SATURDAY, APRIL 4, 1863

Mrs. MATHER & ABBOTT, No. 335 Broadway, New-York, are duly authorized to act for us in soliciting advertisements, &c., and receipt for the same.

THE LATE GENERAL COOPER.—Brigadier General James Cooper, Commandant at Camp Chase, died at Columbus on Saturday, after a short illness, of congestion of the lungs. He was born in Frederick county, Maryland, May 8, 1810, and after his graduation at Washington College, Pa., in 1831, commenced the study of law with Thaddeus Stevens. He was admitted to the Pennsylvania bar in 1834, was a representative of this State in Congress in 1838-1840; was a member of the Legislature from 1844 to 1846, introducing and carrying through in the face of a desperate opposition, measures to relieve the credit of the State, then on the very verge of repudiation. On his return from a visit to Europe, in 1848, he was made Attorney General of the State, and in 1849 was chosen U. S. Senator, and served till the close of his term in 1855. In politics he was always a Whig. After leaving the Senate he resumed the practice of law in Philadelphia, but his health being infirm, he removed to Maryland in 1860. On the breaking out of the rebellion, he raised a brigade of loyal Marylanders, consisting of one regiment of cavalry and three regiments of infantry, and was appointed a Brigadier General of Volunteers May 11, 1861. At the battle of Antietam, in the Shenandoah campaign and on other occasions, these troops raised under the most adverse circumstances, displayed great valor. General Cooper served under Fremont in Virginia, and about the close of last year was appointed to the position at Columbus which he held at the time of his death.

ANECDOTE OF GENERAL SUMNER.—The Springfield Republican gives the following amusing account of the turning point in Gen. Sumner's early life: "General Sumner, when a young man, was a stage driver among the Berkshire Hills, and this is how he came to get into the army. At a time in winter, when the roads were dangerous, going down a steep hill, the stage slowed and turned over, but the horses kept on. One of the passengers pushed out of the door on the upper side of the coach, and climbed upon the box, and attempted to take the reins from Sumner's hands. 'You let the reins alone, or I'll throw you off!' said the driver with determination. The passenger wisely abandoned his attempt at interference, and Sumner guided the team firmly until it was safe to stop them, dragging the over-turned coach along, and so saved passengers and team. The passenger who attempted to take the reins was General Worth. He was so impressed with young Sumner's sterling qualities that he cultivated his acquaintance, and induced him to join the army, and the cool and determined driver made an intrepid commander."

Major General McDowell and wife, with a portion of his staff, arrived at St. Louis on the 17th ult. Captain C. M. Lewis, A. Q. M., a native of South Carolina, has been assigned for duty as Quartermaster of the defenses of Washington, north of the Potomac. Brigadier General Stahl has reported for duty, in command of the cavalry forces for the southern defence of Washington. General Sigel, who has withdrawn his resignation, has been solicited by his friends to apply for a command in Texas.

DESIGNS HAVE BEEN PREPARED for the fractional currency authorized by the recent finance law. The notes are to be about the same size of those of postal currency, but of a totally different character, and prepared in such a way as to avoid as far as art can devise any counterfeiting.

During the past year there was received at San Francisco forty nine million of dollars in gold. This amount of the precious metal would weigh a hundred tons, and would make the freight of a train of four hundred cars on a railroad.

Those "coffee-mill" guns—one hundred or more in number, ordered by the President—we are told, have proved to be of no practical value to the army of the Potomac, and are now laid up in a store-house in Washington.

A party of rebels crossed from Vicksburg about a week since to cut the levee at the mouth of the canal, but they were captured and sent up the river.

Both branches of the State Legislature have passed a resolution to adjourn on 15th of April.

TIME UP.—The 31st of March was the last day in which the clemency of the President was extended to deserters.—He gave twenty-one days' notice that all who should return to the designated places of rendezvous before the 1st of April should be subjected to no other punishment for their criminal delinquency than loss of pay for the time they were absent without authority. After this, we have reason to believe, there will be examples furnished of the necessary rigors of military law. The days of grace will not be extended, and the penalty will not be relaxed. There will be no sympathy, as there can be no respect, anywhere, for those who fall by the bullet as a punishment for this highest of military crimes. Our army and the country have suffered enough already by desertion. There will be general gratification, both among their comrades and among their fellow-citizens at home, to see these skulkers brought to justice; and to see that those who would fly from the bullets of the enemy only do so to be met by a charge a thousand times more sure to kill. As soon as it is found more dangerous to run away from the army than it would be to remain in it, though there were a pitched battle every week, there will be no more desertion. This is the policy the rebels have carried out for the last year, and it is the only just and proper policy in time of war.

A ROMANTIC MARRIAGE.—Major Rodman and Miss Boddington were married at Fernandina, Florida, on the 25th ult., after an acquaintance of only three weeks. The bride is the daughter of Captain Boddington, of Groton, Conn., who brought the ship Resolute from the Arctic regions some years ago, while the groom is the major of the 7th Connecticut volunteers. Miss Boddington was in the South when the rebellion broke out, and remained with the rebels until four or five weeks ago, when she was forwarded under a flag of truce from their lines to Fernandina, for the purpose of returning to her friends at home. Major Rodman at once became enamored of her; he proposed; the lady was not slow in manifesting her Union proclivities, and the result was a speedy wedding.

