MARIETTA CAR TIME .- The several passenger trains leave "Upper-station" as follows: the morning train east at 7:15. The mail train west at 11:23. The afternoon train east at 5:16. The evening train west at 6:55.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1862.

ALL HAIL MARIETTA .- The election on Tuesday last, was contested inch by inch by the Steinman democracy at this box-every possible resort was made to carry the box. A lot of contraband darkies was landed in town on the evening previous to the election to frighten asses, May 28, and marched during the laborers from voting for Mr. Stevenssaying that his election would thurst a thousand into the town before the setting in of winter and thus prevent the poor white laborers from getting work except at darkie wages. The voting window was closely guarded by the dem. ocratic vigilance committee and every possible objection raised to such votes as were known to be for Stevens, but all -all would not do. Mr. S. having a majority of 148 votes, which far exceeded the expectations of the most sanguine of Mr. Stevens' friends.

A PATRIOTIC HAY-MAKING PARTY :--Mrs. H. D. Benjamin of this place, rerifles, &c. They meet on Monday and ceived a letter from her parents, residing in New York state, giving a description of quite a patriotic hay-making party in that neighborhood. It appears ness. They have had a stove put up that a Mr. Brown wished to enlist but and intend keeping it up as a reading the condition of his clover fields deterred him. Several young ladies learning that this alone prevented his going to war, volunteered to prepare the grass for hay if it was cut, whereapon Mr. Brown and three other men cut the grass, during which time the ladies prepared a rural dinner, which was served on a rude P. M. table erected on the field, after which a Mr. Warren Merchant presented each

At a regular meeting of the "S. B. THOMAS RIFLES OF MARIETTA," held at their Armory, October 7th, 1862, the following resolutions were passed :

On motion of Col. Eagle, it was resolved by the unanimous vote of the company, that our thanks be tendered to the Patriotic Circle, Capt. Samuel D. Miller, G. W. Stahl, and others for their kindness in furnishing the company with haversacks, blankets, &c.

On motion of Lieut. David Coble, S. B. Thomas, Esq., Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, was 20, for Catlett Station ; left Catlett, May unanimously elected to head our list of Honorary members.

On motion of John W. Hiestand, Col. F. L. Baker was unanimously elected Royal. Left Front Royal for the west an Honorary member of the S. B.

> On motion of Lieut. Kendig, Capt. S. D. Miller was unanimously elected an Honorary member of the company. On motion of W. R. Grosh, it was resolved that the foregoing resolutions be published in the The Mariettian. Joseph Bailey has beaten Gloss brenner in the York district. This will be a severe "backset" to the "old feeder at the public crib," and puts Judge Black, General Glatz and other Breckin ridge worthies in the background. Gloss may occupy the next Congressional year in cluding the "Life and Times of James Buchannan." A fitting position for "Old Buck's" ex-private secretary.

E Lieut. Col. John H. Duchman, of Lancaster, has been compelled, on account of age, to resign his commission in Col. Hambright's regiment. He has returned home.

We are glud to learn that our "Borough Fathers" are about pressing and re-laying of the borough sidewalks. Now is the time to do so; the river is strangers.

We observe amongst the killed at the battle in Kentucky, the name of James Fields, commonly known in this place as "Jim Duglass." Jim was in Cupt. Locher's company of Col. Hambright's regiment and was a brave fellow and made an excellent soldier. He was also in the three months service.

Captain Roath sent us, by the hands of Mr. Jacob M. Erisman, a "Secesh pill" taken from the battle field of Sharpsburg. It is a huge-looking pill and if seen coming toward us at the rate of 2:40, we can assure our friend, the captain, that we would break for a "big tree" or something else big.

The sidewalks of Democracy, whose duty it is more than our place have always been ridiculed by that of any other man in the country to sustain the Government and help to rescue it from its troubles, is conclusive proof of the sympathy existing between the faction of Breckinridge in the North and Southern traitors. For while he was weeping and snivelling, and praying and wringing his hands, the Southerners were storing away weapons and ammunition in their arsenals, and sharpeping their daggers with which to stab the nation's heart."
