Marietta, Pa.

SATURDAY, JUNE 7, 1862.

Messrs. MATHER & ABBOTT, No. 335 Broadway, New-York, are duly authorized to act for us in soliciting advertisements, &c.

The Directors of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company have unanimously elected THOMAS A. SCOTT, Esq., Vice President of the Company. In future, therefore, his time will be devoted to the management of our great artery of trade, Mr. Scott returns to Philadelphia in consequence of the departure for Europe of Mr. J. E. THOMSON, President of the company. Mr. Scott resigned his position as Assistant Secretary of War several weeks since, to take effect on the 1st of June. His services in the organization of our army have been of great value to the Government.

When the confederates evacuated Williamsburg, Gen. Magruder brought away six women who were suspected of being friendly to the Union cause, in order to guard against their giving information. After being held captives two or three days they were set at liberty, and arrived at West Point on Wednesday last. Where they stated to Gen. Franklin that their prisoners had been violated by Gen. Magruder and other officers high in rank.

In Cazenova, New York, recently, a district school gave an exhibition, embracing a matinee scene in which a deserter was to be shot. The act was preformed, and the lad who acted the part (a son of Rev. E. Swan) fell dead upon the stage. It was found that in loading the gun a brass ferrule on the ramrod had slipped from its place and remained in the barrel.

General Fremont has decided to hang guerrillas and bushwhackers in case that he is not interfered with. It is said that when a guerrilla falls into the hands of his soldiers, the usual report of the guard is, "that the prisoner tried to escape and was shot," or that "a gun accidentally went off and killed him.

Speaking of the effect of the war upon domestic manufactures in Philadelphia, the North American of that city says, "most manufacturing firms are operating as largely as ever, and not a few of them, instead of suffering a depression from the war, have been more hurried during the last six months with orders than at any former period in their history."

Mrs. Mary C. Thome, the last surviving witness of the execution of General Andre, died in New York on the 10th inst., at the age of 92. Her father was a quartermaster of the Continental army, and was stationed in the highlands when Andre's capture and execution took place.

Gen. Burnside recently seized all but one of the town commissioners of Edenton, N. C., and held them as hostages for the return of a Union man who had been captured by the rebels while on a visit to his wife, in town. It is alleged that the commissioners connived at his capture.

A gentleman who drew $1300 from the treasury department at Washington, on Friday, was swindled out of it by a sharper who pretended to be a clerk in the department, and got it into his possession by representing there was a mistake made in counting it. He made good his escape.

Senator Wilson, of Mass., stated in the United States Senate on Saturday last, that there had been a list prepared of men in the army, and the aggregate was 617,654, but we had a large number at home on leave and sick, and he supposed we had about 500,000 effective men in the field.

The municipal regulation in New Orleans punishes with imprisonment in the Calaboose, women of the town found in the streets after nightfall, or conversing from the windows with persons outside. This, probably, is the punishment inflicted by Gen. Butler on the women of our troops.

The appraisers on Colonel Sam. Colt's estate make the whole amount of his property foot up over three millions of dollars. His property in the Western States and Texas, in England, and his lead mines in South America, will probably add another million.

There is a strong movement progressing among the shopkeepers in Canada to drive the British shilling out of circulation. They have resolved to take that coin for only twenty-four cents, and they have received promises from the banks that all that are deposited shall be sent back to England.

Among the more recent seizures at New Orleans, are the State Arsenal, filled with ordnance stores and ammunition, and the residence of John Shidell. At the latter place Mrs. Beauregard and her mother were found in occupation. Shidell presented the place to Mrs. Beauregard on his departure for England. Gen. Butler speaks in terms of warm praise of the dignified manner in which the wife of the brave but misguided commander of the rebel army treated the officers and soldiers who took possession of the house. As soon as the General learned that Mrs. Beauregard was living in the house, he withdrew the guard.

Mrs. Rose N. Greenow, Mrs. Morris, and Mrs. Baxley, three prisoners confined in the Old Capital prison for several months past, on the charge of giving aid and information to the enemy, have just been sent to Fortress Monroe under guard for transfer to the rebel lines. Mrs. Greenow was arrested some months since, and for a time was confined in her own residence. They all steadily refused to take the oath, or accept their parole, so they were removed to the rebel lines.

There is some talk of arming the negroes in the South. The Georgia Confederacy says: "We must fight the devil with fire," by arming our negroes to fight the Yankees. There is no doubt that in Georgia alone we could pick up ten thousand negroes that would rejoice to meet fifteen thousand Yankees in deadly conflict. We would be willing almost to risk the fate of the South in such an encounter in an open field."

