MARIETTA : SATURDAY, AUGUST 8, 1863.

We this week enter upon the tenth year of "The Mariettian," and, we are happy to say, in good spirits, having been very successful, considering the pressing times, in obtaining "the needful ;" a large number, however, are still in arrears, but we are daily receiving remittances, and we expect soon to be beyond the reason for complaint .---So mote it be.

The First National Bank of Marietta is now fairly under way and every thing is going on satisfactorily. The officers are, in every respect, "the right men in the right place." The Cashier, Mr. Bowman, particularly, is quite a favorite, being intelligent, attentive and obliging.

CAPT. ALEX. N. SHIPLEY .- The New Oileans Era announces the promotion of Capt. A. Nash Shipley to a Brigadier Generalship of volunteers. Captain Shipley enlisted in Dauphin county as a common soldier. He has advanced regularly from one position to another, on the ground of real personal merit, until be has reached his present distinction. The honor is well bestowed, Lieut. Shipley resided a few years since in this borough: "Captain A. N. Shipley, of the United States army, and who is well and favorably known in this de-partment, has, we are happy to an-partment, has, and here the prise of the shall be in the jail of said county Dated at Lancaster, the 25th day of July 1852 Shipley resided a few years since in this nounce, been appointed a Brigadier General of volunteers, by General Emory, subject to the approval of the General commanding the department and of the President of the United States. General Shipley has been assigned to duty on the right bank of the river, and has already entered upon the discharge of his duties. He has been connected with the Quartermaster's Department. in this city, for the last few months, and has gained the respect and esteem of the public, by his prompt attention to business. He has now an honorable position by merit, he having been promoted from the ranks of the regular army for meritorious services. In appointing him to his present position, Gen. Emory has honored a worthy soldier, and we doubt not he will perform his duties in a very satisfactory and creditable manner."

PERSONAL .-- Captain Theodore D. Cochran died at the residence of his brother, Hon. Thomas E. Cochran, at. York, Pa., on Sunday the 26th ultimo, after a protracted illness. The deceased was well known in this community as a man of fine literary attainments. He edited the York Republican for a numher of years with marked ability. He also edited a paper in this city some | cellar below, and a fifteen or eighteen years ago, called the "Old Guard," and in the years 1845-6 represented Lancaster county in the State Legislature. He served as Lieatenant in the Mexican war, with distinguished gallantry, and at the breaking out of the Southern rebellion raised a company called the York Voltiguers, which was connected with Oolonel Zeigle's 16th Pennsylvania regiment, in the three months' service. He subsequent. ly was appointed a Captain in the 15th Regiment of Infantry, Regular Army, but in consequence of infirm health was obliged to resign .- Lancaster Examiner. THE COUNTY TREASURY .- The County Treasurer has been quite busy paying out the $2 per week, allotted by the County Commissioners to the three months' men. There are 11 companies and redemption thereof, approved February from the county the members of which 25th, 1863, and has complied with all the profrom this county the members of which are entitled to receive this money, but | some of the officers have not returned thoir muster-rolls properly certified to that the said the County Commissioners, and in consequence thereof, their men are for the present debarred from receiving it. As each of these companies will number at least 60 men, it will take over $1,300 per week to pay them the county allowance. If these men should stay out their full time, the late raid of-the First National Bank of Marietta. rabels will cost this county over $60,-000! Think of that you copperhead sympathizers of secession.-Lancaster Inquirer. The Harrisburg Telegraph says "it is stated, on good authority, that when the body of General Reynolds reached Lancaster word was sent, by one of his immediate relatives, to ex-President Buchanan not to be present at his funeral. To this we may add that the throng which attended the funeral of the gallant dead openly declared that "if the bypocrite Buchanan attempts to disgrace the cortege which follows a gallant hero to the grave with his presence, there would be two funer als instead of one.""

The drafted men from this county, we learn, are to be sent to the camp near Philadelphia. Col. Charles H. T. Collis, of the 114th Regiment, P. V. we understand, has been ordered to take command of the conscript camp.

Beane & Co. have just ordered a lot of Dr. Sweet's Liniment. This medicine has a wide spread reputation, and after mary solicitations for it, this firm has at length got it on sale. Try

S Brigadier General Andrew Porler has been relieved of the command of the rendezvous for drafted men in Philadelphia, and is to be succeeded by Brigadier General Hatch.

The Hanlen borough property will be offered for sale this evening at Funk's Cross Keys tavern. Read advertisement in another column.
