An Judependent Pennsylbauia Journal : Deboted to Politics, Literature, Igriculture, Rews of the Day, Local Intelligence, &c. STURDAY, ULTON

rrettix

BY FRED'K L. BAKER.

Not Alcoholic.

A Highly Concentrated Vegetable Extract.

A PURE TONIC.

DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS. PREPARED BY DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHIL'A, PA.

WILL effectually cure Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, chronic or nervous Debility, diseases of the Kidneys, and bad dis-Debility, discasses of the Kidneys, and bad dis-eases arising from a disordered Liver or Stom-ach. Such as Constipation, inward Piles, tul ness or blood to the head, acidity of the Stom-ach, Nausea, Heartburn, disgust for food, ful-ness or weight in the stomach, sour Eructations, sinking or fluttering at the pit of the Stomach, swimming of the Head, hurried and difficult Breathing, fluttering at the Heart, choking or sufficient generations when is a lying nosture. suffocating sensations when in a lying posture, dimness of Vision, dots or webs before the Sight, fever and dull pain in the Head, defi-Sight, lever and dull pain in the Head, defi-ciency of Perspiration, yellowness of the Skin and Eyes pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., sudden Aushes of Heat, burning in the Flesh, constant imaginings of Evil, and grief, depression of Spirits. And will positively prevent Yellow Fever, Billious Fever &c.— They contain no Alchohol or bad Whisky.— They will CORE the above discasses in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred. The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent Clerrymen, Lawyeus.

from the most eminent Clergymen, Lawyers, Physicians, and Citizens, testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

fects and medical virtues of these Bitters. Do you want something to strengthen you? Do you want a good appetite? Do you want to build up your constitution? Do you want to feel well? Do you want to get rid of Ner-vousness? Do you want energy? Do you want to sleep well? Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling? If you do, use HOOFLAND's German Bitters. PARTCULAR, NOTICE.—There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapeat whisky or common run, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Aujse or Cornander Seed. This class of Bitters has caused and will con-tinue to cause, as long as they can be sold, tinue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard.-By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of alchoholic stimulants of the worst kind, the desure for liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt Get one bottle of Hoofland's Bitters and mix with three quarts of good brand's bitters and mix with three quarts of good brandy or whisky, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Lquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's litters in connection with a good stride of linear at a connection with a good article of liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you. ATTENTION SOLDIERS! We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "Hoofland's German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the disease Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposues and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large pro-portion are sufficing from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofdand's German Enters. Diseases result-ing from disorders of the discription core as a

OUR WAR CORRESPONDENCE. IS PUBLISHED EVERY SATURDAY, AT

The Mariettian

War times.

DR. LACROIX'S PRIVATE

MEDICAL TREATISE.