Fort Hamilton, as announced in general orders from the War Department, some time ago, is now a chaplain post. There is, however, no chapel church, or other suitable place for public worship, but it is reported that one will be built as soon as possible. A church and proper burial ground are much required. The present burial ground looks like a deserted potato patch.

The Memphis Argus asks why, in the name of all infamous, was the Merrimac—the pride of the South, and the terror of the North, and the wonder and admiration of the world—destroyed at Craney Island; when, if nothing more, she could have run up either the James or York river, and waited the approach of the Union gunboats? Her destruction looks like a terrible blunder.

The National and American Bank Note Companies run night and day upon Government work, and so great is the pressure upon them that notes are sent to Boston and Philadelphia to have their backs printed there. The printing of the ninety million legal tender notes will be completed within a week.

Gen. Harney is living very quiet and retired in St. Louis, having recently bought a fine house in the "addition," and comes into the city occasionally, attracting a great deal of attention by his fine soldierly bearing, yet devoid of all military trappings, his dress being a plain suit of black.

Mrs. Harriet W. Shannon has a suit for divorce now pending in the Supreme Court of Boston. She conducts her own case in open Court, and proves herself a match for the excellent male lawyers opposed to her.

The Manchester American says that the mother of Commodore Nutt has presented Major Nutt, the father of that pigmy, with another youngest, whose live weight at its advent, was only a pound and a half!

Three hundred and sixteen free blacks of both sexes were advertised to be sold at Norfolk, Monday week, for failing to pay taxes. Gen. Wool's arrival, a few days before, interfered with the sale.

G. W. Gabe, three years a Member of the Legislature from Montgomery Co., Pa., committed suicide in Green twp., Clinton Co., one day last week, by taking prussic acid. He leaves a family.

The agents of the Liberian and Haytian Governments have met with some encouragement among the contraband, by inducing some of them to emigrate to those countries.

The President's family will pass the summer months at the Soldiers' Home, old Mr. Buchanan's summer residence, which is being re-fitted for their reception.

John M'Kenney, late State Treasurer of Michigan, has been sent to the Penitentiary for seven years, for embezzlement of State funds. Right!

The Homestead bill, recently passed by Congress, has been signed by the President, and is therefore now a law.

The Great Eastern arrived at New York, making her last trip in less than ten days.

A lady and a boy have been badly bitten by dogs in Bloomingburg—wherein 192 dogs are taxed.

Hon. S. S. Wharton, of the State Senate, died at his residence at Huntingdon on Sunday last.

CLIPPINGS FROM OUR EXCHANGES. Boston has contributed $1,000, in five cent subscription, to Lieut. Worden fund.

The support of the "contrabands" now costs the government $100,000 per day.

The Rebels and England acknowledged at last, the "sufficiency" of the Southern blockade.

Of the chaplains in the U. S. army there are: Methodists, 124; Presbyterians (N. S.), 94; Congregational, 57; Episcopal, 66; Baptist, 43; Presbyterian (O. S.), 24; Unitarian, 23; Catholic 22; not known, 7. Total, 472.

One of the strangest freaks of nature occurred in Centre county, of this State where a hen lay an unusually large egg, with the usual white and yolk, and in addition to this another complete egg, shell and all—an egg within an egg.

In the District of Columbia, up to this date, 394 petitioners have filed claims for 1338 slaves, at an average of about $750 per slave.

Pennsylvania has now one hundred and fifteen regiments enrolled, of which all but one are in active service.

Major Slemmer, of Fort Pickens fame, has joined Gen. McCook's division of Gen. Buell's army corps.

Ninety-Five Catholic Churches have been erected in the United States within the past year.

About $50,000 worth of bells of all descriptions, from the ponderous Cathedral bell to the smallest size of handbells were found in New Orleans Custom-house. They were to have been cast into cannon.

The Odd Fellows Hall at New Orleans has been occupied by the United States troops.

It is said that Secretary Seward has expressed an opinion that the fugitive slave law is not applicable to the District of Columbia. The District of Columbia is a district, not a State, in which slaves are escaping.

According to a Corinth correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, there is great freedom and intimacy allowed among the men when a flag of truce arrives.

The Charlestonians are constructing a stone wall across their harbor, to block out our fleet and prevent them from approaching within shelling distance of the city.

Fourteen hundred of our soldiers, now prisoners in North Carolina, are to be released and will soon return north.

On last Sunday, three men who started in a boat from the Canada shore, for Goat Island, were carried over the Niagara Falls.

Our troops have been welcomed at Pensacola. Billy Wilson occupies the residence of S. R. Mallory, rebel Secretary of the Navy. Bully for Billy.

