

The Mariettian.

MARIETTA, PA.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1863.

General News Items.

A gossip writes from Saratoga: "Mrs. Banks is not a handsome woman, but she is 'comely,' dresses well, and has wit as keen as her husband's sword. Some stupid fool ventured to ask her what she would do if the General was killed. 'Go and work for my living, as I did before I married him,' was the ready reply of the lady."

Mr. Dempster, the popular composer and ballad singer, was to leave Scotland for America in the course of August. He will give concerts in our principal towns and cities, introducing many new songs composed since his last visit.

It is reported that Mr. Mason will try to return to America on the Florida, having become convinced that it is useless for him to remain longer in Europe. What Stidell will do in the premises is not stated.

There are now 27,100 rebel prisoners in our hands. Of these, 11,000 are at Fort Delaware, and the rest in various forts in New York, Ohio and Indiana.

The walls which enclose the city of Havana, and which have stood since 1740, when they were completed, are being demolished, in order to admit a freer access of air, and a greater number and extent of thoroughfares.

Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson declines to be a candidate for re-election to the office of Attorney General of New York, on account of domestic considerations.

The Cincinnati Gazette says there will be no draft in Ohio under the present call. The quota is so small that it will be made up by volunteering.

Gen. Gilmore, conducting the attack on Charleston, is a native of Massachusetts, and is said to be one of the finest engineers in the world.

Notes of various denominations and in imitation of the Government greenbacks are in circulation. They purport to be on the Government Bank, which does not exist, are dated Washington, District of Columbia, November 16th, 1862, and signed J. Winslow, Cashier, and Harvey Patten, President. They are supposed to emanate from New York.

Seventeen conscripts from the French army in Bonaparte's time raised themselves by their bravery and talent to the following distinguished stations: Two became Kings; two Princes; nine Dukes; two Field Marshals and two Generals.

Gen. Fremont, it is stated, has succeeded in adjusting all the difficulties heretofore surrounding the Mariposa grant, and has settled all of his California business, which leaves him over a million and a half dollars' worth of property.

The London Spectator says that the audience at a Mormon meeting were astonished at seeing small white figures moving over the floor. A lady pocketed one of these objects, and found it to be a frog done up in white paper, with the intention of working upon the fears and superstitions of the credulous.

President Lincoln is still at the Old Soldiers' Home, but will take up his residence in town on the return of Mrs. Lincoln.

Surgeon General Hammond is virtually removed, as is also the case with the Assistant Surgeon General.

Instructions have been issued requiring that men charge with desertion, who belong to regiments whose terms have expired, if not able to clear themselves of the charge, shall be compelled to serve out the remainder of their term.

The United States despatch steamer Oleander, Capt. Dennis, has just arrived from Charleston, which she left on the 4th instant. Her officers report that Sumpter is perfectly demolished, but the rebel flag is still flying.

Francis J. Grund, recently editor of the Copperhead Age newspaper, from the error of whose ways he is self converted, will address the Germans of Philadelphia upon the duty of supporting the war, sustaining the Administration, and voting for the Republican State nominations.

The late Duke of Hamilton had his life insured for $500,000, probably the largest sum ever thus placed on the existence of a single individual.

Miss Mary Pierce recently died at New Haven, leaving about $120,000 as the result of industrious school teaching and judicious investment. Connecticut people of a former generation remember her as the proprietress of a young ladies' seminary at Litchfield.

Gen. Hooker has returned to Washington. It turns out that his visit west only extended as far as the country residence of a friend near Harrisburg. The rumor of his being sent to the Department to Missouri turns out to be groundless.

Gen. Martindale has issued an order that any officer or private in Washington, under medical treatment, if found in any place of amusement, shall be considered able to do duty, and ordered to report at the convalescent camp.

Lord Lyons, the British Minister at Washington, is on a visit to Canada.

A PIGMY CONSCRIPT.—The Pittsburg Chronicle of the 14th ultimo says: "We had a visit yesterday from an exceedingly interesting specimen of humanity named Lewis Greene, who was among those drafted in Monongalia township, Greene county, but who, from his extreme diminutiveness, was rejected by the board. Lewis is twenty-two years of age, yet is scarcely larger than a boy of eight, but far better made than any dwarf we have ever seen, and a vast deal more sprightly, intelligent, and interesting. After he was drawn he received his notice the same as other conscripts, and presented himself on Tuesday before the board of examination.—The provost marshal ordered his exemption on sight, whereupon he affected to be greatly disappointed, remarking, in a loud voice, that in rejecting him the board had 'refused a thorough-going Union man, and deprived the army of one of the best soldiers of the State.'"

