SATURDAY, MAY 9, 1863.

I At a late meeting of the directors of the "First National Bank of Marietta," John Hollinger, Esq., was elected president and James Mehaffey, Esq., vice president. No better selections could have been made. Thus we goand the bank will be put in operation immediately,-if not sooner, but jesting aside, all things bid fair for a speedy and successful opening of a long wished for, and much needed bank in our borough. There can be no doubt, from a look at the gentleman in charge of this association, of its being a complete success.

In accordance with the request of the "Bow of Promise Section Cadets of Tomperance of Marietta," the Rev. Dr. Timlow will preach a sermon "To the Young," in the Presbyterian church, on Sunday (to-morrow) evening. The public are invited to attend.

Just as we were about going to press, we received a very interesting letter from Quartermaster John McClure, of the Pennsylvania Forty Fifth, now stationed in Kentucky. We will publish it in our next. He reports all the boys in fine trim.

During the past week the timber business has been exceedingly briskprices kept up amazingly, and at this writing,-Friday afternoon-the river is again rising and every prospect of another freshet.

To-morrow Sunday morning, Rev. Mr. Gregg will deliver a sermon to the scholars attached to the M. E. Sabbath school. Rev. Mr. Clawges, the superi ntendent, will also address them,

Tor Union League is making prepartions to receive the "Marietta Braves" at the expiration of their term of enlistment, which will take place in a fow days.

Through the kindness of Mrs. Dr. Hinkle, wo were enabled, during last week, to enjoy some very fine salad and rhubard. Ho! for the season of delicious vegetables.

David Evans was re-elected County Superintendent of Common schools for the next three years, at the old salary of twelve hundred and fifty dollars.

The Ladies Patriotic Circle will meet on Friday evening next, at the residence of Mrs S. Patterson Sterrett. A call has been made on the stock subscribed to the "First National" Bank of Marietta" See advertisement.

SUSQUEHANNA LUMBER TRADE. - A COT- respondent, writing from the banks of It is surprising to witness the vast amount of timber lining the bank from the eastern end of the town to the romantic locality known as the "Willows," a distance of about three miles westward. The rafts lay about an average of six abreast the entire distance ; and, according to an estimate made by several large dealers in timber, it was calculated that there were from thirteen to fifteen million feet, which at present rates, was worth over five hundred thousand dollors. Taking the entire amount of timber into consideration which has passed Marietta this season and gone on to Columbia, Port Deposit and other points, the value of the material thus far already shipped would run up to at least one million dollars .- Philadelphia Ledner. A rather shrewd yankee, after loaling around town for a few days, called into McMichael's restaurant, where he had spent considerable of his loose change, to borrow two dollars. Mc said "he had'nt the change to spare," whereupon "red shirt" said, "I'm going to a party to-night, and I expect before it is over I shall be drunk, and I don't want to spend all the money I've got: so here is a ten dollar note-give me four dollars on it and to-morrow morning I will call for the six." Abb without uny further thought, threw the ten dollar bill in the drawer and threw him down four; in the morning the ten was discovered to be a counterfeit. Yankee has not yet called for his six dollars balance. John A. Gray, or better known as Gray Uochran, who was a deserter from Colonel Welsh's regiment, was arrested a few evenings since at McMichael's restaurant, by a possee from the provost guard stationed at Columbia. He was sent to Camp Curtin. This is the second time Gray has deserted. The Lancaster Inquirer says after deserting the first time, he entered the rebel service, which is a mistake, having been in Clearfield county for some time past working at timber making and made his re-appearance here with the first on their gallant bearing throughout the action. freshet.
