A HORRIBLE AFFAIR:—We take the following account of a most horrible affair from the Cleveland Plaindealer. It says: "Three weeks ago a young man named George Beaver, about twenty years of age, stole $300 from his employer, a merchant of Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, and decamped. Beaver arrived in this city last week, and remained here a short time, when he proceeded to Norwalk, in which place he had a few friends. A day or two since he called upon a young lady acquaintance, and requested a private interview, which was granted. He then told her that he was on the point of killing himself, at the same time producing a revolver. The lady seized his arm and tried to get the weapon from him. During the struggle Beaver exclaimed: 'Stand aside, or my brains will be spattered over your person!' The lady then did as desired, when the wretch placed the muzzle against his forehead and blew the top of his head completely off. "Upon the person of the deceased was found eighty cents in money and a pawn ticket for a gold watch, from which he parted while in Cincinnati not long since. In answer to a telegram describing the sad affair, Beaver's parents—who are poor people and reside at Fond du Lac—directed that his remains should be buried at Norwalk."

A "BIG GUN" ON A TRAIN.—On Saturday one of the enormous fifteen-inch guns, weighing several tons, manufactured at Pittsburg for seaboard defence, reached the Hoosick station, Troy, and the platform car on which it was placed was switched on to one of the tracks leading to the city. The wheels were carelessly left unblocked, and it started on a journey on its own account, increasing in speed as it advanced, and threatening serious damage. It passed through the Union depot at full speed, and was about to continue its way down Sixth street, when the switchman at the south end of the building, observing the New York express train approaching through the tunnel, turned the switch so as to throw the platform car off the track. The desired end was thus accomplished, the wheels soon lost their headway in the soft gravel of the street, and a serious accident no doubt prevented. Up to a late hour on Saturday night two locomotives were busily engaged in putting the refractory car and skedaddling gun on the track.—Sy-racuse Star.

CONGRESS OF BREWERS.—The third annual congress of brewers will be held in Cincinnati on the 28th instant. The previous congress was held in Philadelphia, and was largely attended. Representatives to this congress have already arrived in that city, and it is believed that at least one hundred and fifty will be present. It is the intention to have a delegation from each city where the beverage is manufactured. The principal feature of this congress will be the consideration of the internal revenue tax which is now imposed upon beer, and which the United States has placed at sixty cents per barrel.

DOUBLE MURDER.—A party of gentlemen from Cincinnati, who have just returned from a fishing excursion in Indiana, state that on Monday last, in the town of Shoals, on White river, in Indiana, a difficulty occurred between a white man and a negro, the latter literally cutting the white man to pieces.—The quarrel grew out of a discussion on the slavery question. The negro fled, but was shortly after found near by, dead, with two bullet holes in his head.

THE NEW BOSTON ORGAN.—The immense organ just put up in Music Hall, Boston, cost about $30,000. Oliver Wendell Holmes describes it in the November Atlantic. He says it is a choir of 6000 throats. Its largest tubes are 32 feet long and large enough for a man's body, while its smallest are as fine as a baby's whistle. The structure is of black walnut, elaborately carved with cherubs and gods and goddesses.

It has been decided by the War Department that where men who are drafted hold conscientious scruples about paying the commutation or performing military duty, the Provost Marshal shall levy upon the goods or chattels of said individual to the amount of three hundred dollars, and on realizing that amount the drafted man will be released.

Rose Greenough, the celebrated rebel spy, who formerly figured in Washington, is now in London, operating in her peculiar way for the rebel cause among the English politicians and financiers who are susceptible to her fascinations. She attempts the role of Lady Blessington on a small scale.

