MARIETTA, PA.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1863.

A correspondent writes to the Evening Post: "In your number publishing and commenting upon the intercepted letter from G. B. Lamar to Fernando Wood, I think you were mistaken in saying or implying that G. B. Lamar was in Halifax in August. It was not, as I was informed at the time, G. B. Lamar, but his son Charles (the same who was so distinguished in time past by his exploit in importing negroes direct from Africa into South Carolina in the yacht Wanderer) who went to Halifax and subsequently to Canada. Your questions to Mr. Wood about G. B. Lamar in Halifax were very convenient ones for him to answer."

Lieut. Col. Tannison, says a Kansas City paper, formerly of the Kansas 1st, was heard of not long since, at Floyd, La., where he was drilling a Confederate company as captain. His downfall commenced with his falling in love with a Secesh damsel near Providence, La. While infatuated with her he drank a toast to Jeff Davis, which resulted in an order degrading him from his command, on the strength of which he deserted to the enemy. The Secesh girl who had bewitched him refused after all to marry him.

General John J. Knox, of Augusta, Oneida county, N. Y., celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of his marriage on Wednesday last. Two of his sons presented congratulatory addresses; Rev. W. E. Knox, of Rome, spoke in the name of his brothers and sisters, and Rev. Charles E. Knox in behalf of the twenty grand-children present. Gerrit Smith, a life long friend of Gen. Knox, also made congratulatory remarks. The Postmaster General also added his compliments by sending a motion that the name of the post office in the village should be changed from Knox's Crossroads to Knoxborough.

Mr. Moncre D. Conway has been lecturing at Carlisle, England, on the American war, with marked effect. Mr. W. H. Channing is doing the same at Liverpool, and being fully reported in some of the London papers. Against him, a Rev. Mr. Stuart, formerly chaplain in the Confederate army, has entered the lists, delivering an address to the Southern Club highly eulogistic of Dixie in general, and its unlimited capacity for self-sustenance. Like the defiance of Elijah Pogram, "it developed our internal resources, and proved our ability to carry on war with the united air."

Foreign journals report that Garibaldi continues to improve. The Ticinese Association of Swiss Carbineers have elected him a member. He has thanked them in a letter from Caprea, dated September 16th, and addressed to Captain Vegezzi, of Lugano. In this letter he says he will show his appreciation of the honor conferred on him by that free country "by fighting to the last for liberty and the closer union of all emancipated nations."

The Gettysburg Sentinel notices the address of Miss Anne Dickinson, on Saturday evening week: "The court house was crowded to excess. And such an address! There was but one general burst of admiration from all who heard her, that they had never listened to such a speech. Her distinct utterance, and the roll of her voice, with its vast compass, filled every part of the room, and even reached the street."

Mr. William Saunders, the distinguished landscape gardener, who has charge of the Government gardens at Washington, has gone to Gettysburg, to lay out the land purchased there, being a portion of the battle ground, to be set apart for the sepulture of our fallen in that memorable conflict. It is understood that when the cemetery shall be dedicated, an address will be delivered by Hon. Edward Everett.

Up to this time, ninety-nine National Banks have been fully organized. About forty others have taken the preliminary steps for organization. The notes for about forty of the first organized, will be issued in two weeks. It is presumed that in a little while many of the State institutions will abandon their present charters. The sooner this is done the better will be our currency.

Bishop Rosecrans, of Ohio, a brother of General Rosecrans, and Rev. Dr. Parcel, of the Roman Catholic Church, have just taken the strongest anti-slavery ground.

Ohio sheds Brough, over Vallandigham, by over sixty thousand, and Pennsylvania elects Curtin over Woodward by over fifteen thousand. Surely Copperheadism has gone to the wall!

A Washington letter to the Boston Traveller says: "While at the Centre Market this morning I met Ed- win M. Stanton doing his marketing after his usual habit. He was selecting his own butter, his meat, and so forth, with as much particularity as any man in town. It was about sunrise, and I have met him in June in the market before sunrise. Some people will regard this as a fine trait in his character. It certainly shows that he is not a sleepy-head, but no one ever accused him of sleeping too much, that I ever heard of—the charge formerly has been that he does not sleep enough. Before Mr. Seward went into the Cabinet he always wished to do his own marketing in this market. To go back farther, Daniel Webster, when he lived in Washington, was always in the habit of rising early and going to market, to the horror of some of his Southern friends, who committed such work to a favorite slave."

