SATURDAY, MARCH 7, 1863.

ir On Tuesday evening, Capt. E. D. Roath, of Company E., 107th P. V. who was on a short furlough to visit his family in this place, was formally re- following : ceived by his numerous friends, at the Odd Fellows Hall. Rev. Mr. Clawges introduced the Captain to the assembled company in a neat and pertinent address, when the Captain gave a short history of his doings in the field for the past ten months, at the close of which, the company was invited to the St. John House to partake of a collation prepared for them. The whole affair redounded to the credit of the getter's up. The Captain looks well but somewhat bronzed.

A very entertaining entertainment was given in Temperance Hall, on Monday evening last. The music was very fine; a duett by Messrs. W. Girod and Harry Wolfe, called "Larboard Watch" was particularly fine: the recitations and readings by J. P. Walter were very amusing and entertaining, and served to destroy monotony. Barr Spangler, esq., lectured for about an hour on the evils of intemperance. The proceeds of the entertainment,-and the hall was crowded-went toward furnishing new lamps for the hall.

55 The Clearfield Journal of the 25th ultimo says snow to the depth of nine inches had fallen a few days before and that the roads were in good condition, and the lumbermen busy hauling timber, and adds "should the weather continue favorable for some weeks most of the timber that is made will reach the streams, which, according to information short of the usual supply." Our Marietta boys must hold themselves in readiness-the river is now in fine running. condition and the rafts may be daily looked for.

Mr. A. A. Rickert gave a musi cal treat in the Town Hall on Thursday and Friday evenings, for the benefit of the Presbyterian Sabbath School. It consisted of a cantata with tableaux, entitled "The Seasons and their Festivals." The whole affair was gotten up with great labor and was produced with charming effect to an over-crowded hall. The room was crowded to its utmost capacity.

Ge Heckrothe, of the White Swan, has again leased that hotel, and has fitted up an oyster and eating saloon in in the side room adjoining the bar room,

The small pox, which, at one time, looked alarming in our place, has, in a cant phrase, "been played out ;" we have not heard of a new case within the past month, and all that have been suffering are out and well ; we have heard of but one fatal case amongst the grown ones attacked. It has been in a very mild form throughout.
