Messrs. Mather & Abbott, No. 335 Broadway, New-York, are duly authorized to act for us in soliciting advertisments, &c., and

> UNION STATE NOMINATIONS. FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, THOMAS E. COCHRAN. OF YORK COUNTY. FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL, WM. S. ROSS, OF LUZERNE COUNTY.

A citizen of Anne Arundel coun ty Md., has written to the War Department to know if magistrates, constables, justices, and sheriffs are exempt from draft, and has received the following an-

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington City, August 14, 1862.

Sir: In reply to yours of the 9th inst asking that justices of the peace, sheriffs, and constables be exempt from draft, I am directed to say that your request is granted, and said parties are bereby exempt.

By order of the Secretary of War: C. P. BUCKINGHAM,

Brigadier General and A. A. G.

F. Webster, mortally wounded in oldest son of Daniel Webster. His younger son was in the army in Mexico, and died in service there. His daughter, Mrs. Appleton, died some years ago -so that now there is none left of the blood of "Webster." Colonel Webster was at one time Assistant Secretary of father. He was also appointed secrewas minister to China.

The New Albany (Indiana) Ledger states that a rather laconic sword presentation took place at Camp Noble, a few days since. A member of the Sixty-sixth Regiment purchased a sword for Captain J. Girod, and Captain J. H. Fawcet was deputed to present it. This the Captain did, as follows: "Here, John is a sword." Captain Girod took it and replied: "Thank you; I'll see you again about it, after I have tried it." The presentation and reply were both to the point.

The late census returns of manufacturing establishments in New York city, reveal the fact that more capital is employed in carrying on printing trade than any other business, the temporary, says: "He needs no cup.amount being over eight and a half millions. Over six thousand persons are employed in the various establishments; use up about five millions of dollars worth of raw material, ink, paper, &c., per annum, producing over eleven millions' worth of books, papers, etc.

A thousand surgeons reached Washington, fer the purpose offering their services to the Government. A portion of them only have been accepted. Many of them apparently to do what is called high surgery. Six who were ordered to report to Assistant saying that was not the kind of work ed. they came to do.

in Rutlaud, Va., Saturday night last. No less than thirty two of the best and most costly monuments in the grave yard, in the western part of the village, were overturned, and many of them grossly mutilated and broken, and all damaged more or less. Monuments costing from over one hundred dollars, were so injured as to be nearly worth-

The Democratic Senatorial Conference, says the Johnstown Tribune, met again at Altoons and nominated W. A. Wallace, of Clearfield county. Wallace is a Breckinridge Democrat, and an open sympathizer with the rebellion and its leaders. The election of such a man to represent the loyal and patrietic people of Blair and Cambria counties in the Senate of our glorious old Keystone State would be an outrage.

Some politicians believe, notwithstanding appearances, that there is at the bottom a complete accord between Garibaldi and Victor Emanuel. Ricasoli is said to favor Garibaldi's advance in Congress. on Rome.

Mrs. Stonewall Jackson.—The wife of the rebel General Stonewall Jackson is the daughter of Rev. Dr. Junkin, of Philadelphia, formerly President of La Fayette College in this State. Stonewall is a praying man, a professor of religion, and believes himself to be the Putnam of the southern confederacy .-It is needless to add that his attitude toward hiscountry is a source of the deepest regret to his venerable fatherin-law, Dr. Junkin.

Gen. Frank Hughes, Commander in-chief of the Breckinridgers in this State, is getting up meetings against the Administration, in various parts of the State. One was held in Philadelphia where the sentiments held forth were so treasonable that one of the speakers (a son of "Tory Ingersoll") was placed under arrest.

The Cleveland Leader annouces that a very pretty young lady of that city, offers to kiss any able bodied, good looking young man who will enlist .-Improving on this idea, the editor of a Wheeling paper suggests that some of our pretty, rosy-tipped young ladies offer to marry such of the young men as will ealist, after they return from the

The pistol of Daniel O'Connell were recently sold at auction in London. With one of these, in 1845, O'Connel shot D'Estere. An inscription inside the pistol case stated that D'Estere was promised £1,000 down and £1,000 for life, by the Dublin Orangemen, if he killed O'Connell. The pistols brought Frank Hughes has got up a paper in Philadelphia, in which his dangerous ideas are set forth. Its whole tone is calculated to sow discord among our the late battle, and now dead, was the people. It is a pity that Frank does not follow his relatives to Secessa. He would not be able to do near the harm to the loyal cause there that does here.

General McClellan has his headquarters at Fort Lyon. His friends say that he has taken umbrage at the action State Department under his illustrious of the President's appointment of Gen. Pope to the chief command of the armtary to Caleb Cushing, when the latter ies in Virginia. The Army of the Potomac is now completely merged into the former.

> To make lager beer the following new receipt is given: Take a barrel and fill it with rain water, put in one pair of old boots, a head of last fall's cabbage, two sixes, a sprig of wormwood and a little yeast. Keep it for a year, and then "dish out."

> There was not a particle of truth in the rumor, that the New York Tribune had been suppressed for impugning the fidelity of General McClellan to his high trust. The New York Post, of last evening, says "The story was cut from the whole cloth."

A Western paper, in noticing the presentation of a silver cup to a co-He can drink from any vessel that contains liquor-whether the neck of a bottle, the mouth of demijohn, the spile of a keg or the bunghole of a barrel." -

The battle-field at Bull Run presents a sorrowful spectacle. Army Surgeons and nurses are needed .-Free passes will be furnished and all expenses paid to those who will go and care for the sick and wounded soldiers.

PEN, PASTE AND SCISSORS.

M. Genin lately addressed the Academie des Sciences on the subject of "The Sex of Eggs." He affirms that he is now able, after having studied the subject for upwards of three years, to state with assurance that all eggs containing the germ of males have wrinkles on their smaller ends, while female eggs are smooth at the extremities.

Some of our cotemporaries, says the Boston Journal, speak of the reply of President Lincoln to Mr. Greeley's impudent letter as "unprecedented" in the conduct of rulers. This is hardly true. Some three years and a half ago, the Emperor Napoleon replied to the attacks of the English press upon policy and his intention toward England, in a letter to Sir Francis Head. And that letter, although addressed to an individual, was written for the public.

A pierce of blue granite, three eights by one-eighth of an inch in circumference, and about a quarter of an inch in thickness, has been removed from the eye of Pascal P. James of Northampton Mass. Mr. James is a stone cutter, and has carried the fragment is his eye for fifteen years. The wound was never probed, and the orifice where the stone entered had healed.

Startling ! but true .- The Volunteers are braving the dangers of Fever, Scurvy Wounds and Cholera. Many a gallant fellow will leave his bones to bleach, who, by the aid of Holloway's Pills & Ointment, would have returned to his family strong and healthy. Soldiers, try them!
