

The Local Mariettian.

MARIETTA CAR TIME.—The several passenger trains leave "Upper-station" as follows: The morning train east at 7:15. The mail train west at 11:23. The afternoon train east at 5:16. The evening train west at 6:50.

Saturday, June 7, 1862.

We are under obligations to Hon. THADDEUS STEVENS, for public documents.

Rev. T. MONTGOMERY, formerly pastor of the M. E. Church, in this borough, will preach in Zion Church, on Sunday morning, June 8th, at 10 o'clock.

DEATH OF LIEUT. WINSLOW.—We find the following, in reference to the death of Lieut. Winslow of Elk county, in the Lock Haven Democrat of the 10th ult. Lieut. R. O. Winslow died very suddenly, in this place, on Saturday the 10th instant, aged 41 years. He raised a company last spring for Kane's Bucktail Riflemen, but was soon afterwards appointed Second Lieutenant of the 17th Infantry. Before he assumed his position he was promoted to be First Lieut. of his company, and detailed for recruiting service. In this capacity he was quite successful, and but a few days before his death sent 15 or 20 men into the service. He was buried on Wednesday (14th ult) with Masonic honors, and his funeral was largely attended.

Poor Cobe! No better, cleverer fellow ever wore an epaulet. Only a few weeks since he was on a visit to this place. He had many friends here, and now, alas, he is gone.

Mr. Nathan Green, of Columbia, will canvass this borough on Monday next, for subscribers for "Alfred Ely's Journal," giving a journal of his Prison Life in Richmond. This is an interesting work and is nicely bound, containing a fine portrait of Mr. Ely, and delivered by Mr. Green at one dollar a copy. Mr. Green also delivers the "Rebellion Record" in numbers, at fifty cents each; it is issued in monthly parts each being illustrated with admirable portraits on steel, of the chief actors—civil and military—union and rebel—in the struggle. This "Record" will form a most valuable work for future reference, and will be on the shelf of every library of any pretensions. Mr. Green has also the engravings with which the work is illustrated, on separate sheets; they are fine portraits and well worth framing.

A happy re-union took place at the residence of Mrs. David Kauffman, near Manheim, on Sunday last. Two brothers, Henry Cassel, aged 86, and Abraham Cassel, aged 79, and one sister, Mrs. David Kauffman, aged 82 years, met, by appointment, and in all human probability for the last time on earth, and attended a reunion meeting. These three old persons are the only children their parents ever had. Mr. Henry Cassel is the oldest citizen of Marietta, and was accompanied on this—his last trip away from home, by his estimable daughter, Miss Lizzie Cassel, whose many kind offices to the sick and needy will long be remembered.

We have just replaced a great loss, having sometime since lost our favorite pen—"Prince's Fountain Pen"—we have just obtained another. This the ne plus ultra of pens—its unparalleled success is attributable only to its great merit. We could not—would not do without one. We regard a pen of this character as indispensable to every gentleman's desk, and could we not replace ours no price could buy it. Read the advertisement in another column—then call and see our pen and be convinced it is the pen.

On Wednesday the Susquehanna commenced to swell and by Thursday night it was over the bank at many places. Our lumbermen were very busy removing every thing movable from the river bank, but by Friday morning it began to fall again. A vast deal of timber, parts of bridges, &c., passed down during Thursday. It is regarded as one of the most sudden rises within the recollection of our "oldest inhabitant."

A delegate election will be held this (Saturday) evening, at the Town Hall, between the hours of 3 and 7 o'clock, to elect three or five delegates to represent this borough in County convention on Wednesday next, there to elect six delegates to represent this County in State Convention, in Harrisburg, on Thursday, July 17th.

Our correspondent Lewis Martin, has had the kindness to send us an excellent photograph of Col. THOMAS WELSH; he looks exceedingly well, and makes as fine a military appearance as any portrait we have yet seen. May he live to return to his home and his many friends.

The Vestry room of St. John's Church, Pequea, this county, was broken into last week, and the silk robe, scarf, &c. stolen. The Communion service had been removed to the house of Mr. Henderson, warden, or doubtless the sacrilegious scoundrels would have taken it.

Proposals will be received by the Chief Burgess or any of the Town Council, until Monday evening next, for the collection of the Borough Tax Duplicate for 1862.

[Correspondence of The Mariettian.]

FORT DRAYTON, Otter Island, S. C.

