MARIETTA, PA:

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1863.

General Butler, in the department of Virginia and North Carolina, has issued an order for the enlistment of charge soluters and the care of their families it Hisroafter every able-bodied colored man who shall enlist in General Butler's department, shall be paid a bound's of ten dollars, and while he remains in the service his family shall be furnished subsistence, under the direcfairs. They are to be furnished with the same articles white soldiers are allowed, and to have the pay of ten dol lars per month, non-commissioned offiradi. He thinks Congress ought to increase the pay of colored troops to a uniform rate with white troops. Officers are forbidden to employ able bodied negroes as servants, as the "best use for him is to be a soldier." The recruitment of colored troops, says Gen. Butler has become the settled policy of the Government, and he declares it to be the duty of every officer and soldier to aid in carrying out this purpose by every proper means, irrespective of personal predilection:

The Government, who had not half a million of muskets in all the armories at the commencement of the rebellion, now has, in addition to the million and a half placed in the hands of the men of our armies, enough remaining to equip eight hundred thousand men. There are accoutrements enough for eighteen hundred thousand men. It is not likely that, as a nation, we shall ever hereafter be caught unprepared for war, for our present necessities have developed all the resources which are required to supply the materials of war.

The statement that Gen. Forey, orthe French Minister, was furnished hy the State Department with General Scott's military maps of Mexico, or other information, preparatory to the French invasion of that country, is erroneous. Neither General Forey nor the French Minister, nor any other person, was ever furnished, or, as far as is known, ever asked for such information.

A DAY OF JUBILEE,-January 1, 1864, should be observed by the friends of Emancipation as a day of jubilee. On that day, one year ago, Abraham Linbe honored to our latest posterity .--January 1st will be the first anniversary of this great decree. Thousands who are now blinded by party prejudice and ignorance will yet live to see the day when they will thank God for Abraham Lincoln and his charter of Freedom, dated January 1st, 1863. The true and faithful to freedom everywhere should meet on that day and ask God's blessing on Abraham Lincoln, and the cause of gether together in his name," there also will be the spirit of Him who is with the prince and the peasant, the monarch and the slave. We commend this to the consideration of all who recognize the hand of Providence in the conduct of our national affairs and the instrumentality of Abraham Lincoln in His hands, as evidenced by the success of the Union armies since the 1st of January, 1863. It is destined to become second, in our calender to July 4th, 1776, Lancaster Examiner.

Governor Bramlette, of Kentucky, who has just sent in his message to the Legislature of that State, evinces, contrary to the expectations of rebel sympathizers in the North, a gratifying degree of patriotism, and in one aspect goes even farther than some of the loyal Governors of the Middle States. urges a complete organization of the militia for home defence from guerillas and robbers, and adds, it is a source of gratification that the patriotism of the The following is an extract from people has met the efforts to place a sufficient force in the field for defence, and that we are now more secure and better guarded than at any time heretofore since the rebellion. Kentucky's Mann fully aware of the great anxiety position in reference to Federal relations is largely discussed. It is conto the life of the State or Nation, but that the Union is. This is a wide stride in advance, and is worthy of Kentucky.

The Richmond papers justify the withdrawal of the permission granted to us to feed our soldiers in their hands, upon the ground that it has subjected the rebel authorities to insult from "a nation of liars." The Examiner says the Union officers at the Libby intended to celebrate their captivity by a splendid dinner on the 8th inst., to which members of the rebel Government are invited. This is probably false, and an exaggeration of the fact that our soldiers wished to unite their rejoicings over getting something fit to eat from

From information recently received, there is reason to believe that the rebel Gen. Morgan has not been to Canada, but was secreted in Columbus, and is now probably on his way through Kentucky and Tennessee to the South. Doubtless some party has palmed himself off upon the Canadian public as the redoubtable Morgan for the purpose of throwing our authorities on the wrong ing contrabands from Virginia and other scent, and thereby enabling the guerer Border States, and that arrangements rilla chief to return to the Confederacy te this end have in several cases nearly without attempting the hazardous experiment of running the blockade.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

A PURE AND POWERFUL TONIC, Corrective and alternative of wonderful efficat cy in disease of the Stomach, Liver and Bow-els; cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Head-ache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depres-sion of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermitten-Fevers, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex, arising from bodily weakness whether inherent in the system or produced by special causes.

by special causes.

Nothing that is not wholesome, genial and restorative in its nature enters into the composition of Hastetter's Stomach Bitters. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element; no fi-ery excitant, but it is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

It is well to be forearmed against diseaso, and so far as the human system can be protected by human means against maladies engendered by an unwholesome atmosphere, impure water and other external causes, HOSTETTER'S BITTER'S may be relied on as a safeguard.

In districts infested with Fever and Ague, it has been found infallible as a preventative and irresistible as a remedy, and thousands who resort to it under apprehension of an attack, escape the scourge; and thousands who ne-glect ro avail themselves of its protective qualities in advance, are cured by a very brief course of this marvelous medicine. Fever and Ague patients, after being plied with quinine for months in vain, until fairly saturated with of Hostetter's Bitters.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated and the appetite restored by this agreeable tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia and in less confirmed forms of Indi-gestion. Acting as a gentle and painless apper-rient, as well as upon the liver, it also invari-ably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs. Persons of feeble habit, liable to ner-yous attacks, lowners of signific and 42 of lenvous attacks, lowness of spirits and fits of lanyour stracks, lowness of spirits and free of langour, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is most conclusive, and from both sexes.

The agony of Bilious Colic is immediately assuaged by a single dose of the stimulant, and by occasionally resorting to it, the return of the complaint may be prevented.

As a general tonic, Hosterten's Bittens As a general tonic, Hosterter's Birters produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay and Debility and Decrepitude arising from Old'Age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful in agorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them. Last, but not least, it is The Only Safe Stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the innocuois naterials, and entirely fice from the acid elements piesent more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

No family medicine has been so universally, and, it may be truly added, deservedly popular with the distributions.
