MARIETTA, PA.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1863.

A careful collection of reports from different well-informed quarters shows the entire strength of the rebel army, on this side of the Mississippi (that is of all that is of any use), to be, in round numbers, as follows: Bragg's army, 75,000; Lee's army, 40,000; Beauregard's army, 20,000; Johnston's army, (in the rear of Vicksburg and Memphis), 18,000; at Wilmington, 10,000; at Mobile, 6,000; scattering (1000 at Savannah, small forces at Lynchburg, Gordonsville, and at different arsenals and at other points in the interior, in all not over), 20,000. Practically, then, we are confronted to-day by not over one hundred and ninety thousand men. We can meet them with an effective mobile force of, at the very least, three hundred and fifty thousand.

The Columbus, Ohio, Express, says: "We understand that Wray Thomas, Mayor of this city, and John Peter Ambros, Esq., made the following bet: If Brough should be elected Governor, Mayor Thomas was to turn a grindstone in the public square for two consecutive days, on which the Union men were to grind their knives. If Vallandigham should be elected, Mr. Ambros was to turn the stone for Vallandigham men to grind. Vallandigham is beaten, and we are told the Mayor has already commenced training and sweating off his surplus fat to get ready."

We learn from authentic correspondence that Jeff. Davis has signed a large number of blank commissions, and the rebel Secretary of War has caused them to be boxed up, and commissioned a colonel to visit Missouri to fill up the blanks with the names of such desperadoes as will engage to raise guerrilla companies to murder the Union men of that State. The agent and messenger, with these documents, passed through Little Rock, on his way to Missouri, a few days before that city fell into the hands of Gen. Steele.

Recent accounts from Wilmington, N. C., the rendezvous of the blockade-runners, state that all the wealthy inhabitants have removed to Augusta, the lower classes and the merchants remaining. Beyond the arrival and departure of blockade runners, there is no indication of life in the city. The streets are deserted, and the poorer classes remaining all express themselves as tired of the war.

The Mobile Register says "the negro is no longer an object of small talk in the South. The people have found a place for them, and that is in the army. There should be no distinction of color when men are willing to fight for home." So, murder will out at last. The negro is to go into the rebel army. Northern sympathizers will be horrified at this.

A negro woman in Providence lately tied a string round the tongue of a child seven years of age. After placing the string round a nail, causing the sufferer to stand in this position all night. The monster is to be proceeded against, and should have the severest penalty the law admits inflicted on her.

The officials connected with the conscription department of the Government have finally conceded that conscripts in the late draft who have paid $300 for exemption, will be exempted from any other draft for three years. The former decision that they would be held liable to the next draft has been abandoned.

In the year 700 the Lord's Prayer commenced: "Our father who art in heaven;" in 900, "Thou art our father;" in 1100 it was rendered, "Father thou art in heaven;" in 1300, "Our Father in heaven;" in 1400, "Father our in heaven;" and in 1537, "O, our father who art in heaven."

It does one good to hear of a well-preserved old lady like widow Lunt, of Litchfield, who, the Gardiner Journal says, is eighty-six years old, has all of her teeth sound and good, has never worn spectacles, can see to thread her needle by candle light, and is in every way smart and active.

A Wilmington, N. C., paper captured on the Cornubia states that Fernando Wood was a partner in a Liverpool firm engaged in supplying war materials to the confederacy. The announcement will cause surprise to many—not to us.

The odd proposal has been made in England to turn the Great Eastern into a floating hotel, and anchor off Cowes, to make occasional sea excursions.

The Prince of Wales is tolerably comfortable for a young man just commencing the world. One million dollars of the accumulation of his Cornwall estate has been paid for an estate in Norfolk; two millions and a half remain as a balance with his banker, and he has besides an income of $125,000 a year from his landed property, with $500,000 voted by Parliament, while his mother lives, and $250,000 pin money for his bride. A young gentleman, with no present family, may manage to keep house very comfortably on this amount, and not deny himself any of the usual comforts of a household.

The different counties of Indiana are outwring each other in endeavoring to make soldiers' families comfortable, and helping the Sanitary Commission. A soldiers' supper, at Lafayette, the other night, netted three hundred and thirty dollars. Carroll county has given two hundred and thirty-five dollars in cash, and four hundred wagon-loads of provisions; one gentleman in Richmond has given one thousand dollars, and these are only examples of what is going on all over the state.

Thirty-seven hundred new books have recently been added to the Congressional library, embracing every variety in politics and history. The volumes now on hand number eighty-two thousand. An estimate of $160,000 has been made for the enlargement of the library so as to include the rooms formerly occupied by the Clerk of the House, and those vacant chambers which abut upon the present chamber of the Supreme Court.

