

she is so used to being over the hot stove that she don't mind it much."

"Just then a woman, with a baby in her arms, came to the window of another cottage, and called Archie."

"Ay, ay!" said Archie, springing up, and swinging his hat toward the house. "Don't go yet, Archie," said Willie "just wait till we finish this paper; it won't make any difference."

"I'm learning to obey orders," said Archie; "besides, I know mother wants me to take care of the baby while she gets dinner."

"I do hate baby-tending; it's girl's work," said Willie.

"So is cooking and washing clothes, but soldiers have to do both. Right about face!" said he, shouldering his fishing pole, and starting for home, "my company has received marching orders."

"Just in time, Archie," said his mother placing the baby in his arms. "I see my volunteer means to be on hand whenever his orders come."

"Now, Archie really disliked tending the baby very much, especially on such a warm day, when it took all patience and ingenuity to amuse his little brother, made unusually fretful by the heated kitchen, where his mother was busy over the glowing stove, made him think himself very fortunate to be able to remain in the sitting-room, with closed blinds and open windows. But baby was not at all pleased with the darkened room; he would not sit on the floor and roll Archie's ball; he would not laugh at Archie's antics and grimaces; he wanted to be carried, and carried he must be.

"Come on, then," said Archie, tossing him on to his shoulders. "Now, I'm on a forced march from Washington to Texas, and this is my knapsack and blanket heavy load—hot weather—mercury up to five hundred degrees in the shade—whole army of secessionists running away from us—bound to get there before morning—hand strike up Yankee Doodle!" and he commenced rapidly packing the Yankee Doodle, to baby's great satisfaction.

Just as he was beginning to find it pretty hard work, the door opened, and his sister Sarah came in from school.

"Turn out and relieve guard," said Archie, dropping the baby in her lap, and throwing himself at full length on the carpet.

"You're full of war nonsense," said Sarah, laughing.

"Oh, well," said Archie, "anything to amuse the baby, and keep a fellow good natured this hot weather."

WHALES AROUND.—A shoal of whales ran ashore lately at Whitcomb, on the Isle Shetland, and getting into shallow water immense numbers—four hundred, it is said—were captured by the landers. They were attacked both by sea and land. Some escape, but were wounded, sank, and afterwards rose to the surface, and floated to shore, so that almost the entire shoal was captured. People came from miles around, and a number of riflemen hurried to the spot to enjoy the novel sport of whale shooting.

Gen. McClellan was recently riding along the lines of his army, examining the condition of the men. A young Pennsylvanian was on guard when the General rode up. He demanded the countersign. "I am the Commander-in-Chief, George B. McClellan," was answered. "Well, then, Commander-in-Chief, Gen. George B. McClellan, get down from your horse and give the countersign or I will see what kind of a hole the musket which J. K. Moorehead procured for us will make in the body of Commander-in-Chief, George B. McClellan." The General dismounted, gave the word and praised the young soldier for his conduct, and told him whenever he wanted a favor to let him know.

The War Department has called for no definite number of troops, but has re-opened the recruiting stations lately closed by order. Some new regiments will be raised for special service, as in Kentucky for the military commandant appointed there. Beyond this, no formal call has been made on States for volunteers; the main object is to obtain a reserve to fill up existing regiments.

The brave Col. Corcoran, who has been so long a prisoner in rebel hands, and whose exchange, on account of rebel spite toward him was refused, is about to be released, and exchanged for the rebel colonel, W. F. Baldwin, of Virginia. His return will be hailed with the liveliest satisfaction by his hosts of friends.

Mrs. Jeff. Davis and children are surrounded by a sort of "court" at Raleigh, North Carolina. Among the precious harpies there doing homage is the true hanted, loyal, ex-Senator William M. Gwin of California, who, after giving his parole of honor, stole into Dixie.

The James river is navigable for sea-going steamers, drawing eleven feet of water, quite up to the city of Richmond; so that, if unobstructed, most of our gunboats can run up to the headquarters of rebellion.

Dr. Bernar, who was concerned in the Orsini plot, has been confined in Wandsworth (England) Lunatic Asylum.

VERY SAD.—Three outspoken Union men have been found in Norfolk by the rebels. One of them was worth $30,000 a year ago, every dollar which the rebel government confiscated. He took to the woods and swamps south of Norfolk; but upon hearing that the old flag waved once more over his native city, he returned. Meeting an old Northern friend on the streets, he threw himself into his arms and fell to the ground a shrieking maniac. The convulsion of joy was too much for mind and body enfeebled by starving in the woods, and he is now a lunatic.