A TRUMPET ATRIOT.—Archbishop Hughes is consistent as a patriot in his relations of life. We have already made our readers acquainted with most of his patriotic services, publicly rendered, in behalf of the government. Here is an incident of conduct as a private citizen which is not less commendable. When called on by the Assessor for his return of silver plate, liable to tax under the U. S. Revenue law, he rendered twelve thousand and forty ounces, with the remark: "You need not exempt me forty ounces, the country requires all the tax." This example is worthy of imitation by a goodly number we hear of, who are not so conscientious in counting either their silver-ware or their manufactures!

POOR PILLOW.—The rebel Gen. Gideon J. Pillow has suffered considerable loss of property during the progress of the present rebellion. In a speech which he recently delivered in Madison county, Alabama, he stated that the Union forces had stripped him of all his negroes, burned his four cotton gin houses which he valued at ten thousand dollars each, taken one hundred thousand pounds of bacon, run off five hundred head of fine cattle and two thousand hogs, destroyed his houses in Arkansas, and laid waste his plantations. All this was done while Gideon was in the army, fighting for his rights. He dug his ditch on the wrong side this time, sure.

THE EFFECT OF THE DECLINE IN GOLD.—The Philadelphia Inquirer says that the sudden and heavy decline in the price of gold, has had great effect in reducing the prices of merchandise generally. Cotton, it says, has declined 25 cents from the highest point; flour 20 cents; rye flour 25 cents; wheat 20 cents; corn 3 cents; candles 1 cent; coal 50 cents; coffee 2 cents; foreign chemicals generally 10 to 20 per cent; lead 1 cent; common resin $3; spirits of turpentine, 20 cents; fish oils 2 to 5 cents; pork $1; lard 1 cent; clover seed 75 cents; timothy seed 50 cents; flax seed 50 cents; tallow 1 cent; and wool 5 cents.

SOLDIERS TO THE RESCUE!—Young men rushing into the exposures and dangers of a Soldier's life, should prepare themselves for the fatal Fevers, the Dysentery, the Scurvy and Cholera, which are almost certain to follow. Holloway's Pills, used occasionally during the campaign, will insure sound health to every man. Only 25 cents per box. 14

One of the daughters of the rebel Slidell was thrown from her horse recently, in the Bois de Boulogne, near Paris. Her head struck against the wheel of a carriage, and on being taken up her skull was found to be fractured. At late dates she was said to be out of danger.

Mr. Bloss, a released Union prisoner from Richmond, says the prisoners are kept on tainted mule and horse meat, and that he has helped to put men in coffins who died from actual starvation.

CLEARING OUT OF WASHINGTON.—Gen. Martindale, Military Governor of the District, has adopted energetic measures to rid Washington of the horde of pickpockets, thieves and scoundrels who infest the city, to the terror of government contractors and citizens. The other day a small squad of notorious thieves were paraded on Pennsylvania avenue, guarded by soldiers, and accompanied by a drummer and fifer playing "The Rogue's March." Placards upon the persons of the culprits in front and rear, indicated their rank as pickpockets and thieves, revealed to the crowds of spectators the object of this novel dress parade. If this warning should not produce the desired effect, General Martindale will order a battalion drill of the light-fingered fraternity at an early day.

The Episcopal Recorder, in an article referring to the refusal of Congress to exempt ministers of the Gospel from liability to draft, says: "Nor will there be any serious consequences from the refusal to grant this exemption. Whenever a minister of the Gospel is useful to his people, and preaches faithfully to them of Christ, they will contribute for his relief the three hundred dollars the law prescribes for commutation. Should they not be ready to do this, or should the drafted minister be without a church connection which will pay this amount for his discharge, we cannot see that he has any public claims to be excused from the performance of that service which, distasteful as it may be, every loyal citizen is now called upon to render."

At the steep chase of the Irish Brigade, of Gen. Hooker's army, on St. Patrick's day, a serious accident occurred. Dr. Paxon, surgeon of the 9th Mass., and the Quartermaster of the same regiment, while riding at the top of their speed toward each other, in attempting to pass, turned in the same direction, and a collision ensued, by which both horses were instantly killed and both the officers were thrown thirty feet in the air, and seriously and probably fatally injured.

Gov. Wright, of Indiana, in a speech recently made by him, suggested that the clergyman throughout the loyal States take hold and assist everywhere in the organization of Union Leagues. The suggestion is a good one. There is no class of men that can do more than clergymen in behalf of this patriotic movement, and certainly there is no grander work in which they can engage than in that of saving the Union of these States.

We have not the least idea that the result of the arrest and trial of Brigham Young, on the charge of polygamy will amount to anything. He is entirely too sharp to be caught. In the first place no jury in Utah can be found to convict him. Beside the Mormons do not own to polygamy, and they really have but one legally married wife. The other women in the harems, though known as "spiritual wives," are mere lemanes, and amenable only to such municipal laws as bear against local immorality.

