THE ELECTION ON TUESDAY.—The exercise of the elective franchise by the entire male population twenty-one years of age and over, in the choice of all local, State and National officers, is an inestimable privilege, enjoyed by no other people on earth. But, great as it is, it is not so regarded by many voters, a portion of whom frequently neglect to exercise the right, and another and larger portion vote thoughtlessly, recklessly, without regard to momentous questions at issue.

At the approaching election we have a great duty to perform at the polls. Upon a single vote may depend the life or death of the Nation. It may change the status of Pennsylvania, and upon Pennsylvania may rest the question whether the Union shall be maintained or broken into fragments never to be restored.

We believe that there is but one way to uphold the Union, and that is by supporting such candidates, only, for Congress and the Legislature who value the Union immeasurably above everything else, and who are ready to sacrifice every other thing, and even to die, to preserve the Union. No candidate, therefore, who is not for the Union, first, last, and always, without qualification or mental reservation, and who will not support the Government, unconditionally and unshrinkingly in crushing out the rebellion by all and every means known to military law—no candidate, we say, who comes short of this measure of loyalty and integrity, is worthy of the suffrages of the People of Pennsylvania.

Read the ticket at the head of this column and see that every name is on the ticket you are about to vote. Do not scratch a name. It is the only ticket a true Union-loving voter should vote, from Stevens down to John Strohm, Jr. Beware of the traps laid to catch the unwary and unsuspecting. Read and compare all the tickets you can get hold of. Suspect every person, for we have persons belonging to our own party that require watching. Some pretended friends of Stevens in our own borough are "carrying" water on both shoulders. Be on the look-out.

By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that Messrs John W. Finks and Henry Wolfe have gone into the boarding house business. Mr. William Child, who has just returned from Washington says they are doing a very brisk business. "The Soldiers Home" is the head quarters of Marietta boys in out of the army around Washington.

Tickets with our whole State and county ticket, with the exception of Congress, with George M. Steinman instead of Mr. Stevens are in circulation. The ticket is said to be an excellent imitation of our ticket and may deceive all who are not on their guard. Look out for them.

Remember that the election of Peters, Worley, Martin and Caldwell to the legislature may elect a Frank Hughes loco-foco to the U. S. Senate in place of Hon. David Wilmot. Union men beware of the traitors in our midst.

A tract of very fine Chestnut timber land on the York county shore, will be offered for sale at Murrey's tavern in the village of Maytown, on the 13th instant, by the executors of Michael Hoffman deceased.

Gold was quoted in Philadelphia at 22 & 23 cents premium.

CAPT. E. D. ROATH.—Reports having found their way here impeaching Captain Roath's bravery. The following letter from the Lieutenant Colonel of Captain R's Regiment, to Mr. Geist, principal of the Marietta High school, should put at rest such reports:

Camp Mercerville, Md.,
October 4, 1862.

Mr. I. S. Geist, Sir:—I have been informed, and creditably, that a report is in circulation in your place reflecting upon the bravery of Capt. E. D. Roath. Usually such reports should receive no notice whatever but in this case I cannot refrain from contradicting it, for it is due a brave and faithful officer. The person who concocted the story is conscious of his own cowardice and wishes to bring to his own level, those who have so nobly done their duty. If there is on earth one rascal more deserving of the contempt of all good men, it is he who will hitch himself to the shafts of slander. The darts aimed at Capt. R's head will, I know, fall harmless at his feet, or rebound with fatal effect upon the guilty head of him who thrust them. I write you, knowing you to be the Captain's friend, and without his knowledge or consent. The Capt. is quite well.

Yours, truly, &c.,
R. W. McALEEN,
Lieut. Col., 107 Regt. P. V.

HENRY'S RIFLE.—The unequalled, the wonderful qualities of this rifle are now known to the world. The weapon is anxiously sought in all directions. Every man in possession of it is a garrison, every company an army. In these terrible times no loyal man should be without it. This weapon can be loaded with fifteen charges every fifteen seconds and the fifteen charges can be fired every five or six seconds. It can be loaded and fired sixty times every minute without the possibility of accident. It is most deadly at a thousand yards. One of these celebrated Repeaters can be seen at the hardware store of Patterson & Co., and is well worth the time to examine.

See that every voter is got to the polls on Tuesday next. Don't permit one to remain at the home. The committee will have carriages on the ground to convey such as cannot walk. Fail not to have every voter on the ground—rain or shine, for a full vote is certainly a Union victory.

Col. John Forsythe Carter, formerly of the Lancaster Democrat, died recently at his residence, in Prince George's county Maryland. He has amassed quite a fortune lately, in government contracts.

TO THE PUBLIC.—The undersigned, having collected and expended the subscriptions for defraying the expenses of recruiting the "Marietta Braves," beg leave to report—

That of $103.50 subscribed, $1.00 remains uncollected, $3.00 were expended by the person subscribing, and 50 cents, paid in postage stamps, got wet and were worn to pieces in the pocket—leaving in the hands of the Committee $99.00.

Paid Capt. S. G. Miller, as per three receipts, $55.00
" F. K. Moser, for music and trip to Harrisburg, as per five receipts, 26.00
" F. L. Baker, for printing, 2.50
" for banner, and carrying it, 2.50
" horse hire, as per two receipts, 5.00
" straw for tents in Harrisburg, 2.50
" fare from Harrisburg, &c., 1.00
" towards tobacco for the men, .50

Amount, $95.35
Leaving balance in S. L. Dellinger's hands $3.65.