HEAD QUARTERS 107th Regt. P. V. 1 Rappahannock Station, Va. September, 9, 1863. One Bollar a-pear; Pagable in adhance. Col. F. L. Baker :- Some time has OFFICE: CBULL's Row, Front Street, five doors below Flury's Hotel. xpired since I have addressed you by letter : however, if there was a long in-TERMS, One Dollar a vear, payable in ad-TERMS, One Dollar a vear, payable in ad-vance, and if subscriptiors be not paud within six months $1.25 will be charged, but if, de-layed until the expiration of the year, $1.50 will be charged. ADVERTISING RATES: .One square (12 lines, or less) 50 cents for the first insertion and 25 cents for each subsequent insertion. Pro-fessional and Business cards, of six lines or less at $3 per annum. Notices in the reading col-umns, five cents a-line. Mairiages and Deaths, the simple announcement, FREE; but for any additional lines, five cents a line. A liberal deduction made to yearly and half yearly advertisers. rest assured; Colonel, that if I had the my friends at home, through "The Mariettian;" but as I have had command ycarly advertisers. Having recentled added a large lot of new Wolunteers, since July 2d, and a regi-Job and Card type, Cuts, Börders, &c., to the Job Office of "The Mariettian," which will insure the fine execution of all kinds of Jos & ment after such a conflict for four days, as the 107th was engaged in at Gettys-CARD PRINTING, from the smallest Card to the largest Poster, at prices to suit the burg, involved duties upon me of a military character, and employed my time greatly-which I could not employ writing to my friends. And even in this attempt, I cannot say whether I will be able to finish, or get through On the Physiological Views of Marriage with my communication, as I have plen-250 PAGES AND 130 ENGRAVINGS. ty of work on hands to-day, for to-mor-PRICE only 25 cents. Sent free of postage to all parts of the Union. On the infirmities of youth and maturity, disclosing the secret fol-lies of both sexes of ages, causing debility, nervousness, depression of spirit, palpitation of the heart, suicidal imaginings, involuntary emissions, blushings, defective memory, indi-gestion and lassitude, with confessions of thrilling interest of a Boarding School Miss, a College Student, and a Young Married Lady, 4c., 4c. It is a truthful adviser to the married and those contemplating marriage, who enter-tain secret doubts of their physical condition, and who are conscious of having hazarded the health, happiness, and privileges to which every human being is entitled. YOUNG MEN who are troubled with weakness, generally caused by a bad habit in youth, the effects of which are dizziness, pains, forvetfulness, sometimes a ringing in PRICE only 25 cents. Sent free of postage to row is our grand and general inspection day; and a rigid one it will be for officers and men-any neglect will not be excused. We are now encamped on the banks of the. Rappahaenock river, at the Station, a place that has become famous, and extensively made known through the press; certainly not on account of its beauty, and locality, but on account of the different actions having taken place, &c.; and as a military point. In the breaking out of this rebellion, the rebels made their strongpoins, forretfulness, sometimes a ringing in the ears, weak eyes, weakness of the back and lower extremities, confusion of ideas, loss of memory, with melancholy, may be cured by the author's new Paris and London Treatold at Manasses, but at the same time for the purpose of keeping open their ine of communication, they did not neglect this place, and considered it as We have, recently devoted much of our time in visiting the European Hospitals, svall-ing ourselves of the knowledge and researches of the most skillful Physicians and Surgeons in Europe and the Continent. Those who place themselves under our care will now have the full benefit of the many new and df-ficacious Remedies which we are enabled to introduce into our practice, and the public may rest assured of the same zeal, assiduity, SECRECY and attention being paid to their cases, which has so successfully distinguished us heretofore, as a Physician an our PECULIAR department of professional Practice, for the We have, recently devoted much of our department of professional Practice, for the past twenty-five years. FRENCH FEMALE PILTS:-Ladies who wish for Medicines, the efficacy of which has been tested in thousands of cases, and never failed to effect speedy cures without any bad re-

MARIETTA, PA., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1863. reinforced by nearly the whole 1st corps, and entrenched, and ready to receive them. On the 9th, our brigade was ordered to re-cross, and we are now encamped on the north side of the river, but extend our picket lines on the south side, making in this move our third time would be if the friends of the soldiers could pay them visits while here, occaclose by the railroad, and somewhat prepared to receive friends-but visits cannot be made. The Reserves lie close by at present. 'I was to see Col. Fisher and others of my friends on last Sunday evening, showed him the Union ticket as settled in Lancaster county, and he was pleased with it : so am I.-A ticket formed with such material gives credit to the Convention, and the delegates to show their loyalty in support of the Government, the Administration, and the Union, placed at the head of the ticket a man, the very emone of great importance, in case they bodiment of patriotism, the Hon. Benj. had to fall back, they threw up breast- Champneys ;--where is the man whose works, which we eventually used against | heart beats a loyal impulse that could them. Our Division, the 2d of the 1st not vote for him ? His colleague, Dr. Army Corps, appears to have become J. M. Dunlap, and all the rest of the identified with this place ; though many men placed upon the ticket are worthy miles away to participate in different the support of all loyal men. and I hope conflicts, the movements of the military they will all be successful; could we chess board brings as again and again vote, there is not a man from the county to this point, viz. : On the 19th day of in our regiment but what would support August, 1862, by a forced march from the ticket ; for here in the army we only the right of Cedar Mountain, (Slaugh | know men as loyal or disloyal; the lat ter's Mountain) made this point in ter are not recognized as men; but as

