

The Mariettian

Marietta, Pa.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1862.

Messrs. MATHER & ABBOTT, No. 335 Broadway, New-York, are duly authorized to act for us in soliciting advertisements, &c., and receipt for the same.

GENERAL T. A. STUART, the rebel horse thief, who has lately made such a dashing raid into this state, completely circumventing the army of McClellan, and dazling any thing that our cavalry force ever attempted before, was at one time in command at Carlisle Barracks, Pa. He was selected for this daring enterprise because he is well acquainted with the topography of the country, familiar with every road, acquainted with every mountain pass, and of course just the man to conduct such an adventure. There is no estimating the value of the information which Stuart will carry back to his superiors. Unless something is done to seal that portion of the state to these bold invaders, they may yet accomplish its complete destruction.

REVEREND THOMAS STARR KING has been named as a candidate for United States Senator from California, to succeed Mr. Latham. In such an event, says the Baltimore Republican, the case of Mr. King will be somewhat analogous to that of Mr. John A. Gurley, of Cincinnati, who is a Universalist clergyman. He is said to be an active polemic; and when nominated to Congress, an old Methodist remonstrated with a brother for supporting for office a man who did not believe in hell. "I do not mind that at all," was the reply; "Mr. Gurley will not be in Congress long before he will find out that there is a hell."

THE TAX ON CONGRESSMEN.—A handsome sum will be realized to the Government from the tax upon the salaries of members of the House of Representatives. Each member is taxed $6 a month, or $72 per year. The Speaker will be taxed $144. The next House will consist of 197 members and 7 delegates—in all 204. The aggregate amount realized will be $14,520 a year. The yearly amount of revenue derived from taxation of employees now in the House will be $7,433 86, which will be augmented during the session by taxation upon salaries of additional employees.

GEN'L. DAVIS, who shot Gen. Nelson, has been handed over to the civil authorities, and the Government will not interfere in the case at all. Should he be discharged, (which is in the highest degree probable,) he will be retained in his command. The act of which he stands charged, seems to be justified by both the press and the community, and will probably put a stop to the degrading treatment, sometimes, of superior officers to their subordinates.

THE NATIONAL DEBT.—Hon. Thaddeus Stevens a few days ago when, in a speech, he stated that the national debt is now two thousand millions of dollars. Mr. Stevens is chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means, and ought to know something of the debt. The loss of men from the loyal States, he says, has been two hundred thousand.

POLITICS OF PENNSYLVANIA TROOPS.—The Philadelphia North American publishes the official army vote of October, 1861, taken in regiments which had been sent from Pennsylvania. From this exhibit it appears that the regiments from the Keystone State were three-fourths Republican.

BRUTAL MURDER.—Thomas Ryder, a laborer in Newark, N. J., on returning to his home on Saturday evening and not finding his supper ready for him, kicked his wife so severely as to produce and internal hemorrhage, from which she died in about an hour.

General Harney's views were not altogether such as to satisfy the Government, and who has had a long leave of absence in consequence, arrived in Washington last week, no doubt on the order of the War Department, and has been assigned to a command in the West or Southwest.

We know of no defeat that gratifies us as much as that of General McClellan. We hope he will now retire from the army to his farm; certainly a far better place for him than on the Congressional floor.

Rufus Pice of Cleveland, Ohio, was recently mulcted in the sum of $20,000 damages for breach of promise of marriage.

The Quakers of Illinois are to be subject to the draft, and those who are drafted are to fall in or pay $200 each.

Prince Salme Salme, a Prussian officer, is raising a Prussian brigade in New York for the Union.

THE REBEL RAID ON CHAMBERSBURG.—The Valley Spirit sums up its account of the rebel raid on that town in very brief language. It says that on Friday evening last, our citizens were very much surprised and considerably excited by reports of the advance of a large force of rebel cavalry by way of Mercersburg. Men arrived on horseback who had been hotly pursued by them to within three or four miles of town.

About 7 o'clock a company of them appeared in the public square carrying a flag of truce and demanding a surrender of the place. No military force being here, able to resist, the town was surrendered on the terms that private property would be respected and citizens unmolested. They then took full possession of the place, and on the next morning took their departure in the direction of Gettysburg, leaving a guard to fire the depot buildings. The depot house, the machine shops and warehouses of the Messrs. Wunderlich and Nead were entirely consumed with a considerable amount of Government stores and other property. The rebel force numbered about 15,000 cavalry and artillery, under Generals Stuart and Hampton. They have stolen about 1,000 horses in this county.

