MARIETTA CAR TIME.—The several passenger trains leave "Upper-station" as follows: The morning train east at 7:15. The mail train, west at 11:25. The afternoon train east at 5:15. The evening train west at 6:55.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 25, 1862.

Rev. Mr. Hodgson, P. E. will preach in the M. E. Church, on Sunday (to-morrow) morning at ten o'clock.

The Philadelphia Ledger says General Cameron is daily expected home. That he will leave the legation in the hands of Bayard Taylor and return, for what? Does the old "Winnebago" wish to get home in time to operate upon the incoming legislators and pave the way for Wilmot's place in the U. S. Senate. The old chief cares but little which party is in power—he can easily arrange his creed to suit the dominant and by a free use of feathers, slip into a place. How unfortunate for Simon that Alexander Cummins did not succeed in getting to the Assembly from Philadelphia, but we suppose the codfish smell of that herring-line-pants government purchase was too foul to be swallowed by the voters of Quakerdom. One of the first places that will be honored with the presence of the distinguished envoy will, no doubt, be Marietta, for he has a host of hangers on here who have been out in the cold ever since the removal of Cameron from the War department, and are ravenous for a return of the contract regime. As a political sage once said "the cohesive power of public plunder" will draw together birds of a feather.

In the draft, for Salisbury we find the twenty-third name drawn was that of Hon. Nathaniel Burt. The Express speaking of this circumstance says, "the wheel used in making the draft plays some curious pranks. Not the least notable of these was the drawing this morning of Colonel Nathaniel Burt, of the 142d Regiment, which Col. B. labored so earnestly to raise in this country. He not only gave his time and energies to that unsuccessful effort, but acted most honorably and liberally in paying all expenses incurred by those cooperating with him. It is singular that one so anxious to go as a volunteer and to save the country from draft, should himself be drafted. But it looks as if that wheel had sagacity enough to supply the new regiments with officers as well as men."

G. Charles Francis, Superintendent of the Philadelphia Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad, has been drafted from Tredyfirn, Chester county, where he was boarding a portion of the summer. This not having been the permanent residence of Mr. Francis, the result will probably be deemed null and void. During the exciting periods of the rebellion, the duties of the Superintendent of the Philadelphia division were of the most onerous description, and the services rendered to the Government are far in excess of those afforded by a single arm upon the battle-field.

"The Soldiers Home" appears to be a fixed institution in Washington city. Mr. Fulks is here now, having a large building framed which will be sent to Washington and put up for the accommodation of the boarders of the "Home." Heckrothe of the White Swan left on Tuesday last to attend himself to the management of this popular "retreat." Harry, can't you give us some "pencilings" from that abode of Mariettians.

We learn from the election returns that Col. A. C. Noyes has been elected to the legislature from Clinton county. The Colonel will make an intelligent and independent legislator and will vie with the best material from any section of the Keystone. He is well and favorably known here, and in a 'cant phrase, is considered a "very gentlemanly fellow."

Sergeant Henry W. Smyser, of Capt. E. D. Roath's Co., of the 107th Regiment, and who was wounded at the battle of Sharpsburg and taken to one of the Baltimore hospitals, has been allowed a short furlough and is now at his father's, adjoining this place. He looks very well and will soon be able to return to his company.

Election for officers of the following turnpike roads, leading from this borough, will take place on Monday next a-week, November 3d: the Marietta and Lancaster; the Marietta and Mount Joy.

It is given out in well-informed circles that ex-President Buchanan will in a short time present to the people of the United States his long prepared and elaborate defence of his administration.

On Thursday next, the Kugle property on the Maytown turnpike will be offered for sale. See advertisement.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock, the Lamber Hess property will be sold at Funk's tavern.

On Saturday next the Dix property will be sold.

The Susquehanna is exceedingly low.

THE DRAFT IN LANCASTER.—On Thursday of last week the draft for this county was commenced by Commissioner REYNOLDS, assisted by Sam. Matt. Friday. The names of the enrolled men were written on small slips of white paper and trebly folded, were put in an old fashioned, quaint looking wheel or round box, whose stained, antiquated looks betokened a good old age and some hard service. Supported on a firm pedestal of two strong uprights, between which it revolved, the wheel was slowly turned, and at each revolution, could be heard the rattling of the paper, each little slip of which represented some great, strong resident of the "Old Guard." When the mixing had ended and the wheel done its work—the representative bits of paper had jostled enough, and soon would begin the work of drawing the lots. The little square lid in the side of this "wheel of fortune" was then opened, and thus commenced the first draft in the history of the "Garden of America." Peter G. Eberman, Esq., the old and honored clerk of the Commissioners, with tightly bandaged eyes, slowly inserted his hand and drew forth the tiny slip of paper. Sheriff Boyd who was seated next opened the slip and read out the name and then passed it on to Deputy Herr, who repeated the name distinctly, which was recorded.

Thus went on the draft. Slip by slip they were drawn out; and the names they bore, were repeated and recorded one by one, until the Commissioner announced the complement. We append the names drawn in our immediate vicinity. Marietta Borough still having a surplus of men, hence no draft for the borough proper, was made:

LIBERAL PAY FOR A SUBSTITUTE.—A citizen of Lebanon county gives us the following incident on the subject of procuring a substitute in that county, which proves how far necessity will take the liberality of a man: Among all those connected with Cornwall Furnace, the only man drafted was the proprietor, Mr. Robert Coleman. Not being able to go himself, he assembled his workmen and asked whether any of them would be willing to go in lieu of himself, providing he was liberally paid. After some hesitation, one of the men present informed Mr. Coleman that he was willing to go as a substitute. The man was closely questioned and fully informed of the danger to which he subjected himself, but he frankly declared that he was willing to go, on which Mr. Coleman presented him with a check for $3,000, and guaranteed further, that in the absence of the substitute, his family was to receive a sum each week, equal to that which he earned as a laborer. In addition to this sum, Mr. Coleman stipulated to pay to the wife of the man thus acting as a substitute, the sum of $3,000, in case he should be killed in battle or die by any of the diseases incident to the camp. This is paying liberally, certainly, for a substitute.—Exchange.

Since the above was put in type we have had it authoratively denied. The sum paid down being $300.

Coughs and Colds affecting Troops. Will be speedily relieved and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box. Sick Headache and Want of Appetite Incident to Soldiers.

These feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus preventing the healthy action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to do well.—The Pills, taking according to the printed instructions, will quickly produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite.

Weakness or Debility Induced by over Fatigue. Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. The medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the attack, unless the bowels so soon as this famous medicine.