145th Psalm was read; afterwards the 18th, 1863, to the proper department President's Proclamation, which was of for future reference. In this I must not a truly christian character, and the pass unnoticed the Patriot Daughters clause referring to giving "honor and of Laucaster county-for their great ef praise to Him whom it belongs" was forts in doing good, and rendering effiprincipally used as a text and dwelt cient service in the great cause of the upon by the speakers; the occasion was country. The 104th N. Y. Volunteers tervening space, I hope our friendship grand and imposing-lying in the face is attached to our brigade; they reis still the same as in former days; but of the enemy-yet due respect was paid ceived their initiative with us, at Oedar by our brigade to the day as set apart, Mountain, they have participated with time, from other duties devolved upon and supplications offered to the "Giver us at Rappahannock, Thoroughiare, Gap, me, I would give a brief detail (such as of all good," for our success, prosperity, Bull Bun, Chantilly, South Mountain, would not be contraband to publish) of peace of country, and a happy future. Antietam, Fredericksburg, Chancellorour doings in the army semi-monthly, to On the 7th, the enemy advanced and ville and Gettysburg; as soon as they began to shell our line of pickets, but crossed the Pennsylvania line, up went in this move they received more than cheer after cheer for the Old Keystone. of the 107th Regiment, Pennsylvania they bargained for, being obliged to fall with an determination that the rebels back in disorder to their base near Cul. must be driven from its, soil; and their pepper, not thinking our brigade was conduct on the 1st, 2d, 3d and 4th Jays of July, in battle, confirmed their determination ; the regiment suffered; their wounded were placed in a hospital about four, miles: from the town; they were in want of the necessaries, of the and comfort; fortunately that hospital and the wants of the suffering was supfor here, within one year, but the posi. plied by the Patriot Daughters. When tion is important. How cheering it the wounded and sick were informed that these comforts had been furnished by the Patriot Daughters of Lancassionally. Our camps are beautiful, and ter county, tears of gratitude could be seen standing in the eyes of these bronzed veterans. Three cheers were given of God bless the Patriot Daughters of Liancaster county, for their act of kindness and help. Dr. Ward, their Chaplain, then offered up a prayer, in which he kindly remembered the Daughters; asking God's blessing for them, and for Him to crown their efforts in the good work they have undertaken for the comforts of the soldier, and as a reward for their services in the righteous cause of humanity, they might enjoy a blessed immortality bereafter. I felt that I was from Lancaster county, and such heart-felt expressions from strangers in praise of the ladies of my county, made me feel doubly proud. The daughters' work is developing itself; many suffering soldiers are made comfortable and buoyant with the oil and food of kindness sent by those ministering angels among them. It is the soldier that can duly appreciate, their works-and may they never be found wanting .: Our weather is very warm and dry at present. The boys from our town are all Cure "It is neither new nor wonderful, welliand ready for any emergency." I for it is as old as the deluge, when, in understand many of my personal friends | my opinion, it killed more than it cured. made a visit to the great "Battle-field for the Union ; all acquaint themselves of Gettysburg." The army had moved before they arrived; and I missed the gan. Only a rather distant one-he pleasure of seeing them. I have also stole a horse of ours a few weeks ago, been informed there were from East Donegal, two or three rebel sympathizers along: those should have been in the rebel ranks, where they belong, on the third day, when the enemy tried to force through our centre. There is nothing so detestable as a rebel sympathizer; and are only considered by the those who have more of either than they army as dastardly and cowardly dregs know how to use. of society, which could not in a thousand years with lever and fulcrum be raised to the level of a villain, for their meanness in asking the protection and care from a Government which they choose to destroy. I am also sorry to state, that many farmers, and heretofore honest thinking men, for the sake of saving the almighty dollar, and their sons from the draft, they will assist a policy blindly, and cry for a peace, at the sacrifice, or at any cost or destruction of the Government, in order to weaken the Administration and carry out disloyal purposes, of political tricksters, for the present; should their pos terity be the victims of a worse fate by a dishonorable peace hereafter, I hope such will well consider the mark before too late, and become firm friends of the Union, and use, for their watch. word, "No peace with traitors in arms, but an unconditional surrender of all; to the mighty power of Uccle Sam," Your friend, &c., Sa them, its TALL STATE D. ROATH. Captain Commanding 107th P. V. TA certain minister at Appleton, Wisconsin, in a sermon, made the following comparison in dissecting the miser-"The soul of a miser is so shrive eled that it would have more room 'to play in a grain of mustard seed than a A number of, bachelors, over thirty-five, were drafted in Providence. On being laughed at for not being married, and thereby escaping the draft, they maliciously replied : . "It is better to serve three years than for life to diver but 'tis only a question of time." su the