Mr. F. W. Thomas, poet, writer, and lecturer, has recently been addressing large and appreciative audiences in the Western States. His readings in poetry are greatly admired. Mr. Thomas is a fine scholar and poet himself, and doubtless interprets poetry correctly. His sketch of Edgar A. Poe (of whom Thomas was the intimate friend) is said to be remarkably interesting, while his recitation of "The Raven" is something that remains long in the memory of the listener. Mr. Thomas' latest discourse is on "Life in Washington in the days of the Giants." In this he gives graphic sketches of Clay, Webster, Calhoun, and other distinguished statesmen and orators with whom he was personally acquainted.

A Boy PEPPERED TO DEATH.—John Snooks, a lad of about ten years of age, residing in New York, died a few days since at the residence of his mother, from the effects of injuries received under the following circumstances: On the 9th ultimo some difficulty occurred between the deceased and a son of a Mrs. Broderick, Mrs. B. and another woman seized deceased and rubbed a large quantity of red pepper in his mouth, eyes and nose. This had the effect to throw the boy into convulsions, and after a delirious and wholly unconscious state for nine days, he died from the effects of the injuries received.

A singular and fatal accident happened in Pittsburg, Pa., last week. Two boys were playing "horse" in the streets, and used a cord, one end of which was tied to the shoulders of the lad acting as horse, while the other end was fastened to the wrist of the driver by a slip knot. While thus sporting, a street railway car came up, and the boys went in opposite directions to let it pass. This brought the cord across the track, and the horses striking against it, jerked the lads in front of the wheels of the car, which passed over them. One boy was instantly crushed to death, and the other will probably die.

A correspondent of a London paper writes: "I have just returned from Germany, after a month's knocking about. I had glorious weather, and saw all the little kings at Frankfurt. There is a good anecdote of one of them. He wanted his army instructed in the use of the Armstrong gun, and got one, but was obliged to ask leave of the next king to have the target put up in his kingdom, his own not being big enough for the Armstrong range!"

The protest of the Episcopal Clergy against the Proslavery pamphlet of Bishop Hopkins, of Vermont, re-appeared in the city papers, on Monday morning, signed by one hundred and seventy-four clergymen within the diocese of Bishop Potter. Only three clergymen have refused to sign, viz: Assistant Bishop Stevens, Rev. Charles B. Bonnell, and Rev. J. W. Claxton, the first and last, doubtless, being in sympathy with the Vermont bishop and the rebellion.

Many rebels in order to secure the value of their slave property, have quietly sent their chattels to Cuba; but this dernier resort has failed them, as, through the instrumentality of Mr. Savage, our able Consul, many of these slaves have been set free. It is a law of Spain that any slave brought from the Continent or adjoining isles becomes free the moment he touches the soil of Cuba. It is the same in the case of a slave being taken from Cuba to Spain, notwithstanding the colonial relation.

It is a well-known fact that a large proportion of Gen. Grant's army has gone to reinforce Rosecrans, and before this time has reached its destination. Both sides are concentrating their forces at Chattanooga for a tremendous battle, which, should it go against the rebels, will practically end the war.

A man in London is getting out a patent for printing without ink. He charges the paper with some chemical substance, which being crushed by the face of the type, turns black.

A German agriculturist says before he plants his potatoes he washes them in chlorine water, and dries them in the sun. He says that this has saved them from potato disease during several years.

GETTING A FAMILY.—A German named Heoflich, residing five miles west of La Crescent, was married in Fortage in November, 1860, to a healthy German girl. The week after they married they moved to Minnesota, on the farm which they now occupy. In August, 1861, Mrs. Heoflich gave birth to three boys, two of whom lived. In June, 1862, she gave birth to three boys and a girl, two of the boys and the girl living. On the 5th of this month she gave birth to two girls and a boy, all of whom were, as late as Tuesday of this week, alive and well. Ten children in less than three years is pretty good, even for this vicinity. The parents are proud of their success in the family line, and point with pleasure to their company of German infantry. Government cannot afford to draft the head of that family.—La Crosse Democrat.