It seems the one grand study in London, is how to make money; and if a person happens to live in a house one side of which has no windows, you'll find it all covered with show-bills of every description, for which he is to be liberally paid by the advertisers. Dead walls and fences are "let out" at so much a week for this purpose, and it's quite a business, too, many having got rich by this means alone.

Foreign correspondence reports that the Austrian Government is busily preparing land and naval forces, in the event of a war with Denmark. It is thought, however, that Austria can spare but a small fleet from the Adriatic to cope with 1,100 Danish guns. The marriage of the English Prince Alfred with a princess of Altenburg is in prospect.

Gordon, just returned from a certain district in the country, says that ploughs have no sale there. The hogs are so long-souled that the farmers plant a corn cob on one side of the field and pigmy at the other, and by the time the latter reaches the cob there is a splendid furrow. If a stump happens in the way it is split.

It is estimated that the mineral wealth of Nevada Territory will be sufficient to pay a national debt of $20,000,000,000, to give every returning soldier a musket of silver, and to furnish all our iron-clads with a plating of silver thicker than their present covering of iron. At that rate bankruptcy does not seem imminent.

One of the Philadelphia city roads has put on the track a steam dummy passenger car which the Inquirer says succeeded admirably. The dummy cars have the front platform enclosed, and are a little longer and higher than the horse cars, and are heated by pipes set in the floor.

A curious observation respecting the rapidity of eagles in their flight has just been made by a traveler crossing the Grison Alps. An eagle, in flying from one mountain peak to another, at a height of 8000 or 9000 feet, performed the distance of five miles in five minutes.

The days of wooden freight cars appear to be numbered. For the past two years, iron freight cars have been built at Albany for the New York Central Railroad, this iron plate being used. Such cars are lighter and more durable.

The number of fire-arms manufactured at Colt's armory in Hartford, during October, averaged one a minute through ten hours of each day in the week, Sundays excepted.

Senator Cowan, of this State, has purchased a mansion on Capitol Hill, in Washington, and it is understood that he intends to practice in the Supreme Court.

Captain Eli S. Parker, of General Grant's staff, is said to be a full-blooded Indian, and grandson of the celebrated Red Jacket.

The male agricultural population of England and Wales, of twenty years and upward, declined from 1,129,469 in 1851, to 1,126,104 in 1861.

Marion township, in Mercer county, Ohio, gave Vallandigham three hundred and fifty-nine votes and Brough none.

Mr. N. P. Willis is preparing a history of his literary life, which the public will look for with interest.

Our National debt at present amounts to $1,222,750,000.

General News Items.

Russia has in its regular and irregular armies 36,614 officers, and 1,161,958 privates.

A call has been issued for a meeting of Conservative men at Cincinnati, on the 3d of December next.

The War Department has decided not to permit the raising of colored cavalry regiments, although applications have been received from various quarters.

The great seal of the new commonwealth of West Virginia has representatives which symbolize agriculture and mining. The motto is, "Montani semper liberi—mountaineers always free."

The Tennessee river has attained such a height that it is navigable for craft of nearly the heaviest tonnage. Vessels are daily arriving at Nashville, laden with stores for the army, and merchandise.

The rebel Gen. Wheeler's report of the raid upon the communications of the Army of the Cumberland, admits a loss of one thousand men and three pieces of artillery.

We hear more distressing facts of the starvation of our prisoners in Richmond, and the terrible sufferings of those who have returned and died in the Annapolis hospitals. The rebel prisoner Fitz-Hugh Lee has been sent to Fort Lafayette.

The Democrat's footing, in Missouri, as far as heard from, gives a radical majority of 294, including the soldiers' vote. The Republican's footing, including the soldiers' vote, gives a conservative majority of three.

The rebels are reported again busy at their strong line of fortifications on the Rapidan. General Meade, it is understood, implicitly obeyed orders in endeavoring to force the army under Gen. Lee to give him battle. Lee, in his late retrograde movement, was maneuvering to gain advantage of position for the same purpose.

Up to the 1st instant, according to the Cambridge (Md.) Intelligencer, Col. Barney had enlisted 1738 colored soldiers in that State. Enlistments are taking place with increasing rapidity; and the fact that colored soldiers count for the quota of Maryland, exactly as if they were white soldiers, removes the objections of many of the Marylanders to their enlistment.

A great codfish bank, as productive as the Newfoundland banks, has just been discovered in the Pacific off the coast of Russian Tartary. The fish are being imported into California, where they arrive in better condition than those from the coast. A flourishing trade will doubtless spring up.

At Muscatine, Iowa, recently, two hundred persons turned out and worked two days in digging potatoes for the benefit of the soldiers' families in that vicinity. The enterprise was directed by the women of the town, who had planted and "weeded" the crop in a twenty-acre "patch" given for the purpose.

