SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 1863.

On Thursday morning last we met an agreeable surprise in the unexpected Mr. Thomas Sowerby, for several years the obliging pharmaceutist in Dr. Hinkle's drug store. Mr. S. left here about see Col. Clark run ahead of the ticket three years since for Port Gibson, to in this borough. engage in business, having resided there once before, but after the breaking out of the war he was conscripted and had to go-no $300 exemption for Jeff. Davis ... and was made Sergt. Major of the Regiment. After seeing hard service for over a year, he was taken prisoner in a skirmish near Vicksburg and bro't to Camp Chase, Cincinnati, and there took the oath of allegiance, and is now once more in the "land of the free."-Mr. S. says the people of the north cannot form any idea of the complete devastation and utter ruin which this rebellion has brought upon the south.

Dr. Hinkle arrived home on Saturday evening last. Whilst probingwith his finger-the shattered ankle of a wounded soldier, at the Jarvis Hospital, Baltimore, some two weeks since, his finger received a slight scratch, just sufficient to start blood, to which the Doctor paid no immediate attention, but went on amputating the limb. On the following morning, however, the finger. hand, wrist and arm became so frightfully and painfully swollen, as to alarm the Doctor and confine him to his bed until a day or two before he came home. He is now, however, convalescing and expects to return to to the scene of his usefulness in a short time.

We regret to learn that Mr. Jacob Roth, of Marietta, has received intelligence of the death of his son, Albert Roth, which took place at Memphis. He was buried on the 16th of August. The deceased was a member of one of the Iowa regiments which participated in the gallant campaign under Gen. Grant, and he was highly esteemed by all who knew him. His early death will be mourned by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. - Lancaster

A week or ten days since, we had U. S. Navy. He looks remarkably well stain the skin and its tints are the after having spent some ten months in the Gulf of Mexico and before New Orleans. His vessel is now undergoing repairs, which done, the Doctor will again be on the "briny deep."

There were other applicants but failed in qualifications. The Board will hold an examination of the lowest class in the High School, at the close of the first month, and if there are any in the Secondary schools who have made the required advancement, they will have an opportunity to enter that examination, and if found qualified they will be transferred. If any who are members of the class now fail to advance with the class.

We congratulate the Board upon this wise plan; it will not only have a tendency of causing the pupils to retain make use of it in the presence of the Board), but it will cause regular attendance of those in that class.

such will again he transferred to the

In our last we urged the importance all the schools opened with nearly all the pupils in attendance. Now let this good beginning make a good end, by having a regular attendance throughout the entire term. Parents, will you see to this? If you have a little work for Sallie or for Charlie, do not retain them from school; five days in a week shouldbelong to the pupil at school. More discouragement is often given to pupils by retaining them out of school, than by assigning them difficult lessons.

MARIETTA, September 14, 1863. Friend Baker: Some time since, you made an expression through your paper that Col. J. W. Clark was a going to be a Poor Director. Now your patrons would like to know what you mean by a Poor Director? Is he poor in purse perform the duties of his office? Please explain in your next and oblige your friend. JOHN COYLE.

Certainly, we will explain. We meant to have said that Col. Clark would make an intelligent Director of the Poor. We are glad to find Marietta to have "pop-in" of our old and valued friend, at least one representative on the excellent county ticket offered the Union voters of this county, and we hope to

The Unibersal Clothes Wringer: "A child can readily wring out a tubfull of clothes in a few minutes. It is really a clothes saver! A Time Saver! The saving of garments will alone pay a large per centage on its cost. We think the machine much more than pays for itself every year in the saving of garments! There are several kinds, nearly alike in general construction, but we consider it important that the Wringer be fitted with Cogs, otherwise a mass of garments may close Cogs, otherwise a mass of garments may clog the rollers, and the rollers upon the crank shaft slip and tear the clothes, or the rubber break loose from the shaft. Our own is one of the first make, and it is as good as new after nearly four years constant use."