Gen. Sumner was in his sixty-seventh year. His family consisted of wife who survives him; four daughters, Mrs. Jenkins, Mrs. Col. Teal, Mrs. Col. Long and Mrs. Col. McLean; and two sons, E. V. Sumner, Jr., Major Gen. Stone's staff, and Samuel Sumner Captain on his father's staff, both of whom are in the regular army."

The following resolution was recently adopted by the Legislature of Ohio: "Resolved, That we will have no dissolution of the Union; that we will have no armistice; that we can fight as long as rebels and traitors can; that the war shall go on until law is restored, and we will never despair of the republic."

By order of the Secretary of War the Court Martial in the case of Col. DuTassay has been dissolved. He will be dismissed, without the usual forms or the expense of a trial. The charges against him have been published, and would show, if proved, that he has been guilty of a great many serious crimes.

A manufacturer of thread, having accidentally cut his nose, took one of his gummied spool labels to close the cut. On going home, he wondered why every one laughed at him. Looking in the glass, he read on the label that his nose was "warranted three hundred and fifty yards long!"

Fred. A. Mitchell, son of the late gallant General Mitchell, enlisted in Washington a few days since as a private, which fact coming to the knowledge of the President and Secretary of War, he was promoted to Second Lieutenant in the 16th U. S. Infantry.

A hoghead of tobacco was sold in Newport, Ky, on Saturday, at the extraordinary price of one hundred and twenty-five dollars per one hundred pounds.

There is a good reason why a little man should never marry a bouncing widow. He might be called "the widow's mite."

It is better to be laughed at for not being married, than to be unable to laugh because you are.

Short Scraps of News from our Exchanges. A house for newsboys is about to be established in Washington.

Edmund Rhet, a once noted fire eater, died in South Carolina last month.

The Quakers in Indiana will, it is estimated, pay $25,000 for commutation.

The New York Express states that Secretary Chase was offered one hundred millions in gold at par by European parties.

At the great German fair, at Frankfurt-on-the-Maine, to be opened in May and to close in July, twenty of our States will be represented, and propositions are now addressed to the government to send out the commissioners in a national vessel.

Mr. A. G. Boyd, publisher of the Free Press newspaper in Hagerstown, Maryland, has been arrested by order of General Schenck, and sent South, where he will no doubt be gobbled up for the rebel army.

Water has been let into the Morris canal, New Jersey, preparatory to a resumption of navigation.

Potatoes are selling in Atlanta, Georgia, for fifteen dollars a bushel. In Bangor, Maine, they sell for thirty-five cents a bushel.

Hon. Henry M. Rice, of Minnesota, whose term of service in the United States Senate expired with the last Congress, has written a letter declining to be a candidate for Governor of the State.

Gen. Sigel has withdrawn his resignation, and his friends apply for a command in Texas for him.

A letter from Port Royal says the number of freed slaves in that department is nearly seventeen thousand.

The government, on Monday, reclothed a number of half-clad prisoners, just arrived in Washington from Richmond. Before leaving they were stripped of almost all their clothing.

The Wilmington (Ohio) Journal says: "We are informed that a larger quantity of maple sugar and molasses has been manufactured in our county, this season, than ever before."

So perfect were the Egyptians in the manufacture of perfumes that some of their ancient ointments, preserved in an alabaster vase in the Museum at Alnwick (England), still retains a very powerful odor, though it must be between 2,000 and 3,000 years old.

Delaware has repudiated lotteries. A bill to legalize a swindle under that name was recently defeated by a decisive majority. It is probable that a further reform will be made by making lottery drawing a penal offence.

Both Houses of the Pennsylvania Legislature have adopted a resolution to adjourn on the 15th of April. The sooner the better. It is said by those who know that the present Copperhead House is the most corrupt body that has ever convened at Harrisburg.

Daniel Dougherty, esq., of Philadelphia, who, a few years ago, made powerful and eloquent speeches in Lancaster, on behalf of the old Democratic party, is now in Connecticut advocating the cause of the Union. Like all true Democrats he prefers country to party.

Mr. Mason is still urging the recognition of the South, and claiming of the blockade. The Emancipation Society of Manchester has sent a protest to Earl Russell against the course of the Government in allowing vessels for the rebels to be fitted out in England.

The deserters report great suffering in the rebel army, and much dissatisfaction among the troops. Half a pint of flour and a quarter of a pound of meat constitute their daily rations.

It has been ascertained that the chief mate of the pirate Alabama is a native of Stonington, Connecticut, who was for some years connected with a Boston newspaper office.

The blockade of Galveston was still rigidly enforced. The Harriet Lane was still in the harbor, and the report of her having been iron cased is a mere supposition.

A carpet-bag was seized by a provost marshal's officer while on its way to Richmond. It was found to contain packages addressed to various distinguished individuals in the South from Baltimore Secessionists. Amongst other things, it contained a splendid pair of boots for Jeff Davis, and two fine linen night-gowns, elaborately embroidered—a present for Mrs. Jeff Davis, from some of our feminine rebels.