GEN. JEFFERSON C. DAVIS.—Indians agree that if Gen. Davis is dismissed from the army he will be sent to Congress from Indiana, as the people of that State are almost unanimous in regarding the conduct of Gen. Nelson to the Indiana troops as ferociously brutal. Indeed, they declare that the ball which Gen. Nelson received in his thigh at the battle of Richmond, came from the musket of an Indiana volunteer. This general feeling of hostility on the part of the Indiana troops, doubtless stimulated Gen. Davis when he sought to revenge the insulting treatment of General Nelson.—Boston Journal.

KOSSUTH'S FAMILY.—Kossuth, who is now in Turin, is suffering the deepest anxiety on account of his wife, who is so seriously ill that she is hardly expected to recover. Within thirteen years he has lost several near relations, and among them his only daughter; and while now anticipating the crowning calamity he is, we understand, extremely straitened in pecuniary matters. His two sons have some employment in an office in Turin, but the remuneration they receive is too scanty to enable them to render much assistance to the distinguished patriot and their dying mother.

"VATICAN."—Many who see this word may not understand its import. This is a pile of buildings covering a space of 1,200 feet in length and 1,000 in breadth, on one of the seven hills of Rome. The site was once the garden of barbarous Nero. Early in the 16th century the Bishop of Rome erected there an humble dwelling. This has been added to by one Pope after another until it is now one of the most spacious and magnificent palaces, stocked with painting, statues, books and antiquities of the rarest kind.

The Nashville Union has an account of a horrible outrage perpetrated by five guerrillas. They visited the house of a citizen, about eight miles from that city, on the night of the 30th of September, and violated the persons of his wife and daughter, and proceeding thereon to the house of a widow lady, treated her in the same brutal manner. Gen. Negley, hearing of the outrage, sent out a detachment of soldiers and captured the miscreants.

Robert O. Vosburg, of Barkhamstead, made a good financial speculation in recruiting in Connecticut. He enlisted about 30 men in Hartford, sold them to another captain at $10 a head got his own pay and bounty, and then enlisted as a substitute, selling himself for $450; got the cash, went into camp, ran the guard at night, went to Barkhamstead, procured the town bounty of $200, and then, with a pocket full of money he disappeared.

Brig. Gen. James S. Jackson, killed in the late battle in Kentucky, was a member of Congress from that State, about 40 years of age, and served as a lieutenant in the Mexican war. He at one time fought a duel with the celebrated Tom F. Marshall.

The spirit ration in the navy having been abolished, the whiskey remaining on hand, probably 3,000 barrels, is to be sold at auction on its arrival at the different naval stations from distant vessels and naval depots.

Commissioner Boutwell has decided that railroad companies must pay a percentage on all their receipts for the transportation of passengers, including troops whom they may carry for the government.

Brig. Gen. Daniel E. Sickles will run for Congress, on the Union ticket, in New York city, against Ben. Wood, and be elected, too, of course.

General Pallavicino, the captor of Garibaldi, has, it is said, been named a Knight of the French Legion of Honor.

The Governor of Ohio has ordered that the ministers of the gospel in charge of regular congregations shall be exempt from draft.

PEN, PASTE AND SCISSORS.

The draft has passed off quietly in Indianapolis, Indiana.

A review of militia was held at St. Louis on Saturday. Over 15,000 turned out.

Nashville is surrounded by the rebels, and the Federal troops are on half rations.

The call for postage stamps at New York post-office amounts to about $10,000 a day.

Mrs. Livingstone, wife of the African explorer, died at Shupany, April 1st, of fever.

It is estimated at the Navy Department that there are 40,000 enlisted men in the navy at this time.

The rebels Bragg and Cheatham are reported to have been killed at the recent battle near Bardstown.

The Rev. Henry Ward Beecher calls Bunyan's "Pilgrimage" "a book that I think I shall read once or twice after I get to heaven!"

It is reported that the free negro brigade of General Lane attempted a raid upon Clay county, Missouri, but were driven back.

Three regiments of fresh troops left Boston, a day or two ago, direct for Newburn, North Carolina, to strengthen our forces in that State.

