HAVE THE DEAD RISEN!—An army correspondent of the Lancaster Inquirer, writing from Tennessee, gives the following item relative to an old but almost forgotten Lancasterian. He says: "By the way, I have lately heard of a whilom Lancasterian—Judge Hilllets, of Hickman, Ky. You perhaps do not recognize the name. It is not very familiar in your city, but the man who bears it is no less an individual than Geo. Ford, Esq., sometime since one of your leading practitioners in the law. He went to Hickman some years ago and entered into partnership with a German keeping a beer saloon. In course of time he and his partner had a quarrel and he went as transcribing clerk for a noted lawyer. After remaining there for some time he said he would commence to study law! He read for a few months, was admitted to practice, and gained his first case, although opposed by the best lawyers of the place. This astonished every one. They took a great fancy to him, and now he is Judge—Hilllets! He's a sound Union man, though for sometime suspected of secession proclivities.—When the rebels were at Hickman, they put him in irons for upholding the Union cause. There's romance for you!"

THE COUNTY OFFICERS.—The lately elected County officers, with the exception of the Treasurer and Commissioner, are now regularly installed in their places. There have been some changes in the Clerks'ships, and as an item of information we give a list of the personnel of the offices as now constituted: Sheriff—Frederick Smith; Deputies—S. W. Rowe, Henry K. Snyder. Register—Eugene Franklin; Deputies—John Johns, Luther Richards. Prothonotary—John Seldomridge; Deputies—G. Clarkson, William M. Sluymaker. Recorder—Samuel L. Leaman; Deputy—M. D. Hess. Clerk of Orphans' Court—John B. Baldwin; Deputy—C. L. Stoner. Clerk of Quarter Sessions—John Zellar.

THE COMMISSIONER, TREASURER, DIRECTORS OF THE POOR AND PRISON INSPECTORS, take their offices on and after the 1st of January next.—Lancaster Examiner.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—The annual meeting of the Lancaster County Teachers' Institute, commenced at Fulton Hall, on Monday, and continued during the week. The attendance of teachers was full. David Evans, Esq., County Superintendent, was elected President; S. W. Reigart and H. F. Pierce, Vice-Presidents; S. G. Boyd, H. A. Newpher, R. K. Boyer, Secretaries; and J. P. McCaskey, Treasurer.

Colonel James Belger, of the regular army, lately quartermaster at Baltimore, who was tried some time since by court martial, has been dishonorably dismissed the service.—This Belger we have heard a vast deal about. Our Marietta boatmen had dealings with him and some of them say he is one of the most unmitigated scoundrels in any way attached to the service.—Dismissal was by far too lenient a punishment for such a scamp.
