

F. L. Baker, Editor.

MARIETTA, PA.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 30, 1864.

Messrs. Hicks and Swann members of the Maryland legislature, spoke before that body on Friday last, as follows:

"Senator Hicks spoke very briefly, but found opportunity to declare himself in favor of prompt action by the State in reference to emancipation. 'There is, he declares, no practical benefit in temporizing over a subject which has already been disposed of virtually by current events.'

"Mr. Swann was more distinct and emphatic in his declaration. He declared immediate emancipation the only remedy; avowed the intention of himself and friends to push the steed of emancipation with whip and spur until every valley and every hill-top shall feel the tramp of his glorious mission, and the whole State of Maryland, from its centre to its circumference, shall be awakened to an edict of universal emancipation." These are good words, and if they be well supported by acts, as Mr. Swann said, "we are truly a united party."

In the House of Representatives a few days ago, Mr. Stevens, in reply to a fishy border State man, on a question affecting the states of those States striving to destroy the Union, made this strong point:

"If a State, as a State, make war, and become a belligerent Power, we can, when we conquer it, treat it as we would any other foreign nation, and this is not a question under but outside of the Constitution. By the laws of war the conqueror may seize and convert to his own use everything belonging to the enemy, and sell it to pay the expenses of the war and the damages occasioned by it. As the confederate States have voluntarily thrown themselves out of the provisions of the Constitution, and placed themselves under the law of nations, it is our duty to knock off every shackle from every limb. The cry for 'The Union as it was and the Constitution as it is' was but an attempt to perpetuate slavery. May the God of Justice paralyze all such efforts!"

The Supreme Court of this State, has reversed its decision on the constitutionality of the Conscription Act made when Lowrie, Woodward and Thompson were the majority on the Bench, and now affirms its constitutionality. This decision is owing to the displacement of Lowrie by Judge Agnew by the people at the last election. The Court now stands politically, two Republicans, one Democrat, and two Copperheads. The great sticklers for the constitutionality of everything calculated to save the country will be thrown somewhat back by this decision.

Hon. Eli Slifer, Secretary of the Commonwealth, and Hon. William M. Meredith, Attorney General, tendered their resignations to Gov. Curtin, last week, to relieve him of all embarrassment in selection of a Cabinet for his new administration. Governor Curtin promptly declined to receive them, and they will continue in their respective positions. So says the Chambersburg Repository.

Charlotte Berca, aged one hundred and twenty-five, died last week at Bellevue, Wisconsin. She was born near Green Bay, had gone through many of the early Indian wars, and in one desperate struggle had both of her ears cut off. Her life was a varied and checkered one, and her history, if truthfully written out, would be replete with the most thrilling interest.

It is said that Major White, the State Senator from the Indiana and Armstrong district, in the Rebel prison at Richmond, being refused an exchange, has resigned his seat, and that a new election will be held as soon as it is possible to accomplish it—twenty days' notice being necessary. Meantime legislation will be impossible.

An election took place on Friday in those portions of the old State of Virginia which are under the control of loyal citizens. The election was for delegates to the convention called to revise the Constitution of the State.

Mr. Wells (loverly, for a long time the popular proprietor of the Jones House, Harrisburg, died in that place on Sunday morning last, aged 46 years.

Charles A. Dana, of New York, has been nominated for Second Assistant Secretary of War.

The Legislature did not elect a State Treasurer on the 19th, no action being taken in the matter.

Counterfeit $20 Treasury Notes are in circulation in N. Y. city.

General News Items.

Gen. Joe Lane, U. S. Senator from Oregon up to the time of the rebellion, and candidate for Vice Presidency with Breckinridge, in 1860, was, at the last accounts, in British Columbia, engaged in the cattle business.

Louis Bible died week before last in Tippecanoe county, Indiana, at the age of one hundred and seven years. He was born in Virginia in 1768, and has sons over seventy years of age.

Mrs. Ellen Gallagher died in Oswego, on the 12th inst., at the age of one hundred and one years.

Intelligence is said to have been received at Washington to the effect that the Republican Legislatures of Maine, Illinois and Indiana, on the 22d instant, added their voice to the many which have preceded them, by nominating Mr. Lincoln for re-election.

The Comptroller of the Treasury announces that the First National Bank of Harrisburg has been organized and is ready to commence the business of banking under the act of Congress.

Most of the Continental postage stamps which were formerly illustrated with the likenesses of the rulers, have now the arms of the countries substituted instead of the heads, which are no longer of any value.

American oysters have been planted at Havre, France, they being considered superior to the native bivalve.

