

The Mariettian

Marietta, Ga.

SAURDAY, MAY 30, 1863.

THE GIRARD WILL CASE.—The famous Girard will case, arising out of a decision in the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania...

A letter from Washington to the N. Y. Commercial says Gen. Butler has not been ordered to that city...

The African Methodist Episcopal Conference has a very interesting session in New York. A series of resolutions, declaring confidence in the Administration...

Under the head of slip-knots, the Newburyport Herald says a gentleman resides in that city who is without a wife, though two women are living to whom he has been married...

John Van Buren is said to have bought the Lindenwald property for thirty thousand dollars, with the intention of devoting himself to agriculture...

Henry Clay Deao, who has been making speeches in the northwest in censure of the Administration, was arrested recently at Keokuk, Iowa...

It is told of a rich New Yorker that, on being required to give an account of his personal property for taxation, he gave a note to his wife for $500,000...

An Irish girl, and an operative in Smith's paper mill, Lee, Massachusetts, recently found five genuine $1000 Treasury Notes in the paper rags...

The 54th regiment Massachusetts volunteers (colored) have sailed for Fort Royal, with full ranks. They are reported to be well disciplined...

The scarcity of horses in the South may be inferred from the fact that a fine carriage was seen in the streets of Columbia, Miss., a few weeks ago, drawn by a pair of black oxen.

How to Read Shoulder Straps.—The rank and arm of the military officers are designated as follows:—The shoulder straps of a Major General bear two silver embroidered stars...

Non-commissioned officers are indicated by chevrons, or strips, on the coat sleeve, in the form of a letter V. Corporals wear two stripes, Sergeants three, Orderly Sergeants have a lozenge, or diamond-shaped figure, within the angle of the chevrons...

DRING SPEECH OF WASHINGTON.—But a few weeks ago, the wolf was one of the Indian chiefs stopping at the Patent House in this city, on his way to Washington. He soon sickened and died there. The following is his dying speech, and equals in pathos and eloquence the speech of the celebrated Chief Logan...

A LONG RACE MORE THAN 100 YEARS AGO.—On September 1st, 1750, there was a race at Epsom, England, between Mr. Girdwood's horse, Cropp, and a roan horse of Mr. Harris's. Cropp was to go one hundred miles before the roan went eighty; the match was for one hundred guineas...

VITALITY IN HORSES.—Some experiments have recently been made in France, by persons skilled in the veterinary art, with a view of ascertaining how long horses may live without food in certain contingencies, as, for example, being shut up in besieged places...

THE NEGRO ARMY.—Mr. Stanton has given assurance of his determination to protect the negro soldier in the service of the United States at all hazards. He will hold white rebels as hostages for the safe delivery of loyal negro soldiers...

All the colored regiments in Gen. Banks' department, except the engineer corps, have been turned over by him to Gen. Ullman, who has the entire control of their equipment and organization.

TO GARRISON PORTRESS MONROE.—We learn from the Boston Transcript that Governor Andrew recently commissioned Mr. John Wilder as lieutenant at Fortress Monroe, for the purpose of recruiting a company of blacks for the Massachusetts Fifty-fourth regiment...

BAD FAITH.—The rebels at Fredericksburg sent a flag of truce to our lines after the recent battles, requesting that surgeons and nurses be sent over to take care of our wounded left on the battle field...

HANDS AND FEET.—A writer in the Atlantic Monthly, speaking of the cruel injustice to which the feet are subjected, says "the foot's fingers are the slaves in the republic of the body." Their black leathern integument is only the mask of their servile condition...

There are now three wandering Governors in the rebel States, who have skeddaddled from the Executive mansions in their respective capitals, and will be forced henceforth to issue their edicts and proclamations from the wayside...

The Government has been driven, at last, to the policy of deportation of rebels from Missouri. One day last week, a steamer left St. Louis for the South, having on board about forty rebel citizens who had been banished from that city...