Louisville Journalisms It is a fact tuat the leaders of the rebellion have actually appointed a commission in East Tennessee to accompany. the agents of the conscription and examine the women to ascertain whether they are not men in disguise. A commission should be appointed to cut open the paunches of such scoundrels and examine their entrails to see whether they have the forms of men inside as well as outside. La in Caratara

VOL. 10.--NO. 10.

المالال في المالية المناطقة المناطقة المالية المالية المالية المالية المالية المالية المالية المالية المالية ا We hope that our folks will soon get thousand-pounder upon Morris-Island. Then, if they catch Humphrey Marshall, they can set fire to his big coat and preeches and shoot him into Gharleston; so that the rebels who have such a horror of fire of Ancient Greece, may see whether they like the fire of modern grease any better. We don't think they would profit by such a change of blazing "stinkpots."

It is said that Edward Lloyd, a wealthy Welshman, well known on the London stock exchange, blew his brains out in despair at losses by the Confederate loan. We don't belive a word of it. If Mr. Lloyd dabbled in tha rebel loan, he may have shattered his skull with a pistol, but he didn't blow out a particle of brains.

A letter-writer denies that General Rosecrans swears. Certainly that gallant officer never swears profanely, but we guess, that, when he knows a man to be a "damned scoundrel, he doesn't long hesitate to say so."

Let the Federal armies succeed in. the battles now evidently pending, and nothing will be left of the rebellion but the bleeding, torn-out spider-legs of the mangled tarantula.

More beautiful than Apollo is the, soldier, lying face forward on the battlefield, grimed with powder and smeared, with blood, if for a sacred cause he. dared to die."

A rebel needn't be ashamed of inability to pay his debts. What he calls his "country" is hopelessly insolvent, and what right has he to be better off than his country? end on Ast the lot of ing from disorders of he digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

Charles Lamb's opinion of the Water

We call the particular attention, to the following remarkable and well authenticate, cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life to use his language, "has been saved by the PHILADELPHIA, August 23d, 1862. Messrs, Jones & Evens, -- Well, gentleman, your Hoofland's German Bitters have saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is youched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who are fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Cap-tain R. B. Ayres. Through the 'exposure at-tendant upon my arduous duties, I was attack-ed in November last with inflamation of the burgs and was for sevenity two dows in the In November last which innamation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysectary. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the Steamer "State of Maine," itoru which liandel on the 28th, the sector that time I have been set that of June. Since that time 1 have been about as low as any one could and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more 1 was acarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsal down, it was immediately thrown up again.

thrown up again. I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances: and, accordingly, the physi-cians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully to reacue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposi-tion of my limitel funds as best suited me. tal, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the An acquaintance who visited me at the hospi-From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shado a of death receded, and I am new, thank God for it, getting better. Tho' I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being per-mitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have beard mathing for elighters whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months: for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virgin-ian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To vilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life Very truly yours. In the CMALONE. We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health. John Cuddleback, 1st New York Battery. George A. Ackley, Co. C., 11th Maine. Lewis Chevalier, 92d New York.

I. E. Spencer, 1st Artillery, Battery F. J. B. Fasewell, Co. B, 3d Vermont. J. B. Fasewell, Co. B. 3d Vermont. Henry B. Serome, Co. B. do. Henry T. Macdouald, Co. C. 6th Maine. John F. Ward, Co. E. 5th Maine. Nathaniei B. Thomas, Co. F., 95th Penn. John Jenkins, Co. B. 106th Penn. Beware of counterfeits ! See that the sig-nature of "C. M. Jackson," is on the wrapper of each bottle. Price per bottle 75 cents, or half dozen for #4.00.

half dozen for $4 00.