The above accounts and vouchers have been submitted to and audited by J. Auxer, Esq., and Rev. A. B. Grosh, to whom persons interested are referred—or they can be seen by calling on the first named of the undersigned.

S. L. DELLINGER,
H. S. LEBART.

Marietta, October 9, 1862.

Mrs. Lincoln got alarmed recently about the danger her husband incurred in his rides to and from the Soldiers Home. So she procured a Presidential guard of two soldiers with loaded blunderbusses, and in this rustic style "Old Abe" drove up to General Halleck's headquarters. Such a style of retinue astonished the General, and a suitable cavalry escort was at once provided and now accompanies the "Commander-in-Chief of the army and navy."

It appears now that no drafting was required in Connecticut, and that the order of Buckingham enforcing it was based on a mistake as to the actual number of men needed to fill up the quota. It is said that some of the drafted men will return to their homes.

A farmer near Boston is deserving of praise for having disposed of a wagon load of Bartlett pears by affixing to it a placard, "Help Yourself," and leaving it in the street for the boys. We venture that load of pears paid.

A man from Charleston says that the six hundred and thirty-two houses burned in the great fire have as yet been replaced by only ten small brick stores.

The French say that the flesh of a young horse is as good as that of a calf, but upon the whole, we prefer wheat to go.

CHIEFS FOR JEFF DAVIS!—A "Democratic" meeting was held in Temperanceville, on Saturday evening last, which was addressed by George P. Hamilton, Esq., the "Democratic" candidate for Congress. The speech was dull and lame, but the meeting was somewhat enlivened by cheers for Jeff. Davis, which were heartily given, as we are informed. We are not informed that the traitorous cheers were in any wise rebuked. Those who gave them understand the "Democratic" movement to be what it really is—a diversion in favor of Jeff. Davis—and so go straight to the mark by cheering for him. They have not hypocrisy enough to conceal the real designs of their leaders.—Pittsburg Gazette.

A story is told of the veteran Sumner at the battle of Antietam. His son, young Captain Sumner, a youth of twenty-one, was on his staff. The old man stood, amidst a storm of shot and shells, and turned to send him through a doubly raging fire, upon a mission of duty. He might never see his boy again, but his country claims his life, and, as he looked upon his young brow, he grasped his hand, encircled him in his arms, and fondly kissed him. "Good-bye, Sammy," "Good-bye, father," and the youth, mounting his horse, rode gaily on the message. He returned unharmed, and again his hand was grasped with a cordial "How d'ye do, Sammy?" answered by a grasp of equal affection.—The scene was touching to those around.

Mr. Henry Lynch, of Minnesota, in a letter to Gen. Hunter, urges the adoption of the pike as an implement suitable for arming the negroes with, in place of guns, should the occasion of arming them arise. He says: Let the pike handles be of hickory or oak, at least nine feet long—a little stronger than a hoe-handle (and the negroes are pretty well drilled in handling the hoe already). These pikemen should advance immediately in the rear of a line of men with muskets, or with musketeers flanking them on the right and left.—The moment the musketeers are within charging distance, they fire and slip to the rear between the pike men, who rush forward with a yell to the order "charge."

In Wales, near Carmarthen, recently, a young woman, who rejoiced in the euphonious name of Gwendolyn Williams, was attacked while on her way home by a rook, which flew at her face, flapping its wings and cawing most violently. She ran, and the bird flew after her, keeping up the chase until, as the story in the local papers runs, the girl felt exhausted, whereupon the rook pecked out one of her eyes. She was soon discovered and taken home.

By a law of Congress, July 17 1862, it is provided: That any alien of the age of twenty-one years and upwards who has enlisted, or shall enlist, in the regular or volunteer forces, on receiving an honorable discharge may after residing one year in the United States and proving good character, be admitted as a citizen without any previous declaration of intention.

Of the five followers of John Brown who escaped from Harper's Ferry, only three now survive—Owen Brown, E. J. Meriam and O. P. Anderson. Tidd joined Burnside's expedition, and died at Roanoke Island on the eve of a victory. Barclay Coppoe, whose brother was executed at Charleston, was one of the victims of the Platts Bridge atrocity.

It is stated that Mr. Cyrus W. Field, of New York, is on his way to England with an additional proposal for uniting the two continents by telegraph.

Dr. David T. Potter, eldest son of Bishop Potter, of New York, died at Ballston, in that State last week. He was a young man of fine talents, finished education, and of great promise in his profession.

A despatch to Mrs. Gen. Kearney states that the rebel Gen. Lee has caused her husband's horse and accoutrements to be sent within our lines. They will be at once forwarded to her.

Gerrit Smith has shown his accustomed liberality, by paying $25 extra bounty to each of the fifty-two volunteers from where he resides, Peterboro, New York.

The Suez canal is nearly completed, and the Viceroy announces that its opening shall be celebrated by a solemn fete, to which the world is invited.

The loyal North Carolina regiments are filling up. Six new companies have been sworn in and attached to the 1st regiment North Carolina volunteers.

The remains of the late Mrs. General Scott have just arrived in New York from Paris. The funeral took place on Wednesday from St. Thomas' Church.

All the able-bodied negroes in North Carolina are being seized by the rebel Secretary of War and set to work on fortification.
