

MARIETTA CAR TIME.—The several passenger trains leave "Upper-station" as follows: The morning train east at 7:15. The mail train west at 11:23. The afternoon train east at 5:16. The evening train west at 6:55.

SATURDAY, JULY 19, 1862.

The next number of "The Mariettian" will close the eighth year of the paper. We will send a collector out in town in the hope to get the few dollars coming to us, which we are much in need of, whilst we will enclose bills in the paper to parties at a distance, which we hope will be responded to by the delinquents. One Dollar bills can now be easily obtained, and sent by mail at our risk.

WHAT SHALL WE DO FOR CHANGE?—The great scarcity for small change is bringing out all kind of suggestions to remedy the inconvenience. Some advise the issue of shipplasters; others bitterly condemn them; some argue that postage stamps could be made answer, whilst others suggest enhancing the price, or value—for the present only—of silver coin: say 3c, 5c, 10c and 25c pieces severally to be worth 5, 12, 25 and 35 cts. We do not think, after all, that anything better can be done than for all the large cities and boroughs to issue shipplasters. Newark, N. J., has already authorized the issue of $50,000, in denominations of 5, 10, 25 and 50 cents. The Councils of that city have authorized the temporary loan of that sum to redeem them in sums of ten dollars and upwards. Grumbling against the issue of shipplasters is very easy and natural, but not very effective—what are we to do? How else can the evil be remedied? When bank notes are only redeemed in irredeemable paper and specie is said to be at ten to twenty per cent. premium, "change" vanishes and what better than shipplasters can be substituted? Can any person tell, for it is absurd to expect any one to change your dollar bill and give you back a greater actual value than he receives? Messrs. Spangler & Patterson have already issued two bills in this shape, and a hue and cry is raised against them, and but for them we could scarcely get along for change. If the business men of this place will not follow this example, why let the Borough Council authorize the issue of shipplasters—anything that will relieve this perplexity.

Peterson's Magazine for August is out. As usual it is well filled with interesting reading matter and beautifully illustrated. It is only $2 a year and equally as good as any of the $3 magazines. Try it for one year and be convinced.

Lancaster county can point with just pride to her noble sons who were in the late battles before Richmond. Gen. Samuel P. Heintzleman and Gen. John F. Reynolds are both natives of the county. Both displayed great skill and bravery upon the battle field, worthy of all praise. Colonel Fisher, of Columbia, the Lieut. Col. of the Fifth, we hear spoken of as having distinguished himself by his bravery. Col. Simmons of his regiment was killed, and Fisher being promoted to Colonel of the regiment. Captains Hess, Barton, Neff and Collins did their whole duty as officers and soldiers. Capt. Hess giving his life to his country, and Capt. Collins being wounded. We have heard of individual prodigies of valor and fighting, and hair-breadth escapes of our boys.—Bullets—one, two and three—through hats, haversacks, canteens, &c., that would fill a page. So says the Lancaster Examiner.

Little Ella Benjamin, daughter of Mr. H. D. Benjamin, started out, on Monday morning last, on a dime donation call upon our citizens, for the use of our "Patriotic Circle," and in less than five hours had collected over eight dollars. She says she met with but two refusals in her entire route—her reception being very cordial in every other instance, and some insisting on not being confined to a dime; saying that whenever the "Circle" is in want of funds to call again. The "Circle" meet regularly every Tuesday evening and is busy in the good work of "doing and gathering" for the sick and wounded.

A violent and most brutal assault was made on a poor Italian Plaster-of-Paris Image vender, by the "Mehaffey Brigade" on Wednesday last. We were not able to get all the particulars before going to press, but enough to stamp it as one of the most unprovoked and diabolical acts, and worthy a Baltimore plug ugly. We will give the particulars in our next and place the pretender to "dignified consequence" in the position he so very richly deserves. So shameful a transaction should not go unpunished.

We clip from the Monday Evening Lancaster Inquirer, the following extract of a letter from George W. Jack, son of Major J. W. Jack, of Lancaster. Young Jack is on the "J. P. Jackson," of Commodore Porter's Murmur Fleet:

On Saturday, the 28th, came off one of the greatest battles that has yet been fought on the Mississippi. I may safely say it was one of the greatest naval engagements of the war. I will give you a brief account of it. At four o'clock in the morning (June 28th.) arrangements had been made to give them battle. When Commodore Farragut's sloop the Hartford came slowly up. Scarcely had she come in sight of the batteries, when she was fired upon on all sides, but she still went on without replying, our boys then began, 20 in number, raining shell into them like hail, when all the gunboats were got in motion and participated in the fight, lines of batteries, for miles along the shore opened upon us, while we responded as fast as we could load and fire; the river and shore at one time seemed to be one blaze of fire and smoke. Our guns were ordered to load with grape and canister, to run within 600 yards of the water batteries, when two or three opened upon us, and the balls rattled around us like hail.

We received one upon the deck, passing directly over me, and striking the wheel house, tearing off the helmsman's leg, which was immediately amputated. We received another amidships, under our guard, which completely disabled us. When the Clifton came up to tow us off, she was struck by a ball, passing through her boilers, scalding six men to death. After order was restored, we again worked our guns with a will, firing as fast as we could until we were out of range, when we ran into shore to repair damages. It was a hard fought battle, but the point was gained. Com. Farragut's fleet passed up the river, and are now with Davis' fleet. We lost but seven men in the contest.

The Lancaster boys represented their city nobly in one of the greatest naval battles fought during the war; seven of us being engaged in it: Sam'l C. Bear, Harry Cameron, Wm. W. Hess, James Holland, Henry O. Gussley, Charles Ravinger and myself. The rebels opened fire again upon us on Sunday which was immediately responded to by the "bummers" keeping it up all day. They have Vicksburg well fortified, besides having some 30,000 troops there; we have about 15,000 of ours encamped on the other side, in the woods. When our troops were ordered out to charge upon them they came to the top of the bluff, when our shells fell among them, killing 500, as we afterwards learned from a deserter.