HOW THEY TREAT OUR PRISONERS.—Mr. Bobanan, who was captured in the vicinity of Occoquan last Christmas, and lately returned to his home in Alexandria, has, among other things, informed the Journal that Castle Thunder is the only prison in Richmond where prisoners are allowed to purchase anything.—Shortly after the battle of Chickamauga, about two hundred wounded prisoners arrived at Richmond from the field.—They were almost all in a famishing and starving condition, being three days on the road between the two points, and all they had to eat during that time was four hard crackers each. On their arrival at Richmond, they were taken to the Libby Prison, where they laid two days longer without having their wounds dressed, and during all of which time they were not given a mouthful to eat. Some of them who were fortunate enough to have a little money offered as high as five dollars for a loaf of bread, but the officers in charge would not let it be carried to them. Mr. Bobanan left Richmond on the flag-of-truce boat in company with about two hundred other Union prisoners. When the vessel neared Drury's Bluff, the prisoners were made to lie flat down on the deck of the boat, and a special guard was placed over them, that they might be prevented from seeing the fortifications.

IRON CITY COLLEGE.—There is no institution of learning in the country, at present, attracting so great an amount of attention as this. Students are flocking to it from all parts of the country, on account of the reputation it has among the business men for making thorough, practical and reliable accountants. Its graduates take precedence over those of all other Commercial Schools; and a diploma from this College being a certain passport to success in business life.

The Faculty is composed of skillful and experienced men, who stand at the head of their profession, and who are well known to be eminently fitted for the positions they occupy. Every young man in the country should try to avail himself of the advantages afforded by a course of study in this College.—Circulars of the College, containing full information, can be had on addressing the Principals, Messrs. JENKINS & SMITH, Pittsburg, Pa.

RANK OF MAJOR GENERALS.—The prevalent notion touching the rank of Major Generals in the Tennessee army is erroneous. Major General Grant is the senior officer in command, taking rank from date of the 16th of February, 1862; Major General Burnside is next in rank, his commission dating March 18, 1862; Major General Rosecrans is next, taking rank from commission dated March 21, 1862; Major General G. H. Thomas' commission is dated April 25, 1862; Major General Hooker's, May 5, 1862; and Major General Sherman's, we think, in November, 1862. It is evident, therefore, that Hooker's or Sherman's rank were not elements which affected General Rosecrans.

PREPARING FOR THE SESSION.—We learn from the Harrisburg papers that workmen have been of late employed in preparing the Capitol building for the approaching session of the Legislature. The building has suffered much from its occupation by the militia during the past season, the furniture being abused, the carpets ruined, the painting tarnished and the floor littered with camp rubbish. New and handsome carpeting has been laid in the Halls of the Senate and House, the desks have been recovered, and both chambers have been re-painted and thoroughly renovated.—Most of the members have already selected their seats.

DEATH OF A PATRIARCH.—John P. Miller, of Hempfield township, Westmoreland county, died on the 15th ult., aged 98 years and two days. He had eleven children, eighty grand children, one hundred and eighty-six great grand children, four great great grand children, and two hundred and eighty-one descendants. Seven of his children are yet living, and one aged seventy years was present at his funeral.

"HURRYING UP THE CAKES."—A firm of biscuit manufacturers in Carlisle, England, by way of showing what could be done by rapid work, recently had a field of wheat reaped, the grain threshed and ground, and the flour made into biscuits, which were served hot on the breakfast-table at eight o'clock, in exactly four hours from the time the sickle was put into the standing grain.

A SURE SIGN OF DEATH.—All practicing physicians agree that, when the eyes of a corpse are opened about two days after death, and the pupils are found to be mixed up so that nothing of them is to be seen, but the whole of the eyes is dissolved into a whispy or jelly-like mass, then real death is evident.—Where this symptom is wanting death is uncertain.

AN OLD SQUAW.—A Chippewa squaw, who was the belle of her people a hundred years ago, still lives on the shores of Red Lake. She is 120 years old.—She and her husband were the first settlers in that region, and she and a French dealer in furs were the progenitors of the half-breeds there so numerous.

General News Items.

Miss Josephine Grant, a sister of the general, was married recently in Covington, Ky., to a Methodist minister.

At a convention of lager beer brewers recently held in Cincinnati, a reward of $500 was offered for a substitute for rosin.

Steam cars have been ordered for the Kensington and Frankford passenger railway, Philadelphia, and the first one has been put on the road.

A private despatch from Washington says it is understood to be settled that Major General Buell is to be General Grant's new chief of staff.

Charles Brooks, convicted to be hung at Mount Holly, N. J., on the 11th of December, for the murder of his father, has confessed his guilt.

