SATURDAY, MAY 30, 1863.

Horrid Murder.—A most horrid murder was committed on Saturday night last. Mr. Charles A. Brady, who has kept for several springs a drinking and eating saloon on the bank of the river, a short distance above Mebahey's Ferry, was found dead in the shanty occupied by him, on Tuesday evening last, murdered in a most brutal manner. Mr. Brady had not been seen by his relatives from the Saturday evening previous, and becoming alarmed went, to the shanty to seek for him, where to their surprise and horror, they found him lying in his own blood, dead. Various rumors are afloat concerning the murder, none of which is worth retelling. Two or three strangers were detained and superficially examined, but nothing elicited to throw any light upon the perpetrator of this most fiendish murder. Deputy Coroner Squire Brown of Maytown, in the absence of Esquire Axler in Philadelphia, was sent for, who held an inquest on the body, which returned a verdict of murder at the hands of some person or persons to the jury unknown. Upon an examination of the body, it was found to have received a fatal gash made evidently by an axe or hatchet, immediately over the top or middle of the head, and as if struck from behind, laying open the skull for six inches in length, and the brains oozing out profusely. After the murder was committed the murderer evidently rifled his victim's pockets, only four cents having been found on his person, by the jury, and he was supposed to have had considerable money about him, it having been generally known that the spring was a very profitable one to him. The instrument of death could not be found, but it is supposed that it was thrown into the Susquehanna. After finishing his damnable work, the murderer closed the door and locked it, leaving the dead hatch key sticking on the outside. The body, it is supposed, from Saturday night until Tuesday evening, when search was made. At this writing, Friday afternoon, there is no clue to the hell-hound who perpetrated this most foul of murders.

The formal reception by the Union League and the collection by the Patriotic Circle will place this afternoon, at the Town Hall. Every citizen, with the slightest particle of patriotism, should participate in this display. The ladies of the circle have been quite busy for the past week getting in readiness the good things for the inner man, and we know they will succeed as ladies rarely fail. Through the many vicissitudes which this patriotic association has been compelled to pass through, it still maintains its usefulness and philanthropy. May its patriotic ardor never cool. Read the route of procession, &c., in our advertising columns.

For years past, the spring season, at this point, has been fruitful of counterfeit paper, and indeed metal money; this spring particularly there has been an immense deal of trash of both kinds in circulation. An arrest was made on Wednesday last of Albert Spangler, who was seen with considerable money, which, upon examination, was found to be all counterfeit. He was committed to jail to answer at court.

We paid a flying visit to the Quaker City a few days since, and while there called on our young friend H. L. Sultz, who is now in business at 346 Dillwyn st. He has a fine opening and being a practical carrier, and a perfectly reliable gentleman, will no doubt do well in the Carrying and Leather Commission business.

Baltzer Ray an old German, long a resident of the lower end of Marietta, fell some weeks ago and broke his arm, and being too old to recuperate, died on Thursday last.

Poor Frank Loser, who was taken to the almshouse by officer Emwiler, a week since, has paid the debt of nature. Alas for poor, weak human nature—rum was his ruin.

The S. B. Thomas Rifles will hold a meeting at their Armory, on Monday evening next, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of electing officers.

The day of Appeal from the Borough Assessment will be held in Pioneer Hall, on Monday afternoon next, between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock.

The Borough Tax collector desires us to say that he will commence his tour on Tuesday next, when he hopes all the tax payers will be ready for him.

B. F. Brewster, a life long Democrat and distinguished lawyer of Philadelphia, will address the Lancaster Union League sometime next week.

A very interesting letter from the Forty-Fifth will be found in our columns this week.

Letter from the Pennsylvania Forty-Fifth, Hustonville, Lincoln County, Ky., MAY 18, 1863.

Dear Col.—I suppose that your readers know that the 45th Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, is doing duty in the State of Kentucky, and that two companies of the regiment are from your end of the county. I suppose also that a few dottings will not be uninteresting to the two thousand readers to your paper. The 45th is part of the 3d Brigade, 1st Division, 9th Army Corps, and came to Kentucky a short time ago, when our General (Burnside) assumed command of this Department. General Willcox, who formerly commanded this division, is now in command of the District of Central Kentucky, which leaves General Wilson in command of the 1st Division. I need not add that he commands it well, and that the division is considered by military men one of the finest and most efficient in the Federal Army. The Division Head Quarters are now located at Hustonville; our regiment is doing duty near Head Quarters. The principal duty of this division being to prevent rebel hordes under Morgan, Wheeler, Olike & Co., from invading Kentucky, and I think we will do it effectually. Should Morgan pitch into this division, I think he would be pitched out of Kentucky in double quick; at all events, we are ready to have him try his luck.

We are in the heart of the finest country in the world. You know I am partial to Lancaster county and boast of it on all occasions, but candor compels me to say, in point of fertility and richness, this country cannot be excelled even by our own dear garden spot. The people, too, are Union-loving throughout this neighborhood—indeed in this respect, too, they surpass Lancaster county, for, if rumor be true, you are infected with a deep tinge of the Vallandigham-Sanderson school of would-be (if I wasn't afraid) traitors. By the way, Col., did you hear Burnside had sentenced Vallandigham to the Dry Tortugas for two years? I hope it is true and a few from your way may go the same way. Tortugas, you know, is on the southern coast of Florida, and will, no doubt, be a warm residence—but as these gentlemen don't appear to believe in purgatory, it may be that Tortugas will prepare them for the next hot place to which their treason should consign them.