The receipts at the Internal Revenue Bureau for October are fifty per cent. in excess of those for September, and include about one million of dollars as the tax on deposits and circulation of banks. The entire receipts since the Bureau went into operation are sixty-three millions, including nearly ten millions for the past month.

There is such a scarcity of labor on the sugar plantations in Louisiana, particularly in Plaquemine parish, that the planters estimate their prospective loss at not less than ten thousand hogsheads. In the meantime the people in several parts of the State of Connecticut are engaging in the culture of sorghum to a considerable extent and their labors thus far have been extremely successful.

Gen. Butler has been formally assigned to command the Department of East Virginia and North Carolina, General Foster reporting to Washington. It is impossible to say at this writing, whether or not there is any truth in the rumor that Foster will supersede Meade; it is generally supposed that the rumor is without the least foundation.

It is said that the prairie fires during the high winds of Saturday, October 17, did more damage in Kansas by burning fences, crops, and hay, than all the taxes levied in the state during the last year will amount to. The fences on the road between Big Spring and Lawrence are mostly destroyed. A large amount of corn in the fields, hay in the stacks, sheds, barns, etc., were burned up. Most of the farmers lost from $300 to $600.

The Rev. Mr. Bussey, of the Christian Commission, was taken prisoner while aiding the wounded in the late battles in Tennessee, and was delivered to Judge Terry, of the rebel army—the same Terry who shot Senator Broderick. On receiving the prisoner he exclaimed: "Here's a—Abolition preacher. Boys, hang him!" Mr. Bussey's name does not appear in the list of prisoners sent in by Bragg to the Provost Marshal, and it is feared the Judge has carried his brutal threat into effect.

AMERICAN AND ENGLISH WOMEN.—An English critic takes in ill part Mr. Hawthorne's comments on the personal appearance of English women. He ventilates his wrath in not over choice language:

"As to Mr. Hawthorne's criticism of English female beauty, it can only be accounted for by supposing that he has a deliberate preference for paleness of complexion, and scragginess of form.—Every man to his taste. It may be observed, however, that English girls of the highest type have a rosy flush which is quite as healthy yet more delicate than the milkmaid's—and an exquisite elegance of form which is as far removed from rustic plumpness as from the superb American scragginess delightful to Mr. Hawthorne's aesthetic eyes. We should not think of quarreling with a man though he preferred a skeleton to the Venus de Medici; but when Mr. Hawthorne, one of the most popular of contemporary Americans, goes out of his way to depreciate the loveliest race of women the world ever saw, a slight protest is requisite. Let him, by all means, admire the bony charmers of his native land, with complexions exquisitely pale as that of the well-boiled turnip, and ribs that tear your coat sleeve if you clasp them too roughly in the waltz; but let him not expect that Englishmen will be induced to join in the admiration."

Among the novelties of the age is a seedless apple. A tree has been found in Dutchess county, New York, bearing this fruit. There are no blossoms; the bud forms and, without any show of petals, the fruit sets and grows, entirely destitute of seeds. In outward appearance, the apple resembles Rhode Island Greenings.

Bishop Colenso, who has so disturbed the Church of England by his historical doubts, is described as "almost seven feet high, slender but well formed, remarkably erect and handsome, with clear cut features and eyes full of light."

On Sunday week a horse attached to a cart used in hauling hot cinders from Lucinda Furnace, near Norristown, was backed over an embankment on the cinders which had just been dumped, and was burned to death before he could be rescued.

He wanders like an uncertain shadow, never knowing what moment he may be prostrated, and therefore disinclined to give any serious attention to business. This is the condition of thousands in town and country. It is no exaggeration to say that Fever and Ague kills more people than any twenty other diseases in America. ## HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS.

A PURE AND POWERFUL TONIC, Corrective and alternative of wonderful efficacy in disease of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels. Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex, arising from bodily weakness whether inherent in the system or produced by special causes.

Nothing that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant, but it is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forearmed against disease, and so far as the human system can be protected by human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water and other external causes.

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS may be relied on as a safeguard. In districts infested with Fever and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventative and curative as a remedy, and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scourge; and thousands who neglect to avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being pined with quinine for months in vain, until fairly saturated with that dangerous alkaloid, are not unfrequently restored to health within a few days by the use of Hostetter's Bitters.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretory organs. Persons of feeble habit, liable to nervous attacks, lowness of spirits and loss of energy, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agency of Bilious Colic is immediately relieved by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented. As a general tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produces effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Deceitful arising from Old Age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases, it is a most delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is The Only Safe Stimulant, being manufactured from sound and inviolable materials, and entirely free from the acid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

No family medicine has been so universally, and so happily, truly added, deservedly popular with the intelligent portion of the community, as HOSTETTER'S BITTERS.

Prepared by HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburg, Pa.

Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and Storekeepers everywhere.