General Hooker's command is at last made known. He is not to supersede Burnside. He is to be under Rosecrans, and is to command a part of the reinforcements sent to Chattanooga. It is pretty generally known that the Government is exerting itself to the utmost to give Rosecrans troops enough, not simply to remain safely on the defensive, but to assume the offensive at once. Hooker will have charge of one of the largest corps of the Army of the Cumberland, and he has few superiors as a corps commander in the country. He accepted the appointment readily, although it is a step down the ladder, and it was a fine exhibition of patriotism as well as good sense for him to take it unhesitatingly.

A dispatch has been received from Gen. Rosecrans, giving an account of the rebel attack on Chattanooga, reported with such a flourish by the rebels. It appears that the rebels made a shameful waste of powder, stand off at such a long distance that it was difficult to tell whether they were firing a salute or making a belligerent attack on the stronghold. Not a man was injured, and all kept at their work without the least interruption. There is no official confirmation of the rebel statement that two of our bridges over the Tennessee had been carried away by a rise in the river. Telegraphic communication between Nashville and Stevenson has been restored.

The Boston Traveller is not very complimentary to the hero of the Mississippi when he says: "Neal Dow is to be exchanged against John Morgan. This is an unfair arrangement, for Gen. Dow has no more military capacity than belongs to the town pump, while Gen. Morgan is a clever soldier, possessing dash, energy, and powers of endurance—all things that are necessary to make a good raider. General Dow could, not better serve his country than by staying in prison in order thus to keep a capable enemy shut up. Mr. Dow is a most estimable man, but he is no soldier."

The Troy papers record the death of Abel Bunnell, a gentleman of considerable means. During a long life he had never eaten an oyster and never touched a clam. Although he sold liquor, he had never drunk anything stronger than sweet cider. He never visited a show. His travels, too, were very limited. He had never been south of Albany or west of Schenectady. The great metropolis was only known to him by hearsay. Coming to Troy with $45, he loaned $40 and took a mortgage up on some property, which he retained until his death.

Walter Nicholson, Jr., of Washington, was drafted and a notice left at his house which his father, who bears the same name, answered, and appeared before the Board of Enrollment, who exempted him on account of being over age. It was afterwards ascertained that the son was the party drafted, and both father and son were arrested by Capt. Scheetz's detectives and taken before the Board, where they were informed that Nicholson junior would have to procure a substitute, and his time was extended to allow him an opportunity of procuring one.

Mr. James Nokes, public gardener, has presented to President Lincoln a handsome and substantial case, made from the live oak of the old ship Constitution. The head of the case is of polished iron, being part of a bolt taken from the Original Monitor, which was broken by the first shot she received from the rebel Merrimac. On top of the head are the words "Constitution" and "Monitor," and the dates "1812" and "1862."

The Boston Herald has a letter from the fleet at Charleston, October 3, which says: "Last evening General Gilmore sent one of his 'Greek Fire' shells into Charleston, which set fire to some buildings. The fire burnt for over two hours. There will be warm work here ere this reaches you; if nothing interferes in the meantime to put a stop to the grand work. All things are ready."

In Smyrna, the Sultan has, at the instance of the Protestant population of the place, changed the market from Sunday, when it was formerly held, to a week day.

FEMALE DRUMMER.—A girl, aged 12 years, giving the name of Charles Martin, enlisted in a Pennsylvania regiment, nearly two years since, as a drummer boy. She had the advantage of education, could write a good hand, and composed very well. She made herself useful to officers of the regiment in the capacity of a clerk; was in five battles, but escaped unscathed. The officers never dreamed of her sex. A short time since she was taken sick with the typhoid fever, a disease quite prevalent in Philadelphia, and was removed to the Pennsylvania Hospital. A day or two since the matron of the institution discovered the drummer boy to be no more or less than a girl. Her parents, who reside in Bucks county, have been advised of the facts by letter.