It is said the grain in Minnesota will not be half gathered this season, the whites having abandoned agricultural labor for safety from the Indians.

John D. Baldwin, editor of the Worcester Spy, is nominated as the Republican Union candidate for Congress, in the Eighth Massachusetts district.

Mr. Gilpin, member of the British Parliament, has invited Garibaldi to take up his residence with him, in the event that he is permitted, under any circumstances, to go to England.

The Merrow Manufacturing Company, in Mansfield, Conn., are running both day and night to fill a large contract for stockings on Government account. This contract will require about four months for its completion.

It is proposed that a committee of citizens of Ohio shall raise, by solicitation, a fund of $100,000, to procure artificial limbs for all Ohio soldiers who shall be maimed while in the service of the country.

Great complaint is made by the patients in the army hospitals that they do not receive their pay regularly. Of the 850 patients in the Chester Hospital, it is said that some of them have had no pay from four to six months.

Vermont, though one of the smallest of States is one of the noblest and most patriotic. Before this week is out, her five regiments, of the last call, nine months' men, will be on their way to the seat of war—all volunteers!

It is a singular fact that the old Ninth Egyptian Congressional District in Illinois, which is the strongest Democratic district in the Union, has taken more of the Southern negroes from Cairo, for help, than all the other Congressional districts combined.

Gen. McClellan travels at present in a vehicle with four horses, precisely as Fremont did in Missouri. It is for the sake of convenient consultation with his staff, more of whom can ride in the same carriage. No such necessity could have existed with Fremont!

Seth Blakelee, of Royalton, Cayahoga county, Ohio, cut off one of his big toes with an axe immediately upon learning that he had been drafted. Seth is a young man, the son of wealthy parents, and the most cowardly sneak we have heard of since the war commenced.

Beauregard is now said to be in command of all the troops in Georgia and South Carolina. He promises to take Fort Pulaski in 30 days. We hope that Gen. Mitchell will plead for at least three days of grace. We think there must be some mistake in the name of the new commander—most certainly it must be Bragg!

Gen. Rosencrans seems to have been alone in command of the forces at Corinth, and he was vindicated again in his high military ability, for which the country holds him in such honor. He has been in the field from the first of the war—has fought many battles, conducted numerous campaigns, and has never yet been foiled or beaten.

Among the facts developed by the inquiries already made by the Military Commission, of which Gen. Hunter is Chairman, is the strange one that not a single rebel was wounded, or in any manner injured, during the so-called defence of Harper's Ferry. Our artillery, under Col. Ford, appears to have been handled with especial desire that there should be "nobody hurt."

Gen. Cochrane says that he has observed no signs in the army of dissatisfaction with the President's proclamation of freedom. It is welcomed as the announcement that the government has at last a policy, and even West Pointers, whose traditions are against emancipation, will feel glad that the responsibility of deciding questions connected with slavery is thrown from their shoulders.

PENNSYLVANIA CONGRESSMEN.—The Election in this State on Tuesday last clearly goes to show the Union element of the Commonwealth. The following Congressmen are elected:

HOW THEY FIRE IN BATTLE.—You wonder whether the regiment fire regularly or in volleys, or whether each man loads and fires as fast as he can. That depends upon circumstances; but usually, except when the enemy is near at hand, the régiments fire only at the command of their officers. You hear a drop, drop, drop, as a few of the skirmishers fire, followed by a rattle and a roll, which sounds like the falling of a building, just as some of you have heard the brick walls tumble at a great fire. Sometimes when a body of the enemy's cavalry are sweeping down upon a regiment to cut it to pieces, the men form into a square, with the officers and musicians in the centre. The front rank stands with bayonets charged, while the second one fires as fast as it can. Sometimes they form in four ranks deep—the two front ones kneeling with bayonet charged, so that if the enemy should come upon them they would run against a picket fence of bayonets. When they form in this way, the other two ranks load and fire as fast as they can. Then the roar is terrific, and many a horse and rider goes down before the terrible storm of bullets.

