Mr. William W. Reitzel formerly buisness manager of the Chronicle, has been appointed by Postmaster General Blair, to the position of mail agent between Harrisburg and Philadelphia -Mr. Reitzel was for several years engaged in the express business, with Adams & Co., and is throughly acquainted with railroading in all its varied details. A better selection, we think, could not have been made. He leaves a host of friends ut the capital, who wish him all possible success in his new sphere of operations. The above we clip from the Washington City Chronicle and we are pleased to find our friend on this rout again. He certainly has capacity for such a position and will make an obliging mail agent, Success attend him.

The office of Messrs, Miller & Musser's Lumber Yard and Saw Mill. at the upper end of this borough, was broken into on Friday night last and the lock blown off of the iron safe door and the sate robbed of about fifty-eight hundred dollars in bank notes, checks, notes of hand, &c., The safe was drilled near the lock and powder inserted and the lock blown from the door. It was one of Herring's celebrated powder and thief proof safes. Payments have been stopped on the various checks and notes. The firm offer a reward of $300. See advertisements in another column.

Mr. John Fulks of this borough has received a long letter from A. B. Malony, formerly of this borough, but now attached to the U.S. Ship "Jamestown," of the North Atlantic Blockading Squadron, in which he very stoutly denies the charge sometime since made in this paper of having "sesesh" proclivities .--We are glad to find that A. B M. has "seen the error of his way and repented thereof." The letter will appear in our

We are pleased to learn from Capt. W. E. Krater, of the St. John House, of this place, that Capt. Adam Nace, who is a brother in law of Mr. K. is not dead, but was wounded and taken prisoner at the battle of Pittsburg Landing: that Andrew II. Hershey-a nephew of Mrs. W. E. K.,-was shot through the ear, and at last account was on his way home-Savanua, Illinois .-Capt K. bad in the battle of Pittsburg Landing, two brothers in law, one brother and one nephew-good for one family-and all natives of Marietta.

Samuel B. Moore, a son of Dr. M M. Moore, of Lancaster, Pa., is among the Confederates captured at Island No. 10, and taken to Columbus, Ohio. He was connected with an academy in Alabama, and when captured was a lieutenant of a company in a regiment from that State.

Or. Frank Hinkle is slowly recovering. We were gratified a few evenings since hy a glance at quite a lot of contraband goods, captured by part of the blockade squadron to which the Doctor was attached. The Doctor has also sent and brought home a large collection of gulf ouriosities.

We understand that Sterrett M. Curran, 1st Lieut. of "Co. E." Nebraska Volunteers, was shot in his right armsword arm-at the battle of Pittsburg Landing, Lieut, Curran was also a Mariettian, until within a few years.

Miss Emma F. Baker will open her Summer School on Monday next, in the East Prospect School Room No. 2,—the same room occupied by her during the past winter. The patrons of Miss B. will bear in mind-Monday next.

For the past week the river business has been very brisk. Prices keep up wonderfully and large fleets are daily leaving our shore.

Mr. Sawyer will open his Summer School in the High School room on Monday next.

510 BROADWAY, New York. DARLING'S LAVER REGULATOR AND

LIFE BITTERS. RE pure vegetable extracts. They cure all bilious disorders of the human system. They regulate and invigorate the liver and kidneys; they give tone to the digestive organs; they tegulate the secretions, excretions and exhalations, equalize the circulation, and purify the blood. Thus, all bilious complaints—some of which are Torpid Liver, Sick Headache, Dyspepsia, Piles, Chills and Fevers, Costiveness or Looseness—are entirely contabled and cured by these remedies.