Our readers will recollect that the Copperhead traitor Vallandigham, was sentenced to an imprisonment during the war in one of the forts of the United States. General Burnside approved the finding of the Court, but the President has changed the imprisonment to sending the Hon. Gentleman across the lines...

Agencies for colored troops have been established in every principal city from New York to St. Louis. In Missouri, the State authorities and the municipal functionaries of St. Louis have afforded great facilities for obtaining enlistments from the former bodemen of that State...

In apportioning the draft, under the conscription act, credit will be given to each State for the number of troops already furnished, and the three years' men will be taken as the basis. Thus three regiments of two years men will be considered as equivalent to only two regiments, and four regiments of nine months to one regiment of three years men.

For the derangement of the system, Change of Diet, Wounds, Sores, Bruises and Eruptions, to which every Volunteer is liable, there are no remedies so safe, convenient and sure as Holloway's Pills & Ointment, thoroughly tested in the Crimean and Italian Campaigns. Only 25 cents per box or pot.

A late letter from Southern California says that within a radius of sixty miles of Fort Yuma, in the southeastern portion of the State, the most astonishing discoveries of gold, silver, copper, quicksilver, and other minerals, have recently been made.

It is proposed to light Bombay with gas, made from the bones of dead Hindoos. It is calculated that each body will yield two hundred cubic feet of gas.

THE RINALE OF AN ELOPEMENT CASE.—The Supreme Court of the District of Columbia last week pronounced a decree of total divorce in the case of Gen. John M. Brannon, against Eliza Brannon, granting him the guardianship of his child. The material facts caused much excitement and interest, five years ago, especially in New York...

Lately, Bishop Smyth, the Roman Catholic Bishop of Iowa, destroyed a movement for organizing a secret disloyal society in Dubuque. After vesper services the Bishop addressed his congregation on the subject of disloyal secret societies, saying that they were opposed to the spirit of the Catholic Church...

Six Monitors are building at St. Louis, large and strong, and promising to be most useful in giving us command of the Mississippi and its tributaries. Texan crops promise to be immense, which renders it all the more necessary for us to get command of the Mississippi, so that they may not be used to feed rebellion.

A woman in Illinois took a house cleaning fit, burned up her old straw bed, forgetting the important fact that she had hid $720 therein. A pretty little married woman in Rochester, having coddled her husband into making all his property over to her, took the proceeds of the sale, her infant, and another man, and eloped.

A sea fight is reported to have taken place near Pedro Bluff, between a steamer resembling the Alabama and three other vessels. They were seen to exchange broadsides for several hours, by persons standing on the shore. The number of our vessels taken by Southern privateers is 106, and the property lost was of the value of $10,000,000.

The fugitive slave Hall, whose case has excited so much interest in Washington, and about whose custody a conflict existed between the civil and military authorities, was on Monday enlisted in the army, thus escaping the farther pursuit of his master. One evidence of the prosperity of the country, in spite of the war, is, that the amount of the pork, bacon and lard exported this year is sixty four and a half millions of pounds greater than the exports of the year before...

Two daughters of John Bell, of Tennessee, recently came through our lines to some of their friends in Philadelphia. It is stated that upon their arrival in Philadelphia, they were completely amazed at the indications of abundance and prosperity everywhere evident.

The Sultan of Turkey saw a railway for the first time in his life during his visit to Egypt. He was very much frightened at it, and from Alexandria to Cairo, would not allow the engine to go even an ordinary speed, and was eight hours on the road.

The Bath Paper Mill, situated on the South Carolina railroad, six miles from Charleston, was lately destroyed by fire. Southern papers speak of this as a very severe loss, and one which will severely interfere with the publication of many journals. The ladies of South Carolina are bestirring themselves as rag-pickers to supply the raw material for the manufacture of paper.

A man named Obadiah Reynolds, was tried at Taunton, Mass., last week, the trial lasting several days, for the murder of John Bullock, of New Bedford, and convicted. On Friday last he was sentenced to be hanged on a day to be fixed by the Governor.