When the New-York Seventh regiment reached Baltimore on Tuesday afternoon, it was received with the utmost enthusiasm. Nothing really could have been more hearty. The regiment remain there, the Union Bank being made their quarters.

The "loyal men have gone into this war to get their rights," and we assure all Rebels, high and low, that they have both the power and the will to recover them. We trust that the rebels may also get their rights, as Brownlow says—"Grasp for the masses and hemp for the leaders."

Captain Boyce, of the Tenth Ohio regiment, who has arrived at Evansville, Ind., from Huntsville, Ala., states that Gen. Mitchell has granted passes to John Bell and Jere. Clements to visit Washington for the purpose of making arrangements for re-establishing peace in the Southwest.

Gov. Andrew of Massachusetts has issued General Order No. 17, regulating the recruiting of thirty companies of infantry called for by the President for three years service, and a battery of light artillery for six months service. No one shows more determination to furnish troops to put down the insurrection. All honors to him.

General Dix has gone to Fortress Monroe to take command there, vice General Wool, who takes command in Baltimore. This exchange was probably mutually desired. The four female traitors, Mrs. Greenow, etc., arrested at Washington, have been released, and have gone to Norfolk. While stopping at the Gillmore House, Baltimore, they held a levee which was attended by all the female traitors in Baltimore.

Charleston has been declared to be under martial law. The civility are evidently getting greatly alarmed. The loss of the steamer Planter, which the contrabands skeddaddled with out to the blockading vessels, has greatly worried them. On the 21st ult., four of our gunboats shelled Cole, Goat, and Kiawah islands, and drove out the rebels, causing them to burn their tents, stores, &c. This was within twelve or fifteen miles of Charleston.

Whoever makes the fewest persons uneasy, is the best bred in the company.

SINGULAR FANCY.—The West Chester Republican records the death of an old man who has kept his coffin in his house for thirty years. Until within a few years he has resided on a small farm three miles from West Chester. On one occasion he cut down a fine walnut tree growing on his place, had it sawed into boards, and the coffin was made from a portion of the lumber. Without communicating his purpose to any one, he took the boards to a cabinet maker, had the coffin made, and one day it came home while he was absent, causing considerable consternation in his family.—He was rather an eccentric person, but a kind neighbor and a good citizen.—Last week this uncomfortable reminder of death was brought forth, varnished, and he was carried in it to the grave.

The news of her husband being killed so prayed on the feelings of Madame Phillippe, wife of a soldier in Sickles' brigade, and residing in New York, that she procured laudanum, wherewith she poisoned herself and her daughter Julietty, five years of age, and both died on Sunday.

A voice from Yorktown. VOLUNTEERS, ATTENTION!

A voice from Yorktown! Let Facts speak for themselves. READ the following brief note received this morning from one of our brave soldiers now before Yorktown: Camp Winfield Scott, near Yorktown, Thomas Holloway, Esq., No. 80 Maiden Lane, New-York. MAY 1st, 1862. Sir—As there are none of "Holloway's Pills" for sale hereabout, I enclose an order, for which please send me the amount in your very valuable Pills without delay. If there is any postage or expressage please deduct it, and Oblige Yours truly, in haste, T. HANLEY, ADJT., 9th N. Y. Cavalry. Before Yorktown, Virginia.

P. S.—Your Pills are famous for the cure of Dysentery, and I have no doubt that they will prove as efficacious in Chills and Fever here, as they have in other divisions of the army.

FRENCH'S CONICAL WASHING MACHINES! The most simple, durable, convenient and economical article ever invented for the purpose. Will do the washing of an ordinary family before breakfast, not only saving time but clothes. By strictly following the printed directions, which are simple and easy, it will wash, at one time, six shirts, or two dozen small articles, in about six or seven minutes, or their equivalent. By all the ordinary methods of cleaning fine fabrics, such as lace, &c., the greatest care is required, while with this machine the most delicate articles can be washed without the possibility of damage.

These results are produced by the constant reaction of the suds while the machine is in motion. Families, laundries, hotels, boarding houses, hospitals, asylums, boarding schools, on ships and on steamers, and in the army, who have machines in use, have sent in their testimonials voluntarily, and the economies of the press are very numerous, some of which I have published in a neat pamphlet form. All I ask of the public is a careful examination of this machine before purchasing of others. General Depot, 419 Broadway, corner of Canal street, New-York. PRICE ONLY TEN DOLLARS. F. B.—A liberal discount to the Trade. Agents wanted. Send for a Circular. Address Box 2893 New-York City. PHILIP FRENCH, PROPRIETOR. Dec. 21 3m.]