The "Ladies Patriotic Circle of Marietta" desire to express their thanks to their fellow citizens for the kind and liberal manner with which they have responded to the appeals made to them, for pecuniary aid in carrying forward a patriotic and most benevolent work.

If there are any ladies who would be willing to aid in preparing garments for the sick and wounded soldiers, they can obtain the materials either from Mrs. Benjamin or Mrs. A. B. Grosh.

We received a letter a few days since from Mr. Fuls, then on board the steamer "Poe," on the Mississippi river, dated July 9th, in which he speaks of returning home—he says it is very hot in that section and full of disloyal vagabonds. He spent several days in St. Louis, where he called to see Dr. Grove but was agreeably surprised to find him well enough to have left for Marietta.

Mr. F. says the crops all through Illinois are excellent, in fact he thinks it the greatest grain growing state in the Union. He passed Island No. 10, and says some of the earthworks can be distinctly seen from the decks of passing steamboats. He was in Columbus, Ohio, Cincinnati and at the time of writing his letter was on his way to Charlottesville, Virginia. He will return home in about a week or ten days.

A Lancasterian, whom the Evening Express says is perfectly responsible, makes the following proposition for the issue of small notes: "As all kind of trade is now, and will every day more and more suffer on account of the scarcity of small change, to relieve the trade in a measure, if the city will in their name, issue, say ten thousand dollars in notes in denomination of 5, 10, 20 and 50 cts., redeemable in current Bank notes one year after date, I will do it at my own expense and deposit with the Mayor of the city ten thousand dollars, in Bonds of the United States, to secure the holder from all loss and their final redemption.

The Lancaster Evening Express suggests the cutting in half of one dollar notes, each half passing for fifty cents, and says "there would be no risk in this, legal or otherwise, as the courts have decided that a bank is bound to redeem a half of any one of its notes upon demand; and we are assured that, the suggestion having been made to the Farmers' Bank, that institution will cheerfully co-operate in the movement by redeeming the one-dollar notes of its own issue, when presented in halves, and we have no doubt the other banks will do the same."

The Mount Joy Pic Nic which was gotten up by the auspices of Captain Sberbader, of the Cross Keys, came off yesterday, but on going to press (Friday, 3 o'clock) we had not learned the result. The weather foreboding rain all day, may have deterred many from starting, as it did us. We feel certain, however, that nothing was left undone by the Captain to make it a complete success.

The Committee composed of Drs. Muhlenberg, Atlee and others, to Wa-bank, near Lancaster, as an Hospital for sick and wounded soldiers, have addressed the Surgeon General on the subject and in reply he says: "that he fully appreciates the generosity of the people of Lancaster, but there is no need at present of the hospital accommodation offered by them."

Great Books in Press!

Thrilling Incidents of the Great Rebellion; Or, the Heroism of our Soldiers & Sailors. ILLUSTRATED. 1 VOLUME, LARGE 12 MO. PRICE, $1.25.

The critics and the public are right in predicting that this will surpass, in graphic narrative, exciting interest, and extensive popularity, all other histories of the War for the Union. It is a theme which will be the heroic daring, patient suffering, and hair-breadth escapes of our soldiers and sailors, and its incidents will form the theme of conversation at innumerable firesides for years to come. It will contain, in addition to its stirring details, the philosophical Analysis of the Causes of the War by JOHN LOTHROP MOTLEY, LL.D., Author of "The Rise of the Dutch Republic," etc., the dates of all the important events from the Brown raid, and an accurate and revised account of the principle battles, with engravings.

One-third the proceeds of all Subscriptions sent direct to us will be given for the Relief of Disabled Soldiers, and all persons who wish a copy of this volume to benefit the soldiers should send their name and address at once. Also, any officer or private, or person in any section of the country, having knowledge of a heroic act or stirring incident will oblige us by sending an account of it.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.—Long marches, sore and stiff joints, blistered and indurated feet, all these the Soldiers must endure. MOTHERS, REMEMBER THIS, when your sons are grasping their muskets to meet danger—think what relief a single pot of this ALL HEALING & COOLING Salve will give to the one you love when far away from home and country. It hardens and makes tough the feet so that they can endure great fatigue. It soothes and relieves the inflamed and stiffened joints, leaving them supple, strong and vigorous, while for Soldiers Attention!! See to your own health, do not trust to the Army supplies, although most valuable.—These Pills and Ointment have been thoroughly tested, they are the only remedies used in the European Camps and Barracks, for over forty years Doctor Holloway has supplied all the Armies in Europe, and during the Crimean Campaign he established a depot at Balaklava, for the exclusive sale of these Great Ointment, many a time his special Agent there has sold over a ton in weight of the Ointment in a single day. These terrible and fatal enemies of the SOLDIERS IN CAMP, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Scurvy, Sores and Scrofulous eruptions, all disappear like a chameleon before these Pills & Ointment, and now while the cry rings through the land, To Arms! To Arms!!

Do not let these brave men perish by disease in their hands these Precious Remedies, that will enable them to resist the dangerous exposures, the Fevers, the Chills, and the wounds which they cannot avoid, and what is more, cannot frequently get succour in the moment of need, whereas if our brave men have only to put their hands into their Knapsacks and find there a sure remedy for all the casualties of the battle field. How many thousands of lives would thus be saved who would otherwise perish before relief could be obtained.

IMPORTANT CAUTION!—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernible as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot and box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light.
