The Soldier's Mail in Washington is an institution. Upon the arrival of each mail, the packages of soldiers' letters are assorted into boxes by States, and the cavalry and artillery into separate box. es. These letters are taken by another party, and assorted into regimental and company boxes, and the company boxes being only for the cavalry and artil. ery. These regimental boxes are arranged in separate State cases, the Pennsylvania case already having nearly one hundred and fifty boxes. When he whole of each mail has been thus assorted, the letters in each box are put into bags and labelled. It is now eithor division mail carriers or forwarded to Reports from the Army of the Potomac last night cover nothing but successes. Gen. McClellan has got the rebels in a much worse situation than they ever experieced before, and Lee's army, large as it is, will certainly be annihilated before it can get back to Richmond. The fact that we hold Harper's Ferry, and have our army massed beyond that point, almost precludes he possibility of fording the Potomac by the rebels, without the most disastrous consequences attending upon such crosssing. The Union sky is getting brighter, and our great constellation of thirty-four stars will soon again light up the heavens, the betokening coming dawn of the day of liberty for mankind.

An excellent association is about starting in Chicago, which should have its counterparts throughout the country. It is a "Gratuitous War Claim Association," for the purpose of collecting bounties, pensions, and back pay of deceased soldiers, and also the prosecution of all war claims. The attorneys who are members of the association pledge themselves to do this free of charge.

There is a report in Massachusetts that Chas. Francis Adams, Minister to England, has signified his willingness to change places with Chas. Sumner, United States Senator.

The New York Independent estimates that there are $200,000,000 lying idle in the banks of New York city .-This vast sum is waiting and watching the movements of our armies.

It is estimated that all the bounties paid and to paid to the soldiers will make an aggregate of $70,000,000. In New England some regiments received $350 a man.

Gen. Fremont has made an afficlaims on the Mariposa mines, he owns no property.

It is estimated that the army of the United States consumes daily more than six hundred tons of provisions.

WAR ITEMS: Gen. Banks was heard to say that he regarded the invasion of Maryland as a wretched failure because of the decided apathy manifested towards the rebels by the inhabitants at large, and the tremendous rush to arms in Pennsylvania.

Reliable advices show that the rebels ecruited some six hundred men in Mayland who have a long retreat and a desperate battle in their first week's experience.

To sum up, what have the rebels nade by their visit to Frederick? Literally nothing. If they hoped to further an uprising of the people and the putting down of the Union men, they have ignominiously failed; and if they hoped to gala recruits for their cause, they have failed also, for, notwithstanding the inducements they offered, they only, enlisted, in the large county of Frederick, fourteen men.

All the stores of Frederick closed on Monday night, and all of the stock they knew the Confederates wanted, and would pay for in Confederate slip, they hid from sight; so that although a great many were swindled, still a large number were shrewd enough to pursue the former course. Many other expedients were resorted to to prevent the Secesh from obtaining what they wanted, such as shaking apple and peach trees, and then gathering the fruit and then hiding it, and burning such articles as tobacco, &c. As soon as our troops entered the town the storekeepers opened their stores and, sold to our soldiers whatever they had on hand, and received in return gladly "green backs" and Northern bank notes.

While coming into Washington from the Soldiers' Home, the President's life was put in peril by his horse, a spirited and powerful animal, running away with and heavily throwing him. He succeeded in checking the career of his steed at the cost of a sprained wrist. Hon. John R. Thomson, United States Senator, died at his residence in Princeton. His official term would have expired on the 4th of March next. Gen. Wool has been assigned to the command of all the troops north of the Susauehanna river.

Major General Heintzleman has been assigned to the defence of Washington, south of the Potomac.

General Reynolds has assumed active command of all the forces raised for the defence of Cumberland valley and Harrisburg.

A severe engagement occurred between our army and the rebels near Sharpsburg, in which the rebels were well thrashed with terrific slaughter-500 of their dead were buried by us.

A rumor appears to have gained extensive circulation throughout the State to the effect that the Governor's call for er called for at the office by regimental | militia is suspended. By authority, this is most emphatically pronounced untrue.

We have a report from Boston, appearing to confirm the report of the investment of Charleston, and the bombardment of Fort Sumpter. An expedition for the Edisto river ha etly preparing for some time past.

The names of the inmates of all the hospitals at Washington are to be published weekly, so as to facilitate the finding of the wounded by their friends. Gen. McCall has been nominated for Congress by the Chester County Democratic Convention.

General Longstreet and the remnant of his division are in our hands as prisoners of war.

Major General Hooker was wounded in the foot by a Minie ball while leading a second brilliant bayonet charge, and General Mansfield is either killed or taken prisoner. He fought most heroically during the entire affair to the time he was missed.

The entire rebel army will be capturto the rear by scores. of the rebel forces in Maryland.

Jackson's army, with Lee and other distinguished wounded officers, will be forced to surrender in a day or, two, at the farthest.

Our immense army is all in motion and our generals are certain of ultimate and decisive success.

Stores for our army are coming by way of Harrisburg and Baltimore.

Gen. Burnside has taken possession of Harper's Ferry, and is advancing on a special mission with his corps.

It having been reported that Gov. game, the Governor, in a speech a few days since at Harrisburg, pronounced davit that with the exception of certain | the originator "a liar, traitor and coward." It was also reported that the State required no more troops, which is also a canard. Troops are hourly arriving: when enough have arrived public notice will be given of the fact.

Rev. Thomas K. Beecher, youngest brother of Henry Ward, stumped the Elmira district to raise the new regiment of volunteers. He then enlisted as a private; but the officeers would'nt take him, saying he could do more good to the cause with his voice than with a musket. He then offered to go as chaplain, and was accepted.

Gen. Hunter has never received any official notification of the celebrated General Order No. 11, issued by him on the 9th of May last. This being the case, that order declaring free all persons in Georgia, Florida, and South Carolina. heretofore held as slaves, is still in full force; and is still acted upon in the Department of the South.

The most important intelligence from Europe is the suppression of the movement of Garibaldi, this brave leader being defeated, wounded, and compelled to surrender to the government forces.

It is said that the Emperor Napoleon has fixed the majority of the Prince, his heir, at the age of fourteen years.

The police of the different precincts of New York city have been directed to obtain the names and residences of that numerous class of the community who are constantly loading around corners taverns and groceries. The object is to have them enrolled, so that in the event of a draft they can be put to some useful services in the army.

The idea of burning the dead instead of ed or killed. There is no chance left burying them is receiving considerable for them to cross the Potomac, as the serious discussion among physicians and river is rising, and our troops pushing other students of the laws of health, parthem continually, and sending prisoners | ticularly in Europe. A book devoted to the advantages of the burning process Stonewall Jackson is now in command has been written by a member of the college of surgeons. The great objectians to burying in the earth are its evil effects upon the living.