ANOTHER TRAITOR GONE.—Colonel J. Knox Walker, a nephew of ex-President Polk, and his private secretary during that gentleman's administration, died at Memphis on the evening of the 11th ult. Early in the war Col. Walker crossed the rebel cause, and was active in raising a regiment, which he commanded for some time. Of late years he has been given to excessive dissipation, which so unstrung his system that before his death he was left almost a wreck. At the time of his decease he was about fifty years' old. He died a traitor and a sot.

RESTORATION OF DECOMPOSED BODIES.—The human body, in so advanced a state of decomposition as to be entirely unrecognizable, can now be restored by chemical means as to present an almost completely natural appearance. The process was lately practiced with success in London, in the case of a body found in the Thames, which was suspected to be that of an escaped murderer, who had committed suicide. After the body had been subjected to the new process, the witnesses were able to swear that he was not the supposed murderer.

Among the slain in Gen. Sibley's expedition was Lieut. John Beaver, a wealthy Englishman, a graduate of Oxford, and formerly an officer on the staff of Lord Raglan. He had come from England on a buffalo hunt in the Northwest, and took a nominal position upon Gen. Sibley's staff to gratify his taste of adventure. Sent on a reconnoitering service, he was caught in ambuscade and shot down with iron-headed arrows, the savages scalping him and hacking off one side of his head while yet alive.—He leaves a splendid yacht and a large library in New York.

During the riot in Troy, Morissey, the prize-fighter, actually took part against the rioters. The mob attacked the Troy House, and demanded that the negro waiters should be given up to them; but, says a reporter, they "were informed by Morissey that the negroes had all left, but himself, and he was at their service if they desired." This Hibernicism closed the parley. The mob concluding, no doubt, that Morissey was able to "serve out" any of them, retired.

Bryant, Stratton & Co.'s Philadelphia Commercial College is becoming more and more popular every day; and since the proprietors have recently combined in their course actual business practice, with the theory of accounts, as taught by them with unbounded success for many years; it is very evident that a course of study at this mercantile-training school would be eminently beneficial to any young man, whether he be farmer, merchant or mechanic. Young men should appreciate this fact and act accordingly.

The demand for mechanics in Indianapolis, says the Journal, far exceeds the supply. Many as are the improvements now being made, the number would be much greater if workmen were to be had. Good carpenters, plasterers, and indeed almost every kind of mechanics, can get plenty of work and good wages. Mills, foundries, and factories are constantly turning off work because there are not hands enough to enable them to fill the orders.

John Ward, Esq., of the English civil service in India, son of the British Minister resident at Hamburg, has just arrived in Washington to take as his bride Miss Gerolt, the oldest daughter of the Minister of Prussia. The engagement originated in Europe, when they were almost children.

The citizens of Pittsburg have telegraphed the authorities of Leavenworth that they will furnish homes and education to fifty of the children made orphans by Quantrell and gang in their recent raid. Should the offer be accepted, all the expenses of transfer, &c., will be paid by the Pittsburgers.

The Legislature of Minnesota having granted the volunteers from that State the privilege of voting for State officers, the War Department has issued an order permitting Commissioners from that State to visit the army for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the act.

A REMARKABLE VETERAN.—The St. Louis Republican of the 29th ult. says: "We saw yesterday a regular old veteran of a warrior and patriot. His name is John T. C. McCaffrey. He was raised in Knoxville, Tennessee, is seventy-three years old, and has had fifteen sons and three daughters. Eleven sons were in the Union army until the siege of Vicksburg, where four of them were killed. The old man himself enlisted in the 10th Illinois at Fayetteville, Arkansas, over a year ago, and was lately discharged. He served eight months in the Florida war, twelve months under Gen. Jackson, thirty months in the Mexican war, and twelve months in the present war. He has three brothers and three step-sons now in the Union army. We tell the tale as he, with every semblance of perfect truth told it to us."

On Thursday of last week a person named George Chase, a deserter, while trying to escape from a deputy of Provost Marshal Campbell, of the Erie district, was shot dead by the officer, near the residence of his mother, in that county. He had hired himself out as a substitute some two or three times, and had deserted as often, and the officer performed a clear duty in acting as he did. Perhaps the example made of this case may have a salutary effect in deterring others from a similar course.