The aggregate of the public debt on the 8th instant was, in round numbers, nine hundred and eighty-four millions of dollars, of which legal tender notes, including the fractional currency, amount to about four hundred millions. Barry Hoyer of Philadelphia is dead.

Short Scraps of News from our Exchanges.

The common estimate that the quantity of change in circulation in this country is about fifty millions of dollars, has been corrected, it is said, by the fact that fifteen millions of postal currency has filled all the channels of circulation and left three millions more unpaired for in the hands of the Government.

Arrangements are making by the Post-office Department to give the business community of New York city a dozen deliveries of letters a day, instead of four.

Wm. F. Church, who murdered his wife at West Troy last winter, plead guilty a few days since, of murder in the second degree, and was sentenced to the State prison for twenty years.

The rebel debt, if divided equally amongst the inhabitants of the Confederacy, would amount to $163 for each person. The portion of a debt which a married man with a family of six children may be said to owe is $1,300. The Confederacy, according to its own calculation, owes by this time nearly a billion of dollars, which, notwithstanding its promissory notes, it does not promise to pay.

All the Indians are now removed from Minnesota, except in the Cedar Valley. According to the St. Paul Press not an Indian lodge is to be found between the Tonawanda, and the Otter Tail river, except a few stragglers, who will very soon be compelled to follow in the footsteps of their illustrious predecessors.

Six Monitors are building at St. Louis, large and strong, and promising to be most useful in giving us command of the Mississippi and its tributaries.

Texan crops promise to be immense, which renders it all the more necessary for us to get command of the Mississippi, so that they may not be used to feed rebellion.

A woman in Illinois took a house cleaning fit, burned up her old straw bed, forgetting the important fact that she had hid $720 therein.

A pretty little married woman in Rochester, having coddled her husband into making all his property over to her, took the proceeds of the sale, her infant, and another man, and eloped.

A sea fight is reported to have taken place near Pedro Bluff, between a steamer resembling the Alabama and three other vessels. They were seen to exchange broadsides for several hours, by persons standing on the shore.

The number of our vessels taken by Southern privateers is 106, and the property lost was of the value of $10,000,000. The loss is still greater in regard to the insecurity of our flag, whereby business is thrown into the hands of foreign ship owners.

The fugitive slave Hall, whose case has excited so much interest in Washington, and about whose custody a conflict existed between the civil and military authorities, was on Monday enlisted in the army, thus escaping the farther pursuit of his master.

One evidence of the prosperity of the country, in spite of the war, is, that the amount of the pork, bacon and lard exported this year is sixty four and a half millions of pounds greater than the exports of the year before. The total amount of the above articles, exported was two hundred and sixty-two millions of pounds.

A new cathedral is about to be erected in Havana, built wholly of iron, the estimated cost of which is one million of dollars.

Two daughters of John Bell, of Tennessee, recently came through our lines to some of their friends in Philadelphia. It is stated that upon their arrival in Philadelphia, they were completely amazed at the indications of abundance and prosperity everywhere evident.

The Sultan of Turkey saw a railway for the first time in his life during his visit to Egypt. He was very much frightened at it, and from Alexandria to Cairo, would not allow the engine to go even an ordinary speed, and was eight hours on the road.

The Bath Paper Mill, situated on the South Carolina railroad, six miles from Charleston, was lately destroyed by fire. Southern papers speak of this as a very severe loss, and one which will severely interfere with the publication of many journals. The ladies of South Carolina are bestirring themselves as rag-pickers to supply the raw material for the manufacture of paper.

A man named Obadiah Reynolds, was tried at Taunton, Mass., last week, the trial lasting several days, for the murder of John Bullock, of New Bedford, and convicted. On Friday last he was sentenced to be hanged on a day to be fixed by the Governor.

The aggregate of the public debt on the 8th instant was, in round numbers, nine hundred and eighty-four millions of dollars, of which legal tender notes, including the fractional currency, amount to about four hundred millions. Barry Hoyer of Philadelphia is dead.

Not Alcoholic.