I regret to learn that our Army of the Potomac was unsuccessful in its recent "on to Richmond." I hope now that nothing farther will be attempted in that direction until conscripts swell the army large enough to insure success, beyond any doubt. The patriots who are awaiting the operations of conscription will then have an equal chance to shed their blood for the good of their country.

The Mariettians in Companies "B" and "K," are all in good health. The long absent Simon Sanders returned to Co. K, or rather to the Guard House, a few weeks ago; he has been tried by a court martial, but the sentence has not yet been promulgated. As it is customary for deserters of Simon's class to get about six months at labor on government fortifications with other little appendages, I presume that will be Simon's fate; well so let it be,—for during the past eight months while we were fighting the battles of our country, and living on hard rations, Simon was luxuriating at home on all the good things of this life, and should things for the next eight months be reversed, we will have no cause for complaint—will we?

Our two companies will require about forty men to fill them up, and I hope that number of able bodied men, to whom the conscription may have some terror, may rush forward and join our companies—and come immediately to this land of plenty, where happy soldiers, fine horses and pretty women abound. Send us The Mariettian occasionally.—Address, Co. "K," 45th P. V., 1st Division, 9th Army Corps, via Lexington, Ky. Truly yours, &c., BENJAMIN.

NOTE.—We shall always be glad to hear from our much respected friend, "Benjamin," and his incog shall always remain inviolate. We regularly mail our paper to three or four friends in the 45th, himself amongst the number. We are too sorry to be compelled to admit the truth of our correspondent's strictures upon the prevalence of copperheadism in our midst. Pretty women,—perhaps the long absence from home may have some influence over the judgment of "Benjamin," for 'tis said all women appear handsome to those long robbed of female society.—Ed. Mariettian.

The Susquehanna is quite low and the sand bars are beginning to show themselves.

The Patriotic Circle will meet on Friday evening next, at Mrs. John W. Clark's.

DIED. At Chikies, on the 24th ultimo, FRANK EAGLE, infant son of Jesse R., and Mary Lewellyn, aged one month and five days. In this borough, on Thursday last, BALTZER RAY, an advanced age.

THE DISEASES OF ERROR.—(Les Maladies d'Erreur.)—I, John B. Ogden, M. D., author and publisher of the above work, do hereby promise and agree to send (free of charge) to any young man who will write for it, a sample copy for perusal. The proper study of mankind is M. N. This valuable work is issued and sent forth for the benefit of suffering humanity. BOHLEN'S long, celebrated HIN, H. D. BENJAMIN, DEALER IN WINE & LIQUORS, FIOOT BUILDING, MARIETTA, PA.

THE SOLDIER'S TRUE FRIEND ALWAYS READY. HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.—Long marches, sore and aching joints, blistered and inflamed feet, all these the Soldiers must endure, Mothers, REMEMBER THIS, when your sons are grasping their muskets to meet danger, think what relief a single pot of this A. L. HEALING & COOLING Salve will give to the one you love better far away from home and friends. It hardens and makes tough the feet so that they can endure great fatigue. It soothes and relieves the inflamed and stiffened joints, leaving them supple, without any rigorous, while for SABLE CURS and GUNSHOT WOUNDS it stands unequalled, removing and preventing every vestige of inflammation and gently drawing the edges together, it quickly and completely heals the most frightful wound, WITS AND SISTERS OF OUR VOLUNTEERS

Your husbands and sons, a more valuable or more necessary gift than a supply of this Extraordinary Military Salve. The lonely soldier walking his rounds at night, exposed to drenching rains and chilled night air, is often seized with most violent Coughs, Croup and suffocating Hoarseness, first symptoms of quick consumption, but if supplied with Holloway's Pills and Holloway's Ointment, all danger is averted, a few Pills taken night and morning, and the Ointment well rubbed twice a day over the throat and chest will remove the severest pain and stop the most distressing or dangerous cough. Therefore we say to the whole Army! SOLDIERS ATTENTION!

See to your own health, do not trust to the Army supplies, although most valuable.—These Pills and Ointment have been thoroughly tested, they are the only remedies used in the European Camps and Barracks, for over forty years Doctor Holloway has supplied all the Armies in Europe, and during the Crimean Campaign he established a depot at Balaklava, for the exclusive sale of these Great Remedies. many a time his special Agent, these would avoid a ton in weight of the Ointment in a single day. These terrible and fatal enemies of SOLDIER IN CAMP, Diarrhea, Dysentery, Scurvy, Sores and Scrofulous Eruptions, all disappear like a chaff before these Pills and Ointment, and now while the cry rings throughout the land, TO ARMS!—TO ARMS!

Do not let these brave men perish by disease, place their hands these Precious Remedies, that will enable them to resist the dangerous exposures, the Fevers, the Chills, and the wounds which they cannot avoid, and what is more, cannot frequently get succour in the moment of need, whereas if our brave men have only to put their hands to their Knapsacks and find there a sure remedy for all the casualties of the battle field. How many thousands of lives would be saved who would otherwise perish before relief could be obtained.

IMPORTANT CAUTION!—None are genuine unless the words "Holloway, New York and London" are discernible as a Water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot and box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

*Sold at the Manufactory of Professor Holloway, 50 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents, and 81 each. N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients (in every disorder are affixed to each box. There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes. Dealers in my well known medicines can have SHOW CARDS, CRUCIALS, &c., sent them, FREE OF EXPENSE, by addressing THOMAS HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New-York.