A MAN KILLED BY HANNIBAL.—The notorious elephant, "Hannibal," belonging to Van Amburg & Co.'s Menagerie, whose numerous exploits, when engaged, have furnished so many newspaper paragraphs, has been shorn as effectually as was Sampson, of his power for further mischief. A few weeks since, at Caldwell, in Ohio, he killed an unfortunate man who was partially deranged, and who, in the momentary absence of Hannibal's keeper, was foolish enough to irritate the huge beast, as he was standing upon the show lot, previous to his departure for the next town. No blame was attached to the keeper, as the act of the victim was as suicidal as if he had thrown himself under the wheels of a locomotive; but, in order to prevent the mischief of any further accidents from the dangerous temper of the elephant, Mr. Van Amburg had his enormous tusks sawn off, a few inches from his jaw, thus reducing him to a non-combatant, in the future. The tusks being the weapons, offensive and defensive, of the elephant, we may hear of no further instances of destructive operations upon the part of this noted animal.

Messrs. T. B. Peterson & Brothers, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, have just issued a neat card, containing a list of "Stamp Duties" imposed by the Act of 1862, which Act went into effect on the 1st of October. The card will be very convenient for reference, as it shows at a glance the amount of stamp duty or tax to be paid on everything in every-day business, as well as the Penalties of the Law, and fines for trying to evade each and every one of the Stamp Taxes imposed by Congress. It has been carefully prepared from the Official Documents at Washington, and copyrighted by a noted member of the Philadelphia Bar. Price Ten Cents a copy, and will be sent per mail everywhere by the publishers, on receipt of the price.

The Hon. Benjamin F. Hallett, the widely-known lawyer and Democratic leader of Massachusetts, died at Boston on the 30th ult.—The Hon. J. Prescott Hall, formerly a prominent Whig politician of New-York, died at Newport, R. I., a few days since.—Col. Forsyth, formerly editor of the Mobile-Register, and Minister to Mexico, is reported to have been killed in a recent skirmish with Col. McCook's regiment, in Kentucky. He held at various times public offices of distinction, and became a rebel only when he couldn't help it, from surrounding circumstances.

It will be gratifying to every loyal heart to know that the brave General Hooker, wounded in the late battle of Antietam, and at first supposed to be dangerously wounded, is so far recovered as to be ready to take the field.

Governor Curtin has written a letter demanding an investigation into the conduct of certain U. S. officers. He says that he has been informed that the General in command at Hagerstown knew that the rebels had crossed to the borders on Friday morning.

POMEROY'S EXPEDITION.—Senator Pomerooy has been in New York for several days completing his arrangements for starting a colony of colored people for a new home in Central America. He has purchased one of the largest and best, as well as one of the safest ocean steamers, and we understand he proposes to name it "Adam and Eve." This colony will be started under the most favorable auspices, and the Senator, from his former experience in settling Kansas, is confident of success. Senator Pomerooy has already received over seven thousand applications from colored people, asking permission to join the colony. He proposes to start with the first five hundred about the 20th of October.

GEN. BANKS.—It is said that General Banks has for years been devoting himself to the study of military matters, in anticipation of the present crisis. He has paid special attention to the artillery service, and understands it thoroughly. At the last battle of Winchester, as the enemy were rapidly advancing in superior numbers, he dismounted on the field of battle, in face of the galling fire, and personally assisted in placing a certain battery in position. In several instances he sighted the guns himself, handling the pieces like an old artilleryist, to "make assurance doubly sure."

COLONEL ULLMAN IN DIXIE.—The Richmond Dispatch of the 4th instant, says: among the latest arrival of Yankee officers is Daniel Ullman, formerly the great gun of the Know-Nothings of New York. He was operating on the line of the Rappahannock, as colonel of the 78th Regiment New York Volunteers, when, on the 28th of August, he had the misfortune to fall into the hands of our troops. Ullman's personal appearance is insignificant; as a prisoner, he has a desponding and downcast look. He will be sent home with his brother officers.

CURIOS AFFAIR.—One fine day a crowd had been prowling near where a weasel had its retreat about some hills near Parkneke, Enzie. The weasel, waiting its opportunity, sprang upon the crowd, and seized him by the top of the head, when he immediately mounted into the regions of space, and was nearly lost sight of for a short time. When they again re-visited terra firma, the weasel was found to be dead, but still clinging to the crow, who was none the worse, only having the marks of the weasel's teeth on its head.

CAUTION TO BEER-DRINKERS.—A young man very narrowly escaped being poisoned, recently, at Brussels, from drinking the first glass of beer drawn from the counter-machine at a public-house. It is usual to throw away the beer which has remained in the metal pipes all night, but this precaution had been neglected in the present instance. The liquor was so strongly impregnated with the metallic poison that the young man's recovery was considered hopeless for several hours.

