FOR AUDITOR GENERAL: THOMAS E. COCHRAN, OF YORK COUNTY.

FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL: WILLIAM S. ROSS, OF LUZERNE COUNTY.

General McClellan has issued an order directing the generals of brigades and divisions to forward to his headquarters the names of every non-commissioned officer who, in the late "Seven Days' Battle," may have been distinguished for gallantry and good service on the field, with a view to immediate promotion of the deserving. Over two thousand names of young and old heroes have been handed in, and will no doubt soon receive deserved promotion as a reward for their faithful services. The Press says that "there are men serving in the ranks who are far superior as soldiers to the political demagogues who pretend to command regiments in some cases, and these should not be lost sight of when officers for the new levy are to be selected. Let us show, in this crisis of our country's greatest peril, that the noblest of all republics was not forgetful of the deeds of her patriotic children, and refute the general charge that 'republics are ungrateful.'"

Dr. Hunt, of the Buffalo Express, who has charge of the Hospitals at Fortress Monroe, says in a recent letter: "I have the best authority for stating that 'highly respectable' families in Norfolk, live upon the prostitution of their female slaves. The not fair but very frail mulattoes and quadroons of Norfolk have been colonized by themselves and put under strict guard. This step has stopped the regular income of some aristocratic families in Norfolk, and the lady owners are begging for the release of their servants."

It is understood that during the recent visit of the President to the army on the James river he asked General McClellan if he desired to resume the command of the whole army of the United States, and that the General preferred to retain his command of the forces now under him. It is stated, also, that the chief command was offered to Major General Pope and declined.

Vermont, always right politically, and ever true to the country, has the honor to be the first State to forward troops under the new requisition. One regiment has already reached Washington, and others are preparing to follow in rapid succession. All hail to the 'Green Mountain State!'

As soon as it was known that the President had signed the confiscation act, and had sent in a message recommending his subordinates to employ persons of African descent as laborers, all the white waiters at Willard's Hotel were discharged, and black ones took their places.

The Steamship Great Eastern is now lying off Flushing Bay, about nine miles from New York, in Long Island Sound. She passed Greenport on the 23d inst., and entered the Sound, being the first British steamer which has come to New York by this route.

An East Tennesseean writing to the Nashville Union of the attempt to 'conciliate' secessionists, says: "We fight as well as attempt to spit snakes or leas. They do not intend to be conciliated. Nothing but appeals to their war will tame them."

Ex-President Van Buren died at Underhook, on Thursday morning.

The Heroic General Butler is surely the man for the occasion; he is bravely working wonders in New Orleans. We copy below several extracts from recent orders. Special order No. 150, says of Mrs. Phillips, who made herself the lioness in secession circles in Washington last winter, and who was banished into Secession, that "having been once imprisoned for her traitorous proclivities and acts at Washington and released by the clemency of the Government, and having been found training her children to spit upon officers of the United States, for which act of one of those children both her husband and herself apologized and were again forgiven, is now found on the balcony of her house during the passage of the funeral procession of Lieut. De Kay, laughing and mocking at his remains, and upon being inquired of by the commanding general if this fact were so, contemptuously replied, 'I was in good spirits that day.'"

It is therefore ordered that she be not regarded and treated as a common woman, of whom no officer or soldier is bound to take notice, but as an uncommon, bad, and dangerous woman, stirring up strife and inciting to riot, and that, therefore, she be confined at Ship Island, in the State of Mississippi, within proper limits there, till further orders, and that she be allowed one female servant, and no more, if she so choose. That a soldier's ration each day be served out to her, with the means of cooking the same, and that no verbal or written communication be allowed with her, except through this office. Immediately following this order No. 151: Fidel Keller has been found exhibiting a human skeleton in his bookstore window, in a public place in this city, labelled "Chickabomby," in large letters, meaning and intending that the bones should be taken by the populace to be the bones of a United States soldier slain in that battle, in order to bring the authority of the United States and our army into contempt, and for that purpose had stated to the passers by that the bones were those of a Yankee soldier, whereas, in truth and fact, they were the bones purchased some weeks before of a Mexican consul, to whom they were pledged by a medical student. It is therefore ordered that, for this desecration of the dead, he be confined at hard labor for two years, on the fortifications on Ship Island, and that he be allowed no verbal or written communication to or with any one, except through these headquarters.

Another order follows: John W. Andrews exhibited a cross, the emblem of the suffering of our blessed Saviour, fashioned for a personal ornament, which he said was made from the bones of a Yankee soldier, and having shown this, too, without rebuke, in the Louisiana Club, which claims to be composed of chivalric gentlemen.

It is therefore ordered that, for this desecration of the dead, he be confined at hard labor for two years, on the fortifications on Ship Island, and that he be allowed no verbal or written communication to or with any one, except through these headquarters.

APPOINTMENT OF TAX COLLECTORS.—Tax collectors and appraisers will be selected in the mode usually adopted in the Treasury Department. All applications are received and filed, together with all letters in support of the proposed appointments, whether from members of Congress or other citizens, the names of all applicants, with careful abstracts of the letters and information relating to each one, submitted to the President, together with the judgement of the Secretary of the Treasury as to the proper persons to be selected. With these papers before him the President forms his own opinion and makes his own appointments.

The Richmond Examiner says that General McClellan. "Retreated with a judgment, a dexterity, and a spirit of fortitude, which, however envailing they may be to save his entire command, must challenge our admiration for his generalship."