The Old Dominion newspaper says Jeff Davis colored steward and chambermaid have arrived at Fortress Monroe, having succeeded in escaping from the rebel chief.

A. R. McCown, of Ohio, on his way East, was robbed of $45,000 at the Orphan's Fair in Pittsburgh, a few days ago—the money having been extracted from the inside pocket of his dress coat, and consisting of sixteen $1000, eight $500, eighty $100 and forty $50 notes.

Col. William M. Stone, the new Governor of Iowa, was once a canal driver between Roscoe and Cleveland, Ohio, at three dollars a month.

Pekin, China, has the oldest newspaper in the world. It has been published for 1,000 years and is printed on a large sheet of silk.

Capt. Hugh Harkins, Third Regiment Pennsylvania Reserves, tried for conduct unbecoming an officer and gentleman in picking the pocket of a comrade, was found guilty and dismissed the service.

Private George Haffer, United States army, found guilty of desertion, is sentenced to forfeit pay and allowances, and to be imprisoned at hard labor for ten years, with a ball weighing twenty-four pounds attached to his leg by a chain four feet long.

Major French, commissioner of public buildings and grounds, recommends that the President's house be abandoned as a residence, on account of the bad condition of the basement.

A British soldier was flogged in a public square in Toronto recently with so much brutality that a physician interposed to save his life.

Henry Ward Beecher says "woman is nearer akin to angels than man is." That may be, but woman first got intimate with the Devil.

A contraband gave birth recently to a child on the plantation of Gov. Wise. A female teacher from Massachusetts, who was called to assist the mother, persuaded her to name the child John Brown Wise.

The Rev. Henry Ward Beecher has written a letter to the trustees of his church declining to receive the additional compensation of $5,000 voted to him at the annual meeting of the trustees.

A man who had both hands frozen during the cold snap in Chicago, put them into warm water, by which means they were rendered a mass of putrid flesh, and will probably have to be amputated.

Another terrible tragedy has been added to the many which have occurred in New York. The present was a double tragedy; for the murderer, after having killed his victim, blew out his own brains. The parties were young colored people, and the inciting cause was jealousy.

A man named John Farrell, his wife and two children, and a woman who was visiting the family, were burned to death in Buffalo on Monday night last. They were asleep in the dwelling when it took fire, and before assistance could be rendered the roof fell in and they were buried in the flames.

A coroner's jury in Louisville a few days since gave a verdict that Philip Medard "came to his death from starvation, exposure and general bad treatment at the hands of his son, Jacob Medard."

A brother of John Brown is about to be appointed superintendent of the contrabands in and about Washington.

QUEER GROUNDS FOR DIVORCE.—The following incident is related by a New York correspondent:—A fashionable couple up town, married, but not mated, as the story goes, quarreled a few mornings since, and the irate wife, by advice of her parents, has sued for a divorce. The case is only noteworthy from the ridiculous cause of the quarrel. One morning, it seems, the husband washed himself, as usual, in the bowl used by both; but the lady, for some reason, refused to use it that morning, and rang the bell for another. It was brought, when the now indignant husband flung it to the floor, breaking it to pieces. The wife thereupon called him hard names, when he locked the bedroom door and insisted that she should use the bowl. She vowed that she wouldn't, if she "went with a dirty face for a week." He then swore that she should; and so, filling a bowl, he seized her hands, and using sufficient force, washed her face for her. He then unlocked the door and went to his business, while she went to consult a lawyer, and the suit was commenced.

THE TEST OATH.—The Senate has discussed, day after day, the "test oath," which Mr. Bayard hesitates to take. Now, it is of very little consequence to the country whether that gentleman does take that oath, or whether he refuses to take it, and forfeits his seat. But the oath, as it now graces the statute book, is a strong barrier against the return to Washington of those now in rebellion, to play their game over again. As the oath now stands, every Congressman, before he takes his seat, must swear that he has never, by any act of his, committed an act of hostility to the Union, thus furnishing additional security that he will never violate his oath by acting falsely to his country or to his Government. It is establishing as a principle that any man who has borne arms against this Government, or yielded aid and comfort to this atrocious rebellion, is unworthy of a seat in Congress. The man who desires the return of these double-dyed traitors and refuses to take this oath, must hold queer ideas as to what loyalty to the country is.