SUICIDE AT FREDERICK.—Miss M. Wise, aged eighteen years, committed suicide at Frederick, Md., on Monday night, by taking laudanum. It appears she was the betrothed bride of a young man named Dennis Stall, a soldier in the Federal army, who died a few days since from wounds received in battle. The Examiner says that at the funeral of her lover she placed her likeness under his head, and remarked that she would not long survive him, and when her own death was discovered, the photograph of her betrothed was found under her head signifying the wish that it should be interred with her remains.

Orange Judd of the Agriculturist, starts for Europe to day in the Great Eastern to attend the Meeting of the Royal Agricultural Society in connection with the World's Exhibition at London to look into the operation of two or three of the leading Agricultural Colleges in Great Britain, France, and Germany, and especially to provide for future reports of the crops of the Old World, upon the condition of which so much depends the value of Breadstuff in this country. Ample provision is of course made for carrying on the Agriculturist with undiminished vigor during the two or three months absence of Mr. Judd.

Lieutenant Worden, of the Monitor, can at present see with only one eye but he can see more with that one than any rebel commodore, captain, or lieutenant can see with a pair. The Louisville Democrat says that if the rebels see him coming with one eye shut, they will be sure to run, thinking he is taking aim at them.

A little girl named Addie Nutting, aged two and a half years, daughter of Leander Nutting of Mason Village, N. H. died on Saturday last, from eating matches two days before. The phosphorus, as it issued from her mouth, resembled a stream of fire, very much like that caused by lighting matches on a wall in the dark.

Martin Hoeker, Sr., who died at his homestead, at Hockersville, Dauphin county, on the 25th ultimo, was born near Ephrata, Lancaster county, October 21st, 1768, and at the time of his death was consequently 93 years, 9 months and 4 days old.

Every Traitor who utters a disloyal sentiment on the streets of Baltimore is at once knocked down by a loyal man. The same practice would have a beneficial effect in other localities north of Baltimore.

Gen. Sickles has been ordered to resume command of the Excelsior brigade attached to the army of the Potomac. This we trust, terminates the "Sickles troubles."

A Ballon Reconnaissance was made from the Headquarters of Gen. McClellan on Saturday, which disclosed the fact that the rebel army was then evacuating Richmond.

An Irishman, in recommending a cow, remarked, she will give milk year after year without having calves—because she came of a cow that never had a calf.

Memphis is said to be overrun by gamblers, garrulous and murderers. An old man a cigar dealer, was recently strangled and robbed of $15,000 in specie during a thunder storm at night.

A letter from Batavia, dated March 31, reports a Confederate privateer steamer, mounted with eight rifled guns, in the China sea. She has been by an English man-of-war.

The office of the Richmond Examiner has been removed to Petersburg twenty-four miles distant, "in anticipation of movements of the U. S. Army."

CLIPPINGS FROM OUR EXCHANGES.

A negro, a very desperate character, was hung at West Point, on Friday last for the cold-blooded murder of two Massachusetts soldiers. He caught them asleep alone, and murdered them for their money. He was caught the next day and was made to jump off the limb of a tree, with a rope around his neck.

Andrew J. Vallandigham, who represents himself as a brother of the Congress man of that name, has been arrested at Clinton, Missouri, for marauding upon Union citizens, horse stealing, robbery, bushwhacking and jayhawking generally. The Vallandighams are a bad breed.

A number of years ago a free black man of Washington raised sufficient money to purchase a black woman. By her he has since raised a family of six or seven children. As by the law of the District the child follows the condition of the mother, of course these children are his slaves. He has therefore, filed his claim and asked payment from the Government, valuing his "piccaninies" at $300 each.

A Bill has been introduced in Congress to reduce letter postage to a uniform rate of two cents for any distance within the United States.

The women of Poland have a watchful eye over their daughters, and make them wear little bells on their persons, to denote where they are and what they are about.

Mr. Crittenden, of Kentucky, in a recent speech in the House, said of the President: "There is a niche in the temple of fame—a niche near to Washington—which should be occupied by the state of him who shall save his country. Mr. Lincoln has a mighty destiny. It is for him to be but a President of the people of the United States, and there will his statue be. It is in his power to occupy a place next to Washington, the founder and preserver, side by side."

Alfred Stanly, a brother of Hon. Edw. Stanly, Provisional Governor of N. Carolina, was captured near Washington N. C., on the 14th inst., by a party of Union cavalry. He hoped that North Carolina would open and swallow up her brother if he should set foot upon her soil as its Governor, under the authority of the United States.

A woman in New Jersey took to wearing the bloomer costume, a short time since, which so mortified her son—a fine young man about twenty years old—that he has become insane.

