these elections may be well attended, and that good men may be chosen to fill the various offices. The wellbeing and good order of a town or neighborhood depend very considerably on having age of tea. The receipt of articles was really honest and upright men as Justices of the Peace, School Directors, Road Supervisors. We received a few days since, from WILLIAM T. STRACHAN, of Albuquerque, New Mexico, formerly of this place, containing a remittance for The Mariettian: He says in his letter, amongst other things, that about 6000 volunteers and regulars have gone down the Bio Grande for the purpose of retaking Fort Fillmore and repairing the damage done by the surronder of that point. He says they are bound to drive the rebels from the territory of New Mexico.

We understand an effort is being made through the legislature, to have town Turnpike Charter, passed, allowing said company to McAdamize the river road, as far west as Miller & Musser's saw mill. This, to us, does not at all appear necessary-if any two given points were thus to be made accessible in bad weather, there might be some movement give us some argument in its favor ?
