SATURDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1863.

The Two Tickets.—In order that no one may confound the two tickets, we again present them both. Let every patriotic voter spare the touch of the second one as he would see from the hiss of a copperhead snake. The "Old Guard," will, we are certain, make a record on Tuesday next of which she will ever be proud:

We clip the above from the Germantown Telegraph, published near the residence of Capt. S.'s father, E. F. Shoemaker, Esq. The young Captain had quite a number of friends in this borough, where he spent eight or ten years of his life.

Captain Morris D. Wickersham who was reported to have been wounded in the late Georgia battles, now turns out to be untrue. Major M. M. Locher saw him after the battle and he was unhurt; Capt. Wickersham was not with his Regiment in the battle, and had not been with it for some months previous to that time. He was for some time Acting Brigade Quartermaster for Gen. Starkweather's Brigade, but was promoted to the Quartermastership of Gen. Rousseau's Division.

By some unforeseen mishap we placed chapter Nine of "Before and After Marriage" in the hands of the compositor, instead of chapter Six, and did not discover the error until about to go to press with the outside—too late to rectify for this week's paper. Chapter VI will appear in our next, and chapters VII, VIII, IX, X, which will conclude the series.

There was a grand demonstration at the Union League Hall on Thursday evening last, with the following officers: President, Samuel Hopkins; Vice Presidents, Michael Rambler, James L. Shultz, Samuel D. Miller, Girard Roth, C. C. P. Grosh, Adam Grady, John Glottacker, Christian Groh, Thomas Barns, John Kline, Henry Sultzbach, J. B. Jones, Albert Ropp, Secretaries, I. S. Geist, A. H. Musselman, William Child, Jr., Charles Walter.

Old Mr. Hopkins, who presided, is an octogenarian, and been a democrat for more than 60 years, and now, before going hence, arrays himself on the Union side, and will vote for Andrew Gregg Curtin. Able speeches were made by Peter Myers and Henry Diefenbach, in German, and by Judge Jay, of New Jersey, and Major R. W. Stenk and Capt. W. A. Atlee of Lancaster, in English. The hall was crowded and great enthusiasm prevailed.

We regret to learn, says the Lancaster Inquirer, of the death of Mr. John Evans, of this city, formerly of Manheim township, father of David Evans, County Superintendent, which took place on Wednesday morning. Mr. Evans had eaten a hearty breakfast and appeared in his usual good health a few minutes before he died. He had been at his son's, Benjamin Evans', in North Queen street, and had just left his door when he fell on the sidewalk and expired. His death was caused by apoplexy.

One week more and the rush and bustle of politics will have subsided; when we will be able once more to quietly sit in our sanctum and attend to business, and thereby making "The Mariettian" a more readable family and friends journal.

The Cops of this borough are to have one more grand rally at Fulmer's Perry House, on Monday evening. The bills say—and what don't bills say—distinguished speakers will be in attendance. We think the die is cast, and cops are growing daily "beautifully less."

The mass meeting in Lancaster, on Saturday last, was a most grand affair, eclipsing anything during the campaign of "Tippecanoe and Tyler too."

BOYD, Sheriff of Lancaster County, do hereby publish and give notice to the qualified citizens electors of the several Wards, Townships, Districts and Boroughs of the City and County of Lancaster, that a General Election will be held on TUESDAY THE 13th DAY OF OCTOBER NEXT, 1863, at the several places hereinafter designated, to elect by ballot, whether a Commissioner of the Commonwealth, or any other officer or agent, who is or shall be employed under the Legislative, Executive or Judiciary of the Commonwealth, or of any State or of any Territory, District or Territory, and also that every member of Congress or of the State Legislature, and of the Select and Common Councils of any city, or Commissioner of any incorporated district, is, by law, incapable of holding or exercising at the same time, the office or appointment of judge, inspector or clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and no inspector, judge or other officer of any election shall be eligible there to be voted for.

The Inspector and Judges of the elections shall meet at the respective places appointed for holding the election in the district to which they respectively belong, before nine o'clock in the morning, and each and every inspector shall appoint one Clerk who shall be a qualified voter of such district. In case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend on the day of any election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge on the next preceding election shall act as inspector in his place. And in case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for inspector shall not attend, the person elected judge shall appoint an inspector in his place—and in case the person elected judge shall not attend, then the inspector shall appoint a judge in his place—and in any vacancy shall continue in the board for the space of one hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election, the qualified voters of the district, ward or district for which such officers shall have been elected present at such election, shall elect one of their number to fill such vacancy.

It shall be the duty of the several assessors of the district to attend at the place of holding every general, special, or township election, during the whole time said election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information to the inspectors and judges, when called in relation to the right of any person as assessed by them to vote at such election, or such other matters in relation to the assessments of voters as the said inspectors or other officers shall from time to time require. No person shall be permitted to vote at any election as aforesaid, other than a white male of the age of twenty-one years or more, who shall have resided in the State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers his vote at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. BOYD, Sheriff. SHERIFF'S OFFICE, LANR, SEPT. 8, 1863.

Universal Clothes Wringer. A child can readily wring out a tubful of clothes in a few minutes. It is really a clothes saver! A Time Saver! The saving of garments will alone pay a large percentage of its cost. We think the machine much more than pays for itself every year in the saving of garments! There are several kinds, nearly alike in general construction, but we consider it important that the Wringer be fitted with Cogs, otherwise a mass of garments may clog the rollers, and the rollers upon the crank shaft slip and tear the clothes, or the rubber breaks loose from the shaft. Our cogs are the first make, and it is as good as a new wringer nearly four years constant use.

Wanted in every particular. No Wringer can be durable without Cog-wheels. A good Cog-washer without Cog-wheels. On receipt of the price from purchasers, no one is selling, we will send the Wringer free of expense. For particulars and circulars, address A. C. BROWNING, 247 Broadway, New York. August 16, 1863-6m.