DIFFICULTY AT ROME.—The Union says that the baptism of Prince Napoleon's son "is at this moment a great stumbling block to the church." The little prince was half baptized (ondoye) immediately after his birth; but it is almost without precedent that the full ceremony of baptism should be postponed longer than six months. The infant is now more than a year old; and the reason given for the extraordinary delay is that Prince Napoleon will have no other godfather for his son than the King of Italy, who is excommunicated. The Pope making a great point of holding to the excommunication in this case, no bishop in France can be found to fly openly to the face of the church; and Prince Napoleon, with equal firmness, declares that unless Victor Emanuel holds his infant over the font he shall not be baptized at all.

DEATH OF JAMES B. CLAY.—James B. Clay, of Kentucky, died in Montreal, Canada, on Tuesday last. He was a son of Henry Clay. He thoroughly sympathized with the rebel movement in the South, and since his flight to Canada has been actively engaged in concocting plots against our Government.

In 1849, President Taylor appointed him Charge d' Affaires to Lisbon. In 1851 he again took up his residence in Missouri, but returned to Kentucky in 1853, when he became the proprietor of the Clay estate at Ashland. In 1857 he was elected to Congress from his father's district in Kentucky. At the outbreak of the rebellion he struck hands with the conspirators against the Union, and subsequently fled to Canada.

NINE MONTHS MEN TO BE DRAFTED.—The U. S. Senate has so amended the Enrollment Act, that none but such as are in the service, or have been in the service two years, and have been honorably discharged, are exempted from the operations of the draft. This throws all those who served in the nine months' regiments, into the classes liable to draft. They still have one advantage over other men, and but one, that is they get a bounty of $402 if they enlist, while others get only $302. No doubt many of them will "go in." Those who were drafted and served in 1862 will also be liable to draft.

A COFFIN FOR JEFF. DAVIS.—The New York Evening Post of Saturday says that a refugee in that city, recently from Richmond, asserts that on Christmas morning, at an early hour, persons passing by the house of Jeff. Davis were surprised to see standing immediately in front of the door a coffin, with a rope significantly laid on the top of it. These articles were taken away as soon as they were discovered by the servants, but they were seen by many persons.

The Union League of the 24th Ward, Philadelphia, have issued an address, cordially endorsing the Administration of President Lincoln, and recommending his re-nomination. The vote in favor of Mr. Lincoln for a second term was unanimous.

John Ten Broeck is a member of the Ellsworth Regiment. He arrived in New York Saturday morning. At the battle of Fredericksburg Mr. T. had a narrow escape from a premature burial. He was stunned by a shell, and taken up for dead. He was accordingly laid in a trench with six others. He came to just as the dirt was about being shoveled into the grave. His escape from death forms one of the exciting incidents of the war.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
THE MANUFACTURERS OF THE TOILET are often exposed in consequence of the inefficiency of (so called) beautifying preparations; but all who use CRISTADORO'S EXCELSIOR Hair Dye know and feel that their secret is secure. No mortal eye can distinguish the blacks and browns produced by this dye from those imparted by the Creator. No destructive ingredient, nothing that can shiver up or in any way injure the hair, mingles with the preservative vegetable elements of this wonderful dye. Cristadoro's Hair Preservative, is invaluable with this dye, as it imparts the utmost softness and the most beautiful gloss and great vitality to the hair. Manufactured by J. CRISTADORO, No. 6 Astor House, New-York. Sold everywhere, and applied by all Hair Dressers. Price $1, $1.50, and $3 per box, according to size. [J-10.5]

Universal Clothes Wringer.

No. 1.—Large Family Wringer, $18.00
No. 2.—Medium, " 7.00
No. 3.—Small, " 6.00
No. 4.—Large Hotel Wringer, 14.00
No. 5.—Medium Laundry, (to run by) 18.00
No. 22.—Large Laundry, (to run by) 30.00
Nos. 21 and 22 have no Cogs—all others warranted.
No. 2 is the size generally used in private families.
Orange Judd, of the American Agriculturist, says of

The Universal Clothes Wringer: "A child can readily wring out a tubful of clothes in a few minutes. It is really a clothes wringer! A Time Saver! The saving of garments will alone pay a large per centage on its cost. We think the machine more than pays for itself every year in the saving of garments! There are several kinds, nearly alike in general construction, but we consider it important that the Wringer be fitted with Cogs, otherwise a mass of garments will tear the rollers, and the rollers upon the crank shaft slip and tear the clothes, or the rubber break loose from the shaft. Ours is one of the first make, and it is as good as new after nearly four years constant use."

Every Wringer with Cog Wheels is warranted in every particular.

No Wringer can be durable without Cog-wheels. A good Canvaser wanted in every town. On receipt of the price from publisher, no one is selling, we will send the Wringer free of expense.