Governor Andrew's majority in Massachusetts will reach 40,000 votes.—General Butler voted for him and the entire Union State ticket in Lowell on the 3d instant.

Exchanges say that there has rarely been a time when so much business was transacted on the railroads of this State than now. The quantity of freight offering is enormous, while the passenger business is also heavy beyond precedent for this season of the year.

Late news from Charleston is to the effect that three heavy guns have been turned upon the city of Charleston, and each has thrown one shell, containing Greek fire, into the very heart of that place. Other guns are to open upon the city.

Michael Shookham died recently in Franklin, Mo., aged 104 years. He left twenty-two children, the oldest over eighty and the youngest eight years of age. He was a native of Loudon county, Va.

In a number of large towns and cities, arrangements are being made by the ladies to send a basket well filled with edibles to each poor soldier's family, on the approaching Thanksgiving day.

Fifteen paymasters passed through Cincinnati a few days ago, with $2,800,000 for the soldiers of General Burnside's army.

It is stated that the United States Treasurer, General Spinner, has received orders to redeem, when represented, with interest to date, all gold-bearing certificates of indebtedness falling due between the present date and the 3d of March. The amount of the interest on these certificates is over four millions.

General Bragg's forage train, sent up Lookout Valley, was recently captured by the forces of General Thomas. In the same army, an altercation occurred between Colonel Loomis and Major Herrod, of the 9th Illinois Cavalry, resulting in the death of the former.—Herrod's life was with difficulty saved from the fury of the soldiers.

Intelligence from North Carolina continues favorable to the cause of the Union. The Raleigh Standard regards the elections in the North as a blow to the last hopes of the Confederacy. A new rebel ram, built at Wilmington, is mentioned in correspondence as being ready to make an attempt against the blockade.

A New London (Connecticut) man has invented a weapon that may be inserted in the handle of a lady's parasol, and will drive a ball through an inch and a half plank at the distance of ten rods. Steel clad and armed with these parasols, the dear creatures will be invulnerable.

The chief of police of Cincinnati is said to have discovered a conspiracy to burn that city. The first intimation he received was through a letter which was taken out of the post office by mistake, opened and read. The plan of conspiracy was to divide the city into four sections and set fire to each simultaneously.

Substitute swindlers are at work in Ohio. They induce newly-enlisted volunteers to desert, paying them one hundred dollars and upward, and then bring them to Albany, New York, and other places in the East, where they sell them as substitutes for four hundred dollars or more. A fellow engaged in this infamous business has just been arrested at Cleveland.

The Mexican papers state that quarrels between the French soldiery and the people are of common occurrence in the capital of Mexico, and numbers of the French have been assassinated. The guerrillas are growing bolder and more numerous, and lately a republican demonstration occurred in one of the theatres. The rumor that France desires to abandon Mexico is current in British correspondence.

A steamship arrival from Europe has brought some interesting news of the progress of the Mexican and Polish questions. In his speech to the Mexican deputation, it is remarked that the Emperor made no mention of the Archduke Maximilian, who may possibly be abandoned for a French prince or general, as doubt exists whether France will offer the guarantees which the Archduke requires. A parting breakfast was given to Mr. Beecher at Manchester.

A STRAW.—A fact has come to light which shows the speed of our journeyings to the land of freedom for the black man. For the last three years a Quaker gentleman in Hartford county has stood indicted for circulating Helper's book. Last week he was present at an emancipation meeting in that county, and there saw his informants and persecutors listening to and applauding an Abolition speech by that glorious old "Black Republican," Judge Kelley, who, you know, has a way of talking right to the point. Our Quaker friend is in ecstasies and says it was glory enough for him, retaliation enough for all his outrageous wrongs, to witness that spectacle.

DEEPEST MINE IN THE WORLD.—The coal mine of Monkwearmouth, England, was visited by a party of the members of the British Association. The depth of this mine from the surface is nineteen hundred feet, and the workings of coal underneath extends to a distance of two miles from the shaft. About three hundred persons are employed in it, and six hundred tons are mined daily. The heat at the bottom varies from eighty-four degrees to ninety degrees, and the miners work in an almost nude state.

