SATURDAY, JANUARY 31, 1863.

The Ladies of the "Patriotic Cirele" are pleased to acknowledge a donation of the "Harmony Beneficial Society" of Marietta. The sum of fifteen that society for the use of the "Circle," was placed in the hands of the treasurer passed tendering the thanks of the "Ladies" to the members of the "Harmony."

We have received a copy of the St. Louis Union in which we find a very lengthy description of Jefferson Barracks, of which Dr. J. H. Grove, of this which had proceeded but a short disborough, is surgeon-in chief. New hospitals over one mile in length are being to dispute the ground though a few shells erected, which will enable them to provide for 2,500 patients. There are at present over a thousand there.

Through the kindness of Heckrothe of the White Swan, we enjoyed, a few days since, a rare treat in the shape of Venison steak. By the way, George received no less than a hundred pounds from some yankee friends. George will never be behind-anything in season be is certain to have, without regard to cost.

We are sorry to learn, through Mrs. Dr. Hinkle, who received a letter from her husband a few days since, that Mrs. Ropes, that poor soldier's friend who so nicely acknowledged the boxes from our Circle, contracted a fever at | consin and 24th Illinois. The 79th was | low. one of the Washington hospitals and so fortunate as not to lose any. This has died.

We have just received a copy of the daily "Norfolk and Portsmouth Union" from Dr. J. J. Sowerby, attached to the U. S. ship "Brandywine," now off Fortress Monroe. We should be glad to hear from the Doctor in his new position.

One of the Lancaster papers speaking of the Board of County Commissioners pays the following deserved compliment upon two members of the board: The new President, Mr. Doner, is known throughout the county as a gentleman of methodical business habits, sterling integrity, and a faithful devotion to the best interests of the county. Having always managed his own business well, the tax payers of the county need never fear that their interests will be neglected.

Of Mr. Spencer, the highest encomium that could be passed upon him, is to say that although in politics opposed to the dominant party as well as to his official associates, his official course has been such as to merit the approval of all, and to maintain as much harmony and good feeling in the board as if all the members had been of the same polifical faith.

Camp near Murfreesboro, Tenn., January 15, 1863. We had remained in the vicinity of and the holidays as pleasantly as the gallant defence of Nashville, has been assigned to the command of a Division, and been honored with the advance, tance when the enemy's cavalry began from our artillery soon put them to flight. At La Vergne, fifteen miles north of Murfreesboro, the extreme outpost of the enemy a spirited skirmish ensued. The rebels refused to quit their post and were driven at the point of the bayonet. Monday, December 29, was spent in feeling the enemy; they made little resistance but gradually fell back to his position at Murfreesboro .brought on a skirmish of two hours in which we routed the enemy, killing and wounding eighty-three of their number. while our loss was but two killed and three wounded. The next morning we set out to join our division and were soon met by a number of skedaddlers from the "scene of action," who gave greatly exaggerated reports of what had A charity ball will be given at occurred in the morning. They said great many prisoners taken, and a numyet as the men silently marched, despundency was depicted upon each countenance. As we drew nearer the conflict the roar of artillery became louder and louder. This infused new life in the having the artillery for our reveille .-

The night dragged slowly by. Morning came but neither side seemed anxious to renew the engagement. There was considerable firing between the sharpshooters and some between the artillery.

The sun went down and both armies were content with the position they occupied in the morning. Friday morn-ing's sun had scarcely brightened the eastern skies ere the roar of the artillery became deafening. Our brigade advanced in line of battle to the support of our batteries; here we lay flat on the ground, the 79th being in the rear of Col. Loomis' battery. We remained in this position during the entire day .- in this they were defeated. Late in the afternoon they attempted to drive back our left and were again handsomely repulsed and in turn were driven for more than a mile. This afternoon engagement resulted in the capture of seventeen pieces of artillery and a stand of rebel colors taken by the 78th P. V.

In the evening companies I, H, C and E were ordered on picket. The night passed quietly. At dawn we were reminded of the presence of rebel sharpshooters by the crash of their rifles and the whizzing of the bullets. A few minutes later we were astonished by the shell in our midst thrown by rebel can-of our line. In our retreat three men men who felt like retaliating for the morning's disaster. All were glad to learn that the morning's engagement was not as it had been represented .--Through the carelessness of Gen. Johnson, who was surprised, the rebels almost succeeded in turning our right by throwing a very heavy force against it. The sun was just sinking behind the western horizon as we arrived and night soon afterwards drew her sable curtains around the field of carnage. This was New Year's Eve. We turned into the Weakness and debility induced by over Fatigue. Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux many persons supposing that they and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the acrid humours from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine. VOLUNTEERS ATTENTION!