A Highly Concentrated Vegetable Extract. A PURE TONIC.

DR. HOODLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS, PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILA. PA.

What is the cause of the various ailments? Dyspepsia, Jaundice, chronic or nervous Debility, diseases of the Kidneys, and all diseases arising from a disordered Liver or Stomach, such as Constipation, inwards Piles, fullness of blood to the head, acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, distasteful food, fulness or weight in the stomach, sour Eructations, sinking or fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, swimming of the Head, hurried and difficult Breathing, fluttering at the Heart, choking or suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, dimness of Vision, dots or webs before the Sight, fever and pain in the Head, deficiency of Temperature, yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., sudden flushes, in the face, &c., in the evening, constant headaches, Evil, and great depression of Spirits, &c. And, will positively prevent Yellow Fever, Bilious Fever, &c. They will cure the above diseases in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent Clergymen, Lawyers, Physicians, and Citizens, testifying of their own personal knowledge of the beneficial effects and moral virtues of these Bitters. Do you want something to strengthen you? Do you want a good appetite? Do you want to build up your constitution? Do you want to feel well? Do you want to get rid of nervousness? Do you want energy? Do you want to sleep well? Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling? If you do, use Hoodland's German Bitters.

From Rev. J. Newton Bonner, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religion and History: Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I know of no sufficient reason why a man may not testify to the benefits he has derived from Hoodland's Bitters, if he has derived from any simple preparation, in hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoodland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was attacked against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert S. H. H. for the removal of this impression. Hoodland's Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia, Pa., is a highly concentrated vegetable extract, and is the best of its kind in the market. It is a pure tonic, and is the best of its kind in the market. It is a pure tonic, and is the best of its kind in the market.

Phila. Jan. 23, 1861. There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, but in no one of them is there so much of the purest vegetable essence of the most powerful and purest of the vegetable kingdom as in Hoodland's Bitters. It is a pure tonic, and is the best of its kind in the market.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, but in no one of them is there so much of the purest vegetable essence of the most powerful and purest of the vegetable kingdom as in Hoodland's Bitters. It is a pure tonic, and is the best of its kind in the market.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, but in no one of them is there so much of the purest vegetable essence of the most powerful and purest of the vegetable kingdom as in Hoodland's Bitters. It is a pure tonic, and is the best of its kind in the market.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, but in no one of them is there so much of the purest vegetable essence of the most powerful and purest of the vegetable kingdom as in Hoodland's Bitters. It is a pure tonic, and is the best of its kind in the market.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, but in no one of them is there so much of the purest vegetable essence of the most powerful and purest of the vegetable kingdom as in Hoodland's Bitters. It is a pure tonic, and is the best of its kind in the market.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, but in no one of them is there so much of the purest vegetable essence of the most powerful and purest of the vegetable kingdom as in Hoodland's Bitters. It is a pure tonic, and is the best of its kind in the market.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, but in no one of them is there so much of the purest vegetable essence of the most powerful and purest of the vegetable kingdom as in Hoodland's Bitters. It is a pure tonic, and is the best of its kind in the market.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, but in no one of them is there so much of the purest vegetable essence of the most powerful and purest of the vegetable kingdom as in Hoodland's Bitters. It is a pure tonic, and is the best of its kind in the market.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, but in no one of them is there so much of the purest vegetable essence of the most powerful and purest of the vegetable kingdom as in Hoodland's Bitters. It is a pure tonic, and is the best of its kind in the market.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, but in no one of them is there so much of the purest vegetable essence of the most powerful and purest of the vegetable kingdom as in Hoodland's Bitters. It is a pure tonic, and is the best of its kind in the market.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, but in no one of them is there so much of the purest vegetable essence of the most powerful and purest of the vegetable kingdom as in Hoodland's Bitters. It is a pure tonic, and is the best of its kind in the market.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, but in no one of them is there so much of the purest vegetable essence of the most powerful and purest of the vegetable kingdom as in Hoodland's Bitters. It is a pure tonic, and is the best of its kind in the market.