A JEALOUS BLUNDER.—A laughable incident is related of a jealous woman, at Lewiston, Maine, who went into an auction room the other day, and saw (as she supposed) her husband very familiarly sitting beside a young lady. Stepping up softly, she seized a head in each of her hands and dounded them together a number of times in great rage. Her surprise may be imagined when she found that the innocent stranger was not her "worse half." She apologized and passed out amid the laughter of the crowd.

The number of Union commissioned officers confined in the Richmond prisons now is nine hundred and sixty-four, viz: one brigadier general (Neal Dow), "fourteen" colonels, twenty-five lieutenant-colonels, twenty-seven surgeons, fifty-three assistant surgeons, twenty-eight majors, two hundred and forty-six captains, two hundred and sixty-four first lieutenants, two hundred and ninety-seven second lieutenants, and nine naval officers. A majority of the officers are from the Western armist, many of them having been captured at Chickamauga.

By last advices it appears that the revolution in St. Domingo is in full blast. The rebels held possession of the entire island, with the exception of the capital and the eastern portion, and they were last reported to be within a few miles of St. Domingo city. The Captain General of St. Domingo had been removed, and Don Carlos de Vargas, Marshal of Spain, appointed in his place. He is said to be a man of great ability, and is expected to crush the rebellion promptly. Mrs. ex-President Tyler had arrived at Bermuda, having run the blockade.

A man, who gave his name as S. Flint, was recently arrested in Easton, for attempting to pass a counterfeit five dollar bill. While under examination at the Justice's office, he stood near the stove, and seizing the opportunity, he drew from his pocket a package of notes and threw it into the fire, which was recovered from the flames after being partly consumed. The notes were counterfeits on various banks, amounting to $600.

The Indianapolis Journal says a letter has been received in that city from Col. Streight, dated at Libby Prison, two weeks since, which brings information that some of the officers of his command are suffering very greatly, and that, unless released soon by exchange, will be released soon by death. The Col. himself was well and enjoying life as much as a crowded and filthy prison would permit.

The Secretary of War has decided against the claims of nine months' volunteers to national bounties; but the heirs of a nine months' man who dies or is killed in the service are entitled to the United States bounty of $100, besides the pay due to the soldier at the date of his decease. The widows and mothers of nine months' soldiers are also entitled to pensions under the act of Congress, approved July 14, 1862.

The contract for disinterring the bodies on the Gettysburg battle-field and at the surrounding hospitals, and again interring them in the Soldiers' National Cemetery, has been awarded to John Hoke and Franklin Biesecker, at $1.59 per body. The work is to be commenced immediately, the cemetery grounds having been appropriately laid out for the purpose.

A late letter from Nashville, says a large part of the wealthy population of that city were in Bragg's army, under Breckenridge in the late battle, in which a great number were killed and wounded. It is said that three-fourths of the ladies of the Episcopal church are in mourning for their dead.

The commutation money paid in Cumberland, and Perry and York counties, in lieu of military service, amounts to $350,000. About four hundred drafted men from the district will enter into the service.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE.—We are in receipt of this popular Lady's Magazine, for December. It is a splendid number. "Peterson" will be greatly improved in 1864. It will contain nearly 1000 pages of double column reading matter; 14 steel plates; 12 colored steel fashion plates; 12 colored patterns of Berlin work, embroidery or crochet, and 900 wood engravings—proportionately more than any other periodical gives. Its stories and novelets are by the best writers. In 1864, Four Original Copyright Novelets will be given. Its Fashions are always the latest and prettiest. Every neighborhood ought to make up a club. Its price is but Two Dollars a year, or a dollar less than Magazines of its class. It is the Magazine for the times! To clubs, it is cheaper still, viz:—three copies, for $5, five for $7.50, or eight for $10. To every person getting up a club, (at these rates) the Publisher will send an extra copy gratis. Specimens sent (if written for) to those wishing to get up clubs. Address, post paid, CHARLES J. PETERSON, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia.

Lee's army is almost barefoot.—The rebel government is seizing all the boots and shoes in Richmond for its use.