Dear Col: After an absence of three months, I take this friendly opportunity to let you know our acts and our doings since my last account to you. I must let you know the drill of the Forty-Fifth; we got up at five o'clock and eat breakfast at six, at seven we go out in our fatigue dress and drill till eight; come in and get ready to mount guard; get on our dress suit and mount guard at nine o'clock and drill till ten, with our knapsacks on our back; come in and stack arms and get dinner at 12; get ready for drill again from three to five—come in at five and get ready for dress parade—black boots and dress up in dress; go on dress at half past six to seven, and then come in and get ready for flea hunt; they are worse than all the Secesh down here; you can reach down in the sand and get a whole hand full, yes, they are worse here than in Wiley's hog pen in Summer time.—We hunt till eight o'clock, then get ready for roll call at nine, after that we cannot sleep for the fleas and mosquitoes, for they are very bad, if you would see the poor soldiers bodies—they are worse than the marks left by the measles. I must give you an account of the first of May: Sergeant McCann two others and myself started out on an expedition for shells; we got a small boat and all four got in and started; the water was calm, and we went about six miles across the sound, and got there safe—gathered shells till about five o'clock, when it commenced to rain, and we started for home—we got about half way across the sound when a storm came up and the boat upset; we got on an Island where we hunted for a dry place and got lost, and about 10 o'clock we laid down under a tree and slept the remainder of the night; in the morning when we got up we found ourselves in the middle of a marshy Island, we got in the small boat and set out for camp, and finally reached Otter Island on the 2d of May, about 3 o'clock in the afternoon; all expected us lost, and the Colonel was going to send a company in search of us. Our Colonel has got us into a Brigade with the 9th 76th, and 55th Reg'ts., under General Wright, of Vermont, who, by all accounts, is a good General; and if Charleston is to be taken we will be the first in it, for we are only twenty miles from it, and if Colonel Fox gets in a battle he will show Lancaster County that she has a Son who will leave his mark, and that Columbia may well be proud of him. Captain Haines and Lieut. Kline have their Company on Fenwick Island, about four miles from this place; the boys are all well—not one sick, and all are improving in drill very fast, under a well drilled Captain and good Lieutenant.

We have about three hundred contrabands at work planting sweet potatoes, corn, cabbage, &c., we have also lots of black berries here fit to eat, I had the pleasure of eating a black berry pie, and in a few weeks we will have an amount of peaches. I must give you an account of another Alligator capture, by three of our new recruits, viz: Notty Myers, Swetty Myers and Bips Devit, it was nine feet long and weighed one hundred and fifty pounds; the Col. says if any captures are to be made the Drytown boys have to do it, they are ahead of the Marietta boys for capture, and if Drytown has any more like them to send them on to the 45th. Our Quarter Master, John McClure, has got his commissary fixins in good order, he has it clean and nice all around the camp; he sends his highest regards to all inquiring friends in your vicinity.

Your Correspondent, LEWIS MARTIN.

H. L. & E. J. Zahm's jewelry store, corner of centre square and north queen street, Lancaster, was broken into and robbed of a couple of gold watches on Thursday morning about 2 o'clock.—The man who sleeps in the store was aroused by the pounding on the window, when he turned-up the gas, which is allowed to burn low all night, and going to the queen street window saw a hand suddenly withdrawn and heard the retreating footsteps of the robber. He had evidently made a reconnaissance of the premises by daylight, and knew exactly where the watches hung suspended in the window, and made his opening accordingly. Had there been no one in the store, he might have made a grand sweep of the window.

The Lancaster Fencibles having now more members than are required by the military law of the State, have in contemplation, we understand, to organize a battalion of two or three companies. By all means let the battalion be raised, and let the gallant and esteemed commander of the Fencibles be promoted to the Majorship.

Rev. James Latta, of the neighborhood of Parkersburg, Chester County, a clergyman of the Presbyterian church, well known in this vicinity, died suddenly while at breakfast, on Friday morning of last week, at the residence of Rev. Mr. Cromwell, in Philadelphia. Mr. L. was in attendance at the Sunday School Convention held at that City.

Diffenbach has just received another lot of summer goods.

We observed in an exchange, that the 113 Pennsylvania Regiment of Cavalry, to which James A. Congdon, Esq., of this borough is Second Major, and Lewis B. Pierce of Bradford county Colonel, has left Philadelphia for the seat of war.

Park Spring, the gentleman who accompanied Professor Lowe, as telegraph operator, at the recent battle of Chickamauga hails from this county.—He has seen done that which no other man saw or did before him.