FASHIONS.—A foreign magazine of fashions says two things strike one as particularly novel in ladies' costumes; first, the very pretty chamois-colored leather boots, coming half way up the leg, and either buttoned or laced at the side, the tops being ornamented with a silk cord and two small tassels; and, secondly, the cannes, or in plain English, walking sticks, sported by the most elegant among the votaries of fashion. These canes are simply wooden sticks, more or less carved and ornamented, with flat gilt tops, and finished off, like the boots, with a cord and tassel.

A SOUTHERN HOTEL.—A letter from Trenton, Georgia, says: "This place, the county seat of Dade county, is an insignificant town of perhaps fifteen houses. It presents now an appearance of almost complete desertion. The tavern of the village is a specimen. The landlady, with bare feet, came to the door, and, with the true southern accent and pronunciation, told us they had nothing to eat. I believed her. Keeping tavern and nothing to eat."

Wives, mothers and sisters, whose husbands, sons and brothers are serving in the army, cannot put into their knapsacks a more necessary or valuable gift than a few boxes of Holloway's Pills & Ointment. They insure health even under the exposures of a soldier's life. Only 25 cents per box or pot.

A fashionable wedding came off at the Astor House, New York, in a quiet way, a day or two ago. The bridegroom was Mons. Charles Carey, Chancellor of State of Bausanne, Switzerland, and the bride Miss Annie Taylor, of Cedarcroft, Chester county, Pa., a sister of Bayard Taylor.

The United States District Court, at Hartford, Conn., are trying a case in which a firm of colored tailors sue the Collector of Internal Revenue for the recovery of money paid by them as taxes on clothing manufactured at their establishment. They rest their claim upon the ground that as they are not allowed to vote, they should not be taxed.

Two factory girls near Manchester, England, had a regular prize fight near that city. The conditions agreed on were that there should be no pulling of hair or screaming. After several rounds, one was beaten until almost insensible.

A letter written from New Orleans says that Gen. Grant's injuries are so serious that it is probable he will never be able to take the field again. His breast bone is said to have been crushed, three ribs broken, and one side paralyzed, and his brain is thought to be affected by the concussion of the fall from his horse.

Why is Cristadoro's Hair Dye popular? Read the universal answer to this question. Because it imparts a natural black or brown. It does not crisp or burn the hair. It does not soil the fairest skin. It is applied in ten minutes. Therefore the Man of Taste approves it. Those who value Silken Hair use it. The Ladies everywhere prefer it. Those to whom time is valuable patronize it. Cristadoro's Hair Preservative, is invaluable with his Dye, as it imparts the utmost softness and the most beautiful gloss and great vitality to the hair. Manufactured by J. Friends & Relatives of the Soldiers & Sailors.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT.—All who have Friends and Relatives in the Army or Navy, should take special care, that they be amply supplied with these Pills and Ointment; and where the brave Soldiers and Sailors have neglected to provide themselves with them, no better present can be sent them by their friends. They have been proved to be the Soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

COUGHS AND COLDS AFFECTING THROATS. Will be speedily relieved and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box. Sick Headache and want of Appetite Incurable to Soldiers!

Those feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus deranging the action of the liver and stomach. These organs must be relieved, if you desire to do well.—The Pills, taking according to the printed instructions, will quickly produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite. Weakness and debility induced by over Fatigue, Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

Volunteers Attention! Sores and Ulcers, Blotches and Swellings can with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the Ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner they dry up, one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the former from the system and leave the Patients in vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

For Wounds either occasioned by the Bayonet Sabre or the Bullet, Sores or Bruises, To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable there are no medicines so safe and so convenient as Holloway's Pills and Ointment.—The poor wounded and almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately, if he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all around it; then cover it with a piece of linen from his Knapsack and compressed with a handkerchief.—Taking night and morning 6 or 8 Pills, to cool the system and prevent inflammation.

Every Soldier's Knapsack and Seaman's Chest should be provided with these invaluable Remedies.

IMPORTANT CAUTION!—None are genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY'S, NEW YORK and LONDON," are discernible in a Plato mark in every leaf of the book of directions, around each pot or box; the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light.—A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as should lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.