A conscript can do one of five things. 1st. He can report for service. 2d. He can pay $300 to the collector of the district, and present his receipt to the enrolling officer, which will secure his discharge. 3d. He can get a substitute. 4th. He can be examined by a government surgeon and be exempted on physical grounds. 5th. He can skedaddle. The latter expedient is not "according to Hoyle," and has an unhealthy tendency, as the fugitive runs the risk of being overhauled and having his hair combed awfully the wrong way.

Hon. Edward Everett has written a letter to the Union Convention at Springfield, Illinois, urging the duty of all loyal men to aid in the vigorous prosecution of the war for the great objects of suppressing the rebellion and restoring a permanent peace.

About fourteen hundred wounded still remain at Gettysburg. A large number of them are cases of compound fracture of thigh. It is expected that in the course of the present month all the patients will be removed, and the hospital broken up.

Edward Lloyd, Esq., a wealthy Welchman, well known on the London Stock Exchange, blew his brains out in despair at losses by the Confederate loan. The Providence Journal presumes that he had more bonds than brains.

A Scottish advocate, who in his broad Scotch pronounced the word "water," being asked in court by the Chancellor, if he spelled water with two t's, replied, "No, my lord, but I spell manners with two n's."

"Why should we allow every species of character to vote, that may light on our shores."—Woodward's Speech.

A brother of the late Gen. Lyon was drafted at Eastford, Connecticut, last week.

WE CHALLENGE THE WORLD! To produce a preparation so eminently harmless, so generally approved, and so perfect in its operation as "CHRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE." It corrects the injurious effects of other dyes, invigorates the Hair, is applied in a simple manner, operates instantaneously, does not stain the skin and its tints are the COUNTERFEITS OF NATURE. Manufactured by J. CRISTADORO, 6 Astor House, New-York. Sold everywhere, and applied by all Hair Dressers.

DR. TOBIAS' VENETIAN LINIMENT, a certain cure for pains and aches and warranted superior to any other. Croup it positively cures; relief is absolutely sure immediately after it is used. Mothers remember this, and arm yourselves with a bottle without delay. Croup is a disease which gives no notice, frequently attacking a child in the dead hour of night, before a physician can be summoned and then may be too late. Remember the Venetian Liniment never fails. Price 25c and 50c a bottle. Sold by all druggists. Office, 56 Courtland-st., N. Y. [S-1m]

A Gentleman, cured of Nervous Debility, Incompetency, Premature Decay, and Youthful Error, actuated by a desire to benefit others, will be happy to furnish to all who need it, (free of charge) the recipe and directions for making the simple Remedy used in his case. JOHN B. OGDEN, No. 6 Nassau Street, New York. Aug. 12-3m.]

Soldiers, to the Rescue!—Young men, rushing into the exposures and dangers of a Soldier's life, should prepare themselves for the fatal fevers, the dysentery, the sores and scurvy, which are almost certain to follow.—Holloway's Pills, used occasionally during the campaign, will insure sound health to every man. Only 25 cents per box. 214.

Universal Clothes Wringer.

No. 1.—Large Family Wringer. $10.00
No. 2.—Medium " " 7.00
No. 3.—Small " " 5.50
No. 4.—Large Hotel Wringer. 14.00
No. 5.—Medium Laundry (to run by) 18.00
No. 22.—Large Laundry, (to run by) 30.00
Nos. 21 and 23 have no Cogs—all others are warranted.
*No. 2 is the size generally used in private families.
Orange Judd, of the American Agriculturist, says of it:
"The Universal Clothes Wringer:

"A child can readily wring out a tubful of clothes in a few minutes. It is really a clothes sizer. A Time Saver! The saving of garments will alone pay a large per centage on its cost. We think the machine much more than pays for itself every year in the saving of garments! There are several kinds, nearly alike in general construction, but we consider it important that the Wringer be fitted with Cogs, otherwise a mass of garments may clog the rollers, and the rollers upon the crank shaft slip and tear the clothes, or the rubber break loose from the shaft. Our own is one of the first make, and it is as good as new after nearly four years constant use."

Every Wringer with Cog Wheels is warranted in every particular. No Wringer can be durable without Cog-wheels. A good Canvasseer wanted in every town. On receipt of the price from places where no one is selling, we will send the Wringer free of expense. For particulars and circulars, address R. C. BROWNING, 247 Broadway, New-York. August 15, 1863.-6m.]