A female dromedary, belonging to a menagerie exhibiting at Stirling, Scotland; has lately given birth to a promising infant dromedary, the first ever born on English soil.

Jeff. Davis has sent Mrs. Davis south from Richmond, to find retreat and repose in an obscure town in North Carolina. This is a cruel disappointment to Mrs. D., remembering that she was promised a residence in the White House at Washington more than a year ago.

The First N. Y. Fire Zouaves, formerly Ellsworth Regiment, have arrived at New York. They were mustered out of service, it being impossible to discipline them.

Quite a breeze has arisen in Charles and Prince George counties, Maryland, by the alleged discovery of a plot for a negro insurrection.

The Secretary of War writes that, owing to want of transportation, it is impossible at present to grant permission to remove the bodies of soldiers killed in battle.

The decided ill-will of a large and powerful party in France towards the Union cause, dates from the admission of the Orleans Princes into the Federal service.

At Winooski, New Jersey, a little girl named Mary Stewart, fell down a precipice of sixty-five feet, and was picked up uninjured.

E. P. Christy, of the Minstrels, died on the 20th instant from the effects of jumping out of a 2d story window.

A TROUT FACTORY.—Messrs. Dunham & Ives of Hartford, have a large factory in operation in Glastenbury, Ct., where trout are hatched by artificial means.—The number now in the pond is between forty and fifty thousand, and rapidly increasing. When the stock reaches the number of half a million, they estimate a yield of 50,000 lbs. per annum. The fishes are fed regularly, and have a man in constant attendance. Their food consists of small fish and shad-spawn. Millions of Suckers are raised to feed the hungry beauties of the pond.

A German woman at Winsted, Conn., thinks that "we in this country don't know anything about war yet!" During the existence of a war in Germany, she was compelled to work in a blacksmith's shop for three years, so scarce were men.

DR. LA CROIX'S PRIVATE MEDICAL TREATISE ON

The Physiological Views of Marriage! 250 PAGES AND 130 ENGRAVINGS. Price only 25 cents. Sent free of postage to all parts of the Union. On the infirmities of youth and maturity, disclosing the secret follicles of both sexes of ages, causing debility, nervousness, depression of spirit, palpitation of the heart, suicidal imaginations, involuntary emissions, bluishness, defective memory, indigestion and lassitude, with confessions of thrilling interest of a Boarding School Miss, a College Student, and a Young Merchant, &c., &c. It is a truthful adviser to the married and those contemplating marriage, who entertain secret doubts of their physical condition, and who are conscious of having hazarded the health, happiness, and privileges to which every human being is entitled.

YOUNG MEN who are troubled with weakness, generally caused by a bad habit in youth, the effects of which are dizziness, pains, forgetfulness, sometimes ringing in the ears, weak eyes, weakness of the back and lower extremities, confusion of ideas, loss of memory, with melancholy, may be cured by the author's new Paris and London Treatment.

We have recently devoted much of our time in visiting the European Hospitals, availing ourselves of the knowledge and researches of the most skillful Physicians and Surgeons in Europe and the Continent. Those who place themselves under our care will now have the full benefit of the many new and efficacious Remedies which we are enabled to introduce into our practice, and the public may rest assured of the same zeal, assiduity, SECRECY and attention being paid to their cases, which has so successfully distinguished us heretofore, as a Physician in our PECULIAR department of professional Practice, for the past twenty-five years.

FRENCH FEMALE PILLS.—Ladies who wish for Medicines, the efficacy of which has been tested in thousands of cases, and never failed to effect speedy cures without any bad results, will use none but Dr. DeLaney's Female Periodical Pills. The only precaution necessary to be observed is, ladies should not take them if they have reason to believe they are in certain situations (the particulars of which will be found on the wrapper accompanying each box,) though always safe and healthy, so gentle, yet so active are they.

Price $1 per box. They can be mailed to any part of the United States or Canada. TO THE LADIES—Who need a confidential medical adviser with regard to any of those interesting complaints to which their delicate organization renders them liable, are particularly invited to consult us.

THE ELECTRO-GALVANIC PROTECTIVE. For married ladies whose health will not improve, or who have no desire to increase their families, may be obtained as above. It is a perfectly safe preventive to conception, and has been extensively used during the last 20 years. Price reduced to $10.

THE SECRET OF YOUTH UNVEILED. A Treatise on the Cause of Premature Decay—a solemn warning. Just published, a book showing the insidious progress and prevalence among schools, [both male and female.] of this fatal habit, pointing out the fatality that invariably attends its victims, and developing the whole progress of the disease, from the commencement to the end. It will be sent by Mail on receipt of two [3] cent Stamps.