Should your nearest druggist not have the article, do not be put off by any of the intoxi-"ating preparations that may be offered in its place, but send to us, and we will forward,

Becurely packed, by express. Principal Office and Manufactory, No. 631 ARCH STREET. IONES & EVANS, to C. M

sults, will use none but Dr. Delanev's Fesuits, will use none but Dr. Dethiey's Fe-male Periodical 'Pills. The, only precation necessary to be observed is, ladies should not take them if they have reason to believe they are in certain situations (the particulars of which will be found on the wrapper accomwhich will be found on the wrapper accom-panying each, box,) though always safe and healthy, so gentle, yet so active are they. Price $1 per box. They can be mailed to any pait of the United States or Canada. To THE LADIES—Who need a confidentia.

medical adviser with regard to any of those interesting complaints to which their delicate organization renders them liable, are particularly invited to consult us. THE " ELECTRO-GALVANIC PROTECTIVE."

For matried ladies whose health will not admit, or who have no desire to increase their families, may be obtained as above. It is a perfectly suie preventive to conception, and has been extensively used during the last 20 years. Price reduced to $10.

THE SECRET OF YOUTH UNVEILED.

A Treatise on the Cause of Premature Decay- A solemn warning. Just published, a book showing the insidious progress and prevalence among the instants progress and pre-valence among schools, [both male and fe-male.] of this fatal habit, pointing out the fatality that invariably attends its uctims, and developing the whole progress of the disease, from the commencement to the end. It will be sent by Mail on receipt of two [3 cent Stamps. Attendance daily, from 8 in the morning til 9 at night, and on Sundays from 2 till 5 P. M. Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the United States or Canadas, by papart of the United States of Canadas, by pa-tients communicating their symptoms by letter. Business correspondence strictly confidential. IF Dr. L's Office is still located as establish-ed under the name of DR. LACROIX, at No. 13 Maiden Lane, Albany, N. Y.

The Glatz Ferry.

Formerly Keesey's, OPPOSITE MARIETTA.

THIS old Ferry-one of the oldest and most I safe crossings on the Susquehanna River-is now in charge of the undersigned, who has refitted the old and built new boats, which will enable him to do ferrying with safety and dis. patch. No unnecessary delay need be endured. Sober and experienced Ferrymen always engaged. No imposition in charges as the fol-lowing list will show :

Farm Wagons, each $1:00 Horses, per head :25 Single horse and rider, :25 Two-horse Carriage and two persons, 1:00 Buggy, horse and two persons, :50 Foot Passengers, each, :12 Stock of all kinds at the old charges. :25 All Luggage over fifty pounds, 25 cents per 100 pounds extra. JOHN ECKERT.

July 15, 1863.

RESPECTFULLY offers his prolessional services to the citizens of Marietta and vicinity, assuring them that all operations in-trusted to his care, either in Operative or Metrusted to his care, either in Operative or Me-chanical Dentistry, will be executed in a tho-roughly scientific manner. OFFICE: On Main street, a few doors west of the Post Office. [v9-35-19.

JEWELRY.-A large and selected stock of fine jewelry of the latest patterns from the best factories in the country can be found at . H. L. & E. J. ZAHM'S.

Vackson & Co.,) Proprietors. All dealers in caster, Pa. Our prices are moderate and all dent, was properly observed, with re-ligious exercises in our brigade. The twelve hours, a distance of tweaty-three base deceivers to the country that gave miles, in excessive heat and dust. On them birth. Never was there such an the 23d day the enemy attacked us; intelligent army in the field, as our army they gained nothing, but lost severely, (we at this time used the works built with affairs of government at home, as by them,) and never considered their well as with military tactics in the field. but within the last few days, while on, duty as brigade officer of the picket, on the other side of the river, 1 became. more acquainted with their battle ground and position, and from the appearance of bursted ordnance, shot and shell, of nearly every description lying around, and from information I gleaned from negroes, their loss was great. Several skirmishes have taken place since withour turn came again ; we were marched night. On the first day of August last, ready for a march at 3 o'clock,-the men not thinking that a crossing was to be effected that day by our brigade, the with some cavalry under Buford; the enemy's pickets, cavalry and infantry, were close to the water on the other side. Aprominent position was assigned me for the 107th regiment, (Colonel Lyle, of the 90th Penn. Vols. command. ing the brigade,) I was ordered to move. with the regiment under cover of woods, towards the extreme right of the line. also having a detachment of sharpshooters given me along, and as soon as I reach a certain point, I was to remain under cover until firing would commence, which was the signal for crossing ; then run out by a left flank and take possession of a rifle pit close by the river and hold it, which I did, throwing my sharpshooters on my right to a safe and important point, so that they could work with more efficiency and deadly aim .-