Orders have been given that no person shall be mustered into the service of the United States as a member of the corps of sharpshooters unless he shall produce the certificate of some person duly authorized by the Governor of the State in which the company is raised, that he has, in five consecutive shots, at two hundred yards at rest, made a string not over twenty-five inches, or the same string, off hand, at one hundred yards, the certificate to be written on the target used as the test.

The execution of the draft was attended with great excitement in Cleveland, Ohio, particularly among the Germans and Irish, who were persuaded that the matter had been so arranged as to free the richer class. Three hundred infantry and artillerymen, with cannon were called out, and so disposed of as to keep the crowd in check, and the draft was proceeded with without any special disturbance.

The news of the Union triumph in Pennsylvania at the ballot-box is said to have caused the President infinite satisfaction. He feels encouraged to continue the vigorous line of policy which was inaugurated with such success. Hereafter there will be no half way proclamations to conciliate the rebels.

The draft for Baltimore was made on Wednesday last. Only forty-six persons were required. Among those drawn were Bernard Carter, a partner of J. Mason Campbell. Among the names drawn in Baltimore county are John Merryman, of the celebrated Habeas corpus case, and John E. Owens, the comedian.

We assert it boldly that there are no other Medicines so reliable, effectual and convenient as Holloway's Pills & Ointment, always ready for use. They are invaluable to the Soldier exposed to Wounds, Sores, Fevers and Bowel Complaints. They never fail. Only 25 cents per Box or Pot.

The people have decided that Gen. McClellan should not represent them in Congress. Why should the President not decide he should not represent them in the field? The time has come to dispose of doubtful men.

The Soldiers HOME.

KEPT BY FULKS & WOLFE, CAPITOL HILL, WASHINGTON, D. C.

The Soldiers True Friend Always READY.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.—Long marches, sore and stiff joints, blistered and inflamed feet, all these the Soldiers must endure. MOTHERS, REMEMBER THIS, when your sons are grasping their muskets to meet danger, think what relief a single pot of this A. L. L. HEALING & COOLING Salve will give to the one you love when far away from home and friends. It hardens and makes tough the feet so that they can endure great fatigue. It soothes and relieves the inflamed and stiffened joints, leaving them supple, strong and vigorous, while for Sabre Cuts and Gunshot Wounds, It stands unequalled, removing and preventing every vestige of inflammation and gently drawing the edges together, it quickly and completely heals the most frightful wounds.

Wives and Sisters of our Volunteers. You cannot put into the Knapsacks of your Husbands and Brothers, a more valuable or more necessary gift than a supply of this Extraordinary Military Salve. The lonely sentry walking his rounds at night, exposed to drizzling rain and cold night air, is often seized with most violent PAINS, Cough and suffocating Hoarseness, first symptoms of quick consumption, but if supplied with Holloway's Pills and Holloway's Ointment, all danger is averted, a few Pills taken night and morning, and the Ointment briskly rubbed twice a day over the throat and chest will remove the severest pains and stop the most distressing or Dangerous cough. Therefore we say to the whole Army.

Soldiers Attention!! See to your own health, do not trust to the Army supplies, although most valuable.—These Pills and Ointment have been thoroughly tested, they are the only remedies used in the European Camps and Barracks, for over forty years. Doctor Holloway has supplied the Armies in Europe, and during the Crimean Campaign he established a depot at Balaklava, for the exclusive sale of these Great Remedies. Many a time his special Agent there has sold over a ton in weight of the Ointment in a single day. These terrible and fatal enemies of the SOLDIERS IN CAMP, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Scurvy, Sores and Scrofulous Eruptions, all disappear like a charm before these Pills & Ointment and now while the cry rings throughout the land.

To Arms! To Arms!! Do not let these brave men perish by disease in their hands these 21st Century Remedies, that will enable them to resist the dangerous exposures, the Fevers, the Chills, and the wounds which they cannot avoid, and what is more, cannot frequently get succour in the moment of need, whereas these Pills and Ointment have only to put their hands into their Knapsacks and find there a sure remedy for all the casualties of the battle field. How many thousands of lives would thus be saved who would otherwise perish before relief could be obtained.

IMPORTANT CAUTION!—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernible as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot and box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 30 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 50 cents, 62 cents and $1 each. There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N.B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.