loss great, as ours was so very light; always well posted; and it is generally known in the army who stands by the Government (in localities) and assists in suppressing the rebellion. Would all have risen in the North as one man, in support of the Administration, the poor soldiers at this time could be at home, enjoying the sweets of society and comforts with their families and friends.-Let the sympathizer, consider that on him rests the responsibility for so much the enemy by our cavalry; and at last desolation, bloodshed, sorrowful grief. and so many vacant seats in the family here in the latter part of July after circle. On his forehead already rests the mark of Cain; and a just retribution according to orders, we were in line awaits him; "Sorrowful are the ways of the transgreesor before a just tribunal." On the 28th day of August, at the sword presentation to General Meade only force here at that time of infantry, I had the pleasure of seeing several distinguished gentlemen from Pennsylvania: His Excellency Gov. A. G. Curtin, Adjt. Gen. Russell, Col. Wright, Morton McMichael, J. W. Forney, and others; and permit me here to add, it is remarkable how the soldier's heart beats for Gov. Curtin ; he is their friend. -they know at present no political lines-but if they could get the chance to vote, they would, like the mighty and dreadful avalanche, sweep everything before them, and with an overwhelming majority proclaim A. G. Curtin, Governor elect for Pennsylvania. The great Army of the Potomac appreciates his services, all feel his fostering care ; no sick or wounded man from whatever State, but knows that after battle, it is his greatest pleasure to go forth, soothe his sufferings, encourage the living, and The enemy soon gave way, our cavalry contribute to the burial of the dead, all with their artillery in pursuit, overtaking speak alike of him, and all wish him them at "Brandy Station," and with a God speed.

hand to hand conflict; paid them with Col., for fear of getting my letter too Uncle Sam's compliments, such as every lengthy I will be brief as possible : as I traitor deserves-death ; but I presume have a correct diary, I may at a future you all had a full detail of the fight on time take up our campaigns and doings the 1st of August; suffice it to say the of the Army of the Potomac in regular enemy was badly whipped. Our whole order for publication, for the gratificabrigade crossed over on a pontoon tion of my personal friends, in this on bridge, located ourselves rightly, and some points I have merely given a passentrenched. On the 6th the National ing notice ; though by general order, I fast day as set apart by our noble Presiwas obliged, as commander of the 107th. ligious exercises in our brigade. The its doings, &c., from June 28th to July wou't be crowded after such a repast.

to give a full and complete history of to eat fried onions for dinner. You

A correspondent asks if there isn't a relationship between us and John Mor-

It is suggested that after Gen. Gilmore's operations at Charleston, it will be well to substitute the Parrot in place . of the Eagle as the National Bird.

Money and time are life's heaviest burdens; the unhappiest of mortals are

Many a one no more thinks of carrying his religious faith into his countinghouse than of wearing a life-preserver in his parlor. At a both deans the deal of If the wicked flourish, and, you, suffer.

be not discouraged. Perhaps they are fatted for destruction, and you dieted. for health. marthe file 1 - tom

The Richmond Whig calle General Meade "an .ass." We suppose it will call General Gilmore a Sympter-mule. A thrifty husband cradles his wheat or cribs his corn while the thrifty wife ribs or cradles the babies and shaw He that has no friend and no enemy is one of the vulgar, without talents, powers, or energy.

Mere bashfolness without merit is swkward; and merit without modesty is insolent, besterned a construction of the The Carmelite monks have their heads? shaved, but, they wouldn't acknowledge !! John Morgan as a brother. But to alise of Life is a series of surprises, and would not be worth taking or keeping if ift?? were not. Tis said that figures can't the but figures of speech seldom ide anything else, was es squeis" equinits the in the

Not only commission makes a sin. A man is guilty of all the sins he hates not.

The whisky, that is drunk generally turns out to be a spew-rious article. "What o'clock is it ?" "I don't knew, room in a railroad car, you have only of patron-age and post age. He is a strong man who can hold down his own opinion